Dear Mr. Shearouse,

May this letter Please the Court. This letter Is Written In Response to the final Order of Dismissal of My Notice of Appeal Pertaining to Me Appealling the Conditional Order of the Denial of My P.C.R Application.

On June 11, 2012 the Court Dismissed My Notice of Appeal Without Prejudice Because An Order of An Conditional Order of Dismissal Is Not Appealable.

The Court Also Dismissed My Notice of Appeal Based On A Default Judgement Because I Waive My Right to Respond to the Conditional Order of Dismissal.

Sir, I Was Under the impression that I Didn't Have to Respond to the Conditional Order And By Me Doing So I Would Waive My Right to Appeal the Denial of My P.C.R application.

Sir, Due to My ignorance of the law I Wasn't fully Aware of What I Was Doing By Waiving My Right to Respond to the Order. And I Never thought this Would effect my Right to Appeal. I Would Have Never Waive this Right If I knew that Sir.

Do this Order I Recieved By the Supreme Court Means I loose All my Rights to Appeal the Denial of My P.C.R Application? Exactly what Rights Do I Have Now? And What Can I Do Now In this Situation? I Will truly Appreciate It If You Could give Me Any Information to Assist me please. Also Can You please Send Me a Copy of All the legal Documents I filed With the Court Pertaining to Appellate Case. 2012-212160 Thank You for Your time Sir. Will I Recieve A Copy of the Remittitur?
