FILED
HORRY COUNTY
2014 JUN -3 AM 11:23
JANE HUGGINS HARD
CLERK OF COURT

The court's order granting judgment to defendant Horry County State Bank (the Bank) was filed February 11, 2014. The court has reviewed the issues raised in defendant Jenrette's timely motion to reconsider the conclusions reached by the court in that order. As set forth below, the motion is denied.

Jenrette asserts six categories of "Errors in Findings of Fact", fourteen errors for "Failure to Make Findings of Fact Supported by the Evidence", ten "Errors in Conclusions of Law", and four errors concerning "Issues Raised at Trial, but not Ruled Upon". The court will summarily set forth its rulings on many of these points and will address others more fully.

A. "Errors in Findings of Fact" Asserted by Jenrette

1. Jenrette argues that the court erred in finding that the power of attorney (POA) gave Jenrette's son, Quickel, the authority to execute a note in Jenrette's name. The defendant is technically correct, but the gist of the finding was that the POA gave Quickel the authority to obtain a loan using the subject property, 104 Country Club Lane, as collateral.

2. Jenrette argues in this ground and in several other points in the motion that the court erred in finding that Jenrette was described in the mortgage as the "Mortgagor" and that she was referred to within the mortgage as "Borrower". This argument has no merit whatsoever, as the mortgage plainly provides "The Mortgagor Rosemary Long Jenrette will be referred to herein as 'Borrower'."

3. As to ground #3, Jenrette is correct, as the mortgage was initially recorded on May 4, 2009 and was re-recorded on May 5, 2009. The promissory note was executed by Quickel on May 1, 2009. The order is so amended.

4. Jenrette argues that the court erred in concluding that the assignment of insurance proceeds was binding upon her. Points (a) and (b) are denied. As to point (c), Jenrette seems to argue that the subject property is not among the real properties listed in the POA. Presumably, Jenrette's argument is that since the subject property is not so listed, Quickel had no authority to execute a mortgage encumbering the subject property, and that the mortgage has no binding effect insofar as insurance proceeds are concerned. This is the first time that Jenrette has advanced this argument, so the court will not consider it as framed. It is apparent that the entire foreclosure process was conducted and Jenrette never raised the issue that the subject property was not encumbered by the mortgage. Likewise, in this litigation, Jenrette has never raised the issue until now. Even so, it appears that the subject property was in fact described as Parcel I of II in the mortgage, bearing TMS number 123-00-02-069.

5. Jenrette is correct in her assertion that she was joined as a defendant in the foreclosure action as the record owner of the subject property and as a mortgagor. The order is so amended.

6. Jenrette is correct in her assertion that the Master's Order of Foreclosure and Sale was filed on April 26, 2011, not April 25, 2011. The order is so amended.

B. "Failure to Make Findings of Fact Supported by the Evidence" Asserted by Jenrette

Jenrette contends that the court failed to make fourteen findings of fact that were supported by the evidence. She is technically correct that the court failed to specifically make the findings she sets forth in her motion. However, these proposed findings, while perhaps true statements of fact, are of no real import to the court's ultimate decision. Therefore, the court respectfully rejects Jenrette's motion that the order be amended to include those findings of fact. Specifically with regard to paragraph 12 of this section of Jenrette's motion, the court notes that its conclusion that the assignment of insurance proceeds was binding upon Jenrette is based on the fact that the assignment was set forth in paragraph 3 of the mortgage.

C. "Errors in Conclusions of Law" Asserted by Jenrette

1. Jenrette again takes issue with the court's finding that Jenrette was the "Borrower" as that term is used in the mortgage. She again claims that since she borrowed no money from the Bank, she could not be a "Borrower". She cites case law stating that "a mortgage is a mere security for a debt", and that since there was no debt owed by her to the Bank, she is not the "Borrower" as set forth in the mortgage, and, therefore, the terms of the mortgage binding the "Borrower" do not bind her. This argument has no practical merit, as the mortgage signed by Quickel pursuant to the POA clearly contemplates that Jenrette is bound by the terms of the mortgage,

2. In paragraph 2 of this section of the motion, Jenrette again contends that Quickel did not execute any document under the POA obligating Jenrette to pay the indebtedness created by the note. That is certainly true, and the court has never concluded otherwise. Jenrette again contends that the POA makes no reference to an insurance policy or insurance proceeds. That is true, but the court has clearly concluded that the absence of such language in the POA is inconsequential. The POA authorized Quickel to obtain a loan using the subject property as security, and the instrument creating the security was the mortgage. The mortgage states that Jenrette is the "Mortgagor" and that she will be referred to in the mortgage as "Borrower". Paragraph 3 is binding on Jenrette as "Borrower". Jenrette further contends that the POA does not describe any of the properties referenced therein as "104 Country Club Drive". As noted above, Jenrette has never raised this argument in these proceedings or in the foreclosure proceedings. Even so, the court is satisfied that Parcel I described in the mortgage is the subject property. The remaining argument set forth in paragraph 2 is rejected.

3. The court respectfully rejects the arguments raised by Jenrette in paragraphs 3 – 10 of this section of Jenrette's motion.

D. "Issues Raised at Trial But not Ruled Upon" Asserted by Jenrette

The Court respectfully rejects the arguments raised in this portion of Jenrette's motion.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the motion is denied.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA COUNTY OF HORRY	)	IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT CIVIL ACTION NO. 2011-CP-26-9199

14 FEB 11 PM 2:08
MELANIE HUGGINS-WARD
CLERK OF COURT

This interpleader action was before the court for a bench trial on December 17, 2013. The defendant Rosemary Long Jenrette (hereinafter "Mrs. Jenrette" or "Jenrette") appeared and was represented by William W. DesChamps, Jr., Esq., and William W. DesChamps, III, Esq. The defendant Horry County State Bank (hereinafter referred to as "the Bank") appeared and was represented by Randall K. Mullins, Esq., and Jarrod E. Ownbey, Esq. The plaintiff (hereinafter referred to as "the Carrier") is represented by Forrest Truett Nettles, II, Esq. The carrier made no appearance at the trial, as it has deposited the disputed insurance proceeds into an escrow account pending further order of the court.

This is an interpleader action commenced by the Carrier as a result of competing claims made by Jenrette and the Bank for insurance proceeds in the amount of $105,000.00 deposited by the Carrier into an escrow account. Jenrette and the Bank timely answered the interpleader complaint and have cross-claimed against one another. Very simply, both defendants claim entitlement to the entire sum on deposit. Mrs. Jenrette seeks a declaratory judgment that she is solely entitled to the proceeds as the named insured under the policy issued by the Carrier to her. The Bank asserts that it has an equitable lien on the proceeds.

During the trial, both defendants offered numerous exhibits and the case was very ably tried by counsel. Certain rulings on evidentiary objections were taken under advisement and the court will now rule on these objections. First, the Bank offered its exhibit 17 into evidence, to which Jenrette objected. The objection is overruled. Jenrette also objected to the Bank's exhibit 18 (Hypothecation Agreement) on the basis that its contents are irrelevant, since it was not signed pursuant to the power of attorney (POA) executed by Jenrette in favor of her son, Michael Brooks Quickel (hereinafter referred to as Quickel). This objection is overruled, as the grant of authority in the POA permitted Quickel to execute this document (the POA is the Bank's exhibit 4 and granted Quickel the authority to procure a mortgage loan using Jenrette's real property as collateral and to execute and deliver all forms and documents necessary to effect the procurement of the loan). These rulings will hopefully be clarified to the reader upon review of the following Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

To the extent any Findings of Fact may be considered Conclusions of Law, they shall be considered the same, and vice versa.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On or about September 11, 2007, property known as 104 Country Club Drive (the "subject property") in Horry County was conveyed to Mrs. Jenrette. The subject property was essentially a one-acre residential lot and a dwelling situate thereon. Quickel, Mrs. Jenrette's son, moved into the dwelling on the subject property in December 2008. On March 9, 2009, Mrs. Jenrette insured the property against loss or damage for fire and other hazards through Bradham Insurance Agency, with the Carrier as the insurer. The policy included coverage for liability losses. Mrs. Jenrette obtained the coverage for her own benefit because her son had animals (horses and dogs) and four-wheelers on the property, and because some trees on the property had fallen. There was no mortgage or other encumbrance on the subject property when she obtained the policy.

2. Mrs. Jenrette renewed the policy for another year effective March 9, 2010. At all times, the policy contained a provision that "[t]his policy may not be assigned without [the Carrier's] written consent."

3. In the early months of 2009, Mrs. Jenrette's son, Quickel, sought to obtain a loan from the Bank to refinance existing debt and obtain business capital. On April 24, 2009 he signed a commitment letter individually and on behalf of Cajun Carolina, LLC (hereinafter referred to as "Cajun"). The commitment letter referenced that the collateral for the loan would be the subject property, four unimproved lots owned by Mrs. Jenrette, and two unimproved lots owned by Quickel.

4. On April 27, 2009, Mrs. Jenrette executed a POA giving Quickel the authority to use the aforesaid real property owned by her as collateral for the mortgage loan. The POA gave Quickel the authority to procure a loan, execute a note and mortgage in her name, approve a closing statement, execute any and all forms necessary to effect the foregoing, and execute and deliver all forms and documents necessary to complete the transaction. Nothing in the POA references obtaining hazard insurance on the subject property.

5. While the commitment letter did reference that the foregoing real property was the intended collateral for the mortgage loan, the commitment letter was signed prior to the effective date of the POA. Mr. Quickel could not have signed the commitment letter as attorney-in-fact for Mrs. Jenrette. However, as noted below, this is not dispositive.

6. On May 1, 2009, Quickel, as attorney-in-fact for Mrs. Jenrette under the foregoing POA, executed a mortgage recorded in the Horry County Registrar of Deeds office. The mortgage secured a loan for $350,000.00 made by the Bank to Cajun and included the subject property and the four unimproved lots owned by Mrs. Jenrette referenced above. The mortgagor was noted to be Mrs. Jenrette, and she was referred to within the mortgage as "Borrower". The mortgage was duly recorded in the public records of Horry County. On that same date, Quickel signed a promissory note in the same principal amount. Mrs. Jenrette was not a maker of the note and did not have any liability to the Bank under the note itself.

7. Paragraph 3 of the mortgage is entitled "Insurance". Paragraph 3A thereof provides in pertinent part:

> Borrower shall at its sole expense obtain for, deliver to, and maintain for the benefit of Lender, during the life of the Mortgage, insurance policies in such amounts as Lender may require, in no event less than the full insurable value, insuring the Property against fire and extended coverage and such other insurable hazards, casualties and contingencies as Lender may require .... The form of such policies shall contain a ... mortgage endorsement making losses payable to Lender. ....

8. This provision required Mrs. Jenrette to obtain, at a minimum, fire and extended insurance coverage on the subject property. It also required Mrs. Jenrette to obtain coverage against such other insurable hazards, casualties, and contingencies as the Bank might require. However, the Bank never required these "other" coverages. When the mortgage was executed and delivered, the fire and extended insurance coverage already existed, as noted above in paragraph 1.

9. Paragraph 3B of the mortgage provides in pertinent part that "Borrower hereby assigns to Lender all proceeds from any insurance policies, and Lender is hereby authorized ... to collect and receive the proceeds from any such policy or policies."

10. Paragraph 3B further provides that each insurance company is authorized to make payment for all losses directly to the Lender alone, and that Lender is authorized to apply the proceeds "to the payment of any sum secured by this Mortgage ...."

11. This assignment was binding upon Mrs. Jenrette, as it was contained in the mortgage the POA authorized Quickel to sign.

12. Quickel defaulted on the note, and the Bank commenced foreclosure proceedings on May 19, 2010, seeking judgment of foreclosure and sale of the real property providing security for the mortgage loan, including the subject property (Horry County Civil Action No. 2010-CP-26-04456). Cajun was the defendant in the foreclosure action as maker of the note. Quickel was joined as a defendant as owner of his two unimproved lots and by virtue of his personal guarantee of the payment of the loan. Jenrette was joined as a defendant as the record owner of the subject property and her other four lots.

13. On January 15, 2011, the dwelling on the subject property was destroyed by fire. The Bank became aware at some point during the foreclosure proceeding (but after the fire) that it had not been named as a loss payee on the subject policy. On April 18, 2011, a hearing for foreclosure and sale was held, and the Master-in-Equity issued an Order of Foreclosure and Sale which was filed April 25, 2011. Therein, the Master found that the bank had demanded a deficiency judgment against Cajun and Quickel and determined that if the sale did not yield a sum sufficient to satisfy all indebtedness to the Bank, judgment was to be rendered against Cajun and Quickel for any amounts outstanding. Of course, no such findings were made as to Mrs. Jenrette, as she was neither an obligor under the note nor a guarantor thereof.

14. The encumbered property, including the subject property, was sold at public auction on August 1, 2011, with the Bank being the successful bidder. The Master conveyed title to the Bank on September 2, 2011. On September 6, 2011, the Master's Report on Sale and Disbursements was filed, and an Order of Deficiency Judgment in the amount of $117,546.89 was entered against Cajun and Quickel. Pursuant to the Master's Report, a Release of Lien Mortgage Satisfaction was filed on September 8, 2011 in the office of the Register of Deeds for Horry County. This instrument released, cancelled, and satisfied the subject mortgage.

15. The Bank first maintains Mrs. Jenrette breached the terms of the mortgage by failing to obtain fire and extended casualty policy. The Bank further claims it has an equitable lien on the insurance proceeds under the terms of paragraphs 3A and 3B of the mortgage. Since the amount bid at the foreclosure sale was less than the balance of the mortgage debt, and since the deficiency is greater than the available insurance proceeds, the Bank claims it is entitled to the entire proceeds on deposit. Mrs. Jenrette claims that any obligations she had under the mortgage were determined and terminated when the mortgage satisfaction was recorded.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. I conclude that while the mortgage was satisfied and canceled when the foreclosure sale was finalized, the assignment in the mortgage survived the cancellation of the mortgage and binds Mrs. Jenrette.

2. Mrs. Jenrette was the "Borrower" as that term is defined in the mortgage. Paragraph 3A provides that the Borrower shall obtain for the sole benefit of the Lender and for the life of the mortgage, insurance policies in such amounts as the Lender may require, but in no event less than the full insurable value, insuring the property against fire, etc. Paragraph 3A further provides that the policy shall contain an "endorsement making losses payable to Lender." Paragraph 3B provides that "Borrower assigns to Lender all proceeds from any insurance policies" and that "Lender is authorized to collect and receive the proceeds from any such policies."

3. These provisions are enforceable against Mrs. Jenrette because her son, Mr. Quickel, signed the mortgage as her duly appointed attorney-in-fact, and the power of attorney states that "any act lawfully done hereunder shall be binding on me." In the power of attorney, she gave her son the power to execute a mortgage in her name. It makes no difference that the Bank's pre-loan dealings with Mr. Quickel were less than thorough with regard to setting forth any hazard insurance requirements in the commitment letter. It makes no difference that the commitment letter was not even signed by Mr. Quickel as attorney-in-fact for Mrs. Jenrette (the commitment letter was signed on April 24, 2009, three days before Mrs. Jenrette even signed the power of attorney). The provisions of paragraphs 3A and 3B of the mortgage are clear and these provisions control and are binding on Mrs. Jenrette, despite the Bank's sloppy pre-loan procedures. Mrs. Jenrette is the "Borrower" under the duly authorized and executed mortgage, and as Borrower, she made the assignment contained in paragraph 3B. Again, it makes no difference that the Bank failed to require in its pre-loan procedures that it be listed as a loss payee on the insurance policy, as the foregoing provisions of 3A and 3B require the procurement of insurance and provide for the assignment of the proceeds to the Bank.

4. The question now becomes whether the assignment survives the cancellation of the mortgage when the bank bid the property in at the foreclosure sale. If the assignment survives the sale, the next question would be whether equity should permit the proceeds to go to the Bank.

5. Mrs. Jenrette cites the case of Steinmeyer v. Steinmeyer, 64 S.C. 413, 42 S.E. 184 (1902) for the proposition that an insurance contract is a personal contract between the insurer and insured and does not run with the title to the land. This is a correct statement of the law; however, these personal rights can be assigned, and Mrs. Jenrette (through Mr. Quickel's execution of the mortgage under the authority of the power of attorney) indisputably assigned her personal rights under the insurance contract to the Lender in paragraph 3B. Indeed, in Freshwater v. Colonial Production Credit Association, 286 S.C. 387, 334 S.E. 2d 142 (Ct. App. 1985), our Court of Appeals observed that an "insurance policy is purely a personal contract between the insurer and the insured, and hence a mortgagee of insured property has no interest ... in a policy ... obtained by the mortgagor in his own name." 286 S.C. at 391. However, the Court further noted that if "the mortgagor covenants in the mortgage to keep the property insured as further security for payment of the debt, then the mortgagee is entitled to an equitable lien upon the insurance proceeds, even though the policy is in the name of the mortgagor alone." Id. at 891, citing Blackwell v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co., 237 S.C. 649, 118 S.E. 2d 701 (1961). In Blackwell, our Supreme Court recognized that it is well-settled that if a mortgagor is bound by a covenant in the mortgage to insure the mortgaged premises for the better security of the mortgagee, the mortgagee has an equitable lien on the money due on the policy taken out by the mortgagor, to the extent of the mortgagee's interest in the property damaged or destroyed. In the instant case, Mrs. Jenrette was obligated under paragraph 3A to insure the premises for the better security of the Bank.

6. The Restatement (Third) of Property, §4.8 addresses the question of how to proceed with payment of insurance proceeds when the mortgagee elects to purchase the property at the foreclosure sale. The Restatement concludes that the mortgagee may first proceed to foreclosure sale and if "the foreclosure sale does not yield the full amount of the mortgage obligation, the balance may be recovered under the insurance policy, up to its limits." In Jones v. Equicredit Corporation of South Carolina, 347 S.C. 535, 556 S.E. 2d 713 (Ct. App. 2001), the Court of Appeals concluded that when the foreclosure sale does not satisfy the mortgage indebtedness, the mortgagee is entitled to collect insurance proceeds if the unpaid amount of the mortgage is in excess of the insurance proceeds.

7. Even though the mortgage itself was canceled upon the finalization of the foreclosure process, case law from other jurisdictions supports the conclusion that the assignment survives the cancellation under the facts of this case. In Emmons v. Lake States

Insurance Company, 193 Mich. App. 460, 484 N.W. 2d 712 (1992), the insured property owner's home was partially destroyed by fire. There was a mortgage on the property and the mortgage included a provision assigning any insurance proceeds to the lender. Thereafter, the lender foreclosed on the property, bid the full amount of the outstanding indebtedness at the foreclosure sale, and received a deed to the property. The lender then made claim to the insurance proceeds. The owner maintained the lender had no right to the proceeds, arguing that the assignment clause in the mortgage did not survive the foreclosure. The Michigan Court of Appeals agreed with the owner under the facts of that case, but only because the lender purchased the property at the sale for an amount equal to the amount due on the mortgage. The Court stated that "[g]enerally, a mortgagee is not entitled to insurance proceeds when a loss occurs before a foreclosure sale in which the mortgagee purchases for a bid which extinguishes the mortgage debt." The Court noted that the assignment clause created an equitable assignment of a future right and that in equity, a present assignment of money having a potential existence but not yet due will operate on the fund as soon as it is acquired. The Court recognized that while the assignment survived the foreclosure, the debt did not, because the purchase price at the foreclosure sale was equal to the full amount of the debt. In other words, since there was no deficiency, the assignment secured nothing in the end. "The insurance was an alternative source of payment. Once the debt was paid by other means, any right to the insurance proceeds was extinguished." 484 N.W. 2d at 714.

8. In Certain Underwriters of Lloyds v. U.S. Industrial Services, LLC, 825 F. Supp. 2d 882 (E.D. Michigan 2011), the U.S. District Court noted the holding in Emmons and recognized the rule espoused therein did not apply when the purchase price at the foreclosure sale is less than the mortgage debt. In that case, the facts surrounding the foreclosure sale and hazard loss are not analogous to the facts in the instant case; however, the Court determined that the key holding in Emmons was that "the assignment in the mortgage of the insurance proceeds amounted to collateral security for the debt, and that the assignment transcended the foreclosure sale." 825 F. Supp. at 890. The Court further noted that the "concern animating the holding in Emmons" was that the mortgagee would receive a double recovery if it received insurance proceeds after a full-debt bid at the foreclosure sale. The District Court further noted that this concern was absent in that case, as the foreclosure bid was $65,811.82 less than the balance of the mortgage debt. The Court held that because the foreclosure sale did not provide full satisfaction of the debt, the assignment in the mortgage survived the sale and the lender therefore had a right to the insurance proceeds. 825 F. Supp. at 891. See also State Farm Life Ins. Co. v. P.M.C., Slip Copy 2013 W.L. 4009031 (U. S. District Court, Eastern District of Michigan) for the same proposition. These decisions are in accord with our Court of Appeals' conclusion in Jones v. Equicredit, supra.

9. The rule espoused in Emmons is known as the full credit bid rule and has been applied in many other appellate cases. See for example Whitestone S & L Ass'n. v. Allstate, 28 N.Y. 2d 332, 270 N.E. 2d 694 (1971); Smith v. Gen. Mortgage Corp., 402 Mich. 125, 261 N.W. 2d 710 (1978); Nationwide v. Wilborn, 291 Ala. 193, 279 So. 2d 460 (1973); Allstate v. James, 779 F.2d 1536 (11th Circuit 1986); Helmer v. Texas Farmers Insurance Co., 632 S.W. 2d 194 (Tex. App. 1982). The rule is consistent with how our appellate courts have addressed the payment of insurance proceeds to mortgagees such as the Bank.

10. The policy provision referenced in paragraph 2 of the Findings of Fact prohibiting an assignment of the policy without the Carrier's written consent is of no import. It is not the policy itself that is being assigned to the Bank, but rather the proceeds paid under the policy that Mrs. Jenrette assigned. This prohibition against assignments would be pertinent to situations in which Mrs. Jenrette perhaps sold the property and assigned her status as insured to the purchaser.

11. The troubling aspect of the instant facts is that Mrs. Jenrette was not the obligor under the note and no deficiency judgment was obtained against her. However, paragraphs 3A and 3B of the mortgage stand on their own, and the assignment is valid, regardless of whether Mrs. Jenrette was obligated under the note. The purpose of the assignment was, in my view, to provide additional security for the mortgage debt. The evidence establishes that the insurance is in the amount of $105,000.00. The Bank's recovery of insurance proceeds is the amount of the mortgage debt less the amount the Bank bid at the foreclosure sale. The winning bid at the foreclosure sale was in an amount less than the balance due on the mortgage debt; therefore the Bank has an equitable lien on the insurance proceeds. Since the difference between the bid and the balance of the mortgage debt is greater than the insurance proceeds on deposit, the Bank is entitled to all of the proceeds.

12. In South Carolina, for an equitable lien to arise, there must be a debt, specific property to which the debt attaches, and an expressed or implied intent that the property serve as security for payment of the debt. See First Federal Savings and Loan Ass'n v. Finn, 300 S.C. 228, 387 S.E. 2d 253 (1989). In the instant case, there was a mortgage debt, specific property (the insurance proceeds) to which the debt attached under paragraph 3B of the mortgage, and an expressed intent that the proceeds serve as additional security for payment of the mortgage debt. As held in Freshwater and Blackwell, supra, if a mortgagor is bound by a covenant in the mortgage to insure the mortgaged premises for the better security of the mortgagee, the mortgagee has an equitable lien on the money due on the policy taken out by the mortgagor, to the extent of the mortgagee's interest in the property damaged or destroyed.

13. Mrs. Jenrette claims that the provisions of S.C. Code Section 29-3-660 specifically limit a deficiency judgment to those mortgagors who are personally liable for the debt secured by the mortgage. Reliance upon that statute is misplaced, as the Bank is not seeking a deficiency judgment against Mrs. Jenrette. It claims an equitable lien on insurance proceeds to which Mrs. Jenrette would otherwise be entitled.

14. The Bank confirmed at the trial that if it prevailed, it must apply the proceeds it receives to the deficiency judgment it has against Cajun and Quickel. While this is a hollow result as to Mrs. Jenrette, the Bank must so apply the insurance proceeds. The court makes no ruling as to whether Mrs. Jenrette may have a claim against Quickel under any theory of recovery, including but not limited to, a claim for equitable indemnity.

CONCLUSION

Based upon the foregoing findings of fact and conclusions of law, it is ORDERED that the holder of the insurance proceeds pay the entire sum on deposit to

Horry County State Bank, up to the sum of $117,546.89, and that upon payment of the said sum, that Horry County State Bank file with the Horry County Clerk of Court an acknowledgement and receipt that it has received the sums on deposit and that upon the filing of the acknowledgement and receipt, the Clerk may enter a dismissal of this action, with prejudice. It is further Ordered that Horry County State Bank apply the sums received hereunder to the deficiency judgment obtained against Michael Brooks Quickel and Cajun Carolina, LLC in Civil Action No. 2010-CP-26-04456, and that a partial satisfaction of judgment be entered by Horry County State Bank evidencing such payment.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

This is an Interpleader action filed by the Plaintiff, National Security Fire and Casualty Company concerning the proceeds of a policy of fire insurance resulting from a fire loss occurring on real property owned by the Defendant Jenrette and pledged by the Defendant Jenrette to the Defendant Horry County State Bank to secure a loan given to the Defendant Jenrette's son. Both Defendants made a claim for the proceeds of the insurance policy and, as a result, the Plaintiff deposited the sum of One Hundred Five Thousand and 00/100ths Dollars ($105,000.00) with the Clerk of Court for Horry County. The Defendant Horry County State Bank moved for summary judgment on May 16, 2012, which was granted by Order of the Honorable Larry B. Hyman, Jr. on October 4, 2012. Thereafter, the Defendant Jenrette filed a Motion for Reconsideration which was ultimately granted by Judge Hyman on January 23, 2013. On June 3, 2013, the Defendant Jenrette moved for summary judgment, which is now the issue before this Court.

The Court believes that a brief review of the underlying facts is appropriate and helpful to the analysis of the issue before the Court. On May 1, 2009, a loan closing occurred whereby the Defendant Horry County State Bank loaned Michael Brooks Quickel, the Defendant Jenrette's son, the sum of Three hundred Fifty Thousand and 00/100ths Dollars ($350,000.00). In order to secure the repayment of the loan, Mr. Quickel executed a mortgage encumbering two unimproved lots owned by Mr. Quickel. Additionally, further securing the loan was a mortgage executed on behalf of the Defendant Jenrette, pursuant to a valid Power of Attorney in favor of Mr. Quickel, in the Defendant Jenrette's name encumbering four unimproved lots and one lot which contained a residence, in which Mr. Quickel lived, owned by the Defendant Jenrette. It is uncontroverted that the mortgage executed on behalf of the Defendant Jenrette contained a covenant that the Defendant Jenrette would purchase and maintain a policy of insurance, for the benefit of the Defendant Horry County State Bank, insuring the structure against fire loss and other casualty at the Defendant Jenrette's expense. Additionally, the Defendant Jenrette assigned her right to any proceeds from any insurance policies affecting the property to the Defendant Horry County State Bank.

Subsequently, Mr. Quickel and his company, Cajun Carolina, LLC, defaulted on their obligations to the Defendant Horry County State Bank, and a foreclosure action was instituted, naming the Defendant Jenrette, among others, as a party to the lawsuit. During the pendency of the foreclosure action, prior to the foreclosure hearing, the structure was destroyed by fire.

Relative to the foreclosure hearing, a meeting between the Defendant Horry County State Bank, the Defendant Jenrette and their respective attorneys occurred. While the parties' testimony conflicts as to what the end result of the meeting was, it is uncontroverted that the foreclosure hearing was held as scheduled without the Plaintiff insurer being added as a party to the action. The Defendant Horry County State Bank contends that the Defendant Jenrette had agreed to apply the proceeds from the insurance policy to the debt as required by the Mortgage document, and would pursue the viability of the Defendant Jenrette purchasing the Promissory Note from the Defendant Horry County State Bank and that the Defendant bank would withhold the property from public auction until the June 2011 Master in Equity's Sale. The Defendant Jenrette suggests that there was no agreement concerning the application of the funds due to the Defendant Horry County State Bank denying her application for financing due to an open line of credit the Defendant Jenrette held jointly with her husband and for failing to discount the debt owed under the Promissory Note.

The real property was offered for sale at the August 2011 Master's Sale and was re-offered at the August Deficiency Sale, at which the Defendant Horry County State Bank was the winning bidder. The sale resulted in a deficiency judgment against Mr. Quickel and his entity, Cajun Carolina, LLC of One Hundred Seventeen Thousand Five Hundred Forty Six and 89/100ths Dollars ($117,546.89). After the sale, and incidental to the foreclosure action, the Master in Equity executed a Release of Lien satisfying the Mortgage encumbering the property at issue here on September 2, 2011 and filed in the Office of the Register of Deeds on September 8, 2011. Due to the dispute between the parties concerning the disposition of the proceeds of the insurance policy, the Plaintiff instituted this action on November 3, 2011 and deposited the disputed funds with the Clerk of Court on December 14, 2011.

After hearing the arguments of counsel, and reviewing the pleadings, the depositions and affidavits previously filed in this matter as well as the memoranda and other evidence presented in this action, I make the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. I find and conclude that this Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action; that the parties have submitted to the jurisdiction of this Court; and that venue is proper in Horry County, South Carolina.
2. I find and conclude that all parties had notice of the hearing and were present at the hearing.
3. I find and conclude that the Defendant Jenrette executed a Specific Power of Attorney on April 27, 2009, whereby the Defendant Jenrette authorized her agent, Michael Brooks Quickel to execute all forms and documents required by the Defendant Horry County State Bank, or necessary to effectuate the procurement of a loan from the Defendant Horry County State Bank, pertaining to the real property in dispute in this action.
4. I find and conclude that Mr. Quickel, pursuant to the Specific Power of Attorney, executed a Mortgage of Real Estate in the name of the Defendant Jenrette, in which the Defendant Jenrette was identified as "Borrower", which was filed in the Office of the Register of Deeds for Horry County in Mortgage Book 5166 at Page 3100.
5. I find and conclude that the Mortgage of Real Estate contains a provision requiring the Defendant Jenrette to maintain casualty insurance naming the Defendant Horry County State Bank, as lender, as a loss payee/ mortgagee on the insurance policy.

6. I further find and conclude that the Mortgage of Real Estate contains a provision that assigns any rights that the Defendant Jenrette has in the insurance proceeds to the Defendant Horry County State Bank.

7. I find and conclude that while the Defendant Jenrette was a Mortgagor of the property, she was not a Maker of the Note and was not a Guarantor on the Promissory Note.

8. I find and conclude that the Defendant Horry County State brought an action for the foreclosure of the Promissory Note and Mortgages naming the Defendant Jenrette, Mr. Quickel and Mr. Quickel's company, Cajun Carolina, LLC as parties thereto.

9. I find and conclude that during the pendency of the foreclosure action, the structure located on the subject property was lost to fire damage and was adjusted as a complete loss.

10. I find and conclude that prior to the foreclosure hearing previously scheduled concerning the loan given to Mr. Quickel, and for which the real property was pledged as collateral, a meeting occurred between the Defendant Jenrette and the Defendant Horry County State Bank and their counsel. I further find that the testimony contained in the affidavits submitted by both Defendants are contradictory in their recollection of the consensus reached at the meeting. I further find that this is a material fact in controversy as the Defendant Horry County State Bank has plead for relief under the theory of equitable estoppel relating to the promise by the Defendant Jenrette to apply the proceeds of the insurance policy to the unsatisfied debt owed to the Defendant Horry County State Bank.

11. I find and conclude that subsequently, the Defendant Horry County State Bank concluded their foreclosure action resulting in a deficiency judgment being entered against Mr. Quickel and the corporate entity, Cajun Carolina, LLC. That I further find and conclude that the Defendant Horry County State Bank made a successful credit bid relating to the property at the public auction.

12. I find and conclude that both Defendants made a claim for the proceeds of the insurance policy, and that as a result of the competing claims against the proceeds, the Plaintiff instituted this interpleader action.

13. I find and conclude that summary judgment is only proper, when there is no genuine issue of material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Rule 56 (c), SCRCP. "In determining whether any triable issues of fact exist, the evidence and all inferences which can be reasonably drawn from the evidence must be viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party." Rakestraw v. S.C. Dep't. Hwys. & Public Trans., 323 S.C. 227, 473 S.E.2d 890 (Ct. App. 1996) citing to Koester v. Carolina Rental Ctr., Inc., 313 S.C. 490, 443 S.E.2d 392 (1994). "Even when there is no dispute as to evidentiary facts, but only as to the conclusions or inferences to be drawn from them, summary judgment should be denied." Id.

14. I find and conclude that genuine issues of material fact do exist which would preclude summary judgment. I further find and conclude that the Court would benefit from a full investigation into this matter and the claim should be fully adjudicated on the merits.

15. In the case at bar, the Defendant Jenrette argues that due to the satisfaction of the mortgage by the Master in Equity, incident to the sale of the property at public auction, that the obligations and promises by the Defendant Jenrette cease and are cancelled of record. The Defendant Jenrette further argues that the principle espoused in Steinmeyer v. Steinmeyer, 64 S.C. 413, 42 S.E. 184 (1902), holding that an insurance contract is a personal contract between the insurer and the insured, bars the Defendant Horry County State Bank from any entitlement to the proceeds of the insurance policy.

16. The Defendant Horry County State Bank contends that § 29-3-780, S.C. Code Ann. (2007) requires the mortgage to be satisfied of record and that due to the mandatory nature of the statute and that the statute clearly and unambiguously allows the obligations contained in the mortgage to remain in full force and effect, at least to the extent of the debt secured by the mortgage. The Defendant Horry County State Bank further argues that the Steinmeyer case is factually distinguishable from the instant case and instead, points to the cases of Blackwell v. State Farm Mutual, 237 S.C. 649, 118 S.E.2d 701 (1961); Freshwater v. Colonial Production Credit Association, 286 S.C. 387, 334 S.E.2d 142 (1985); Lewis v. Aynor Farm Center, 290 S.C. 167, 348 S.E.2d 537 (Ct. App. 1986); and Jones v. Equicredit Corporation, 347 S.C. 535, 556 S.E.2d 713 (Ct. App. 2001) for the proposition that when insurance is required by the lender for its benefit and the mortgagor fails to name the mortgagee as a loss payee on the insurance policy, an equitable lien is established in favor of the mortgagee, even when the policy is in the name of the mortgagor alone.

17. I further find that after a review of the cases cited by the Defendant Horry County State Bank, that none of the cases are offensive to the Steinmeyer case in reaching the ultimate conclusions of the existence of an equitable lien in favor of the Mortgagee.

18. I find and conclude that the facts of this case can be distinguished from the facts in the Steinmeyer case cited by the Defendant Jenrette. I find that in the Steinmeyer case, there was no agreement between the judgment creditors and the grantee of the real property to provide insurance for the benefit of the judgment creditors, whereas in the instant action, there was such an agreement to provide insurance for the benefit of the Defendant Horry County State Bank. I further find that in Steinmeyer, the Plaintiffs were judgment creditors arising from a dispute over the misappropriation of assets of a probate estate, whereas here, the Defendant Jenrette was a mortgagor of real property given to the Defendant Horry County State Bank as collateral for a loan given to the Defendant Jenrette's son. Based upon the factual distinctions between the Steinmeyer case and the instant case, I find that there are substantive differences between the cases which hinders its application to this case.

19. I find and conclude that the Defendant Horry County State Bank's claim to the proceeds is based in part upon the equitable maxim of "equity regards as done that which ought to have been done." It is uncontroverted that the loan terms required Horry County State Bank to be named as a loss payee on the policy obtained by the Defendant Jenrette. Likewise it is also uncontroverted that the Defendant Jenrette and the Defendant Horry County State were the only entities with an insurable interest in the real property and as such Mr. Quickel could not have performed that portion of the requirements for the loan. Therefore, logic dictates that this responsibility falls to the Defendant Jenrette. Had the Defendant Jenrette placed the endorsement to the policy as required by the loan, this action would not have arisen. Therefore, a prima facie case for an equitable lien has been made and should be decided at trial. Regions Bank v. Wingard Properties, Inc., 394 S.C. 241, 715 S.E.2d 348 (Ct. App. 2011).

20. I find and conclude that based upon the discrepancies between the testimony contained in the affidavits produced by the Defendants, a genuine issue of material fact exists relating to whether an agreement was reached by the parties prior to the foreclosure hearing.

21. I further find and conclude that there are genuine issues of material fact as shown by the Defendant Jenrette's deposition, where she admitted that she obtained the insurance policy to protect not only herself, but the bank as well. (See Deposition of Rosemary Long Jenrette p. 70, lines 1-5, as filed with this Court.)

22. I find and conclude in applying the standard of review for summary judgment and viewing the facts and evidence presented in this case and resolving all contested issues and inferences drawn therefrom in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, it is appropriate that the Defendant Jenrette's Motion for Summary Judgment be denied and that the Defendant Jenrette is not entitled to judgment as a matter of law.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Defendant Jenrette's Motion for Summary Judgment is denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

JEANNE HUGGINS WARD
CLERK OF COURT

William W. DesChamps, Jr., Esquire, on behalf the moving Defendant Rosemary Jenrette a/k/a Rosemary Long Jenrette "Jenrette" and Jarrod E. Ownbey, Esquire on behalf of the responding Defendant Horry County State Bank "Bank", appeared before me on January 23, 2013, on Jenrette's Motion to Reconsider this Court's prior order granting Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment. The Plaintiff, National Security Fire & Casualty Company "Casualty Company", and its counsel F. Truett Nettles, II, Esquire were not present nor participating in either the prior Motion for Summary Judgment nor the subsequent Motion to Reconsider said summary judgment.

Counsel for Jenrette timely filed and served his Motion to Reconsider the Court's Prior Order subsequent to the hearing before me on September 18, 2012, when this Court granted Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment. Jenrette requested this Court to reconsider its prior Order pursuant to Rule 59(e) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure to amend the Order on the following grounds:

1. The prior Order incorrectly found that Jenrette breached the mortgage contract with the Bank; and

2. The prior Order made an incorrect conclusion of law with respect to the Court's finding of an equitable lien.

After careful review of the record before me, the Affidavit of Robert W. Smith in Support of Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment "Smith Affidavit" and the Affidavit of Rosemary Jenrette a/k/a Rosemary Long Jenrette in Opposition to Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment "Jenrette Affidavit", the applicable case law, and arguments of counsel, I make the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

1. The Prior Order of this Court Incorrectly Found that Jenrette Breached the Mortgage Contract with the Bank.

The parties to the prior foreclosure proceedings, Civil Action No.: 2010-CP-26-04456 were as follows:

1. The Bank as lender;
2. Cajun Carolina, LLC, "Cajun Carolina" as the maker of the promissory note in favor of lender;
3. Michael Brooks Quickel "Quickel" as guarantor of the Bank indebtedness and as mortgagor of real property owned by Quickel and pledged to Bank as security for payment of the Bank indebtedness; and
4. Jenrette as owner of additional property pledged to Bank as security for payment of the Bank indebtedness.

Jenrette was joined as a defendant in the prior foreclosure proceedings solely because she was record title holder for a portion of the real property being foreclosed. Jenrette was not obligated either on the promissory note evidencing the underlying indebtedness or any guaranty of the promissory note guaranteeing the payment and/or the collection of the promissory note indebtedness. Therefore, the Bank did not request nor would it have been able to obtain a personal or deficiency judgment against Jenrette because she had no personal obligation for the payment of the indebtedness which was the subject of the foreclosure proceeding. The obligation for the payment of said indebtedness was that of the maker of the promissory note "Cajun Carolina", and its principal "Quickel" who guaranteed the payment.

As the fee title holder, Jenrette, for her own benefit, procured, at her expense, a policy of hazard and casualty insurance "insurance policy" from Casualty Company. Because Jenrette procured the insurance policy for her own benefit, and paid all premiums thereon, she was the only listed insured or lost payee of the insurance policy. At no time did the Bank make any notification, request, or demand to Jenrette to maintain a hazard or casualty insurance policy on the real property that was owned by her which was subsequently pledged as additional collateral for the Bank indebtedness.

As the Bank made no demand on Jenrette for placement of a casualty policy on the real property pledged by Jenrette as part of security for payment of the Cajun Carolina indebtedness, any such claim by the Bank of any obligation on the part of Jenrette to place casualty insurance for benefit of the Bank must, of necessity, arise from the mortgage instrument itself. Said mortgage was executed and delivered to the Bank on May 1, 2009. As a result of the default by Cajun Carolina under its obligations with the Bank, the Bank on May 19, 2010, filed foreclosure proceedings foreclosing the mortgages including the mortgage of real property pledged by Jenrette.

During the pendency of the foreclosure proceeding, the insurance policy issued by Casualty Company on behalf of and for the benefit of Jenrette was terminated as a result of the casualty by fire which occurred on January 15, 2011. Prior to the time of the final foreclosure hearing, the Bank obtained knowledge of the fire loss on Jenrette's property, existence of the insurance proceeds, and that Jenrette's insurance policy did not name it as an additional insured or loss payee.

A final hearing of Foreclosure and Sale in the referenced foreclosure proceedings held by the Master in Equity for Horry County on April 18, 2011 resulted in the Master in Equity's Order of Foreclosure and Sale dated April 22, 2011, constituting judgment roll number 2010-CP-26-04456 filed April 26, 2011. The Master's Order was issued after the Bank obtained knowledge of the insurance proceeds payable to Jenrette under the policy. Said Order awarded joint and several judgment against Cajun Carolina and Quickel for the mortgage debt with deficiency being demanded against Cajun Carolina and Quickel in the event the sale of the real estate did not yield a sum sufficient to satisfy the indebtedness due to the Bank.

No findings were made as to the Defendant Jenrette in the Master's Order, other than the Bank was entitled to have the real property pledged by Jenrette as security for the Bank indebtedness sold pursuant to judicial sale. No findings were made as to any other obligations or responsibilities of Jenrette to the Bank which might have been enumerated in the mortgage document itself. A judgment issued by a Court constitutes a final determination of the rights of the parties in a specific proceeding. Moore v. Holland, 16 S.C. 15, 27 (1881). "The courts can enforce legal contracts of parties, as made, up to the time of the judgment, but, when the judgment is pronounced, the rights of the parties are determined up to that moment, and then the judgment must be enforced according to the law applicable to judgments." Id. at 28. The judgment evidenced by the Master's Order is final with no party having moved to reconsider or appeal said order. The Master's Order constitutes a final determination of Jenrette's obligations under the terms of the subject mortgage and does not render Jenrette liable for the indebtedness owed by the debtor under the promissory note and by the guarantor under the guaranty.

Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 29-3-780, upon the judicial sale of a property under a decree of foreclosure, the officer of the court making such sale shall record a release, cancellation, and satisfaction of the mortgage lien. Pursuant to such statute, the Honorable Cynthia Graham Howe, Master in Equity for Horry County, on September 2, 2011, signed a Release of Lien Mortgage Satisfaction ("Satisfaction") thereby releasing, cancelling, satisfying the mortgage instrument signed by Jenrette with said Satisfaction recorded in the Horry County Register of Deeds Office on September 8, 2011 in Mortgage Book 5345 at Page 1825.

All obligations of Jenrette pursuant to the terms of the subject mortgage were released, cancelled, and satisfied upon the filing of the Satisfaction as she was not obligated for the mortgage debt pursuant to the Master's Order. All obligations of Jenrette pursuant to the terms of the subject mortgage were released, cancelled, and satisfied upon the filing of the Satisfaction.

Therefore, the Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment based upon Jenrette breaching the mortgage contract with the Bank should have been denied by this Court because the rights and obligations of Jenrette and the Bank with respect to one another were determined under the Master's Order and were terminated upon the filing of the Satisfaction.

2. The Prior Order of this Court Made an Incorrect Conclusion of Law with Respect to This Court's Finding of an Equitable Lien.

The Prior Order of this Court Granting the Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment incorrectly concluded that the Bank possesses an equitable lien in the amount of the outstanding deficiency because there was a covenant in the mortgage to keep the property insured as further security for the payment of the mortgage debt. In the Prior Order of this Court Granting

Summary Judgment this Court cited legal precedent that was applied in actions involving insurance policies issued to debtors who were obligated and liable to the mortgagees for the outstanding indebtedness. Those cases do not involve an action such as the case at bar where the insured under the policy is the mortgagor under a satisfied mortgage, and is not a debtor who is liable for the mortgage debt. "If the creditors have a lien by mortgage, judgment, or execution, they can insure their own interest, but they can have no right to attach insurance money due to anyone but their own debtor." Steinmeyer v. Steinmeyer, 64 S.C. 413, 421, 42 S.E. 184, 186 (1902). "A contract of fire insurance is a personal contract between the insurer and the insured, by which the former undertakes to indemnify the latter for the loss he sustains by fire. Being a personal contract, it does not run with the buildings said to be insured, is not an incident to the thing insured." Id. at 420, 42 S.E. at 186. An insurance contract "is a personal contract and does not run with the title to the property." Id. at 422, 42 S.E. at 186. In Steinmeyer, the judgment debtor conveyed a parcel of property to Steinmeyer who, thereafter, obtained an insurance policy insuring the premises in her own name and interest. Id. at 416, 42 S.E. at 184. The creditors of the judgment debtor commenced an action to set aside the conveyance to Steinmeyer on the grounds of fraud which resulted in a decree subjecting the property to the payment of the judgment. Id. Thereafter, the property conveyed to Steinmeyer was sold under a Court order, and the sale proceeds applied to the judgment in favor of the judgment creditors with the sales proceeds being insufficient to satisfy the judgment. Id. The South Carolina Supreme Court found that the insured was entitled to the insurance proceeds and that the proceeds cannot be taken by the creditors for the debt even though the property itself could be taken. Id. at 422, 42 S.E. at 187.

In the present case, like Steinmeyer, the insurance policy at issue was issued to the insured for the insured's benefit, and the insured was not liable for the outstanding indebtedness remaining unsatisfied after the judicial sale of the insured property. Therefore, the Bank is not entitled to an equitable lien on the insurance proceeds.

Therefore, the Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment based upon the finding of an equitable lien should have been denied by this Court due to the fact that the Bank was not entitled to an equitable lien on the insurance proceeds as the insured was not liable for the outstanding indebtedness remaining unsatisfied after the judicial sale of the insured property.

In conclusion, as this Court incorrectly found that Jenrette breached the mortgage contract with the Bank and this Court made an incorrect conclusion of law in finding an equitable lien, this Court grants Jenrette's Motion for Reconsideration and finds that summary judgment in favor of the Bank should not have been granted.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

This matter was before the Court on Motion for Summary Judgment filed May 16, 2012 by counsel for the Defendant Horry County State Bank. After receiving argument from counsel for the Defendant Horry County State Bank and the Defendant Rosemary Jenrette a/k/a Rosemary Long Jenrette, reviewing the pleadings of record, Defendant Horry County State Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment, Defendant Jenrette's Reply to Motion for Summary Judgment, Affidavits of the parties and the applicable case law, the Court makes the following Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

BACKGROUND FACTS

This is an interpleader action filed by the Plaintiff, National Security Fire and Casualty Company as a result of competing claims made by the Defendants Horry County State Bank and Rosemary Jenrette a/k/a Rosemary Long Jenrette for the proceeds of an insurance policy insuring the insured real property located at 104 Country Club Drive in Conway, South Carolina and the improvements thereon which was lost due to a fire at the residence. The fire loss occurred during the pendency of a foreclosure action by the Defendant Horry County State Bank against the Defendant Jenrette, Michael Brooks Quickel and Mr. Quickel's company, Cajun Carolina, LLC in case number 2010-CP-26-4456 and captioned Horry County State Bank v. Cajun Carolina, LLC, Michael Brroks Quickel, Rosemary Long Jenrette, Conway Hospital, Inc. d/b/a Conway Medical Center and Canal Wood, LLC. Mr. Quickel, pursuant to that certain Specific Power of Attorney granted by the Defendant Jenrette and filed in Deed Book 399 at Page 613 on May 4, 2009, executed a Mortgage of Real Estate encumbering the subject real property and a Hypothecation Agreement pledging the subject real property as collateral for the loan made to Cajun Carolina, LLC. The Mortgage of Real Estate encumbering the real property located at 104 Country Club Drive in Conway, South Carolina and owned by the Defendant Jenrette required the mortgagor of the property, as a condition of the loan given to Cajun Carolina, LLC, to carry fire and casualty insurance for the benefit of the lender, the Defendant Horry County State Bank. While the Defendant Jenrette obtained a policy of insurance against fire, she did so in her own name, and failed to name the Defendant Horry County State Bank as a loss payee or as an additional insured on the policy of insurance as required by the Defendant Horry County State Bank's mortgage.

Due to the competing claims made by the Defendants for payment of the proceeds of the insurance policy, the Plaintiff filed this action and paid the insurance proceeds into the Clerk of Court for Horry County pending the adjudication of the competing claims by the Defendants. The Plaintiff, National Security Fire and Casualty Company was released as a party to this action after the filing of the interpleader action and payment of the disputed funds into the Clerk of Court's Office for Horry County.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. I find and conclude that this Court has jurisdiction over the parties to this action, the subject matter of this action and that venue is proper in Horry County, South Carolina.
2. I find and conclude that pursuant to Rule 56 (c), South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure and applicable case law that "the judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law." Olson v. Faculty House of Carolina, Inc., 344 S.C. 194, 544 S.E.2d 38 (Ct. App. 2001); Wells v. City of Lynchburg, 331 S.C. 296, 501 S.E.2d 746 (Ct. App. 1998).
3. I find and conclude that it is uncontroverted that the Defendant Jenrette executed a Mortgage of Real Estate and a Hypothecation Agreement by and through Michael Brooks Quickel pursuant to that certain Specific Power of Attorney filed on May 4, 2009, prior to the Mortgage of Real Estate held by the Defendant Horry County State Bank being filed.
4. I find and conclude that it is uncontroverted that the Defendant Jenrette was required, as a condition of the Mortgage of Real Estate filed May 4, 2009, to carry a policy of insurance guarding against fire loss for the benefit of the Lender, the Defendant Horry County State Bank.

5. I find and conclude that it is uncontroverted that the Defendant Jenrette failed to meet her obligations under the terms and conditions of the Mortgage of Real Estate, in that she failed to carry insurance insuring the real property and the structures thereon for the benefit of the Lender, the Defendant Horry County State Bank, and that therefore, has breached the mortgage contract between the Defendant Horry County State Bank and the Defendant Jenrette.

6. I find and conclude that pursuant to Freshwater v. Colonial Production Credit Association, 286 S.C. 387, 334 S.E.2d 142 (1985), which reaffirms the proposition announced in Swearingen v. Hartford Fire Insurance Co., 52 S.C. 309, 29 S.E. 722 (1898), that "an insurance policy is a purely personal contract between the insurer and the insured." However, as in this case, "if, however, the mortgagor covenants in the mortgage to keep the property insured as further security for the payment of the mortgage debt, then the mortgagee is entitled to an equitable lien upon the insurance proceeds, even though the policy is in the name of the mortgagor alone." Blackwell v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co., 237 S.C. 649, 118 S.E.2d 701 (1961).

7. I find and conclude that in this case, there remains a deficiency on the amount due to the Defendant Horry County State Bank, and as such, the Defendant Horry County State Bank possesses an equitable lien on the insurance proceeds in the amount of One Hundred Thousand and 00/100ths Dollars ($100,000.00) representing the deficient amount owed to the Defendant Horry County State Bank.

8. I find and conclude that there being no genuine issue of material fact in this action, that the issues brought before the Court are ripe for summary judgment and that the Defendant Horry County State Bank is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Defendant Horry County State Bank is granted Summary Judgment against the Defendant Jenrette.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of Court for Horry County is to release the funds being held in trust pending final adjudication of this action be disbursed directly to the Defendant Horry County State Bank upon presentation of this Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

CLERK OF COURT

The Defendant, Rosemary Jenrette a/k/a Rosemary Long Jenrette ("Mrs. Jenrette"), in answering the complaint of National Security Fire & Casualty Company ("NSFCC") and cross-claiming against Horry County State Bank ("HCSB"), respectfully shows and alleges unto this Honorable Court as follows:

FOR A FIRST DEFENSE

1. Mrs. Jenrette denies each and every allegation contained in each and every word of each and every sentence or phrase of each and every paragraph of each and every cause of action of Plaintiff's Complaint that is not hereinafter specifically admitted or denied and Mrs. Jenrette demands the strictest proof of all thereof.

FOR A SECOND DEFENSE

2. As to Paragraph 1 and 3 of Plaintiff's Complaint, Mrs. Jenrette is without sufficient information or knowledge to form an opinion or belief, and, therefore, denies same and demands strict proof thereof.
3. Mrs. Jenrette admits Paragraphs 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of Plaintiff's Complaint.
4. Paragraphs 9 and 10 of Plaintiffs Complaint do not require a response by Mrs. Jenrette and if a response is required, Mrs. Jenrette denies same and demands strict proof thereof.
5. Mrs. Jenrette admits Paragraph 11 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

6. Paragraphs 12, 13, and 14 of Plaintiffs Complaint do not require a response by Mrs. Jenrette and if a response is required, Mrs. Jenrette denies same and demands strict proof thereof. Mrs. Jenrette requests onto this Honorable Court that the insurance proceeds be ordered to be released to her solely and not in the court as it is clear she is entitled to the insurance proceeds as stated below.

FOR A THIRD DEFENSE AND FIRST CROSS CLAIM AGAINST HORRY COUNTY STATE BANK
(Interference with a Contractual Relationship)

7. Mrs. Jenrette reiterates each and every allegation and denial as stated above.
8. Mrs. Jenrette has a contract of insurance with NSFCC, policy # 836223 insuring Mrs. Jenrette for risks, losses, or hazards from fire or other causes for property located at 104 Country Club Drive, Conway, SC 29526.
9. The contract states that if a loss were to occur for the property located at 104 Country Club Drive, Conway, SC 29526., NSFCC would pay Mrs. Jenrette the amount of $100,000.00 as her loss as the insured under the policy.
10. A fire loss occurred on the property located at 104 Country Club Drive, Conway, SC 29526 on or about January 15, 2011 under which NSFCC was to pay Mrs. Jenrette the amount of $100,000.00 for her loss as the insured under the policy.
11. HCSB came to have knowledge of this contract between Mrs. Jenrette and NSFCC after the fire loss occurred on the property located at 104 Country Club Drive, Conway, SC 29526 and has now proceeded to claim an interest in the proceeds of the fire insurance policy.
12. Due to HCSB's intentional interference with the contract between NSFCC and Mrs. Jenrette, NSFCC has now decided not to pay the $100,000.00 directly to Mrs. Jenrette and instead to pay said proceeds into Horry County Clerk of Court to be disbursed upon the courts determination at a later time.
13. Mrs. Jenrette has suffered the loss of interest on the $100,000.00 which she was entitled to as of the day of the loss, along with attorney's fees and other costs in filing this action.
14. Mrs. Jenrette asks that this Honorable Court order the release of the $100,000.00 to her so that she does not continue to incur the cost and attorneys of defending this action

FOR A FOURTH DEFENSE AND SECOND CROSS CLAIM AGAINST HORRY COUNTY STATE BANK
(Declaratory Judgment)

15. Mrs. Jenrette reiterates each and every allegation and denial as stated above.
16. Mrs. Jenrette was the owner of the property located at 104 Country Club Drive, Conway, SC 29526.
17. Mrs. Jenrette did execute a mortgage in favor of HCSB, however, Mrs. Jenrette was solely the mortgagor and was not a borrower of any monies from HCSB.
18. HCSB did not require Mrs. Jenrette to procure insurance on the property and Mrs. Jenrette by her own will procured insurance on the property.
19. HCSB has subsequently satisfied its mortgage lien as stated in Mortgage Book 5345 at Page 1825, Horry County Records.
20. Therefore, HCSB and Mrs. Jenrette no longer have a mortgagor/mortgagee relationship as of the date the mortgage was satisfied.
21. Mrs. Jenrette has no further relationship with or obligations to HCSB.
22. Consequently, Mrs. Jenrette is solely entitled to the insurance proceeds and prays unto this Honorable Court to direct NSFCC to pay the entire amount of $100,000.00 directly to Mrs. Jenrette.

WHEREFORE, having fully answered Plaintiff's Complaint, the Defendants, Mrs. Jenrette, prays as follows:

a. An Order of this Court dismissing Plaintiff's action;
b. An Order of this Court awarding Mrs. Jenrette her damages as stated in her First Cross Claim against HCSB;
c. An Order of this Court directly NSFCC to pay the entire amount of $100,000.00 directly and solely to Mrs. Jenrette; and
d. For any such and further relief this Court deems just and proper.

TO: THE PLAINTIFF BY AND THROUGH ITS ATTORNEY, F. TRUETT NETTLES, III, ESQUIRE AND THE DEFENDANT ROSEMARY JENRETTE, BY AND THROUGH HER ATTORNEY OF RECORD, WILLIAM W. DESCHAMPS, JR., ESQUIRE:

COMES NOW the Defendant Horry County State Bank, by and through its undersigned counsel, and would show by way of Answer and Cross-claim against the Defendant Rosemary Jenrette as follows:

FOR A FIRST DEFENSE

1. This answering Defendant denies each and every allegation contained in the Plaintiff's Complaint not specifically hereinafter admitted, modified or explained and demands strict and absolute proof thereof.

2. This answering Defendant lacks sufficient information to either admit or deny the allegation contained in Paragraph 1 of the Plaintiff's Complaint, and therefore denies the same and demands strict and absolute proof thereof.

3. This answering Defendant admits the allegations contained in Paragraphs 2 and 3 of the Plaintiff's Complaint.

4. This answering Defendant admits the allegation contained in Paragraph 4 of the Plaintiff's Complaint to the extent that the Defendant Jenrette entered into a Contract of insurance concerning the subject property located at 104 Country Club Drive, Conway, South Carolina, 29526. However, this answering Defendant lacks sufficient information to either admit or deny the remaining parts of this allegation and therefore denies the same and demands strict and absolute proof thereof.

5. This answering Defendant lacks sufficient information to either admit or deny the allegations contained in Paragraph 5 of the Plaintiff's Complaint and therefore, denies the same and demands strict and absolute proof thereof.

6. This answering Defendant admits the allegations contained in Paragraph 6 of the Plaintiff's Complaint and craves reference to the recorded documents.

7. This answering Defendant admits the allegations contained in Paragraphs 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 of the Plaintiff's Complaint.

8. This answering Defendant is informed and believes that no response is required in response to the allegations contained in Paragraphs 13 and 14 of the Plaintiff's Complaint; however, to the extent that one is required, this answering Defendant admits the same.

FOR A SECOND DEFENSE AND BY WAY OF FIRST CROSS-CLAIM AGAINST THE DEFENDANT ROSEMARY JENRETTE a/k/a ROSEMARY LONG JENRETTE
(Claim for Insurance Proceeds)

9. This answering Defendant would re-allege and incorporate the prior defense as if set forth verbatim herein.

10. This answering Defendant would show that the Defendant Rosemary Jenrette a/k/a Rosemary Long Jenrette, by and through her attorney in fact, Michael Brooks Quickel, on May 1, 2009, executed and delivered unto this answering Defendant, Horry County State Bank, a Mortgage of Real Estate covering the subject property. A copy of the Mortgage dated May 1, 2009 is attached hereto and incorporated by reference as Exhibit A.

11. This answering Defendant would show that pursuant to the Mortgage of Real Estate, the Defendant Jenrette was obligated to maintain an insurance policy for the benefit of the lender, the Defendant Horry County State Bank, insuring the property against loss resulting from fire and other insurable hazards at the Defendant Jenrette's sole expense.
12. This answering Defendant would further show that pursuant to the Mortgage of Real Estate, the Defendant Jenrette assigned all proceeds from any insurance policy to this answering Defendant and that the lender, Horry County State Bank is authorized to adjust or compromise any loss under those policies of insurance.
13. This answering Defendant would show that, due to Michael Brooks Quickel's default under the terms and conditions of the Promissory Note and the Mortgage of Real Estate, the lender, Horry County State Bank elected to bring a successful foreclosure action concerning the property which resulted in a deficiency judgment under the Note and Mortgage against Quickel and his business entity Cajun Carolina, LLC.
14. This answering Defendant would show that while the foreclosure action was pending, the structure on the subject property burned down, resulting in a claim under the policy for proceeds by the Defendant Horry County State Bank.
15. This answering Defendant would further show that upon making a claim for proceeds under the policy, Horry County State Bank was informed by the Plaintiff that the policy did not list Horry County State Bank as a loss payee as required under the terms and conditions of the Mortgage of Real Estate.

16. This answering Defendant would show that the Defendant Jenrette was the Mortgagor under the Mortgage contract's terms and conditions and due to the Defendant Jenrette's failure to provide an insurance policy for the benefit of Horry County State Bank, the Defendant has defaulted on her obligations under the Mortgage. That further, the Defendant Horry County State Bank was granted judgment of foreclosure on April 22, 2011 and deficiency judgment against the debtors on September 6, 2011.

17. That pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Mortgage of Real Estate and the existing case law in this State, this answering Defendant is informed and believes that it is entitled to an Order of this Court requiring the Clerk of Court to release the funds interplead by the Plaintiff to this answering Defendant, Horry County State Bank.

Therefore, having fully set forth its answer to the Plaintiff's Complaint and its complaint against the Defendant Jenrette, the Defendant Horry County State Bank prays as follows:

RLS

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the Property unto the Lender and the successors and assigns of Lender forever.

BORROWER covenants that Borrower is lawfully seized of the Property in fee simple absolute, that Borrower has good right and is lawfully authorized to sell, convey or encumber the same, and that the Property is free and clear of all encumbrances except as expressly provided in paragraph 15 and otherwise herein. Borrower covenants to warrant and forever defend all and singular the Property unto Lender and the successors or assigns of Lender from and against Borrower and all persons whomsoever lawfully claiming the same or any part thereof.

PROVIDED ALWAYS, nevertheless, and it is the true intent and meaning of Borrower and Lender, that if Borrower pays or causes to be paid to Lender the debt secured hereby, the estate hereby granted shall cease, determine and be utterly null and void; otherwise said estate shall remain in full force and effect.

IT IS AGREED that Borrower shall be entitled to hold and enjoy the Property until a default as herein defined has occurred.

BORROWER further covenants and agrees with Lender as follows:

1. Assignment of Rents and Profits. As further security for all sums secured by this Mortgage, Borrower assigns to Lender all rents and profits arising from the Property; provided, however, that so long as no Default as hereinafter defined has occurred, Borrower shall be entitled to collect and retain all such rents and profits as the sole property of Borrower without accounting to Lender thereof.

2. Care of Property. Borrower will maintain the Property in good condition and repair and will neither permit nor allow waste thereof. Borrower will promptly repair or restore any portion of the Property which is damaged or destroyed by any cause whatsoever and will promptly pay when due all costs and expenses of such repair or restoration. Borrower will not remove or demolish any improvement or fixture which is now or hereafter part of the Property and will cut no timber on the Property without the express written consent of Lender. Lender shall be entitled to specific performance of the provisions of this paragraph.

3. Insurance. (A) Borrower shall at its sole expense obtain for, deliver to, and maintain for the benefit of Lender, during the life of the Mortgage, insurance policies in such amounts as Lender may require, in no event less than the full insurable value, insuring the Property against fire, extended coverage and such other insurable hazards, casualties and contingencies as Lender may require including flood damage, and shall pay promptly, when due, any premiums on such insurance policies and on any renewals thereof. The form of such policies, the companies issuing them, and the coverages provided shall be acceptable to Lender and shall contain a non-contributory mortgage endorsement making losses payable to Lender. At least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration date of all such policies, renewals thereof satisfactory to Lender shall be delivered to Lender. Borrower shall deliver to Lender receipts evidencing the payment of all premiums on such insurance policies and renewals. In the event of loss, Borrower will give written notice to Lender, and Lender may make proof of loss if not made promptly by Borrower. In the event of the foreclosure of this Mortgage or any other transfer of title to the Property in extinguishment of the indebtedness and other sums secured hereby, all right, title, and interest of Borrower in and to all insurance policies and renewals thereof then in force shall pass to the grantee. Upon the failure of Borrower to obtain and maintain insurance satisfactory to Lender, Lender may at its own discretion procure and substitute for any and all of the insurance so held as aforesaid, such other policy or policies of insurance, in such amount as Lender, acting in its sole discretion, may determine; all without prejudice to its right to foreclosure hereunder should Borrower fail or refuse to keep said premises so insured.

(B) Borrower hereby assigns to Lender all proceeds from any insurance policies, and Lender is hereby authorized and empowered in its reasonable discretion, to adjust or compromise any loss under any insurance policies on the Property, and to collect and receive the proceeds from any such policy or policies. Each insurance company is hereby authorized and directed to make payment for all such losses directly to Lender alone, and not to Borrower and Lender jointly. After deducting such insurance proceeds any expenses incurred by Lender in the collection or handling of such funds, Lender, acting in its sole discretion, may; apply the net proceeds (I) to the payment of any sum secured by this Mortgage in such order as Lender may determine or (II) to the replacement, repair or restoration of the portion of the Property damaged or destroyed in a manner determined by Lender; or may release said net proceeds to the Borrower upon such conditions as Lender shall determine; or may apply said net proceeds for any combination of the foregoing; all without affecting the lien of this Mortgage for the full amount secured hereby before such payment took place. If Lender elects to restore the improvements, any balance of such monies after restoration shall either be applied toward the reduction of indebtedness and any other sums secured hereby or shall be paid to Borrower. Lender shall not be responsible for any failure to collect any insurance proceeds due under the terms or any policy regardless of the cause of such failure.

(C) Borrower shall at its sole expense obtain for, deliver to and maintain for the benefit of Lender, during the life of this Mortgage, liability insurance policies relating to the Property, in such amounts, with such companies and in such form as may be reasonably required by Lender. Lender may require such policies to contain an endorsement, in form satisfactory to Lender, naming Lender as an additional insured thereof. Borrower shall pay promptly, when due, any premiums on such insurance policies and renewals thereof.

4. Taxes and Assessments. Borrower will pay all taxes, assessments and other charges which constitute or are secured by a lien upon the Property which is superior to the lien of this Mortgage and will deliver to Lender proof of payment of the same not less than ten (10) days prior to the date the same becomes delinquent; provided, however, that Borrower shall be entitled by appropriate proceedings to contest the amount or validity of such tax, assessment or charge so long as the collection of the same by foreclosure of the lien upon the Property is stayed during the pendency of such proceedings and Borrower deposits with the authority to which such tax, assessment or charge is payable or with Lender appropriate security for payment of the same together with any applicable interest and penalties, should the same be determined due and owing.

5. Expenditures by Lender. If Borrower fails to make payment for restoration or repair of the Property, for insurance premiums or for taxes, assessments or other charges as required in this Mortgage, Lender may, but shall not be obligated to, pay for the same, and any such payment by lender will be secured by this Mortgage and have the same rank and priority as the principal debt secured hereby and bear interest from the date of payment at the rate payable from time to time on outstanding principal under the Note. Payments made for taxes by Lender shall be a first lien on the Property to the extent of the taxes so paid with interest from the date of payment, regardless of the rank and priority of this Mortgage. Borrower will pay to the Lender in cash on demand an amount equal to any payment made by Lender pursuant to this paragraph plus interest thereon as herein provided.

6. Condemnation. Lender shall be entitled to be made a party to and to participate in any proceedings, whether formal or informal, for condemnation or acquisition pursuant to power of eminent domain of any portion of the Property. Borrower hereby assigns to Lender the right to collect and receive any payment or award to which Borrower would otherwise be entitled by reason of condemnation or acquisition pursuant tot he power of eminent domain of any portion of the Property. Any such payment or award received by Lender may, at the option of Lender, (I) be applied by Lender to payment of any sums secured by this Mortgage in such order as Lender may determine (II) be applied in a manner determined by Lender to the replacement of the portion of the Property taken and to the repair or restoration of the remaining portion of the Property (III) be released to Borrower upon such conditions as Lender may determine or (IV) be used for any combination of the foregoing purposes. No portion of an indemnity payment which is applied to replacement, repair or restoration of any portion of the Property or which is released to Borrower shall be deemed a payment against any sums secured by this Mortgage.

7. Transfer of the Property or a Beneficial Interest in Borrower. If all or any part of the Property or any interest in it is sold or transferred (or if a beneficial interest in Borrower is sold or transferred and Borrower is not a natural person) without Lender's prior written consent, Lender may, at its option, require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument. However, this option shall not be exercised by Lender if exercise is prohibited by federal law as of the date of this Security Instrument.

If Lender exercises this option, Lender shall give Borrower notice of acceleration. The notice shall provide a period of not less than 30 days from the date the notice is delivered or mailed within which Borrower must pay all sums secured by this Security Instrument. If Borrower fails to pay these sums prior to the expiration of this period, Lender may invoke any remedies permitted by this Security Instrument without further notice or demand on Borrower.

8. Default. The occurrences of any of the following events shall be deemed a Default under this Mortgage:

(A) any default by Borrower as described in the Note;

(B) failure of Borrower to pay any other sum secured by this Mortgage when due;

(C) failure of Borrower to observe or perform any covenant or agreement set forth in this Mortgage or in any loan agreement entered into between the Borrower and Lender with respect to the indebtedness hereby secured within ten (10) days following the giving of notice by Lender to Borrower to observe or perform the same.

9. Acceleration; Remedies. Lender shall give notice to Borrower prior to acceleration following Borrower's breach of any covenant or agreement in this Security Instrument (but not prior to acceleration under paragraph 7 unless applicable law provides otherwise). The notice shall specify: (a) the default; (b) the action required to cure the default; (c) a date not less than 20 days from the date the notice is given to Borrower, by which the default must be cured; and (d) that failure to cure the default on or before the date specified in the notice may result in acceleration of the sums secured by this Security Instrument, foreclosure by judicial proceeding and sale of the Property. The notice shall further inform Borrower of the right to reinstate after acceleration and the right to assert in the foreclosure proceeding the non-existence of a default or any other defense of Borrower to acceleration and foreclosure. If the default is not cured on or before the date specified in the notice, Lender, at its option, may require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument without further demand and may foreclose this Security Instrument by judicial proceeding. Lender shall be entitled to collect all expenses incurred in pursuing the remedies provided in this paragraph 9, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of title evidence, all of which shall be additional sums secured by this Security Instrument.

10. Appointment of Receiver. Upon the occurrence of a Default as hereinabove defined, Lender shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to enter upon and take and maintain full control of the Property in order to perform all acts necessary and appropriate for the operation and maintenance thereof including, but not limited to, the execution, cancellation or modification of leases, the making of repairs to the Property and the execution or termination of contracts providing for the management or maintenance of the Property, all on such terms as deemed best to protect the security of this Mortgage. The receiver shall be entitled to receive a reasonable fee for so managing the Property. All rents collected pursuant to this paragraph shall be applied first to the costs of taking control of and managing the Property and collecting the rents, including, but not limited to, attorney's fees, receiver's fee, premiums on receiver bonds, costs of repairs to the Property, premiums on insurance policies, taxes, assessments and other charges on the Property, and the costs of discharging any obligation or liability of Borrower as lessor or landlord of the Property and then to the sums secured by this Mortgage. Lender or the receiver shall have access to the books and records used in the operation and maintenance of the Property and shall be liable to account only for those rents actually received. Lender shall not be liable to Borrower, anyone claiming under or through Borrower, or anyone having an interest in the Property by reason of anything done or left undone by Borrower under this paragraph. If the rents of the Property are not sufficient to meet the cost of taking control and managing the Property and collecting the rents, Lender, at its sole option, may advance funds to meet the costs. Any funds expended by Lender for such purposes shall become indebtedness of Borrower to Lender secured by this Mortgage. Unless Lender and Borrower agree in writing to other terms of payment, such amounts shall be payable upon notice from Lender to Borrower requesting payment thereof and shall bear interest from the date of disbursement at the rate stated in the Note. The entering upon and taking and maintaining of control of the Property by Lender or the receiver and the application of rents as provided herein shall not cure or waive any default hereunder or invalidate any other right or remedy of Lender hereunder.

11. Waiver by Lender. Lender may, in its sole discretion, from time to time waive or forebear from enforcing any provision of this Mortgage, and no such waiver or forbearance shall be deemed a waiver by Lender of any right or remedy provided herein or by law or be deemed a waiver of the right at any later time to enforce strictly all provisions of this Mortgage and to exercise any and all remedies provided herein and by law.

12. Waiver by Borrower. Borrower understands that upon default hereunder, among other remedies set out herein and in the above referenced Note, the Lender may foreclose upon the mortgaged premises and ask for a deficiency judgement pursuant to Section 29-3-660, South Carolina Code of Laws (1976). Borrower hereby expressly waives and relinquishes any appraisal rights which Borrower may have under Section 29-3-680 through Section 29-3-760, South Carolina Code of Laws (1976) as amended and understands and agrees that a deficiency judgement, if pursued by Lender shall be determined by the highest price bid at the judicial sale of the Property. Borrower does expressly waive, release and discharge any and all homestead exemptions and rights of redemption as allowed by South Carolina law.

13. Future Advances. Lender, pursuant to Sections 29-3-40 and 50, South Carolina Code of Laws (1976) and at its option, may make Future Advances to Borrower. Such Future Advances, with interest at the rate payable from time to time on the outstanding principal under the Note, shall be secured by this Mortgage when evidenced by the Note or by any other note stating that it is secured by this Mortgage or when advanced under the terms of this Mortgage. Lender may make but is not obligated to make such Future Advances (A) at the request of the Borrower, whether or not there is an obligation to make Future Advances; (B) pursuant to an advance of funds under paragraph 10 above; or (C) to pay, with or without the consent or request of Borrower, any amounts which may be due under any other mortgage or lien affecting the Property.

14. Notices. Any notice given by either party hereto to the other party shall be in writing and shall be signed by the party giving notice. Any notice or other document to be delivered to either party hereto by the other party shall be deemed delivered if mailed postage prepaid to the party to whom directed at the latest address of such party is known to the party sending the same. This paragraph shall not be deemed to prohibit any other manner of delivering a notice or other document.

15. Covenants. Mortgagor covenants that he will not perform any act which might impair or tend to impair the continuation on the real property herein described of all crop allotments and acreage allotments now established or hereafter established on any of the property herein described, and Mortgagor hereby grants to the Mortgagee a lien on and a security interest in all such crop allotments and acreage allotments.

16. Hazardous Substances. The Mortgagor hereby agrees to indemnify the Mortgagee and hold the Mortgagee harmless from and against any and all losses, liabilities, damages, injuries (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees) and claims of any and every kind whatsoever paid, incurred or suffered by, or asserted against Mortgagee for, with respect to, or as a direct or indirect result of (a) the presence on, or under, or the escape, spillage, emission or release from the Property of any Hazardous Material regardless of whether or not caused by or within the control of Mortgagor; (b) the violation of any environmental Laws relating to or affecting the Property, whether or not caused by or within the control of Mortgagor; (c) the failure by Mortgagor to comply fully with the terms and provisions of this paragraph; or (d) any warranty or representation made by Mortgagor in this paragraph being false or untrue in any material respect. For purposes of this Mortgage, "Hazardous Material" means and includes petroleum products, any flammable explosives, radioactive materials, asbestos or any material containing asbestos, and/or any hazardous, toxic or dangerous waste, substance or material defined as such in (or for the purposes of) the Environmental Laws. For the purpose of this Mortgage, "Environmental Laws" means the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act, the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, and "Super Fund" or "Super Lien" law, or any other federal, state, or local law, regulation, or decree regulating, relating to, or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning petroleum products, any flammable explosives, radioactive materials, asbestos or any material containing asbestos, and/or any hazardous, toxic or dangerous waste, substance or material, as may now or at any time hereafter be in effect. The obligations and liabilities of Mortgagor under this paragraph shall survive the foreclosure of the Mortgage, the delivery of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, the cancellation or release of record of this Mortgage or the payment and cancellation of the Note; or if otherwise expressly permitted in writing by the Mortgagee, the sale or alienation of any part of the Property.

FOR A FIFTH DEFENSE
(Equitable Estoppel)

20. The Defendant Horry County State Bank would show that the Defendant Jenrette had agreed to pay the insurance proceeds to the Defendant Horry County State Bank and to purchase the Note from the Defendant during the pendency of the foreclosure proceedings.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the Property unto the Lender and the successors and assigns of Lender forever.

BORROWER covenants that Borrower is lawfully seized of the Property in fee simple absolute, that Borrower has good right and is lawfully authorized to sell, convey or encumber the same, and that the Property is free and clear of all encumbrances except as expressly provided in paragraph 13 and otherwise herein. Borrower covenants to warrant and forever defend all and singular the Property unto Lender and the successors or assigns of Lender from and against Borrower and all persons whomsoever lawfully claiming the same or any part thereof.

PROVIDED ALWAYS, nevertheless, and it is the true intent and meaning of Borrower and Lender, that if Borrower pays or causes to be paid to Lender the debt secured hereby, the estate hereby granted shall cease, determine and be utterly null and void; otherwise said estate shall remain in full force and effect.

IT IS AGREED that Borrower shall be entitled to hold and enjoy the Property until a default as herein defined has occurred.

BORROWER further covenants and agrees with Lender as follows:

1. Assignment of Rents and Profits. As further security for all sums secured by this Mortgage, Borrower assigns to Lender all rents and profits arising from the Property; provided, however, that so long as no Default as hereinafter defined has occurred, Borrower shall be entitled to collect and retain all such rents and profits as the sole property of Borrower without accounting to Lender thereof.

2. Care of Property. Borrower will maintain the Property in good condition and repair and will neither permit nor allow waste thereof. Borrower will promptly repair or restore any portion of the Property which is damaged or destroyed by any cause whatsoever and will promptly pay when due all costs and expenses of such repair or restoration. Borrower will not remove or demolish any improvement or fixture which is now or hereafter part of the Property and will cut no timber on the Property without the express written consent of Lender. Lender shall be entitled to specific performance of the provisions of this paragraph.

3. Insurance. (A) Borrower shall at its sole expense obtain for, deliver to, and maintain for the benefit of Lender, during the life of the Mortgage, insurance policies in such amounts as Lender may require, in no event less than the full insurable value, insuring the Property against fire, extended coverage and such other insurable hazards, casualties and contingencies as Lender may require including flood damage, and shall pay promptly, when due, any premiums on such insurance policies and on any renewals thereof. The form of such policies, the companies issuing them, and the coverages provided shall be acceptable to Lender and shall contain a non-contributory mortgage endorsement making losses payable to Lender. At least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration date of all such policies, renewals thereof satisfactory to Lender shall be delivered to Lender. Borrower shall deliver to Lender receipts evidencing the payment of all premiums on such insurance policies and renewals. In the event of loss, Borrower will give written notice to Lender, and Lender may make proof of loss if not made promptly by Borrower. In the event of the foreclosure of this Mortgage or any other transfer of title to the Property in extinguishment of the indebtedness and other sums secured hereby, all right, title, and interest of Borrower in and to all insurance policies and renewals thereof then in force shall pass to the grantee. Upon the failure of Borrower to obtain and maintain insurance satisfactory to Lender, Lender may at its own discretion procure and substitute for any and all of the insurance as held as aforesaid, such other policy or policies of insurance, in such amount as Lender, acting in its sole discretion, may determine; all without prejudice to its right to foreclosure hereunder should Borrower fail or refuse to keep said premises so insured.

(B) Borrower hereby assigns to Lender all proceeds from any insurance policies, and Lender is hereby authorized and empowered in its reasonable discretion, to adjust or compromise any loss under any insurance policies on the Property, and to collect and receive the proceeds from any such policy or policies. Each insurance company is hereby authorized and directed to make payment for all such losses directly to Lender alone, and not to Borrower and Lender jointly. After deducting such insurance proceeds any expenses incurred by Lender in the collection or handling of such funds, Lender, acting in its sole discretion, may apply the net proceeds (i) to the payment of any sum secured by this Mortgage in such order as Lender may determine or (ii) to the replacement, repair or restoration of the portion of the Property damaged or destroyed in a manner determined by Lender; or may release said net proceeds to the Borrower upon such conditions as Lender shall determine; or may apply said net proceeds for any combination of the foregoing all without affecting the lien of this Mortgage for the full amount secured hereby before such payment took place. If Lender elects to restore the improvements, any balance of such monies after restoration shall either be applied toward the reduction of indebtedness and any other sums secured hereby or shall be paid to Borrower. Lender shall not be responsible for any failure to collect any insurance proceeds due under the terms or any policy regardless of the cause of such failure.

(C) Borrower shall at its sole expense obtain for, deliver to and maintain for the benefit of Lender, during the life of this Mortgage, liability insurance policies relating to the Property, in such amounts, with such companies and in such form as may be reasonably required by Lender. Lender may require such policies to contain an endorsement, in form satisfactory to Lender, naming Lender as an additional insured thereon. Borrower shall pay promptly, when due, any premiums on such insurance policies and renewals thereof.

4. Taxes and Assessments. Borrower will pay all taxes, assessments and other charges which constitute or are secured by a lien upon the Property which is superior to the lien of this Mortgage and will deliver to Lender proof of payment of the same not less than ten (10) days prior to the date the same becomes delinquent; provided, however, that Borrower shall be entitled by appropriate proceedings to contest the amount or validity of such tax, assessment or charge so long as the collection of the same by foreclosure of the lien upon the Property is stayed during the pendency of such proceedings and Borrower deposits with the authority to which such tax, assessment or charge is payable or with Lender appropriate security for payment of the same together with any applicable interest and penalties, should the same be determined due and owing.

5. Expenditures by Lender. If Borrower fails to make payment for restoration or repair of the Property, for insurance premiums or for taxes, assessments or other charges as required in this Mortgage, Lender may, but shall not be obligated to, pay for the same, and any such payment by lender will be secured by this Mortgage and have the same rank and priority as the principal debt secured hereby and bear interest from the date of payment at the rate payable from time to time on outstanding principal under the Note. Payments made for taxes by Lender shall be a first lien on the Property to the extent of the taxes so paid with interest from the date of payment, regardless of the rank and priority of this Mortgage. Borrower will pay to the Lender in cash on demand an amount equal to any payments made by Lender pursuant to this paragraph plus interest thereon as herein provided.

6. Condemnation. Lender shall be entitled to be made a party to and to participate in any proceedings, whether formal or informal, for condemnation or acquisition pursuant to power of eminent domain of any portion of the Property. Borrower hereby assigns to Lender the right to collect and receive any payment or award to which Borrower would otherwise be entitled by reason of condemnation or acquisition pursuant to the power of eminent domain of any portion of the Property. Any such payment or award received by Lender may, at the option of Lender, (i) be applied by Lender to payment of any sums secured by this Mortgage in such order as Lender may determine (ii) be applied in a manner determined by Lender to the replacement of the portion of the Property taken and to the repair or restoration of the remaining portion of the Property (iii) be released to Borrower upon such conditions as Lender may determine or (iv) be used for any combination of the foregoing purposes. No portion of an indemnity payment which is applied to replacement, repair or restoration of any portion of the Property or which is released to Borrower shall be deemed a payment against any sums secured by this Mortgage.

7. Transfer of the Property or a Beneficial Interest in Borrower. If all or any part of the Property or any interest in it is sold or transferred (or if a beneficial interest in Borrower is sold or transferred and Borrower is not a natural person) without Lender's prior written consent, Lender may, at its option, require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument. However, this option shall not be exercised by Lender if exercise is prohibited by federal law as of the date of this Security Instrument.

If Lender exercises this option, Lender shall give Borrower notice of acceleration. The notice shall provide a period of not less than 30 days from the date the notice is delivered or mailed within which Borrower must pay all sums secured by this Security Instrument. If Borrower fails to pay these sums prior to the expiration of this period, Lender may invoke any remedies permitted by this Security Instrument without further notice or demand on Borrower.

8. Default. The occurrence of any of the following events shall be deemed a Default under this Mortgage:

(A) any default by Borrower as described in the Note;

(B) failure of Borrower to pay any other sums secured by this Mortgage when due;

(C) failure of Borrower to observe or perform any covenant or agreement set forth in this Mortgage or in any loan agreement entered into between the Borrower and Lender with respect to the indebtedness hereby secured within ten (10) days following the giving of notice by Lender to Borrower to observe or perform the same.

9. Acceleration; Remedies. Lender shall give notice to Borrower prior to acceleration following Borrower's breach of any covenant or agreement in this Security Instrument (but not prior to acceleration under paragraph 7 unless applicable law provides otherwise). The notice shall specify: (a) the default; (b) the action required to cure the default; (c) a date not less than 30 days from the date the notice is given to Borrower, by which the default must be cured; and (d) that failure to cure the default on or before the date specified in the notice may result in acceleration of the sums secured by this Security Instrument, foreclosure by judicial proceeding and sale of the Property. The notice shall further inform Borrower of the right to reinstate after acceleration and the right to assert in the foreclosure proceeding the non-existence of a default or any other defense of Borrower to acceleration and foreclosure. If the default is not cured on or before the date specified in the notice, Lender, at its option, may require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument without further demand and may foreclose the Security Instrument by judicial proceeding. Lender shall be entitled to collect all expenses incurred in pursuing the remedies provided in this paragraph 9, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of title evidence, all of which shall be additional sums secured by this Security Instrument.

10. Appointment of Receiver. Upon the occurrence of a Default as hereinbefore defined, Lender shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to enter upon and take and maintain full control of the Property in order to perform all acts necessary and appropriate for the operation and maintenance thereof including, but not limited to, the execution, cancellation or modification of leases, the making of repairs to the Property and the execution or termination of contracts providing for the management or maintenance of the Property, all on such terms as deemed best to protect the security of this Mortgage. The receiver shall be entitled to receive a reasonable fee for so managing the Property. All rents collected pursuant to this paragraph shall be applied first to the costs of taking control of and managing the Property and collecting the rents, including, but not limited to, attorney's fees, receiver's fee, premiums on receiver bonds, costs of repairs to the Property, premiums on insurance policies, taxes, assessments and other charges on the Property, and the costs of discharging any obligation or liability of Borrower as lessor or landlord of the Property and then to the sums secured by this Mortgage. Lender or the receiver shall have access to the books and records used in the operation and maintenance of the Property, and shall be liable to account only for those rents actually received. Lender shall not be liable to Borrower, anyone claiming under or through Borrower, or anyone having an interest in the Property by reason of anything done or left undone by Borrower under this paragraph. If the rents of the Property are not sufficient to meet the cost of taking control and managing the Property and collecting the rents, Lender, at its sole option, may advance funds to meet the costs. Any funds expended by Lender for such purposes shall become indebtedness of Borrower to Lender secured by this Mortgage. Unless Lender and Borrower agree in writing to other terms of payment, such amounts shall be payable upon notice from Lender to Borrower requesting payment thereof and shall bear interest from the date of disbursement at the rate stated in the Note. The entering upon and taking and maintaining of control of the Property by Lender or the receiver and the application of rents as provided herein shall not cure or waive any default hereunder or invalidate any other right or remedy of Lender hereunder.

11. Waiver by Lender. Lender may, in its sole discretion, from time to time waive or forbear from enforcing any provision of this Mortgage, and no such waiver or forbearance shall be deemed a waiver by Lender of any right or remedy provided herein or by law or be deemed a waiver of the right at any later time to enforce strictly all provisions of this Mortgage and to exercise any and all remedies provided herein and by law.

12. Waiver by Borrower. Borrower understands that upon default hereunder, among other remedies set out herein and in the above referenced Note, the Lender may foreclose upon the mortgaged premises, and ask for a deficiency judgement pursuant to Section 29-3-680, South Carolina Code of Laws (1976), through Section 29-3-730, South Carolina Code of Laws (1976) as amended and understands and agrees that a deficiency judgement, if pursued by Lender shall be determined by the highest price bid at the judicial sale of the Property. Borrower does expressly waive, release and discharge any and all homestead exemptions and rights of redemption as allowed by South Carolina law.

13. Future Advances. Lender, pursuant to Sections 29-3-40 and 50, South Carolina Code of Laws (1976) and at its option, may make Future Advances to Borrower. Such Future Advances, with interest at the rate payable from time to time on the outstanding principal under the Note, shall be secured by this Mortgage when evidenced by the Note or by any other note stating that it is secured by this Mortgage or when advanced under the terms of this Mortgage. Lender may make but is not obligated to make such Future Advances (A) at the request of the Borrower, whether or not there is an obligation to make Future Advances; (B) pursuant to an advance of funds under paragraph 19 above; or (C) to pay, with or without the consent or request of Borrower, any amounts which may be due under any other mortgage or lien affecting the Property.

14. Notices. Any notice given by either party hereto to the other party shall be in writing and shall be signed by the party giving notice. Any notice or other document to be delivered to either party hereto by the other party shall be deemed delivered if mailed postage prepaid to the party to whom directed at the latest address of such party is known to the party sending the same. This paragraph shall not be deemed to prohibit any other manner of delivering a notice or other document.

15. Covenants. Mortgagor covenants that he will not perform any act which might impair or tend to impair the continuation on the real property herein described of all crop allotments and acreage allotments now established or hereafter established on any of the property herein described, and Mortgagor hereby grants to the Mortgagee a lien on and a security interest in all such crop allotments and acreage allotments.

16. Hazardous Substances. Mortgagor for itself, its successors and assigns represents, warrants and agrees that (a) neither Mortgagor nor any other person has used or installed any Hazardous Material (as hereinafter defined) on the Property or received any notice from any government agency, entity or other person with respect to Hazardous Materials on, from or affecting the Property; (b) neither Mortgagor or any other person has violated any applicable Environmental Laws (as hereinafter defined) relating to or affecting the Property; (c) the Property is presently in compliance with all Environmental Laws; there are no circumstances presently existing upon or under the Property, or relating to the Property which may violate any applicable Environmental Laws, and there is not now pending, or threatened, any action, suit, investigation or proceeding against Mortgagor relating to the Property (or against any other party relating to the Property) involving or threatening any right or remedy under any of the Environmental Laws; (d) the Property shall be kept free of Hazardous Materials, and shall not be used to generate, manufacture, transport, treat, store, handle, dispose, or process Hazardous Materials; (e) Mortgagor shall not cause nor permit the installation of Hazardous Materials in the Property nor a release of Hazardous Material onto or from the Property or within the presence of Hazardous Materials on the Property; (f) Mortgagor shall at all times comply with and ensure compliance by all other parties with all applicable Environmental Laws relating to or affecting the Property and shall keep the Property free and clear of any liens imposed pursuant to any applicable Environmental Laws; (g) the Mortgagor has obtained and will at all times continue to obtain and/or maintain all licenses, permits and/or other governmental or regulatory actions necessary to comply with Environmental Laws (the "Permits") and the Mortgagor is in full compliance with the terms and provisions of the Permits and will continue to comply with Environmental Laws (the "Permits") and the shall immediately give the Beneficiary oral and written notice in the event that Mortgagor receives any notice from governmental agency, entity, or any other party with regard to Hazardous Materials on, from or affecting the Property and shall conduct and complete all investigations, sampling and testing, and all remedial, removal, and other actions necessary to clean up and remove all Hazardous Materials on, from or affecting the Property in accordance with all applicable Environmental Laws. The Mortgagor hereby agrees to indemnify the Mortgagee and hold the Mortgagee harmless from and against any and all losses, liabilities, damages, injuries (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees) and claims of any and every kind whatsoever paid, incurred or suffered by, or asserted against Mortgagee for, with respect to, or as a direct or indirect result of (a) the presence on, or under, or the escape, spillage, emission or release from the Property of any Hazardous Material regardless of whether or not caused by or within the control of Mortgagor; (b) the violation of any Environmental Laws relating to or affecting the Property, whether or not caused by or within the control of Mortgagor; (c) the failure by Mortgagor to comply fully with the terms and provisions of this paragraph; or (d) any warranty or representation made by Mortgagor in this paragraph being false or untrue in any material respect. For purposes of this Mortgage, "Hazardous Material" means and includes petroleum products, any flammable explosives, radioactive materials, asbestos or any material containing asbestos, and/or any hazardous, toxic or dangerous waste, substance or material defined as such in (or for the purposes of) the Environmental Laws. For the purposes of this Mortgage, "Environmental Laws" means the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act, the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, and "Super Fund" or "Super Lien" law, or any other federal, state, or local law, regulation, or decree regulating, relating to, or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning petroleum products, any flammable explosives, radioactive materials, asbestos or any material containing asbestos, and/or any hazardous, toxic or dangerous waste, substance or material, as may now or at any time hereafter be in effect. The obligations and liabilities of Mortgagor under this paragraph shall survive the foreclosure of the Mortgage, the delivery of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, the cancellation or release of record of this Mortgage or the payment and cancellation of the Note, or if otherwise expressly permitted in writing by the Mortgagee, the sale or alienation of any part of the Property.

17. Miscellaneous.

(A) The agreements herein shall bind and inure to the benefit of the Borrower, Lender and their respective heirs, successors and assigns.

(B) Whenever in this Mortgage one of the parties hereto is named or referred to, the heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns of such parties shall be included and all covenants and agreements contained in this Mortgage by or on behalf of the Borrower or by or on behalf of the Lender shall bind and inure to the benefit of their representatives, heirs, successors and assigns, whether so expressed or not.

(C) The headings of the sections, paragraphs and subdivisions of this Mortgage are for the convenience of reference only, are not to be considered a part hereof and shall not limit or otherwise affect any of the terms hereof.

(D) If any provision of this Mortgage conflicts with applicable law, such conflict shall not affect other provisions of this Mortgage which can be given effect without the conflicting provision, and to this end the provisions of this Mortgage are declared to be severable.

(E) Lender may make or cause to be made reasonable entries upon and inspections of the Property upon giving Borrower notice.

(F) All covenants of Mortgagor shall be joint and several.

NATIONAL SECURITY FIRE & CASUALTY COMPANY, Plaintiff, vs. ROSEMARY JENRETTE a/k/a ROSEMARY LONG JENRETTE and HORRY COUNTY STATE BANK, Defendants.	)	DEFENDANT HORRY COUNTY STATE BANK'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

2011 MAY 16 PM 4:22
CLERK OF COURT

TO: THE DEFENDANT ROSEMARY JENRETTE A/K/A ROSEMARY LONG JENRETTE AND HER COUNSEL OF RECORD, WILLIAM W. DESCHAMPS, JR., ESQUIRE:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the Defendant Horry County State Bank, by and through its undersigned counsel, will move before the Presiding Judge of the Horry County Court of Common Pleas, then ten (10) days hence, or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard, for an Order granting Summary Judgment to the Defendant Horry County State Bank for the relief as set out in the Defendant Jenrette's Answer and Crossclaim. The grounds for this motion are more fully set out below.

BACKGROUND FACTS

On May 1, 2009, Michael Brooks Quickel, on behalf of a single member limited liability company he owned, Cajun Carolina, LLC, executed a Promissory Note, Mortgage of Real Estate and several other security documents incidental to a loan closing whereby Mr. Quickel and Cajun Carolina, LLC received the sum of Three Hundred Fifty Thousand and 00/100ths Dollars ($350,000.00) to be repaid at the interest rate of Seven and 00/100ths Percent (7.00%). Mr.

Quickel provided to the Defendant Horry County State Bank two (2) mortgages covering seven (7) tracts of land. Mr. Quickel owned two (2) of the seven (7) tracts of land, namely Lots 7 and 14 of the W.M. Long Subdivision, which he pledged as collateral for the loan. The remainder of the tracts were owned by Mr. Quickel's mother, the Defendant Rosemary Jenrette. Incidental to the transaction, the Defendant Rosemary Jenrette had granted to Mr. Quickel, as alternate agent, a durable power of attorney which was filed in Deed Book 3253 at Page 1386 in the Register of Deeds Office for Horry County on June 15, 2007. Additionally, the Defendant Rosemary Jenrette, on April 27, 2009, executed a specific power of attorney, specifically referencing the transaction with Horry County State Bank authorizing Mr. Quickel to execute the necessary documents on the Defendant Jenrette's behalf which was filed in Deed Book 3399 at Page 613 in the Register of Deeds Office for Horry County on May 4, 2009. Furthermore, Mr. Quickel, on the Defendant Jenrette's behalf, executed a Hypothecation agreement, authorizing Mr. Quickel to pledge the property known as 104 Country Club Drive, Conway, South Carolina (TMS # 123-00-02-069) as collateral for the loan to Cajun Carolina, LLC.

On May 4, 2009, the mortgages and the specific power of attorney were filed in the Register of Deeds Office for Horry County. The Mortgage of Real Estate covering the property located at 104 Country Club Drive in Conway, South Carolina (TMS # 123-00-02-069) identified the Defendant Jenrette as the Mortgagor of the subject property and was executed by Mr. Quickel as her attorney in fact. The terms and conditions of the Mortgage of Real Estate required the Mortgagor, the Defendant Jenrette to carry insurance on the real property and improvements as a condition of the loan to Cajun Carolina, LLC, to wit:

> 3. Insurance. (A) Borrower shall at its sole expense obtain for, deliver to, and maintain for the benefit of Lender, during the life of the Mortgage, insurance policies in such amounts as Lender may require, in no event less than the full insurable value, insuring the Property against fire extended coverage and such other insurable hazards, casualties and contingencies as Lender may require including flood damage, and shall pay promptly, when due, any premiums on such insurance policies and on any renewals thereof. The form of such policies, the company issuing them, and the coverages provided shall be acceptable to Lender and shall contain a non-contributory mortgage endorsement making losses payable to Lender. At least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration date of all such policies, renewals thereof satisfactory to Lender shall be delivered to Lender. Borrower shall deliver to Lender receipts evidencing the payment of all premiums on such insurance policies and renewals. In the event of loss, Borrower will give written notice to Lender and Lender may make proof of loss if not made promptly by Borrower. In the event of the foreclosure of this Mortgage or any other transfer of title to the Property in extinguishment of the indebtedness and other sums secured hereby, all right title and interest of Borrower in and to all insurance policies and renewals thereof then in force shall pass to the grantee. Upon the failure of Borrower to obtain and maintain insurance satisfactory to Lender, Lender may at its own discretion procure and substitute for any and all of the insurance so held as aforesaid, such other policy or policies of insurance, in such amount as Lender, acting in its sole discretion, may determine; all without prejudice to its right to foreclosure hereunder should Borrower fail or refuse to keep said premises so insured.

(B) Borrower hereby assigns to Lender all proceeds from any insurance policies, and Lender is hereby authorized an empowered in its reasonable discretion, to adjust or compromise any loss under any insurance policies on the Property, and to collect and receive the proceeds from any such policy or policies. Each insurance company is hereby authorized and directed to make payment for all such losses directly to Lender alone, and not to Borrower and Lender jointly. After deducting such insurance proceeds and any expenses incurred by Lender in the collection or handling of such funds, Lender acting in its sole discretion, may, apply the net proceeds (I) to the payment of any sum secured by this Mortgage in such order as Lender may determine or (II) to the replacement, repair or restoration of that portion of the Property damaged or destroyed in a manner determined by Lender; or may release said net proceeds to the Borrower upon such conditions as Lender shall determine; or may apply said net proceeds for any combination of the foregoing; all without affecting the lien of this Mortgage for the full amount secured hereby before such payment took place. If Lender elects to restore the improvements, any balance of such monies after restoration shall either be applied toward the reduction of indebtedness and any other sums secured hereby or shall be paid to Borrower. Lender shall not be responsible for any failure to collect any insurance proceeds due under the terms of any policy regardless of the cause of such failure.

Subsequently, Mr. Quickel defaulted on the loan repayment to the Defendant Horry County State Bank, which resulted in the Defendant Horry County State Bank filing a lis pendens on the property and initiating foreclosure proceedings against Mr. Quickel, Cajun Carolina and the Defendant Jenrette February 26, 2010. Mr. Quickel brought the account current and on March 11, 2010, the Defendant Horry County State Bank cancelled the lis pendens and stopped all foreclosure proceedings against Mr. Quickel, Cajun Carolina and the Defendant Jenrette. However, by May 5, 2010, Mr. Quickel was again in default under the terms and conditions of the Note and Mortgages and the Defendant Horry County State Bank again initiated foreclosure proceedings against those Defendants in Civil Action Number 2010-CP-26-04456, filed May 19, 2010.

During the pendency of the foreclosure action, the structure affixed on the mortgaged premises located at 104 Country Club Drive, Conway, South Carolina, caught fire and burned down. The Defendant Horry County State Bank was informed of the fire and sought to make a claim against the insurance policy for the fire loss, however, became aware that while the Defendant Jenrette had purchased an insurance policy insuring the property against fire loss, the Defendant Jenrette failed to name the Defendant Horry County State Bank as an additional named insured/ loss payee on the insurance policy, although required to by virtue of the terms and conditions of the Mortgage of Real Estate affecting the real property.

On April 7, 2011, Robert Smith, Assistant Vice President of the Defendant Horry County State Bank, counsel for the Defendant Horry County State Bank, the Defendant Jenrette, and her counsel, William W. DesChamps, Jr., Esquire, attended a meeting at Mr. DesChamps's office, where the Defendant Jenrette proposed purchasing the debt from the Defendant Horry County State Bank. After a discussion, it was determined that the Defendant Jenrette would apply for financing from HCSB or another financial institution in order to purchase the Note, and that the insurance proceeds would be applied to the outstanding balance left on the account. The Defendant Horry County State Bank was to proceed with the foreclosure hearing that had already been scheduled, but would hold the sale of the property in abeyance until the July 2011 Master in Equity's Sale, to allow the Defendant Jenrette enough time to apply for the financing to purchase the Note.

Unfortunately, while the Defendant Jenrette did apply for financing from the Defendant Horry County State Bank, she was denied based upon an open, although unused, credit line with the Defendant Horry County State Bank. The Defendant Jenrette did, close the credit line, but did not reapply for financing of the Note purchase.

Sometime in early to mid May, 2011, the Defendant Horry County State Bank was notified by the insurance agent that the Plaintiff herein, National Security Fire and Casualty Company, had issued a check in the name of the Defendant Jenrette and the Defendant Horry County State Bank, but that the Defendant Jenrette had refused to endorse the check, and refused to sign a release because the check was payable to both her and the Defendant Horry County State Bank.

Pursuant to the Master in Equity's Order of Foreclosure filed April 26, 2011, the seven (7) tracts of land securing the loan were auctioned by the Honorable Cynthia Graham Howe on August 1, 2011, at the Master's sale. Due to the Defendant Horry County State Bank seeking a deficiency judgment, the bidding was reopened on August 31, 2011 and the Defendant Horry County State Bank was declared the high bidder and leaving a One Hundred Thousand and 00/100ths Dollars ($100,000.00) deficiency. Subsequently, this action was initiated by the Plaintiff National Security Fire and Casualty Company to determine who the rightful owner of the insurance proceeds is.

Additionally, the City of Conway provided the cleanup of the debris left by the Defendant Jenrette and Mr. Quickel, which was presenting a safety hazard. The Defendant Horry County State Bank authorized the cleanup of the property after it became the legal title holder of the real property. The City of Conway has charged Five Thousand and 00/100ths Dollars ($5,000.00) for the cleanup service. The sum of One Hundred Five Thousand and 00/100ths Dollars ($105,000.00) has been paid into the Clerk of Court for Horry County's Office by the Plaintiff pending the resolution of this action.

ARGUMENT

Summary judgment is appropriate when it is clear there is no genuine issue of material facts and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Rule 56 (c), South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure; Olson v. Faculty House of Carolina, Inc., 344 S.C. 194, 544 S.E.2d 38 (Ct. App. 2001). "A Trial Court should grant a motion for summary judgment when 'the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law.' Rule 56 (c), SCRCP." Wells v. City of Lynchburg, 331 S.C. 296, 501 S.E.2d 746 (Ct. App. 1998). "The purpose of summary judgment is to expedite disposition of cases which do not require the services of a fact finder." George v. Fabri, 345 S.C. 440, 548 S.E.2d 868 (2001), citing to Bankers Trust of South Carolina v. Benson, 267 S.C. 152, 155, 226 S.E.2d 703, 704 (1976).

It is uncontroverted that the Defendant Jenrette, by and through her lawful agent, executed a Mortgage in favor of the Defendant Horry County State Bank covering the subject real property. It is also uncontroverted that the residence upon the property located at 104 Country Club Drive, Conway, South Carolina (TMS # 123-00-02-069) was lost to a fire during the pendency of the foreclosure action. Likewise it is uncontroverted that the Mortgage required the Defendant Jenrette as Mortgagor of the subject real property to purchase and maintain an insurance policy insuring the property and improvements against fire loss for the benefit of the lender, the Defendant Horry County State Bank. The Mortgage specifically states:

> 3. Insurance. (A) Borrower shall at its sole expense obtain for, deliver to, and maintain for the benefit of Lender, during the life of the Mortgage, insurance policies in such amounts as Lender may require, in no event less than the full insurable value, insuring the Property against fire extended coverage and such other insurable hazards, casualties and contingencies as Lender may require including flood damage, and shall pay promptly, when due, any premiums on such insurance policies and on any renewals thereof. The form of such policies, the company issuing them, and the coverages provided shall be acceptable to Lender and shall contain a non-contributory mortgage endorsement making losses payable to Lender. At least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration date of all such policies, renewals thereof satisfactory to Lender shall be delivered to Lender. Borrower shall deliver to Lender receipts evidencing the payment of all premiums on such insurance policies and renewals. In the event of loss, Borrower will give written notice to Lender and Lender may make proof of loss if not made promptly by Borrower. In the event of the foreclosure of this Mortgage or any other transfer of title to the Property in extinguishment of the indebtedness and other sums secured hereby, all right title and interest of Borrower in and to all insurance policies and renewals thereof then in force shall pass to the grantee. Upon the failure of Borrower to obtain and maintain insurance satisfactory to Lender, Lender may at its own discretion procure and substitute for any and all of the insurance so held as aforesaid, such other policy or policies of insurance, in such amount as Lender, acting in its sole discretion, may determine; all without prejudice to its right to foreclosure hereunder should Borrower fail or refuse to keep said premises so insured.
> (B) Borrower hereby assigns to Lender all proceeds from any insurance policies, and Lender is hereby authorized an empowered in its reasonable discretion, to adjust or compromise any loss under any insurance policies on the Property, and to collect and receive the proceeds from any such policy or policies. Each insurance company is hereby authorized and directed to make payment for all such losses directly to Lender alone, and not to Borrower and Lender jointly. After deducting such insurance proceeds and any expenses incurred by Lender in the collection or handling of such funds, Lender acting in its sole discretion, may, apply the net proceeds (I) to the payment of any sum secured by this Mortgage in such order as Lender may determine or (II) to the replacement, repair or restoration of that portion of the Property damaged or destroyed in a manner determined by Lender; or may release said net proceeds to the Borrower upon such conditions as Lender shall determine; or may apply said net proceeds for any combination of the foregoing; all without affecting the lien of this Mortgage for the full amount secured hereby before such payment took place. If Lender elects to restore the improvements, any balance of such monies after restoration shall either be applied toward the reduction of indebtedness and any other sums secured hereby or shall be paid to Borrower. Lender shall not be responsible for any failure to collect any insurance proceeds due under the terms of any policy regardless of the cause of such failure.

The above referenced Mortgage of Real Estate was filed in Mtg. Book 5166 at Page 2466 in the Office of the Register of Deeds for Horry County on May 4, 2009. It is also indisputable that the Defendant Jenrette, even though obligated to by virtue of the Mortgage of Real Estate , failed to name the Defendant Horry County State Bank as an additional insured/ loss payee on the insurance policy covering the subject property purchased from the Plaintiff National Security Fire and Casualty Company. This failure by the Defendant Jenrette constitutes a breach of the Mortgage terms and conditions.

Due to the failure by the Defendant Jenrette to maintain insurance on the subject property for the benefit the lender as required under the terms and conditions of the Mortgage, the Defendant Horry County State Bank asserts that it possesses an equitable lien on the insurance proceeds paid into the Horry County Clerk of Court's Office.

South Carolina case law is clear on this point. The South Carolina Supreme Court in Blackwell v. State Farm Mutual held that when, by its terms, a mortgage requires a Mortgagor of property to provide insurance, an equitable lien is created for the benefit of the Mortgagee on the insurance proceeds. 237 S.C.649, 118 S.E.2d 701 (1961). The Court specifically stated:

It is well settled that if the mortgagor is bound by covenant in the mortgage or otherwise to insure the mortgaged premises for the better security of the mortgagee, the latter will have an equitable lien upon the money due on a policy taken out by the mortgagor to the extent of the mortgagee's interest in the property damaged or destroyed. Swearingen v. Hartford Fire Insurance Co., 52 S.C. 309, 29 S.E. 722 (1898); Farmers' & Merchants' National Bank of Lake City v. Moore, 135 S.C. 391, 133 S.E. 913 (1926); 47 A.L.R. 1001... This equitable lien arises solely from the unperformed contract to protect, the theory being that since equity regards as done that which ought to have been done, if the mortgagor, having so covenanted fails to make the insurance payable to the mortgagee, or to assign the same, the fund arising therefrom is within the operation of the maxim.

Id. at 653, 654. The South Carolina Court of Appeals extended this principle in Freshwater v. Colonial Production Credit Association. The Court opined:

An insurance policy is purely a personal contract between the insurer and the insured, and hence a mortgagee of insured property has no interest, either in law or in equity, in a policy of insurance obtained by the mortgagor in his own name and for his own benefit. Swearingen v. Hartford Fire Insurance Co., 52 S.C. 309, 29 S.E. 722 (1898). If, however, the mortgagor covenants in the mortgage to keep the property insured as further security for the payment of the mortgage debt, then the mortgagee is entitled to an equitable lien upon the insurance proceeds, even though the policy is in the name of the mortgagor alone. Id.; Blackwell v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co., 237 S.C. 649, 118 S.E.2d 701 (1961).

286 S.C. 387, 334 S.E.2d 142 (1985).

In Lewis v. Aynor Farm Center, 290 S.C. 167, 348 S.E.2d 537 (Ct. App. 1986), the Court of Appeals affirmed the ruling of the trial court where a mortgagee was awarded a judgment against the insurance company with substantially similar facts to the case at bar. In Lewis, the mortgagee sold his business to the mortgagor and financed the transaction. The mortgagee took back a mortgage on the real property and improvements and a security interest in the inventory and equipment. The property sustained fire damage however was not a total loss. The mortgage in Lewis contained a clause requiring the mortgagor to insure the property against fire loss and assign the policy to the mortgagee. The trial court questioned whether the inventory and equipment were included in this requirement and ultimately decided due to parol evidence, that the inventory and equipment were included. The trial court determined that the mortgagee had an equitable lien on the insurance proceeds.

In Jones v. Equicredit Corporation, 347 S.C. 535, 556 S.E.2d 713 (Ct. App. 2001), the Court of Appeals opined that the election to seek or waive a deficiency judgment in a foreclosure action has no effect upon the mortgagee's interest in and to the available insurance proceeds, as long as the mortgage indebtedness is not satisfied. The only relevant issues with regard to the existence of an equitable lien against the insurance proceeds are whether insurance was required by the mortgagee for their benefit and whether the indebtedness has been satisfied.

Here, it is undisputed that the Mortgage required the mortgagor to maintain insurance on the property for the benefit of the mortgagee, the Defendant Horry County State Bank. It is also clear that the mortgage indebtedness has not been satisfied, as the foreclosure action resulted in a deficiency judgment against Mr. Quickel and Cajun Carolina, LLC in the amount of One Hundred Thousand and 00/100ths Dollars ($100,000.00). It is uncontroverted that the deficiency judgment granted in the foreclosure action preceding this case has not been paid. However, with respect to the real property located at 104 Country Club Drive, Conway, South Carolina, the Defendant Jenrette was the mortgagor of the real property. While the Defendant Jenrette was not obligated on the Promissory Note, and thus, the Defendant Horry County State Bank could not obtain a deficiency judgment against her, she was still obligated under the Mortgage to provide insurance for the benefit of the Defendant Horry County State Bank, which she failed to do. As a result of her failure to maintain insurance on the real property for the benefit of the Defendant Horry County State Bank, has been injured.

It is clear from the applicable case law and the documents at issue in this case that the Defendant Horry County State Bank is entitled to an equitable lien on the insurance proceeds which have been placed with the Horry County Clerk of Court.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, the Defendant Horry County State Bank respectfully requests that this Court grant summary judgment in favor of the Defendant Horry County State Bank and order the funds being held by the Horry County Clerk of Court to be paid directly to the Defendant Horry County State Bank.

Pursuant to Rule 11, SCRCP plaintiff's counsel submits that consultation with the opposing attorneys is not required as this is a dispositive motion.

"I SO MOVE."

HORRY COUNTY

BLANIE HUGGINS-WADE
CLERK OF COURT

TO: THE HONORABLE LARRY B. HYMAN, JR., AND THE DEFENDANT HORRY COUNTY STATE BANK, BY AND THROUGH ITS ATTORNEY, JARROD E. OWNBEY, ESQUIRE:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Defendant Rosemary Jenrette ("Jenrette"), through her undersigned attorney, does hereby move for the Court to reconsider its prior Order granting Defendant Horry County State Bank's ("Bank") Motion for Summary Judgment. Notice of entry of said Order was received by Jenrette, through her undersigned counsel, on October 15, 2012. Jenrette moves pursuant to Rule 59(e), South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, and basis this Motion on the following grounds:

1. The Order Incorrectly Finds that Jenrette Breached the Mortgage Contract with the Bank.

Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 29-3-780, upon the judicial sale of a property under a decree of foreclosure, the officer of the court making such sale shall record a release, cancellation, and satisfaction of the mortgage lien. A judgment issued by a court constitutes a final determination of the rights of the parties in a specific proceeding. Moore v. Holland, 16 S.C. 15, 27 (1881). "The courts can enforce legal contracts of parties, as made, up to the time of the judgment, but, when the judgment is pronounced, the rights of the parties are determined up to that moment, and then the judgment must be enforced according to the law applicable to judgments." Id. at 28.

In the prior foreclosure proceeding, the Bank did not obtain a deficiency judgment against Jenrette because she was not obligated on the subject promissory note.[1] Jenrette was the owner of the subject property and her contractual relationship with the Bank arose solely out of the subject mortgage securing repayment of the promissory note executed by Michael Brooks Quickel. The insurance policy that was the source of the insurance proceeds in dispute was issued on March 9, 2009.[2] The subject mortgage was executed and delivered to the Bank on May 1, 2009.[3] The Master-In-Equity's Order of Foreclosure and Sale ("Master's Order") issued in the prior foreclosure proceeding, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "1", found that the Bank demanded a deficiency judgment against Cajun Carolina, LLC, and Michael Brooks Quickel "in the event the sale of the real estate herein does not yield a sum sufficient to satisfy all indebtedness due to the Plaintiff, including costs and attorney's fees."[4] The Master's Order rendered judgment against Cajun Carolina, LLC, and Michael Brooks Quickel for the mortgage debt.[5] At hearing, Jenrette introduced a Release of Lien Mortgage Satisfaction ("Satisfaction") recorded in the Horry County Register of Deeds on September 8, 2011 in Mortgage Book 5345 at Page 1825, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "2". The Satisfaction was executed by the Honorable Cynthia Graham Howe, Master-in-Equity of Horry County, on September 2, 2011 thereby releasing, canceling, and satisfying the subject mortgage by the August 31, 2011 sale of the subject property under foreclosure.[6] All obligations of Jenrette pursuant to the terms of the subject mortgage were released, cancelled, and satisfied upon the filing of the Satisfaction as she was not obligated for the mortgage debt pursuant to the Master's Order. Prior to the foreclosure of the subject mortgage, the Bank obtained knowledge of the fire loss incurred by the subject property, the existence of the insurance proceeds, and that Jenrette's insurance policy did not name it as an additional insured or loss payee.[7] The Master's Order was issued after the Bank obtained knowledge of the insurance proceeds payable to Jenrette under the policy. The Master's Order constitutes a final determination of Jenrette's obligations under the terms of the subject mortgage, and does not render Jenrette liable for the indebtedness owed by the debtor under the promissory note. All obligations of Jenrette pursuant to the terms of the subject mortgage were released, cancelled, and satisfied upon the filing of the Satisfaction. Therefore, the Order must be amended to deny the Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment because the rights and obligations of Jenrette and the Bank with respect to one another were determined under the Master's Order and terminated upon the filing of the Satisfaction.

2. The Order Made an Incorrect Conclusion of Law with Respect to Its Finding of an Equitable Lien.

The Order Granting Defendant Horry County State Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment ("Order Granting Summary Judgment") concludes that the Bank possesses an equitable lien in the amount of the outstanding deficiency because Jenrette, as mortgagor, "covenants in the mortgage to keep the property insured as further security for the payment of the mortgage debt."[8] The Order Granting Summary Judgment cites Freshwater v. Colonial Production Credit Association, 286 S.C. 387, 334 S.E.2d 142 (1985), Swearingen v. Hartford Fire Insurance Co., 52 S.C. 309, 29 S.E. 722 (1898), and Blackwell v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co., 237 S.C. 649, 118 S.E.2d 701 (1961) to establish an equitable lien in favor of the Bank upon the insurance proceeds. In Freshwater, the debtor's brother brought an action against the mortgagee alleging that he was subrogated to the mortgagee's rights as a secured creditor of the debtor. Id. at 390, 334 S.E.2d at 143-44. A loan was given to the debtor in favor of the mortgagee to purchase a shrimp boat, and was secured by a mortgage on real property owned by the debtor's brother. Id. at 389, 334 S.E.2d at 143. The debtor received insurance proceeds for the loss of the shrimp boat after it was involved in a collision. Id. The debtor insured the shrimp boat for his own benefit. Id. at 391, 334 S.E.2d at 144. The sole issue for the Court's decision was whether the debtor's brother was damaged by the satisfaction of the note and mortgage on the shrimp boat. Id. at 389-90, 334 S.E.2d at 143-33. In Swearingen, the debtor was the mortgagor as she gave the mortgagee notes for the balance of the purchase money that were secured by a mortgage on the land she purchased. Swearingen, 52 S.C. at 313, 29 S.E. at 722. The insurance policy was issued to the mortgagor after the mortgage was executed, and the mortgagee obtained a deficiency judgment against the mortgagor through foreclosure. Id. at 313-15, 29 S.E. at 722-23. Thereafter, the mortgagee commenced the action alleging that she had an equitable lien upon the amount of the policy issued to the mortgagor. Id. at 312-13, 29 S.E. at 722. In Blackwell, the insured borrowed a sum of money from a chattel mortgagee to pay the purchase price and insurance premium on an automobile. Blackwell, 237 S.C. at 650-51, 118 S.E.2d at 702. The loan was evidenced by a note that was secured by a chattel mortgage on the automobile purchased by the insured. Id. at 651, 118 S.E.2d at 702. The chattel mortgagee immediately applied to the insurer for coverage on the automobile and paid the premium at the time the loan was made. Id. at 651, 118 S.E.2d at 703.

The cases cited in the Order Granting Summary Judgment do not involve an action where the insured under the policy is a mortgagor on a satisfied mortgage, and is not a debtor who is liable for the mortgage debt. "If the creditors have a lien by mortgage, judgment or execution, they can insure their own interest, but they can have no right to attach insurance money due to any one but their own debtor." Steinmeyer v. Steinmeyer, 64 S.C. 413, 421, 42 S.E. 184, 186 (1902). "A contract of fire insurance is a personal contract between the insurer and insured, by which the former undertakes to indemnify the latter for the loss he sustains by fire. Being a personal contract, it does not run with the buildings said to be insured, is not an incident to the thing insured." Id. at 420, 42 S.E. at 186. An insurance contract "is a personal contract and does not run with the title to the property." Id. at 422, 42 S.E. at 186. In Steinmeyer, the judgment debtor conveyed a parcel of property to Steinmeyer who, thereafter, obtained an insurance policy insuring the premises in her own name and interest. Id. at 416, 42 S.E. at 184. The creditors of the judgment debtor commenced an action to set aside the conveyance to Steinmeyer on the grounds of fraud which resulted in a decree subjecting the property to the payment of the judgment. Id. Thereafter, the property conveyed to Steinmeyer was sold under a Court order, and the sale proceeds applied to the judgment in favor of the judgment creditors were insufficient to satisfy the judgment. Id. The South Carolina Supreme Court found that the insured was entitled to the insurance proceeds and that the proceeds cannot be taken by the creditors for the debt even though the property itself could be taken. Id. at 422, 42 S.E. at 187.

In the present case, like Steinmeyer, the insurance policy at issue was issued to the insured for the insured's benefit, and the insured was not liable for the outstanding indebtedness remaining unsatisfied after the judicial sale of the insured property. The legal authority cited in the Order Granting Summary Judgment uses legal precedent that was applied in actions involving insurance policies issued to debtors who were obligated and liable to the mortgagees for the outstanding indebtedness. The Steinmeyer case is more analogous to the instant action than the legal authority cited in the Order Granting Summary Judgment, and the South Carolina Supreme Court's decision in that case was rendered after the Swearingen decision. Therefore, this Honorable Court must reconsider the Order Granting Summary Judgment and apply the Steinmeyer case rather than the legal authority supporting the Court's prior decision granting the Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment.

For the reasons set forth above, Defendant Jenrette respectfully requests this Honorable Court to reconsider its prior order and issue an order denying the Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment.

The undersigned certifies, pursuant to Rule 11, South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, that prior consultation with opposing counsel would serve no useful purposes as the filing of the instant Motion is required to preserve the record in the event of an appeal.

National Security Fire & Casualty Company, Plaintiff, v. Rosemary Jenrette a/k/a Rosemary Long Jenrette and Horry County State Bank, Defendants.	)	CROSS-CLAIMING DEFENDANT ROSEMARY JENRETTE A/K/A ROSEMARY LONG JENRETTE'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

13 JUN -3 PM 1:55

TO: THE DEFENDANT HORRY COUNTY STATE BANK AND ITS COUNSEL OF RECORD, JARROD E. OWNBEY, ESQUIRE:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the cross-claiming Defendant Rosemary Jenrette a/ka Rosemary Long Jenrette "Jenrette" by and through her undersigned counsel will move before the Presiding Judge of the Horry County Court of Common Pleas, ten (10) days hence, or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard, for an Order granting Summary Judgment to the Defendant Rosemary Jenrette a/k/a Rosemary Long Jenrette, entitling her to the relief set forth in her Cross-claims against Horry County State Bank "Bank", more specifically, an Order from the Court directing payment to her of the monies "insurance proceeds" previously paid by National Security Fire and Casualty Company, Plaintiff herein, to the Clerk of Court, in the within action.

The grounds for this motion are based on the fact that the Bank has failed to make a showing sufficient to establish the existence of either of the two elements essential to its case and on which the Bank will bear the burden of proof at trial.

In order to prove that it is entitled to the insurance proceeds, the Bank must rely on:

1. The covenants of the mortgage instrument, and

2. An equitable lien theory attaching proceeds otherwise inuring to the benefit of the obligor of the mortgage indebtedness.

The rights and obligations of Jenrette as mortgagor and "Bank" as mortgagee with respect to one another were determined under the Master's Order of Foreclosure and Sale dated April 22, 2011, constituting Judgment Roll No. 2010-CP-26-04456 filed April 26, 2011, and were terminated upon the filing of the Release of Lien Mortgage Satisfaction on September 8, 2011, in Mortgage Book 5345 at Page 1825, Horry County records. Therefore, any covenant or obligation of Jenrette as mortgagor to assign the proceeds of the casualty policy should have been determined under the referenced Master's Order of Foreclosure and Sale and any such covenant or obligation was terminated upon the filing of the Release of Lien Mortgage Satisfaction.

As the mortgage instrument and the covenants contained therein were terminated at the time of the satisfaction of the mortgage there are no factual issues needed to be given to the finder of fact and Jenrette is entitled to judgment as a matter of law on the Bank's mortgage covenant theory of recovery.

Inasmuch as Jenrette was not a maker of the Promissory Note or a guarantor of the indebtedness evidenced thereby, she was not liable for the outstanding indebtedness remaining unsatisfied after the judicial sale of the mortgaged property. Jenrette had no personal obligation to pay any deficiency judgment remaining after the foreclosure and sale of the mortgaged property and satisfaction of the mortgaged indebtedness and, therefore, the Bank has no claim on the insurance proceeds which would otherwise inure to her benefit. As there are no factual issues to be given to the finder of fact Jenrette is entitled to judgment as a matter of law on the Bank's equitable lien theory of recovery.

As a Motion for Summary Judgment is dispositive in nature, Rule 11 certification is not needed or required.

Respectfully Submitted,

HORRY COUNTY
14 MAR -3 AM 10: 10
BRANDIE HUGGINS-WARD
CLERK OF COURT

TO: THE DEFENDANT HORRY COUNTY STATE BANK, BY AND THROUGH ITS ATTORNEYS, RANDALL K. MULLINS AND JARROD E. OWNBEY:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Defendant Rosemary Jenrette, a/k/a Rosemary Long Jenrette (hereinafter "Mrs. Jenrette"), through her undersigned counsel, hereby moves pursuant to Rule 59(e) and Rule 52(b) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, to alter or amend the Court's Order (hereinafter "Prior Order") directing the holder of the subject insurance proceeds to pay the entire sum on deposit to Defendant Horry County State Bank (hereinafter "Bank"). The Prior Order was filed with the Horry County Clerk of Court on February 11, 2014. Mrs. Jenrette received notice of entry of the Prior Order on February 21, 2014. The within Motion is made upon the grounds that: (i) the Court erred in making Findings of Fact, as set forth below, in that they were not supported by the evidence introduced during the trial; (ii) the Court did not make Findings of Fact that were supported by the evidence introduced during the trial; (iii) the Court erred in making various Conclusions of Law as set forth below; and (iv) the Court failed to consider and/or rule upon various issues raised at the trial that have a direct and substantial bearing on the determinative issues of fact and law. To the extent any of the below

Findings of Fact may be considered Conclusions of Law, they shall be considered the same, and vice versa.

ERRORS IN FINDINGS OF FACT

The Court erred in making the following Findings of Fact in that such findings are not supported by the evidence introduced during the trial:

1. The POA gave Quickel authority to execute a note in Mrs. Jenrette's name. (Prior Order, p. 3).
    - This Finding of Fact is erroneous because the POA appointed Quickel as Mrs. Jenrette's true and lawful attorney pertaining to the property described therein to procure the loan with the Bank. In addition, there is no evidence in the record that Quickel executed a note as Mrs. Jenrette's attorney-in-fact. The evidence introduced during the trial is that Quickel executed the note as a member of Cajun.
2. The mortgagor was noted to be Mrs. Jenrette, and she was referred to within the mortgage as "Borrower". (Prior Order, p. 4).
    - This Finding of Fact is erroneous because Mrs. Jenrette is defined on page 1 of the mortgage as the "Mortgagor" and merely referenced sometimes therein as "Borrower". In addition, paragraphs 15 and 16 of the mortgage refer to covenants and warranties of "Mortgagor" and make no reference to the "Mortgagor" as the "Borrower."

3. The mortgage was duly recorded in the public records of Horry County. On that same date, Quickel signed a promissory note in the same principal amount. (Prior Order, p. 4).
    - This Finding of Fact is erroneous because the promissory note was executed by Quickel, as member of Cajun, on May 1, 2009, and the mortgage was initially recorded in the public records of Horry County on May 4, 2009 and re-recorded on May 5, 2009.
4. The assignment was binding upon Mrs. Jenrette, as it was contained in the mortgage the POA authorized Quickel to sign. (Prior Order, p. 5).
    - This Finding of Fact is erroneous due to the following: (a) the various provisions contained within the mortgage; (b) the POA does not contain any language relating to an insurance policy or policy proceeds; and (c) the POA lists the following property descriptions for which the POA pertains: Lot 67/Country Club @ Long Ave/ TMS 123-00-03-064, Lot 68/Country Club @ Long Ave/ TMS 123-00-03-065, 1600 Country Club Drive/ TMS 123-00-02-069, Lot 40/Country Club @ Long Ave/ TMS 123-00-02-170, Lot 48/Country Club @ Long Ave/ TMS 123-00-02-171, but the subject property is located at 104 Country Club Drive.
5. Mrs. Jenrette was joined as a defendant as the record owner of the subject property and her other four lots. (Prior Order, p. 5).
    - Pursuant to the Master-in-Equity's Order of Foreclosure and Sale that was introduced into evidence as Jenrette's Exhibit 7 during the trial, Mrs. Jenrette was also joined as a mortgagor in the foreclosure action (Horry County Civil Action No. 2010-CP-26-04456).

6. On April 18, 2011, a hearing for foreclosure and sale was held, and the Master-in-Equity issued an Order of Foreclosure and Sale which was filed April 25, 2011. (Prior Order, p. 6).

    - The Master-in-Equity's Order of Foreclosure and Sale introduced into evidence during the trial was filed on April 26, 2011.

FAILURE TO MAKE FINDINGS OF FACT SUPPORTED BY THE EVIDENCE

The Court failed to make the following Findings of Fact, all of which were supported by substantial evidence introduced during the trial:

1. No sums secured by the mortgage were advanced or otherwise lent by the Bank to Mrs. Jenrette.
2. The obligation for the payment of the indebtedness secured by the mortgage was that of the maker of the promissory note, Cajun, and its principal, Quickel, who was a guarantor of the repayment of the indebtedness.
3. Because Mrs. Jenrette procured the insurance policy for her own benefit and paid all premiums thereon, she was the sole insured or loss payee listed on the insurance policy.
4. The Master-in-Equity's Order of Foreclosure and Sale that was introduced into evidence during the trial as Jenrette's Exhibit 7 provides that the total debt secured by the mortgage in the sum of $390,951.97 shall constitute the total judgment debt due to the Bank, and that Cajun and Quickel are liable for the aforesaid mortgage debt.
5. The Bank claims it is entitled to the entire proceeds on deposit to satisfy the remaining total judgment debt owed by the judgment debtors Cajun and Quickel pursuant to the Master-in-Equity's Order of Foreclosure and Sale filed on April 26, 2011 and the Order of Deficiency Judgment as to Cajun and Quickel filed on September 6, 2011.

6. Mrs. Jenrette also claims that the Bank is not entitled to an equitable lien as she is not obligated in law or in equity to pay the indebtedness owed by Cajun and Quickel under the Order of Deficiency Judgment.
7. Page 1 of the mortgage defines "Mortgagor" as Rosemary Long Jenrette and provides that the note, note agreement, loan agreement or revolving loan agreement signed by Cajun and Quickel, as Cajun's member, will be referred herein as the "Note" or "obligation."
8. Paragraph 1 of the mortgage provides in pertinent part: "As further security for all sums secured by this Mortgage, Borrower assigns to Lender all rents and profits arising from the Property." However, paragraph 3 of the mortgage omits any such language regarding any insurance policy or insurance proceeds serving as further security for all sums secured by the mortgage.
9. Paragraph 8A of the mortgage provides that any default by Borrower as described in the note shall be deemed a default under the mortgage. However, the record reflects that Mrs. Jenrette was not a party to the note.
10. Paragraph 15 and Paragraph 16 of the mortgage contain provisions and/or obligations between Mortgagor and Lender rather than Borrower, as those provisions do not make reference to a "Borrower."
11. Paragraph 16 of the mortgage provides in pertinent part: "The obligations and liabilities of Mortgagor under this paragraph shall survive the foreclosure of the Mortgage, the delivery of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, the cancellation or release of record of this Mortgage." However, paragraph 3 of the mortgage omits any such language relating to any insurance policies or insurance proceeds.

12. The Bank never requested Mrs. Jenrette to obtain an insurance policy which named the Bank as an additional insured or loss payee. At trial, the Bank introduced the Bank's exhibit 17 over the objection of Mrs. Jenrette even though it was executed by Quickel in his capacity as a member of Cajun. Pursuant to the Bank's exhibit 17, the Bank was in possession of the agency name and policy number pertaining to Mrs. Jenrette's insurance policy at the time of the closing of the loan that was secured by the mortgage. However, the Bank never inquired or took any action with respect to any insurance policy or any insurance proceeds paid thereunder prior to the date on which the subject property incurred a fire loss.

13. The record reflects that Quickel did not sign any document as Mrs. Quickel's attorney-in-fact which made Mrs. Jenrette a party to the note or otherwise obligated her to pay the indebtedness due under the note.

14. The Bank's Exhibit 18, admitted over Mrs. Jenrette's objection, was signed by Quickel in his individual capacity.

ERRORS IN CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Court erred in making the following Conclusions of Law:

1. "Mrs. Jenrette was the "Borrower" as that term is defined in the mortgage." (Prior Order, p. 7).

    - This Conclusion of Law is erroneous due to the following: (a) Mrs. Jenrette is defined on page 1 of the mortgage as the "Mortgagor" and merely referenced sometimes therein as "Borrower;" and (b) the term "Borrower" is not defined in the mortgage. "In South Carolina, a mortgage is a mere security for a debt. Care must be taken to remember that a security instrument is not a debt; at most it is evidence of a debt." Blackwell v. Blackwell, 289 S.C. 470, 472, 346 S.E.2d 731, 732 (Ct. App. 1986). "A court must enforce an unambiguous contract according to its terms regardless of its wisdom or folly, apparent unreasonableness, or the parties' failure to guard their rights carefully." U.S. Bank Trust National Association v. Bell, 385 S.C. 364, 379, 684 S.E.2d 199, 207 (Ct. App. 2009). "Where the agreement in question is a written contract, the intention of the parties must be inferred from the contents of the whole agreement and not from any one of its several parts." Harmon v. Bank of Danville, 287 S.C. 449, 453, 339 S.E.2d 150, 153 (Ct. App. 1985). Borrower is defined as "a person or entity to whom money or something else is lent." Black's Law Dictionary (7th ed. 1999). '"A court of equity may not add or substitute other parties for those appearing on the face of a contract where the effect may be to make a new contract"' Independence National Bank v. Buncombe Professional Park, LLC, 402 S.C. 514, 521, 741 S.E.2d 572, 576 (Ct. App. 2013) (quoting 66 Am. Jur. 2d Reformation of Instruments § 51 (2011)). Paragraph 15 of the mortgage references "Mortgagor" and makes no reference to a "Borrower." Paragraph 7 of the mortgage provides in pertinent part that: "The notice shall provide a period of not less than 30 days from the date the notice is delivered or mailed within which Borrower must pay all sums secured by this Security Instrument." The record reflects that Mrs. Jenrette was not an obligor of the indebtedness due under the note. There is no evidence that could reasonably support a finding that the Bank ever loaned anything to Mrs. Jenrette. Therefore, Mrs. Jenrette is not the "Borrower" in the context to which that term is referenced in the Mortgage.

2. "These provisions are enforceable against Mrs. Jenrette because her son, Mr. Quickel, signed the mortgage as her duly appointed attorney-in-fact, and the power of attorney states that 'any act lawfully done hereunder shall be binding on me.'" (Prior Order, p. 7).

   - This Conclusion of Law is erroneous because the record reflects that Quickel did not execute any document as Mrs. Jenrette's attorney-in-fact which obligated her to pay the indebtedness due under the note, nor did Mrs. Jenrette dispute the validity of the execution of the mortgage by Quickel as her attorney-in-fact. The POA makes no reference to any insurance policy or insurance proceeds, nor does it describe any of the properties referenced therein as "104 Country Club Drive." Page 1 of the mortgage provides that the note and loan agreement signed by Cajun and Quickel, as member of Cajun, is referenced therein as "obligation." Mrs. Jenrette is not the "Borrower" in the context to which that terms is referenced in the mortgage. Therefore, the Court erred in concluding that the language in the POA that states: "any act lawfully done shall be binding on me" operates to bind Mrs. Jenrette to paragraphs 3A and 3B of the mortgage.

3. "The provisions of paragraphs 3A and 3B of the mortgage are clear and these provisions control and are binding on Mrs. Jenrette." (Prior Order, pp. 7-8).

   - This Conclusion of Law is erroneous because Mrs. Jenrette is defined by the mortgage as "Mortgagor" and merely referenced sometimes therein as "Borrower." In addition, the Bank was awarded both legal and equitable remedies when it was awarded judgment against Cajun and Quickel for the indebtedness due under the note, and judgment of foreclosure and sale of the subject property secured by the mortgage. "The courts can enforce legal contracts of parties, as made, up to the time of the judgment, but, when the judgment is pronounced, the rights of the parties are determined up to that moment, and then the judgment must be enforced according to the law applicable to judgments." Moore v. Holland, 16 S.C. 15, 28 (1881). "A judgment is the final determination of the rights of the parties in the action, and is conclusive of all matter necessarily involved, whether raised or not, especially if the party denying the adjudication knew of the matter and could have interposed it at the previous trial, either in support of a claim or as a defense." Ryan v. The Southern B. & L. Association, 50 S.C. 185, 188, 27 S.E. 618, 619 (1897). The Master-in-Equity's Order of Foreclosure and Sale constituted a final determination of the rights of the Bank and Mrs. Jenrette with respect to the mortgage. The Release of Lien Mortgage Satisfaction filed on September 8, 2011 operated to release, cancel, and satisfy the mortgage. Further, the record is clear that the Bank had knowledge of the insurance proceeds and that it was not named in Mrs. Jenrette's insurance policy as an additional insured or loss payee before it was awarded judgment of foreclosure and sale. Despite such knowledge, the Bank elected to proceed with the hearing before the Master-in-Equity to obtain judgment against Quickel and Cajun for the indebtedness due under the note, and to obtain foreclosure of the mortgage. Therefore, the terms of paragraphs 3A and 3B of the mortgage are not binding on Mrs. Jenrette.

4. "The assignment in the mortgage survived the cancellation of the mortgage and binds Mrs. Jenrette." (Prior Order, p. 7).

   - This Conclusion of Law is erroneous because the terms of the mortgage are clear that the parties did not intend paragraphs 3A and 3B of the mortgage to survive foreclosure, cancellation, or release of the mortgage. "Where the agreement in question is a written contract, the intention of the parties must be inferred from the contents of the whole agreement and not from any one of its several parts." Harmon, at 453, 339 S.E.2d at 153. Paragraph 16 of the mortgage provides in pertinent part that: "The obligations and liabilities of Mortgagor under this paragraph shall survive the foreclosure of the Mortgage, the delivery of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, the cancellation or release of record of this Mortgage." Paragraphs 3A and 3B of the mortgage do not reference a "Mortgagor," nor do those paragraphs reference any obligations or liabilities of "Mortgagor." In addition, paragraphs 3A and 3B do not provide that any obligations or liabilities shall, may, or will survive the foreclosure of the mortgage, or the cancellation or release of the mortgage. The clear and unambiguous terms of paragraphs 3A, 3B, and 16 of the mortgage establish that the parties to the mortgage intended that the "Mortgagor's" obligations or liabilities, if any, under paragraphs 3A and 3B shall terminate upon the foreclosure, cancellation, or release of the mortgage.

5. "Mrs. Jenrette is the 'Borrower' under the duly authorized and executed mortgage, and as Borrower, she made the assignment contained in paragraph 3B."

   - This Conclusion of Law is erroneous pursuant to Sections 1, 2, and 3 above.

6. "Mrs. Jenrette (through Mr. Quickel's execution of the mortgage under the authority of the power of attorney) indisputably assigned her personal rights under the insurance contract to the Lender in paragraph 3B." (Prior Order, p. 8).

   - This Conclusion of Law is erroneous pursuant to Sections 1, 2, and 3 above.

7. "The purpose of the assignment was, in my view, to provide additional security for the mortgage debt." (Prior Order, p. 12).

   - This Conclusion of Law is erroneous because the provisions of the mortgage are clear that the parties to the mortgage did not intend that the insurance proceeds serve as additional security for the indebtedness due under the note. "A court must enforce an unambiguous contract according to its terms regardless of its wisdom or folly, apparent unreasonableness, or the parties' failure to guard their rights carefully." Bell, at 379, 684 S.E.2d at 207. "Where the agreement in question is a written contract, the intention of the parties must be inferred from the contents of the whole agreement and not from any one of its several parts." Harmon, at 453, 339 S.E.2d at 153. "Generally, a mortgagee is not entitled to the rents and profits from the mortgaged property as a legal incident to, or as a legal right growing out of, his mortgage." Sellars v. The First Colonial Corp., 276 S.C. 548, 550, 280 S.E.2d 805, 806 (1981). Whether the Bank is able to "subject the rents and profits of the mortgage premises to the payment of ... [its] debt, depends entirely upon the contract of the parties, as stated in the mortgage." Id. at 551, 280 S.E.2d at 806. Paragraph 1 of the mortgage provides in pertinent part that: "As further security for all sums secured by this Mortgage, Borrower assigns to Lender all rents and profits arising from the Property." However, paragraph 3 of the mortgage does not provide that any insurance policy or insurance proceeds shall, may, or will serve as security for any sums secured by the mortgage. The record is clear that the Bank did not require Mrs. Jenrette to obtain or provide proof of any insurance policy prior to the closing of the loan secured by the mortgage. At trial, there was no evidence introduced that could reasonably support a factual finding that the Bank required or requested Mrs. Jenrette to obtain an insurance policy naming it as an additional insured or loss payee. Pursuant to the Bank's exhibit 17, the Bank was in possession of the agency name and policy number pertaining to Mrs. Jenrette's insurance policy in May of 2009. The record is clear that the Bank neither contacted Mrs. Jenrette nor the insurance company prior to the date on which the subject property incurred a fire loss. Based upon the clear and unambiguous language of paragraph 1 and paragraph 3 of the mortgage, there was not an express intent that any insurance policy or insurance proceeds serve as additional security for the mortgage debt.

8. "In the instant case, there was a mortgage debt, specific property (the insurance proceeds) to which the debt attached under paragraph 3B of the mortgage, and an expressed intent that the proceeds serve as additional security for payment of the mortgage debt." (Prior Order, p. 13).

   - This Conclusion of Law is erroneous because the Bank failed to introduce any evidence that could reasonably support a factual finding that Mrs. Jenrette owed a debt to the Bank, or that there was an express intent that any insurance policy or insurance proceeds serve as collateral to secure the loan to Cajun and Quickel. '"For an equitable lien to arise, there must be a debt, specific property to which the debt attaches, and an express or implied intent that the property serve as security for payment of the debt.'" Chase Home Finance, LLC v. Risher, 405 S.C. 202, 209, 746 S.E.2d 471, 475 (Ct. App. 2013) (quoting Regions Bank v. Wingard Props., Inc., 394 S.C. 241, 250, 715 S.E.2d 348, 353 (Ct. App. 2011)). If the party asserting "an equitable lien cannot satisfy any one of these requirements, this remedy is not available." Id. "If the creditors have a lien by mortgage, judgment, or execution, they can insure their own interest, but they can have no right to attach insurance money due to anyone but their own debtor." Steinmeyer v. Steinmeyer, 64 S.C. 413, 421, 42 S.E. 184, 186 (1902). In Risher, the South Carolina Court of Appeals held that the Master-in-Equity was correct in requiring the bank to show that a specific debt was owed by the defendant, and holding that no property existed on which the obligation could attach since the defendant had no obligation to the bank. Risher, at 208-9, 746 S.E.2d at 475. In the instant action, the record is clear that Mrs. Jenrette was not a party to the note or otherwise obligated to repay the indebtedness due under the note. Paragraph 3 of the mortgage, unlike paragraph 1 therein relating to the assignment of rents and profits, does not provide that any insurance policy or insurance proceeds shall, may, or will serve as security for any sums secured by the mortgage. In addition, the Court found the provisions of paragraph 3 of the mortgage to be clear, and no issue of ambiguity with respect to the mortgage was raised by the Bank during the trial. Therefore, the record is clear that the Bank failed to offer any evidence that could reasonably support a finding that Mrs. Jenrette owed a specific debt to the Bank, and that there was an express intent that any insurance policy or insurance proceeds serve as security for the loan to Cajun and Quickel.

9. "Reliance upon that statute [S.C. Code Section 29-3-660] is misplaced, as the Bank is not seeking a deficiency judgment against Mrs. Jenrette." (Prior Order, p. 13).

- This Conclusion of Law is erroneous because the entry of the Master-in-Equity's Order of Foreclosure and Sale extinguished the mortgage from serving as security of the indebtedness due under the note. More specifically, "a mortgage represents a security for an obligation, but not the full payment thereof." American General Financial Services, Inc. v. Brown, 376 S.C. 580, 583, 658 S.E.2d 99, 100 (2008). "A judgment is the final determination of the rights of the parties in the action, and is conclusive of all matter necessarily involved," Ryan, at 188, 27 S.E. at 619, and the recordation of the Release of Lien Mortgage Satisfaction operated to release, cancel, and satisfy the mortgage. S.C. Code Ann. § 29-3-780 (2012). However, S.C. Code Section 29-3-780 is not "construed to satisfy any unpaid portion of the debt secured by the mortgage." Id. South Carolina Courts have found "that if the mortgaged premises are sold under a foreclosure decree and fail to bring a sufficient amount to satisfy the debt, the mortgagee is entitled, absent any statutory limitation or waiver on his part, to a personal judgment for the remaining deficiency." Perpetual Bldg. & Loan Ass'n of Anderson v. Braun, 270 S.C. 338, 340, 242 S.E.2d 407, 408 (1978). This remedy is codified by statute and permits a court in a mortgage foreclosure action to "adjudge and direct the payment by the mortgagor of any residue of the mortgage debt that may remain unsatisfied after a sale of the mortgaged premises in cases in which the mortgagor shall be personally liable for the debt secured by such mortgage." S.C. Code Ann. § 29-3-660 (2012). In the instant action, the Bank foreclosed on the mortgage and was awarded judgment against Cajun and Quickel for the debt secured by the mortgage, and judicial sale of the subject property. The Bank seeks to assert an equitable lien on the insurance proceeds to satisfy the indebtedness owed by Cajun and Quickel under the Order of Deficiency Judgment. Mrs. Jenrette relies on the Deficiency Judgment Statute to show that construction of S.C. Code Section 29-3-780 with respect to the unpaid portion of the debt is intended to apply to deficiency judgments awarded under S.C. Code Section 29-3-660. Therefore, Mrs. Jenrette's reliance on S.C. Code Section 29-3-660 is not misplaced as it must be considered when determining whether the provisions of the mortgage survived the recordation of the Release of Lien Mortgage Satisfaction.

10. The Court's reliance on Freshwater v. Colonial Production Credit Association, 286 S.C. 387, 334 S.E.2d 142 (Ct. App. 1985); Blackwell v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance, Co., 237 S.C. 649, 118 S.E.2d 701 (1961); Jones v. Equicredit Corporation of South Carolina, 347 S.C. 535, 556 S.E.2d 713 (Ct. App. 2001); and the persuasive authority from other jurisdictions that are in accord with the South Carolina Court of Appeals' conclusion in Jones v. Equicredit, supra, to conclude that the Bank, as mortgagee, is entitled to collect insurance proceeds if the foreclosure sale does not satisfy the mortgage indebtedness. (Prior Order, pp. 8-12).

    - Freshwater and Blackwell do not apply to the instant action as the insured persons in those cases were obligated to pay the indebtedness. In addition, those cases did not involve a real estate mortgage, real property, or the foreclosure of a mortgage subsequent to the parties' knowledge of the existence of the insurance proceeds. The items of personal property in Freshwater and Blackwell which secured the loan were an automobile and a shrimp boat. In the instant action, Mrs. Jenrette, as a non-debtor mortgagor, was not obligated to pay the indebtedness owed under the note as she merely pledged her real property as additional security for the loan to Cajun.

- Jones does not apply to the instant action as the insured in that case was obligated to repay the indebtedness due under the note. In Jones, the insured was a mortgagor to a purchase money mortgage which secured a loan that was obtained to purchase the secured real property, and the insurance policy was obtained by the insured two years after the mortgagor/debtor received the loan proceeds to purchase the secured real property. "A mortgagee's rights under an insurance policy are dependent upon the existence of a secured debt owed [to] the mortgagee by the mortgagor-insured." Fort Hill Federal Savings & Loan Ass'n v. South Carolina Farm Bureau Insurance Company, 281 S.C. 532, 537, 316 S.E.2d 684, 687 (Ct. App. 1984).

ISSUES RAISED AT TRIAL, BUT NOT RULED UPON

1. The effect of S.C. Code Sections 29-3-660 and 29-3-780 with respect to the recordation of the Release of Lien Mortgage Satisfaction, and whether the provisions of the mortgage survive the recordation thereof and require the insurance proceeds to be paid to the Bank as partial satisfaction of the indebtedness owed under the Order of Deficiency Judgment.

2. Whether the Master-in-Equity's Order of Foreclosure and Sale constituted a final determination of the rights and obligations with respect to the mortgage.
3. Whether the Bank's failure to allege or prove it lacked an adequate remedy at law bars an award of an equitable lien as "'equity is generally only available when a party is without an adequate remedy at law'" Risher, at 209, 746 S.E.2d at 574.
4. The rules pertaining to the construction of the mortgage as a contract when the issue of ambiguity is not raised during the trial.

In support of this Motion, Mrs. Jenrette will rely upon the pleadings, the trial transcript, the evidence admitted during the trial, the Trial Brief, applicable law, and such other matters as may be presented to the Court at the time of the hearing on this matter. For the reasons set forth above, Defendant Rosemary Jenrette respectfully requests this Honorable Court to reconsider its prior order and issue an amended order.

The undersigned certifies, pursuant to Rule 11, South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, that prior consultation with opposing counsel is not required prior to the service and filing of the within Motion.

1 (On the record, December 16, 2013.)
2 THE COURT: All right, we're on the record now,
3 National Security Fire and Casualty Company versus Rosemary
4 Jenrette and others, the other being Horry County State Bank.
5 In the pretrial conference I believe it was established that
6 Horry County State Bank would proceed first, is that right?
7 MR. MULLINS: That's correct, Your Honor.
8 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: All right, if either side wants to 10 make any opening remarks I'll be glad to hear from you or you
11 can just call your first witness. I've read your pretrial
12 briefs. I just wanted to ---
13 MR. MULLINS: It's non-jury, Your Honor. If Mr.
14 DesChamps doesn't want to make an opening I certainly don't 15 see the need to.
16 THE COURT: All right, that's fine. Has 17 everything been pre-marked at least for ID?
18 MR. MULLINS: Yes, sir.
19 THE COURT: Okay, and you'll let me know when the 20 disputed exhibits arise; is that right?
21 MR. MULLINS: Yes, sir.
22 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, yes, Your Honor. I don't 23 believe we've pre-marked ours for identification purposes, but 24 ours are pretty simple.
25 THE COURT: All right.

1 MR. DESCHAMPS: We only - we, you know, yeah, we only
2 got five or six of them.
3 THE COURT: Okay.
4 MR. DESCHAMPS: We'll take them - take that long,
5 Your Honor.
6 THE COURT: All right, you can call your first
7 witness.
8 MR. MULLINS: Your Honor, I'd like to call a
9 witness a bit out of order. She's under my subpoena and she's 10 here in Conway, Ms. Faye Bradham.
11 THE COURT: Okay.
12 MR. MULLINS: If I could go ahead and get her out
13 of the way, Your Honor.
14 THE COURT: All right.
15 Whereupon, Faye Bradham was called to the stand, duly
16 sworn by the clerk and testified as follows:
17 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, prior to the witness
18 being sworn in if I might I don't believe that I was, and I
19 could be wrong, that I was served with a copy of a subpoena
20 for, for Ms. Bradham if she was under subpoena.
21 THE COURT: Do you object to her being called?
22 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
23 THE COURT: The basis for that is that you didn't
24 get a copy of the subpoena?
25 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Well, would she not be a logical
2 witness in the case regardless?
3 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, I mean, there's an 4 existing policy in effect and I wouldn't know what her, what 5 her testimony would have any ---
6 THE COURT: All right, I'll, I'll ---
7 MR. DESCHAMPS: I wouldn't think it would be relevant
8 at all, Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: I'll overrule your objection on the 10 fact, on the basis that she wasn't - you didn't get a copy of 11 the subpoena. Mr. Mullins, do you want to cover that for the 12 record?
13 MR. MULLINS: Yes, Your Honor, I'd have a copy of 14 the document that was sent and CC'd to Mr. DesChamps on 15 November 2nd, 2013. That was also the subpoena that was also 16 sent to Ms. - that was to Mr. Quickel, I'm sorry, give me just 17 a moment, please.
18 THE COURT: Okay.
19 MR. MULLINS: This case was also previously 20 continued, Judge. It was set in front of Judge Seals and at 21 that time we had filed a motion to continue it. Ms. Bradham
22 had a convention she had to attend at that time and for 23 convenience of everyone we continued it there. She was under 24 subpoena for that term of court.
25 THE COURT: Well, she's listed as a witness on

1 his pretrial brief. Is it, is it a surprise that she's being
2 called at all?
3 MR. DESCHAMPS: No, sir, Your Honor.
4 THE COURT: All right, I'm going to allow her to 5 testify and you can raise any ---
6 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
7 THE COURT: --- relevance or other objections
8 that you'd like to.
9 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir. Thank you, Your Honor.
10 THE COURT: All right.
11 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
12 THE CLERK: State your name for the Court,
13 please, ma'am, and spell your last name.
14 MS. BRADHAM: Faye Bradham, B-R-A-D-H-A-M.
15 MR. MULLINS: May it please the Court, Your Honor?
16 THE COURT: Yes, sir.
17 DIRECT EXAMINATION
18 BY MR. MULLINS:
19 Q Ms. Bradham, tell the Court where you work at, ma'am.
20 A I'm employed by Bradham Insurance Agency.
21 Q Okay, is that here in Conway, South Carolina?
22 A That is correct.
23 Q And how long have you been an insurance agent, Ms.
24 Bradham?
25 A Since 1987.

1 Q Okay, and do you know either the Horry County State Bank
2 or Ms. Jenrette who are the parties in this case?
3 A Do I know them?
4 Q Yes, ma'am.
5 A I know who they are, yes.
6 Q Okay, were you aware of some coverage that was written on 7 a property here in Conway at 104 Country Club Drive?
8 A Yes.
9 Q All right, could you tell us about that particular - how 10 you became aware of that?
11 A How I became aware of it?
12 Q Yes, ma'am.
13 A Ms. Jenrette came into our office and purchased the 14 policy.
15 Q Okay, let me hand you what's been pre-marked as Defendant
16 Horry County State Bank's Number One and ask you if you
17 recognize that document.
18 A Yes, sir.
19 Q What is that?
20 A That's a copy of the declaration page.
21 Q Okay, and is there a policy number on that document,
22 ma'am?
23 A Yes, sir.
24 Q What's that - is that the letters at the top?
25 A Yes, sir.

1 Q I can and I realize they're a little small, I'm having
2 difficulty with it, can you tell me what the number is if you
3 know right off?
4 A Let me look on mine. It might be a little bit better.
5 The policy number is 836223.
6 Q And there are another series of numbers following after 7 that. What is that?
8 A 205638.
9 Q Okay, and who was the person that purchased that
10 coverage?
11 A Rosemary Jenrette.
12 Q All right, is that document kept in the ordinary course
13 of business of both Bradham Insurance Company?
14 A Yes, sir.
15 Q All right, and did you issue this on behalf of National 16 Security Fire?
17 A Yes, sir.
18 Q Was that who you placed the coverage with?
19 A Yes, sir.
20 Q All right, is this a true and accurate copy of your 21 records that you provided to me and Mr. DesChamps?
22 A Yes, sir.
23 Q Okay.
24 MR. MULLINS: Your Honor, we'd move to admit
25 Defendant Horry County State Bank's One.

1 THE COURT: Any objection?
2 MR. DESCHAMPS: No objection, Your Honor.
3 THE COURT: Okay, that's in.
4 (Whereupon, Defendant, Horry County State Bank's Exhibit
5 Number One [Policy] admitted into evidence and appropriately
6 marked.)
7 BY MR. MULLINS:
8 Q Ms. Bradham, looking through that, ma'am, what kind of 9 coverage was provided for that property at 104 Country Club
10 Drive?
11 A It was a dwelling fire policy.
12 Q Okay, and when was that placed in effect?
13 A March of 2009.
14 Q What was the coverage available?
15 A $100,000 on the dwelling.
16 Q Okay, was there anything for cleanup costs in the event
17 of catastrophe?
18 A I think there was maybe $5,000 debris removal.
19 Q Okay, and let me ask you a question, ma'am, about another
20 document. Did we - did you also provide a full copy of your 21 file in this matter to both Mr. DesChamps and I pursuant to my 22 subpoena?
23 A Yes, sir.
24 Q All right, did you bring a copy of that file, your 25 original file with you today?

1 A Yes, sir.
2 Q Let me ask you, this has been pre-marked as Defendant's
3 Number Two, Defendant Horry County State Bank's Number Two for 4 the purpose of the record. Do you recognize that document?
5 A Yes, sir.
6 Q Is that a true and accurate copy of the rest of your 7 file?
8 A Yes, sir.
9 Q Okay, all right, do you keep that in the ordinary course
10 of business?
11 A Yes, sir.
12 MR. MULLINS: We'd move to admit Defendant's Number
13 Two, Your Honor.
14 THE COURT: Any objection?
15 MR. DESCHAMPS: No, Your Honor.
16 THE COURT: All right, Two is in. So, Number One
17 is the policy. Number Two is her office file, is that right?
18 MR. MULLINS: That's correct, Your Honor.
19 (Whereupon, Defendant Horry County State Bank's Exhibit
20 Number Two [Office File of Bradham] admitted into evidence and 21 appropriately marked.)
22 BY MR. MULLINS:
23 Q And Ms. Bradham, were you aware of an unfortunate fire
24 loss on this property?
25 A Yes, sir.

1 Q How did that happen? How did you become aware of that?
2 A Well, I live in the neighborhood. First of all, I - when
3 something like that happens we normally everybody pretty much
4 knows about it, but first of all I knew that there had been a
5 fire there and then Ms. Jenrette called our office and 6 reported the claim.
7 Q Okay, after the fire loss incurred were you also 8 contacted by Defendant Horry County State Bank regarding the 9 claim?
10 A Yes, sir.
11 Q All right, and did they send you a copy of their mortgage
12 and ask you to protect their interest?
13 A Yes, sir.
14 Q All right, when a dispute arose over these proceeds,
15 ma'am, what did you do?
16 A Of course I contacted our company.
17 Q Okay, and was a check eventually - was this claim
18 eventually processed and the policy honored?
19 A Yes, sir.
20 Q All right, in your records, ma'am, did you see where 21 anyone requested Horry County State Bank be added as a loss
22 payee anywhere on the policy?
23 A Not before the loss.
24 Q Okay, and as a result of the dispute over the funds how 25 was the check issued?

1 A The check was issued to Ms. Jenrette and Horry County
2 State Bank.
3 Q All right, do you know if that check was ever negotiated?
4 A Not to my knowledge.
5 MR. MULLINS: If I may have just a moment, Your
6 Honor.
7 THE COURT: All right.
8 BY MR. MULLINS:
9 Q Ms. Bradham, what is the beginning date on the policy
10 where you first got that coverage for Ms. Jenrette?
11 A March 9th of 2009.
12 Q Thank you, ma'am. Please answer any questions that Mr.
13 DesChamps or the Court has for you.
14 CROSS EXAMINATION
15 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
16 Q Good morning, Ms. Bradham?
17 A Good morning.
18 Q I ask you to look at the dec page, the declaration page
19 for the policy period from March 9, 2009 to March 9, 2010?
20 A Yes, sir.
21 Q Do you have that in front of you?
22 A Yes, sir.
23 Q And if you will look down on that form ---
24 THE COURT: Is this Exhibit One or Two?
25 MR. DESCHAMPS: That is Exhibit Two I believe.

1 THE COURT: Okay.
2 MR. DESCHAMPS:
3 Q Exhibit Two, the dec page, the front, front page of your
4 entire exhibit from your file?
5 A Yes, sir.
6 Q Okay, and you see where it says down, the information it
7 says mortgage information, mortgagee name and address and loan
8 number. Is there any mortgagee listed there?
9 A No, sir.
10 Q Okay, there's no loan number and no mortgagee?
11 A No, sir.
12 Q That is blank, correct?
13 A No, sir.
14 Q And going in, also in the documents that you have just 15 discussed or that was in your file that is Exhibit Two there
16 appears to be an application for the time period March 9, 2009
17 to March 9, 2010, one, two, three, four, it's the fifth page 18 back I believe in the, in the Exhibit Two that, that you've 19 been given?
20 A Yes, sir.
21 Q Okay, and in that document where it says mortgage
22 information and it has mortgagee name and address and loan
23 number, is that blank?
24 A There is no mortgage listed on the - that page.
25 Q Okay, all right, all right, and if you go to page two

1 which is underwriting questions?
2 A Yes, sir.
3 Q Could you read to the Court or publish number two which 4 is the underwriting question begins, "Does applicant," could
5 you read that please?
6 A "Does applicant have full unconditional ownership of the 7 building and upon which it is located?"
8 Q I believe that's land upon which it is located?
9 A It says, "Does applicant have full unconditional
10 ownership of the building and land upon which it is located."
11 Q And then it has a place where yes or no and how is that 12 marked?
13 A Yes.
14 Q How is that marked, yes, and at the bottom of that page 15 that is signed by Rosemary Jenrette and by Barbara Bradham; is 16 that correct?
17 A Yes, sir.
18 Q And that was on March 15, 2009; is that correct?
19 A Yes, sir.
20 Q And I think it is your testimony that during the period
21 of time from the inception of the insurance in March of 2009
22 until the casualty loss in January of 2011 you received no
23 correspondence from or did you receive any correspondence at 24 all from Horry County State Bank asking that they be named,
25 that the bank be named as a loss payee or under the insurance

1 policy?
2 A No, sir.
3 Q Okay, to your knowledge who paid the premiums on the 4 insurance policy?
5 A Ms. Jenrette.
6 Q And she would've paid the premium in - from March of 7 2009 till March of 2010; correct?
8 A Correct.
9 Q And then the policy was renewed again in March of 2010
10 for an additional year; is that correct?
11 A That is correct.
12 Q And she paid the premium there; is that correct?
13 A That's correct.
14 MR. DESCHAMPS: I have no further questions, Your
15 Honor.
16 THE COURT: Redirect?
17 MR. MULLINS: No redirect, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: All right, thank you, ma'am. You can 19 step down.
20 MR. MULLINS: Since she's under my subpoena, Judge, 21 I'd ask she be excused unless she'd like to stay.
22 THE COURT: Any objection?
23 MR. DESCHAMPS: No, no objections, Your Honor.
24 THE COURT: All right, Ms. Bradham, you can stay
25 if you'd like or you can leave.

1 MS. BRADHAM: I think I'll leave.
2 THE COURT: All right, okay, next witness.
3 MR. MULLINS: We'd call Robert Smith of Horry
4 County State Bank.
5 Whereupon, Robert W. Smith was called to the stand, duly
6 sworn by the clerk and testified as follows:
7 THE CLERK: State your name for the Court,
8 please, sir.
9 MR. SMITH: Robert W. Smith.
10 MR. MULLINS: May it please the Court, Your Honor?
11 THE COURT: Yes, sir.
12 DIRECT EXAMINATION
13 BY MR. MULLINS:
14 Q Mr. Smith, is and I'm used to calling you Robert. Would 15 that be okay for the record?
16 A Absolutely.
17 Q All right, Robert, tell the Court where you work at?
18 A Horry County State Bank.
19 Q And how long have you worked there?
20 A About four years.
21 Q Okay, is this your first employment in the banking
22 industry?
23 A No, it's not.
24 Q How often have you worked at a bank in your career?
25 A Probably a total of about 19 or 20 years.

1 Q All right, what banks have you worked for?
2 A C&S Bank and then Anchor Bank and then Horry County
3 State Bank.
4 Q All right, did you and I forgot to ask you for the 5 record, how old are you, Mr. Smith?
6 A Have to think about that, 57.
7 Q All right, and your current position at Horry County
8 State Bank?
9 A Vice President in charge of special assets as well as 10 city exec for Conway.
11 Q Okay, have you held any prior positions at the bank?
12 A With this bank?
13 Q Yes, sir.
14 A No, I've been in special assets the whole time I've been 15 employed with the bank.
16 Q And when you worked for other banks what positions did
17 you hold?
18 A I was a lending officer, I was a branch manager,
19 management trainee, assistant branch manager and a commercial
20 loan officer.
21 Q Have you attended any schools or institutions to study
22 banking?
23 A I have.
24 Q And where at?
25 A South Carolina Banking School and then the School of

1 Banking of the South at LSU.
2 Q All right, and when did you attend those?
3 A South Carolina Banking School was three summers like
4 1980 through '82 and then LSU was 1988 through '91 I think.
5 Q Did you complete those courses?
6 A I did.
7 Q All right, is that a requirement for your job at Horry
8 County State Bank?
9 A Not really.
10 Q Now, are you familiar with the transactions involving 11 Rosemary Jenrette, Michael Brooks Quickel and Cajun Carolina
12 LLC?
13 A I am.
14 Q How did you become familiar with those?
15 A In special assets that loan was turned over to me to 16 begin the litigation of the foreclosure.
17 Q Okay, and what foreclosure was that, Robert, that - are 18 you in charge of - let me rephrase that question. Are you in 19 charge of deciding when something is special assets that's 20 going to go to foreclosure?
21 A Yes.
22 Q All right, do you have a loan committee also?
23 A We do.
24 Q Okay, and when did you make the decision that the - that 25 particular transaction was in financial dire straits?

1 A I don't remember the exact date. All I know is that
2 when the loan became 90 days past due the loan officer refers
3 it to me and then at that time I met with the loan committee
4 that week and they requested that I engage an attorney to 5 begin the litigation.
6 Q Okay, and did you begin litigation against both Cajun
7 Carolina LLC, Ms. Jenrette and Mr. Michael Brooks Quickel?
8 A We did.
9 Q Why did you name all three of those as parties in the 10 foreclosure?
11 A Because they were the - either the borrower or the 12 guarantor of the note and/or landowner.
13 Q Okay, and if you - are you familiar with all the books
14 and records of Horry County State Bank?
15 A I am.
16 Q Including how this loan came about?
17 A I am.
18 Q Do you have full access to all those documents?
19 A I do.
20 Q Let me hand you what has been marked as Defendant Horry
21 County State Bank's Number Three and ask if you recognize that 22 document?
23 A I do.
24 Q All right, what is that?
25 A This is a commitment letter that we issued whenever we

1 originated the debt.
2 Q All right, and what was this - this commitment letter
3 that was issued what was the purpose of that?
4 A To refinance existing business debt and to be used for 5 working capital.
6 Q All right, and in the ordinary course of your bank's
7 business do they have the person requesting the loan agree to 8 the commitment letter?
9 A We do.
10 Q All right, and if you would can I draw your attention to 11 page three of that document. Was that signed by the person
12 requesting the loan?
13 A It was.
14 Q All right, and also by a bank vice president?
15 A Yeah, assistant vice president Ann Marion.
16 Q And is this document kept in the ordinary course of 17 business of Horry County State Bank?
18 A It is.
19 Q Uh-huh, and it was - was it the commitment letter upon 20 which this transaction was based?
21 A It is.
22 MR. MULLINS: Move to admit that as Defendant Horry
23 County State Bank's Three, Your Honor.
24 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, I object to the admission
25 of this document. This document at no, at no place discusses

1 or is directed to Rosemary Jenrette, my client. This loan
2 commitment is directed to Cajun Carolina LLC and M. Brooks
3 Quickel. It talks about a loan from Horry County State Bank
4 to Cajun Carolina LLC. It is not directed to nor does it
5 concern the issues we are here today with regard to which is 6 the insurance policy, the existing insurance policy that is a
7 personal contract between the insurance company and my client
8 Rosemary Jenrette and who is entitled to the proceeds of that 9 insurance policy as a result of the casualty loss.
10 THE COURT: So you're saying it's not relevant.
11 MR. DESCHAMPS: It is, it is not relevant whatsoever
12 to this. There's nothing that could be gained from this that 13 would make a determination as to who is entitled to the 14 insurance proceeds.
15 THE COURT: All right, can I see the exhibit?
16 MR. MULLINS: Yes, sir. If I may hand the witness
17 another copy, Judge.
18 THE COURT: All right, okay, your response, Mr.
19 Mullins?
20 MR. MULLINS: Your Honor, we requested an equitable
21 lien on these proceeds. In order to understand my client's
22 claim for the equitable lien I think the Court needs to 23 understand how the transaction occurred and what was 24 represented at the time. This, the repayment terms in REM,
25 Your Honor, on page one standard industry real estate and I'm

1 sure the Court's aware of that, but that involves a real
2 estate mortgage on 104 Country Club Drive. In addition,
3 paragraph 10 there's a requirement for insurance to be carried
4 on the property in the event of the collateral which was 104
5 Country Club Drive.
6 THE COURT: Let me, let me ask a question. Did
7 Mr. Quickel obtain the loan on 104 Country Club Drive as an 8 individual or with a power of attorney?
9 MR. MULLINS: With the power of attorney, Your
10 Honor.
11 THE COURT: Okay, and is that power of attorney
12 going to be in evidence or has it been put in evidence yet?
13 MR. MULLINS: Shortly, Your Honor.
14 THE COURT: All right, okay, I'll have to rule on 15 your relevance objection later. I don't know whether it's 16 relevant. What I'm trying to determine in my mind is if Mr.
17 Quickel obtained the loan on 104 Country Club Drive using a 18 power of attorney, why is that not binding on Ms. Jenrette as 19 far as the lien on the land is concerned? I mean, you don't 20 dispute that?
21 MR. DESCHAMPS: I can, I can address that.
22 THE COURT: Okay.
23 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, I'll go to the dates and 24 then I'll address your question.
25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MR. DESCHAMPS: Okay, my client, the dates are
2 somewhat important. My client at the time of this, this
3 letter in April 24, 2009 ---
4 THE COURT: Yes, sir.
5 MR. DESCHAMPS: --- as was evidenced by the testimony
6 that's already come up from the insurance agent, my client had 7 an existing ---
8 THE COURT: Policy.
9 MR. DESCHAMPS: --- casualty policy in place.
10 THE COURT: Right.
11 MR. DESCHAMPS: Okay, for, for Mr. Mullins to succeed
12 on an equitable lien as to a specific property one of the 13 things he has to show and this is what he wants to get away
14 from is a secure debt, okay, a debt, a mortgagee debt that has 15 to do with the mortgage itself which was foreclosed. The only 16 thing that's relevant at all is the fact that the mortgage was 17 foreclosed and was satisfied of record and when that mortgage
18 was foreclosed and satisfied of record that mortgage is gone.
19 It's, it's no longer around. So, so there is no right to an 20 equitable lien. The equitable ---
21 THE COURT: So but the house burned during the 22 foreclosure proceeding, right?
23 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir. There's, there's no right
24 to - there's no right to an equitable lien as a result of M.
25 Brooks Quickel or Cajun Carolina. That's where, that's where

1 Mr. Mullins' arguments fail. Cajun Carolina and Brooks
2 Quickel are the folks that owe Horry County State Bank the 3 money, okay. If ---
4 THE COURT: Well, I haven't seen the loan
5 document, so.
6 MR. DESCHAMPS: Well, and that - but that's, but 7 that's the point.
8 THE COURT: Haven't seen it.
9 MR. DESCHAMPS: None of those documents are relative,
10 are relevant. The only thing that is relevant at all is the 11 mortgage instrument and we're not contesting the fact that 12 there was a mortgage instrument that was signed by M. Brooks
13 Quickel under a power of attorney granted to him by Rosemary
14 Jenrette. That is - that is not a fact that's being 15 contested. There was then a mortgage recorded in the 16 courthouse. There was then an order of foreclosure and sale
17 which said that mortgage, the property is going to be sold and 18 then that mortgage pursuant to the order of foreclosure and 19 sale, Judge Howe signed a satisfaction, and that mortgage and 20 all terms and conditions and everything in the mortgage was 21 ---
22 THE COURT: All right.
23 MR. DESCHAMPS: --- terminated as of that date.
24 THE COURT: I understand.
25 MR. DESCHAMPS: So the other obligations are not, and

1 aren't relevant to any determination the Court needs to make
2 or the documents the Court needs to make.
3 THE COURT: Well, that's what your summary
4 judgment argument was based on, correct, pretty much?
5 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
6 THE COURT: Okay, so I understand your argument,
7 but the relevance of this document why is it at least not
8 relevant for me to know the background of the loan
9 transaction?
10 MR. DESCHAMPS: Well, the loan commitment ---
11 THE COURT: In other words, you're saying this 12 document is not relevant so you should pretty much win right
13 now, period. Is, is the document not relevant to their case
14 to show that there was a loan, that there was a requirement
15 for insurance coverage and that there was - well, number 10 in 16 this Exhibit Number Three is relevant to their case?
17 MR. DESCHAMPS: If - the only way it would be 18 relevant if that, if that document had been directed to 19 Rosemary Jenrette and informed Rosemary Jenrette that there 20 had to be, that she had to get mortgage, had to get insurance
21 on the property.
22 THE COURT: Well she - okay.
23 MR. DESCHAMPS: The power of attorney, Your Honor,
24 the loan commitment, this loan commitment is 4-24. Nothing
25 happened, you know, then after the loan commitment things,

1 things occur, but, but we already had the policy in effect.
2 THE COURT: Right.
3 MR. DESCHAMPS: And, and what happens with Brooks
4 Quickel, the terms of his note, whether he defaulted or not, I
5 mean, there's an order of foreclosure and sale that would be a
6 matter of record, but ---
7 THE COURT: But we haven't even gotten there yet.
8 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir. I'm sorry.
9 THE COURT: So, so I, I think, I think the 10 document is relevant to what they're claiming. It's just not 11 relevant to what you think the ultimate defense is, excuse me, 12 you say it's not relevant because of your defense. Your 13 defense is the mortgage was discharged, marked satisfied, so 14 it doesn't, all of this makes no difference at all.
15 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir. I think the only way it's 16 relevant to them is if and it can't be if this, if this - if 17 Rosemary Jenrette had been the maker or the --- 18 THE COURT: Had been the what?
19 MR. DESCHAMPS: Had been the maker of the note.
20 THE COURT: Right.
21 MR. DESCHAMPS: Or the guarantor of the note and 22 there was a debt somewhere out there that they could attach,
23 okay, that they - and as a result there was a debt that was 24 owed by Rosemary Jenrette and there was insurance proceeds I
25 think that's the only way this would be relevant at all

1 because this is the terms of a note with a third-party. It's
2 the terms of a note that Mr., Mr. Quickel and Cajun Carolina.
3 It has nothing to do with Ms. Jenrette or anything that Ms.
4 Jenrette has with the insurance company.
5 THE COURT: All right, I don't know if it does or 6 not because I haven't seen any of the loan documents and I
7 haven't seen the power of attorney. Anything else before I
8 rule?
9 MR. MULLINS: No, sir, I'm trying to get there. I
10 thought we waived opening so.
11 THE COURT: Okay, I, I'll overrule your
12 objection. To whether or not it makes any legal or factual
13 difference remains to be seen, but I think it's relevant to at 14 least their, their, their theory.
15 MR. DESCHAMPS: Thank you, Your Honor.
16 (Whereupon, Defendant Horry County State Bank's Exhibit
17 Number Three [Commitment Letter] admitted into evidence and 18 appropriately marked.)
19 BY MR. MULLINS:
20 Q And Mr. Smith, as to the real estate mortgages on those 21 properties what's your understanding as to who owned those six
22 lots and the house?
23 A The six lot, there were five properties that were owned
24 by Rosemary and two properties that were owned by Brooks.
25 Q All right, and was that your understanding of the

1 security the bank was taking in order to satisfy this
2 commitment letter?
3 A That's correct.
4 THE COURT: How many were improved?
5 A Just one.
6 THE COURT: And that was the Country Club?
7 A Yes, sir.
8 THE COURT: So that one improved, one improved
9 lot and how many unimproved lots?
10 A Six.
11 THE COURT: All right.
12 MR. MULLINS: Thank you, Your Honor.
13 BY MR. MULLINS:
14 Q Did the closing occur on that transaction?
15 A It did.
16 Q And is it anything - do banks ever allow people to close
17 using a power of attorney?
18 A We do.
19 Q Was there anything unusual about that?
20 A I mean, it was a power of attorney.
21 Q Let me show you what's been marked, pre-marked as 22 Defendant Horry County State Bank's Exhibit Number Four. Do
23 you recognize that document?
24 A I do.
25 Q What is that document?

1 A This is a specific power of attorney for this closing.
2 Q Okay, and from - who granted the power of attorney and
3 who had the authority to exercise it?
4 A It was granted by Rosemary Long Jenrette and Rosemary
5 Long.
6 Q All right, and who had the power to exercise it?
7 A Rosemary - oh, who did, who did she grant it to?
8 Q Yes, sir.
9 A Michael Brooks Quickel.
10 Q All right, and are there specific properties up there
11 covered by the power of attorney?
12 A Yes, those are the five that she owned.
13 Q All right, and is there any restriction on authority for 14 Mr. Quickel to go to closing to close this transaction?
15 A Not that I see on here.
16 Q Thank you.
17 MR. MULLINS: We'd move to admit Defendant Horry
18 County State Bank's Four into evidence.
19 THE COURT: Any objection?
20 MR. DESCHAMPS: No, sir, I don't have any objection
21 to that particular document.
22 THE COURT: Okay, that's in.
23 (Whereupon, Defendant Horry County State Bank's Exhibit
24 Number Four [Specific Power of Attorney] admitted into 25 evidence and appropriately marked.)

1 MR. MULLINS: And, Judge, I tend to move around the
2 courtroom.
3 THE COURT: That's fine.
4 MR. MULLINS: I know that drives fellow judges
5 nuts, but ---
6 THE COURT: That's fine.
7 MR. MULLINS: --- this is my first time appearing
8 in front of you. So I didn't know your preference.
9 THE COURT: That's all right. Just for my
10 purposes which Country Club, which, which one is 104?
11 A 069 is the last TMS number.
12 THE COURT: All right.
13 Q And Robert, when things go to closing is there a note
14 and mortgage that is normally is obtained by the closing 15 attorney?
16 A Excuse me?
17 Q I said when - in a real estate closing do the bank
18 normally take back a note and mortgage from - that's signed by 19 the - at the office of the real estate attorney?
20 A We do.
21 Q All right, let me show you what's been pre-marked as 22 Defendant Horry County State Bank's Number Five. Do you
23 recognize that document?
24 A Yes, this is the note that was used in the closing.
25 Q Okay, and who are the makers of that particular note,

1 Robert?
2 A Cajun Carolina LLC.
3 Q Okay, and was there any security taken that's noted on 4 the note?
5 A There's a mortgage dated 5-1-2009.
6 Q Okay, and how about the maturity date?
7 A Maturity date is 5-1-2010.
8 Q Okay, and did that reflect the terms of the commitment
9 letter?
10 A Yes, it did.
11 Q Okay, and is there anything unusual about this note?
12 A Not really.
13 Q Is this a standard form of Horry County State Bank
14 document?
15 A It is.
16 Q Is it kept in the ordinary course of business?
17 A It is.
18 Q All right, and was it - and this, this is part of your 19 file as to the bank's tracking of this transaction?
20 A That's correct.
21 MR. MULLINS: Move to admit Defendant Horry County
22 State Bank's Five, Your Honor.
23 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, I object to that on the 24 same grounds. This is a, this is a note from Cajun Carolina
25 LLC signed by M. Brooks Quickel in May of - May 1, 2009. It

1 doesn't concern Rosemary Jenrette. It doesn't talk about the
2 insurance policy on the, on the property that Rosemary
3 obtained for her own interest. It has - there's - it's 4 irrelevant because the introduction of this is not a factor in 5 the determination that the Court is going to have to make as 6 to who is entitled to the proceeds of the insurance policy and 7 our claim is based upon the fact that we purchased the 8 insurance for our behalf. It's, it's, it's not a - it's not 9 necessary even in Mr. Mullin's case because he has to - all -
10 what he has to do is establish a secured debt which is the 11 mortgage instrument, not the promissory note and the terms of 12 the note between Cajun Carolina and, and, and Horry County
13 State Bank.
14 THE COURT: Mr. Mullins.
15 MR. MULLINS: Your Honor, I think it is relevant,
16 once again, to establish the underlying transaction, secondly,
17 to show that there was - the note was signed contemporaneously
18 with a real estate closing and that the security was a
19 mortgage dated May 1st, 2009 which is signed contemporaneously
20 with the entire transaction. I'm trying to walk through the 21 loan documents one at a time, Judge. I mean, I've got the HUD
22 and everything else, but I have to take them in some order, so
23 ---
24 THE COURT: All right.
25 MR. MULLINS: --- I just picked that order.

1 THE COURT: Could I see it, please? All right,
2 anything else, Mr. DesChamps? Anything else on your
3 objection?
4 MR. DESCHAMPS: No, sir, Your Honor, that was, that 5 was my objection. I don't want to belabor the point.
6 THE COURT: Okay, all right, objection is 7 overruled, the same thing that I mentioned earlier, it may not
8 end up having any bearing on my ultimate determination, but it
9 is relevant to establish the timeline, and there's a 10 legitimate fact in issue about the timing of the note as 11 you've yourself said, Mr. DesChamps. You can go ahead, Mr.
12 Mullins. Document Number Five is in.
13 (Defendant Horry County State Bank's Exhibit Number Five
14 [Exhibit A - Note] admitted into evidence and appropriately
15 marked.)
16 BY MR. MULLINS:
17 Q Mr. Smith, did you - did the bank also obtain a mortgage
18 on some property as security for the note that you've just 19 identified?
20 A Yes, we did.
21 Q All right, I'm going to show you what's been pre-marked
22 as Defendant Horry County State Bank's Number Six. Do you
23 recognize that document?
24 A I do. That's one of the two mortgages.
25 Q Okay, and was part of that mortgage the subject of which

1 the security was 104 Country Club Drive?
2 A This is the other mortgage.
3 Q Okay.
4 A You brought me the wrong mortgage.
5 Q Oh, sorry.
6 A That's okay.
7 MR. MULLINS: I think we've pre-marked them as one.
8 If I could have just a moment, Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: Okay, so, you're going to - Number
10 Six will be what you're going to put a sticker on now?
11 MR. MULLINS: Yes, Your Honor. I got - I'm sorry.
12 I left off the other one here. Let me show counsel, make sure
13 he's got them.
14 THE COURT: All right.
15 MR. MULLINS: And Your Honor, for the record,
16 Number Six is two mortgages dated May 1st, 2009, one by Michael 17 Brooks Quickel and the other one by Rosemary Long Jenrette.
18 THE COURT: All right, so, that's Number Six is 19 two documents?
20 MR. MULLINS: Yes, sir, that's correct.
21 THE COURT: Okay.
22 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, for purposes of the 23 record the one, the mortgage document that - on, on Rosemary
24 Jenrette's property, okay, is being put in without objection
25 from me.

1 THE COURT: Okay.
2 MR. DESCHAMPS: The mortgage document that is part of 3 Number Six that has to pertain with Mr. Quickel pledging his 4 property I'm objecting to under the same grounds that I think
5 that is irrelevant. It has nothing to do with what we are 6 here for today which is the determination of fire loss on the 7 property but the mortgage that Ms. Jenrette, that Mr. Quickel
8 signed under power of attorney that's recorded on Ms.
9 Jenrette's property I have no objection to.
10 THE COURT: And those are her five properties; is
11 that correct?
12 MR. MULLINS: That's correct, Your Honor.
13 THE COURT: And the one you object to is Mr.
14 Quickel's ---
15 MR. DESCHAMPS: Mr. Quickel's.
16 THE COURT: --- or Cajun's two properties.
17 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yeah, yes, sir, because I think
18 that's irrelevant.
19 THE COURT: I think I'll probably end up ignoring 20 that one anyway, won't I, the one on Mr. Quickel's property?
21 MR. MULLINS: To a certain extent, Your Honor. I 22 think it's important though to go through the entire
23 transaction.
24 THE COURT: All right, I'll allow, I'll allow 25 that one in, too, as part of Exhibit Number Six.

1 (Whereupon, Defendant Horry County State Bank's Exhibit
2 Number Six [Mortgages] admitted into evidence and
3 appropriately marked.)
4 BY MR. MULLINS:
5 Q And having made that small change, Mr. Smith, is that 6 both of the mortgages that Horry County State Bank obtained in 7 this transaction pursuant to the commitment letter?
8 A It is.
9 Q Okay, and was one of those signed on behalf of Rosemary
10 Jenrette by Mr. Quickel?
11 A Yes, it was.
12 Q Does that represent the entire mortgages that were 13 secured by this transaction?
14 A It does.
15 MR. MULLINS: And we move to admit both, Your 16 Honor. I think you've already ruled on that.
17 THE COURT: I've ruled on that and I think your 18 objection is noted clearly, Mr. DesChamps.
19 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
20 THE COURT: You object to the one that's the 21 Cajun or Quickel mortgage?
22 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, Your Honor.
23 THE COURT: All right, that's overruled.
24 BY MR. MULLINS:
25 Q Did those go to closing at the same time, Mr. Smith,

1 according to the bank's records?
2 A They did.
3 Q Let me skip an exhibit for a moment here. Let me show
4 you Defendant's Exhibit Horry County's Exhibit Number Eight.
5 Do you recognize that document?
6 A That's the HUD that came from the closing.
7 Q Okay, and is that required for and normally used by banks
8 in order to track costs and expenses pursuant to federal 9 guidelines?
10 A It is.
11 Q Okay, and who was listed as borrowers on the HUD up in 12 ---
13 A Michael Brooks Quickel and Rosemary Long Jenrette.
14 Q All right.
15 MR. MULLINS: We'd move to admit that document,
16 Your Honor, as Defendant's Number Eight.
17 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, for the same reasons that 18 I have said before, this document is irrelevant unless, unless 19 Ms. Jenrette was an actual obligor, which she was not. I 20 think, I think that's the case. She was only the mortgagor of 21 the property located at Country Club Drive. This document,
22 this is a settlement statement as to the closing of Mr.
23 Quickel's loan and it's irrelevant to the determination of who 24 is entitled to the insurance proceeds even under the equitable
25 lien period for the same reasons I've already said before.

1 THE COURT: Okay, objection is overruled.
2 MR. DESCHAMPS: Thank you.
3 (Whereupon, Defendant Horry County State Bank's Exhibit
4 Number Eight [HUD Settlement Statement] admitted into evidence
5 and appropriately marked.)
6 BY MR. MULLINS:
7 Q Mr. Smith, let me show you another document that was 8 marked, pre-marked as Defendant's Number Seven, sir. Do you
9 recognize that language which has been blown up for easy
10 reading?
11 A I do.
12 Q What is that?
13 A That's the language that's in our mortgage.
14 Q All right, is that the language that Horry County State
15 Bank uses in most of their mortgages?
16 A It is.
17 Q Was there anything special created for this, this 18 particular closing?
19 A No, this is our standard mortgage.
20 Q All right, is that the same language that is in Rosemary
21 Jenrette's mortgage?
22 A It is.
23 Q All right, and what does that do by way of insurance
24 proceeds on the property?
25 A Well, it pledges the insurance proceeds for any insurance

1 policies that the borrower has to the bank.
2 Q All right, is there an assignment?
3 A Uh-huh, it does.
4 Q All right, and what portion of that, if you can identify
5 that, is the assignment.
6 A 3-B is the assignment portion. It says, "Borrower hereby 7 assigns to lender all proceeds from any insurance proceeds."
8 Q Okay.
9 MR. MULLINS: Your Honor, we'd like to admit that,
10 please, as Defendant's Number Seven. It's identical to what's 11 already in evidence. It's just easier to read.
12 THE COURT: Is that part of the un-objected to 13 Number Six?
14 MR. DESCHAMPS: Sir, the mortgage, this is part of 15 the un-objected to Number Six. The blowing up of it and the 16 fact that it was done I think that's hearsay, I mean, unless 17 Mr. Smith blew it - I don't see the necessity for it. I 18 believe that's hearsay. This is blowing up of something, the
19 document ---
20 THE COURT: Well, it's cumulative, but whether or 21 not it's needlessly cumulative I think is the key. I'll, I'll 22 overrule your objection.
23 MR. DESCHAMPS: All right.
24 THE COURT: Certainly is easier to read, but if 25 everybody wants me to I can read small print and blow it up

1 myself.
2 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, yes, sir.
3 THE COURT: So I think it's - it doesn't make any
4 difference. So that objection is overruled.
5 MR. DESCHAMPS: Thank you, Your Honor.
6 (Whereupon, Defendant Horry County State Bank's Exhibit
7 Number Seven [Blowup of Mortgage] admitted into evidence and
8 appropriately marked.)
9 BY MR. MULLINS:
10 Q And Mr. Smith, was - in your documents does it indicate
11 that that policy was assigned?
12 A It does.
13 Q All right, and was Ms. Jenrette listed as a borrower on 14 the mortgage?
15 A On the first page of the mortgage she was, yes, sir.
16 Q And what - did the bank take part of Ms. Jenrette's
17 property as security?
18 A We did.
19 Q All right, and did you at the time think that you were 20 getting a secured transaction where you had insurance on the 21 property?
22 A We did.
23 Q All right.
24 MR. MULLINS: To jump a little bit out of order
25 here, Your Honor, we'll go over to Number 17.

1 Q Let me hand you what's been pre-marked as Horry County
2 State Bank's Exhibit Number 17. Do you recognize what that is?
3 A Yes, it's a ---
4 THE COURT: Number what?
5 MR. MULLINS: 17, Your Honor.
6 THE COURT: 17.
7 MR. MULLINS: I'm a little bit out of order,
8 please.
9 A It's an agreement to provide insurance.
10 Q All right, and does the bank - is that a standard form
11 bank for Horry County State Bank?
12 A It is.
13 Q Do you use that in the ordinary course of business of 14 Horry County State Bank directly for real estate closings?
15 A We do.
16 Q All right, and is that part of the bank's records on how 17 this transaction was handled?
18 A Yes, it is.
19 Q Is it dated the same date at the bottom that the 20 transaction closed at Evans and Evans Law Firm?
21 A It is.
22 THE COURT: And what date is that?
23 A May 1st, 2009.
24 Q All right, and who's it signed by?
25 A Cajun Carolina LLC by M. Brooks Quickel as a member and

1 by the lending officer of the bank.
2 Q All right, and also is there a description of the 3 property that is subject to the agreement?
4 A Yes, first real estate mortgage on 104 Country Club
5 Drive, Conway, South Carolina.
6 Q And that's abbreviated REM?
7 A Yes.
8 Q Is that a normal abbreviation in bank documents?
9 A It is.
10 Q All right, and what type of coverage did they require in 11 this agreement?
12 A Property coverage is fire, theft, collision,
13 comprehensive and liability.
14 Q Okay, is there an insurance policy that's referenced in 15 the document?
16 A There is.
17 Q And what policy is that?
18 A It's the policy with National Security and it's 19 referenced with the policy number. Looks like it's 838223-
20 206838 and the effective dates are 3-9-2009 to 3 - looks like 21 3-3-2010.
22 Q All right, is there an insurance company referenced?
23 A National Security and ---
24 Q All right, is there an agency referenced?
25 A Yes, Bradham Insurance Agency.

1 Q Okay.
2 MR. MULLINS: Your Honor, move to admit Defendant
3 Horry County State Bank's Number 17 into evidence.
4 THE COURT: Yes, sir.
5 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, for the same objection
6 I've been making, this is, this is M. Brooks Quickel for Cajun
7 Carolina. Appears to be an agreement with him for Cajun
8 Carolina to provide insurance on the property. Cajun Carolina
9 could have provided insurance on the property. The bank could 10 have provided security insurance on the property.
11 THE COURT: All right.
12 MR. DESCHAMPS: The fact is they didn't.
13 THE COURT: Mr. Mullins.
14 MR. DESCHAMPS: Ms. Quickel did. This doesn't - 15 she's not a party to this agreement. It doesn't direct her to 16 get insurance. It's an agreement that apparently is signed by 17 - may be signed by Cajun Carolina, Mr. Quickel in May after my 18 client obtained insurance for her benefit.
19 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Mullins.
20 MR. MULLINS: Your Honor, it is relevant for 21 several reasons. One it shows that there was an agreement to 22 provide insurance pursuant to the insurance, the commitment
23 letter. Secondly it references the identical policy that was 24 in force and effect at the time.
25 THE COURT: But it's not signed by Mr. Quickel as

1 attorney in fact.
2 MR. MULLINS: No, it is signed by Mr. Quickel as
3 Cajun LLC.
4 THE COURT: Why didn't the bank get him to sign
5 it as attorney in fact?
6 MR. MULLINS: I have no idea, Your Honor. That 7 normally would have been done by the closing attorney in this
8 situation, but we don't have Mr. Evans available to answer
9 that question.
10 THE COURT: So, this is a closing document or is 11 this a pre-closing document?
12 MR. MULLINS: This is a - normally a closing
13 document. I normally have these come into my office.
14 THE COURT: All right, would you, would you ask
15 the witness that question?
16 BY MR. MULLINS:
17 Q Mr. Smith, do you know if this was a closing document?
18 A It can be done both ways.
19 Q It can be done both ways.
20 THE COURT: Who prepares the document?
21 A I think the bank does and then it's filled in at the 22 attorney's office.
23 THE COURT: All right, I'll rule on that
24 objection later. I may agree with Mr. DesChamps on this one
25 because it's not signed by the attorney in fact. I know that

1 that may sound hyper-technical but it's - if the bank wanted -
2 and it may not end up making any difference. An agreement to 3 provide insurance may not make a difference as to whether or 4 not the insurance policy in question is payable to the bank or
5 to Mrs. Jenrette, but it may not be relevant at all because it
6 does not appear to be an agreement by Ms. Jenrette by and 7 through her attorney in fact.
8 MR. MULLINS: Thank you.
9 THE COURT: Even though it references the policy
10 I'll rule on this particular objection later.
11 MR. MULLINS: All right, thank you, Your Honor.
12 BY MR. MULLINS:
13 Q While this property was in foreclosure was there a loss
14 that occurred?
15 A Yes, there was.
16 Q How did you become aware of that?
17 A Initially somebody called me and told me that the house
18 was burning down.
19 Q Don't tell me who called you and told you.
20 A No.
21 Q Did you receive a phone call?
22 A Correct.
23 Q All right, did you follow up on that phone call?
24 A I did. I went by the property to see that it was, in 25 fact, burning.

1 Q All right, and was the - how would you clarify the loss
2 what you observed?
3 A It, it was definitely a total loss.
4 Q Did you get a copy of the fire report from the City of 5 Conway?
6 A We did.
7 Q Let me hand you what's been marked as Defendant Horry
8 County State Bank's Number Nine. Do you recognize that
9 document?
10 A I do. This is the form that was completed by Arnold
11 Spain with the fire department.
12 Q And do you normally go and get this form when there's a 13 loss on the property that the bank has a security interest in?
14 A If we have a security interest in it, yes.
15 Q And did you obtain this from government records?
16 A We did.
17 Q And do you keep this in the ordinary course of business?
18 A We do.
19 MR. MULLINS: Move to admit Defendant Horry County
20 State Bank's Nine, Your Honor.
21 THE COURT: Any objection?
22 MR. DESCHAMPS: First objection, Your Honor, this is 23 clearly hearsay. It's ---
24 THE COURT: Well, did the, did the house burn?
25 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Was it a total loss?
2 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yeah, some of that's ---
3 THE COURT: Okay, what, what are you offering
4 this to prove?
5 MR. DESCHAMPS: It's, it's ---
6 MR. MULLINS: Just clearing the record, Your Honor,
7 that the house burned and the date of the loss and so it fits
8 in the timeline of the policy and the security.
9 MR. DESCHAMPS: There are two objections, hearsay and 10 relevance. Your Honor, we have insurance proceeds that are 11 there that have been paid to the Court.
12 THE COURT: Okay.
13 MR. DESCHAMPS: The - any report on the fire loss is 14 totally irrelevant. It is not necessary. This evidence is 15 not necessary for the, for the Court's use in making the 16 determination of who's entitled to the insurance proceeds and 17 this is hearsay. This was not prepared by the bank. It's 18 prepared by apparently Arnold Spanger [spelled phonetically]
19 of Horry County or something. He's not here to testify as to 20 the preparation of it. So, it's a double prong sword as to 21 why it shouldn't be admitted.
22 THE COURT: Is there, is there anything in here
23 that's uniquely important to this case other than to establish 24 the fact that the house burned?
25 MR. MULLINS: That's it, Judge.

1 THE COURT: Is there any, any question about how
2 the fire started? Does that make any difference?
3 MR. MULLINS: We really don't know, Your Honor.
4 THE COURT: Okay, so you stipulate that the house
5 burned during the policy period and during the term of the 6 mortgage?
7 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, Your Honor.
8 THE COURT: Okay.
9 MR. MULLINS: That solves the problem.
10 THE COURT: All right, so Number Nine it's - I'll 11 exclude it as long as the stipulation is there. It burned
12 during the foreclosure proceeding?
13 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, Your Honor.
14 THE COURT: But while the mortgage was still in 15 effect, before the mortgage had been satisfied?
16 MR. DESCHAMPS: Before the mortgage had been
17 satisfied.
18 THE COURT: Okay, and that's the key to your 19 theory is that once that mortgage is marked satisfied it's in 20 the wind?
21 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes.
22 THE COURT: Okay, all right, Number Nine is out.
23 I don't think it's going to make any difference to the fact
24 that the house did burn during the effective period of the 25 policy and the mortgage.

1 BY MR. MULLINS:
2 Q And Mr. Smith, does the bank normally have appraisals on
3 property?
4 A We do.
5 Q All right, and did you - did the bank obtain an appraisal
6 both before this transaction closed?
7 A We did.
8 Q All right, and did you obtain an appraisal while the 9 foreclosure was pending?
10 A We did.
11 Q Who orders the - what's the purpose of an appraisal while 12 the foreclosure is pending, I mean, of the appraisal while the 13 foreclosure is pending?
14 A We are required in special assets when we start the 15 foreclosure action to review the appraisal and file, and if 16 it's a current appraisal we don't have to have a current 17 appraisal. If it's older than a year then we have a new 18 appraisal ordered. So I ordered one in December 2010.
19 Q Okay, and is that put on a certain form at the bank?
20 A The order of the appraisal or the actual appraisal?
21 Q The actual appraisal.
22 A Yeah, the actual appraisal is completed by the appraiser
23 on his own document.
24 Q When was that appraisal completed?
25 A The second appraisal?

1 Q Yes, sir.
2 A January the 7th, 2011.
3 Q Let me hand you what's been pre-marked as Defendant's
4 Number 15. Let me ask you if you recognize that document.
5 A The top document is the appraisal of the property that
6 was done on - let me make sure my date's right - January 7th,
7 2011.
8 Q Okay, and does it indicate any dwelling upon the property
9 at that point?
10 A It does.
11 Q All right.
12 A Says it's a traditional style home with crawlspace
13 foundation, gross living space is 1897 square feet.
14 Q Okay, and is there a value on there?
15 A The appraised value is $150,000 with land valued at 60
16 and improvements at 90.
17 Q All right, and did - who is Larry Cribb?
18 A He's the bank's appraiser.
19 Q Okay, and do you rely upon this document in special
20 assets as to whether to foreclose on the property or not?
21 A Do we rely on it to foreclose?
22 Q Yes, why is it important?
23 A No, we're required to get one by the FDIC that's a
24 current appraisal. So, you know, we have to - we're required
25 by law to have an appraisal in the file.

1 MR. MULLINS: And we move to admit Defendant's
2 Number 15, Your Honor.
3 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, objection. This is 4 irrelevant. The value of the property, a, when Mr. - is 5 irrelevant if it was for a loan for Cajun Carolina. It's 6 irrelevant at any point in time even in the foreclosure
7 proceedings. We have money that's sitting, the value of any 8 property is irrelevant to these proceedings. It isn't going
9 to help the Court make a determination whatsoever with regard
10 to who's entitled to those insurance proceeds.
11 THE COURT: If ---
12 MR. DESCHAMPS: The bank is - if it's an equitable 13 lien he can establish it, he's entitled to it. If he can't,
14 if it died, if the mortgage is not there he is, he's not 15 entitled to it.
16 THE COURT: So, if, if I rule that they've - they 17 established or Horry County State Bank establishes by the 18 greater weight of the evidence that the equitable lien exists
19 then the funds on deposit will go to Horry County State Bank?
20 MR. DESCHAMPS: If they have an equitable lien on 21 that, if it satisfies all the parameters, the equitable lien,
22 there's several theories and ways that you can combat them
23 under the law.
24 THE COURT: But what I'm saying is is that you're 25 not, you're not demanding that they prove the value of the

1 property?
2 MR. DESCHAMPS: I think the value of the property is
3 irrelevant.
4 THE COURT: All right, so, in other words if they
5 prevail on their theory they get the money.
6 MR. DESCHAMPS: Well, yes, sir, but I mean, there'd
7 have to be more arguments that, you know, if, if everything -
8 they've got, they've got - they can't - at the same time they 9 can't be unjustly enriched. They have, they have property
10 they have already taken. They've taken, they've set a value,
11 okay, there's going to be an order of judgment of foreclosure
12 and sale that will probably come into the evidence and then 13 they successfully bid on the property at the sale, they then 14 established a value for the property that they took. They 15 established that value. Then they pursued a deficiency
16 judgment against Mr. Quickel. They have a - they have a - 17 they, they've satisfied themselves in full for the entire 18 amount of the debt before the insurance proceeds are there
19 because they have a judgment against Mr. Quickel and Cajun
20 Carolina. So they have a full satisfaction. They satisfied 21 the mortgage and they got a judgment against their maker and 22 guarantor. So the entire amount of the indebtedness that was 23 owed to them has been satisfied. That's one of my theories.
24 That's why they're not entitled to this, to this - the bank -
25 the money there because in essence if they were to get it

1 they're going to double collect.
2 THE COURT: So you're objection to Number 15 is 3 relevance?
4 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, totally irrelevant.
5 THE COURT: Okay, any, any points you'd like to 6 make, Mr. Mullins?
7 MR. MULLINS: Just, Your Honor, this was taken
8 right before the fire loss occurred to show that there was 9 only one dwelling on the property and it's the one that's in 10 question here.
11 THE COURT: All right, anything else on your
12 objection?
13 MR. DESCHAMPS: No, sir, no, sir.
14 THE COURT: All right, relevance objection is 15 overruled.
16 (Whereupon, Defendant Horry County State Bank's Exhibit
17 Number Fifteen [Appraisal Form] admitted into evidence and 18 appropriately marked.)
19 BY MR. MULLINS:
20 Q Mr. Smith, on behalf of Horry County State Bank are you
21 asking this Court to establish an equitable lien here?
22 A I am.
23 Q All right, and are you asking for - what are you asking
24 the Court to do by way of the proceeds in this fire insurance
25 policy?

1 A We're asking that they be paid to the bank.
2 Q All right, are you asking for any other relief before the 3 Court?
4 A The full proceeds is all we're asking for.
5 Q All right, let me ask you a question, sir, there's been a
6 couple of cross-claims here that were filed against Horry
7 County State Bank. Let me ask you some questions about those.
8 Did you in any way interfere between Ms. Jenrette and this
9 insurance company?
10 A I put the insurance company on notice that we had a 11 mortgage and I sent - and they requested a copy of the 12 mortgage.
13 Q All right, do your loan documents that's already in 14 evidence here give an assignment to Horry County State Bank
15 for the insurance proceeds?
16 A I think they do, yes.
17 Q All right, at the ---
18 THE COURT: Do you have an objection?
19 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, that is a legal conclusion,
20 but we're not, for the purposes of the record and in keeping 21 this thing moving as quickly as it is, we're no - we're not 22 pursuing and I think I have told Mr. Mullins before but maybe
23 I didn't, we're only pursuing - we're pursuing the declaratory
24 judgment to get that money that's on deposit.
25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MR. DESCHAMPS: Okay, our - any - through the course
2 of discovery any cross-claims that we have or anything that we
3 filed in pleadings against Horry County State Bank we're not
4 pursuing and I'll go ahead and stipulate to that and that'll
5 save ---
6 THE COURT: Okay.
7 MR. DESCHAMPS: --- the Court, if, if, if that's 8 where his testimony is going.
9 MR. MULLINS: That's where it's going. If it's 10 with prejudice, Your Honor, I accept.
11 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, yes, sir, we'll ---
12 THE COURT: All right.
13 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yeah, we're still pursuing our 14 declaratory judgment.
15 THE COURT: For the money.
16 MR. DESCHAMPS: It's the tortuous interference with a
17 contract, I mean.
18 THE COURT: So you're asking for damages for 19 tortuous interference with a contract?
20 MR. DESCHAMPS: Well, I was, but I'm not.
21 THE COURT: Okay.
22 MR. DESCHAMPS: That's what I'm withdrawing. I want
23 to make sure when he says with prejudice we were - we're,
24 we're, we're going after that money, the declaratory judgment
25 and I'm not ---

1 THE COURT: Just like they are.
2 MR. DESCHAMPS: --- releasing all rights I might have 3 against Horry County State Bank. I'm only releasing for the 4 tortuous interference.
5 THE COURT: Okay.
6 MR. DESCHAMPS: I mean, if that's where he was going.
7 THE COURT: So your demand in your declaratory
8 judgment action is for a declaration that the money is your 9 client's?
10 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
11 THE COURT: All right.
12 MR. MULLINS: That solves it, Your Honor.
13 THE COURT: All right, so I will - there's no
14 document accompanying this part of the testimony, so you can 15 just continue.
16 MR. MULLINS: Thank you, Your Honor.
17 THE COURT: I mean, there's no objection to the 18 document. It's just the testimony. All right, go ahead.
19 MR. MULLINS: If I may have just a moment, Judge.
20 BY MR. MULLINS:
21 Q And Mr. Smith, that assignment that we were previously
22 discussing is that clearly in the documents that are already 23 of record?
24 A It is.
25 Q All right, was there anything special about that

1 assignment document?
2 A That's our standard form.
3 Q All right, were you under the impression that those 4 proceeds had been assigned?
5 A To the bank.
6 Q Is that why the bank has decided to pursue this today
7 through you?
8 A That's correct.
9 Q Thank you. Answer any questions that opposing counsel or 10 the Court has for you.
11 THE COURT: Mr. DesChamps, any questions?
12 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, Your Honor. If you'd bear with 13 me. Thank you. May I approach, Your Honor?
14 THE COURT: Yes, sir.
15 MR. DESCHAMPS: I just wanted to get the loan
16 commitment.
17 THE COURT: The commitment?
18 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
19 THE COURT: I don't believe I have the
20 commitment.
21 MR. DESCHAMPS: Oh, yes, I'm sorry.
22 CROSS EXAMINATION
23 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
24 Q Mr. Smith, the loan commitment that you were discussing
25 with Cajun Carolina ---

1 MR. DESCHAMPS: May I approach?
2 THE COURT: Yes, sir.
3 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
4 Q If I could show you this, this document. That's dated
5 April 24, 2009; is that correct?
6 A That is correct.
7 Q All right, and you were discussing a power of attorney
8 for Mr. Quickel; is that correct?
9 THE COURT: I've got the power of attorney if you
10 want that.
11 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, may I approach?
12 THE COURT: Yes, sir.
13 MR. DESCHAMPS: Thank you, Your Honor.
14 THE COURT: Here we go.
15 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
16 Q I believe that's Defendant's Exhibit Four and the - could 17 you tell the Court the date of that power of attorney?
18 A 27th day of April 2009.
19 Q So the power of attorney is dated and signed after Mr.
20 Quickel signed the loan commitment?
21 A That's correct.
22 Q So, on April 24 Mr. Quickel did not have the capacity
23 under that power of attorney that was dated April 27 to sign 24 the loan commitment; did he?
25 A You say he didn't have the capacity?

1 Q Yes, sir.
2 A He didn't have the ability to pledge this collateral?
3 Q He didn't - did he have the authority on, on April 24
4 under the power of attorney dated April 27 to sign the loan
5 commitment?
6 A I couldn't answer that. I'm not an attorney. That would 7 be for you to answer.
8 Q All right, yes, sir, yes, sir, thank you.
9 A I will agree that it's dated afterwards though, yeah.
10 Q Let me give those documents back to the Court, thank you.
11 Mr. Smith, you're in special assets; is that correct?
12 A Yes, sir.
13 Q All right, were you at the bank at the time that this 14 loan was made?
15 A I was not.
16 Q Okay.
17 THE COURT: Were you physically present or 18 working there?
19 Q Working at the bank.
20 A I was not.
21 Q All right, did you prepare any of these documents that 22 are, that are, that are used in this loan transaction?
23 A No, for the loan itself?
24 Q Yes, sir.
25 A No, I did not.

1 Q Were you involved in the underwriting procedures on the
2 loan?
3 A Before I was working at the bank?
4 Q Yes, sir.
5 A No, sir, I was not.
6 Q All right, so you can't really testify here today as to 7 what the underwriting - to your personal knowledge as to what 8 the underwriting procedures on this particular loan were, can
9 you?
10 A I cannot testify here today because I wasn't at the bank
11 at that time.
12 Q All right, yes, sir.
13 A I can testify what the rules and procedures are, but I
14 can't testify that I was employed by the bank at that time.
15 Q This particular loan, can you testify as to this 16 particular loan and what the - and the underwriting
17 requirements?
18 A What the rules are for the underwriting requirements for 19 the bank?
20 Q Yes, sir.
21 A Yes, I ---
22 Q You were at the bank at this time?
23 A No, I was not at the bank at that time.
24 Q All right, and to your knowledge as a result of the sale
25 of the property to your knowledge was the mortgage satisfied?

1 A I don't know that answer.
2 Q You don't have any independent knowledge?
3 A No, sir.
4 Q Okay.
5 MR. DESCHAMPS: Thank you. I have no further
6 questions.
7 THE COURT: Redirect?
8 MR. MULLINS: No redirect, Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. You can step down.
10 MR. MULLINS: Your Honor, we would renew our 11 request to admit Defendant Horry County State Bank's Number
12 Three which was the loan commitment letter, correct, agreement
13 to provide insurance, Your Honor.
14 THE COURT: Number Three?
15 MR. MULLINS: That's correct.
16 THE COURT: I overruled his objection.
17 MR. MULLINS: Oh, I'm sorry, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: For that, I believe, didn't I? The 19 commitment letter is Number Three. Mr. DesChamps objected on 20 the - on a relevance basis and I overruled that objection.
21 MR. MULLINS: Thank you, Your Honor.
22 THE COURT: Okay, now, I did - I did not rule yet
23 on Number 17 and if you want to renew ---
24 MR. MULLINS: I, I ---
25 THE COURT: --- put that in, I'm still going to

1 determine whether or not I need to let that in or not.
2 MR. MULLINS: That was my next one, Your Honor, is
3 Number 17.
4 THE COURT: Okay, all right, I note your request
5 to have it placed into evidence and I'll continue to keep that 6 under advisement.
7 MR. MULLINS: Thank you, Your Honor.
8 THE COURT: All right, next witness.
9 MR. MULLINS: We'd call Michael Brooks Quickel to 10 the stand.
11 THE COURT: All right. All right, let's take 12 about ten minutes. How long do you think he'll take?
13 MR. MULLINS: I think I can finish Mr. Quickel
14 before one, Your Honor.
15 THE COURT: All right, you, you agree with that?
16 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, because I'm going to be 17 objecting to most of the testimony.
18 THE COURT: You will?
19 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
20 THE COURT: All right, we'll - let's take about 21 five minutes then.
22 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
23 THE COURT: Okay?
24 MR. MULLINS: Thank you, Your Honor.
25 OFF THE RECORD

1 (On the record.)
2 THE COURT: All right, we're ready to go?
3 MR. MULLINS: Yes, sir.
4 THE COURT: Is he in the courtroom?
5 MR. MULLINS: Well, he was. Defendant Horry County
6 State Bank calls Michael Brooks Quickel to the stand, please.
7 Whereupon, Michael Brooks Quickel is called to the stand,
8 duly sworn by the clerk and testified as follows:
9 THE CLERK: Have a seat, please, sir. State your 10 name for the Court, please, sir, and spell your last name.
11 MR. QUICKEL: Michael Brooks Quickel, Q-U-I-C-K-E-
12 L.
13 MR. MULLINS: May it please the Court?
14 DIRECT EXAMINATION
15 BY MR. MULLINS:
16 Q Mr. Quickel, tell the Court where you reside at.
17 A 809 McNabb Shortcut Road.
18 Q All right, is that here in Horry County, South Carolina?
19 A Yes, sir.
20 Q Are you related to Ms. Jenrette who's one of the parties
21 in this case?
22 A Yes, she's my mother.
23 Q Okay, and Mr. Quickel, tell us how old you are, sir.
24 A I'm sorry?
25 Q How old are you?

1 A 41.
2 Q Are you employed?
3 A Yes.
4 Q Where are you employed at?
5 A Keller Williams.
6 Q And that was the same place you were employed when I took
7 your deposition as I recall.
8 A I believe so, yes, sir.
9 Q Has that worked out well for you?
10 A So, so, yes, sir.
11 Q All right, what are you doing at Keller Williams?
12 A Work with the new project sales, new developments.
13 Q You work in real estate?
14 A Yes, sir.
15 Q All right, and so Judge James is a visiting judge. What 16 is Keller Williams?
17 A National real estate company, primarily does general
18 brokerage. We have one small division that does new home
19 developments and which is the division that I'm with.
20 Q And you've been to several real estate closings
21 throughout your life; haven't you?
22 A Yes, sir.
23 Q All right, tell us do you hold any licenses anywhere?
24 A Hold - I have held South Carolina real estate license for 25 a number of years as well as in Florida.

1 Q Okay, and you - did you live in Florida at one point?
2 A Yes, sir.
3 Q All right, did you hold a license down there at one point
4 as well?
5 A Yes, sir.
6 Q How long have you worked in real estate, Mr. Quickel?
7 A Twenty years.
8 Q And I think I asked you this before, but how many 9 closings would you say you've personally been involved in,
10 real estate closings?
11 A Hundreds, personally or been involved in, in real estate?
12 Q Well, let's divide it down. Personally how many would 13 you say you've had?
14 A Twenty-five.
15 Q Okay, and how many have you been involved with 16 professionally?
17 A Hundreds.
18 Q Do you recall soliciting Horry County State Bank to loan
19 you some money for a business venture?
20 A Yes.
21 Q What business venture was that?
22 A Cajun Carolina.
23 Q All right, was that an LLC?
24 A Yes, sir.
25 Q Was that a South Carolina LLC?

1 A Yes, sir.
2 Q What did Cajun Carolina do?
3 A Brokered lumber from Louisiana.
4 Q Okay, for what purpose?
5 A Resale profit.
6 Q All right, and what was the reason that you decided to go
7 to Horry County State Bank to obtain a loan?
8 A Past relationships.
9 Q Okay, did you have an outstanding loan there at the time
10 you requested this loan?
11 A Yes, sir.
12 Q Okay, at the time that you asked for the loan from Horry
13 County State Bank where were you living?
14 A 104 Country Club Drive.
15 Q All right, is that the property that's, for lack of a 16 better word, been in your family for years?
17 A Yes, sir.
18 Q Going back to your, I guess, great-grandfather?
19 A No, grandfather.
20 Q Grandfather, okay, is there a house at 104 Country Club
21 Drive?
22 A There was.
23 Q All right, now, let me show you a document that's been 24 admitted into evidence as Defendant's Exhibit Number Three.
25 Do you recognize that document?

1 A I believe so, yes, sir.
2 Q All right, and is that your signature, sir, on the third
3 page of Defendant's Number Three?
4 A I believe so, yes, sir.
5 Q Did you understand the terms and conditions of that
6 commitment letter that Horry County State Bank issued to you
7 for your loan request?
8 A Yes, sir.
9 Q All right, and was one of those terms and conditions a
10 real estate mortgage?
11 A Yes, sir.
12 Q All right, and REM down there you're no stranger to those 13 terms, that's shorthand for real estate mortgage; isn't it?
14 A Correct.
15 Q Okay, did you understand that six lots were being pledged
16 on this matter?
17 A Yes, sir.
18 Q All right, who owned those lots?
19 A It was a combination between myself and my mother. I had 20 two. She had five.
21 Q Okay, so, seven lots total?
22 A Seven, I believe.
23 Q All right, was - did any of those have improvements on it
24 when you solicited a loan from Horry County State Bank?
25 A One did, yes, sir.

1 Q Is that the one at 104 Country Club?
2 A Yes, sir.
3 Q And you were residing in that property?
4 A Correct.
5 Q Okay, now, was there an obligation to provide any 6 casualty insurance to the bank for that?
7 A There was an existing residential loan application that
8 was denied by Horry County State Bank and when I reapplied
9 through Ron Page it was a commercial loan. So I don't believe 10 there was on the commercial loan.
11 Q All right, let me draw your attention to Section 10 of 12 the same document, Defendant's Number Three, is there a 13 provision there for what should be provided to the bank at 14 closing?
15 A I - yes, sir.
16 Q And is that insurance?
17 A Yes, sir.
18 Q Okay, so you were aware of the bank's requirement there
19 would be insurance on the improvements; correct?
20 A Incorrect.
21 Q You were not aware of that?
22 A I was not aware. It wasn't a stipulation. It wasn't,
23 "Go get insurance and have this." It was, you know, it -
24 conversation with Ron Page in his office when he agreed to do
25 this loan was that he didn't care about the house because I

1 had talked to him about doing some improvements. He said that
2 they were looking at just the land value and that's why the 3 percentage of the loan was based so low to the value of the 4 appraisal.
5 Q All right, I think I asked you this before when I took
6 your deposition back in April. Do you have any piece of paper
7 that shows different terms other than this loan commitment
8 letter?
9 A No, sir.
10 Q Okay, and no question that the loan commitment letter in 11 April of 2009 requires insurance.
12 A As I see there, yes.
13 Q Okay, now, since the property was in both yours and your 14 mother's name how did you intend to go to closing? Was your 15 mother going to appear or were you going to sign on her
16 behalf?
17 A It was a hypothecation agreement that was prepared by the 18 closing attorneys referred by Horry County State Bank.
19 Q All right, let me show you what's been marked as 20 Defendant's Exhibit Number Four. Do you recognize that 21 document?
22 A Yes.
23 Q And did you, in fact, sign as a witness on that document?
24 A Yes.
25 Q All right, and was that the power of attorney granted

1 from your mother to you to go to closing?
2 A Correct.
3 Q Did that reference five lots?
4 A Correct.
5 Q All right, and one of the lots referenced there was that
6 the County Club Drive lot?
7 A Yes.
8 Q All right, and you could sign for your own lots; correct?
9 A Correct.
10 Q All right, and when you say hypothecation agreement
11 you're not referring - would you - did you just misspoke, you
12 meant to say power of attorney?
13 A There - as I recall I thought it was a hypothecation
14 agreement or something that would allow me to use the property
15 as collateral.
16 Q Okay, we'll get to that in just a moment. All right, no
17 question that you did go to closing at the firm of Evans and 18 Evans.
19 A Correct.
20 Q And no question that you signed on behalf of your mother.
21 A Correct.
22 Q And no question you had authority to do that.
23 A Correct.
24 Q Let me show you the HUD-1 which has been marked, admitted
25 as Defendant's Number Eight, Mr. Quickel.

1 A Yes, sir.
2 Q Do you recognize that document?
3 A Appears to be the closing statement for - yes.
4 Q All right, and how did you execute the third page of that
5 closing statement?
6 A As attorney in fact.
7 Q For whom?
8 A For my mother.
9 Q Okay, all right, and did you understand that you were 10 placing a lien on all the property that, that day?
11 A Correct.
12 Q Okay, let me show you what's been marked as Defendant's
13 Exhibit Number Six and ask you do you recognize that document?
14 A Yes, sir.
15 Q All right, did you execute those mortgages both on your 16 behalf and on your mother's behalf?
17 A It appears so, yes.
18 Q And did you have authority to do so?
19 A Yes.
20 Q All right, now, no question that at some point you fell
21 in arrears on the loan?
22 A Yes, sir.
23 Q Okay, and you received notice from the bank that they 24 were calling the loan due to it being past due?
25 A Correct.

1 Q All right, now, you previously referred to a
2 hypothecation agreement that you remember signing in this
3 matter. I'm going to show you a document. I did not pre-mark
4 this one, Your Honor.
5 THE COURT: Okay, that'd be Number 18.
6 MR. MULLINS: That'll be Number 18, if I could have 7 that marked for identification at this time.
8 THE COURT: Okay.
9 MR. MULLINS: I've given a copy to counsel already.
10 BY MR. MULLINS:
11 Q Let me show you what's been pre-marked as Defendant's
12 Number, Defendant Horry County State Bank's Number 18. Do you
13 recognize that document?
14 A Uh-huh, yes.
15 Q Okay, and did you - is that the hypothecation agreement
16 that you were previously referring to?
17 A I believe, yes.
18 Q And no question that's your signature on the document?
19 A It appears so, yes, sir.
20 Q No question you signed that at closing?
21 A It appears so, yes, sir.
22 Q All right.
23 MR. MULLINS: Would like to move to admit
24 Defendant's Number 18, Your Honor.
25 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, I've got to, to object.

1 The agreement, the copy that Mr. Mullins gave me has Brooks
2 Quickel, M. Brooks Quickel signs a hypothecation agreement
3 talking about collateral security. He's not signing on behalf
4 of Rosemary Long Jenrette. He's not signing pursuant to a
5 power of attorney of Rosemary Long Jenrette. He just signed
6 M. Brooks Quickel an hypothecation agreement I guess
7 purporting to pledge something for the loan to Cajun Carolina
8 LLC.
9 THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Mullins.
10 MR. DESCHAMPS: He's signing M. Brooks Quickel, it
11 has nothing to do with Rosemary Long Jenrette.
12 MR. MULLINS: And I agree, Your Honor, the 13 execution, this probably wasn't as intense as I require during 14 a real estate closing at my office, but it's relevant for the 15 standpoint of Mr. Brooks Quickel signed this at closing on the 16 exact same day in the exact same closing and part of that 17 hypothecation agreement states that he's assigning those 18 interests. That's why I think it's relevant.
19 THE COURT: Let me see the document, please.
20 What, what does, what does the hypothecation agreement
21 accomplish and I know what one is, but what is it
22 accomplishing here? You've got a note and you've got a
23 mortgage. What does this hypothecation agreement do?
24 MR. MULLINS: The hypothecation agreement, Your 25 Honor, I think is additional security to the bank for - on

1 behalf of both Mr. Quickel and Rosemary Jenrette. If you
2 notice at the top, and like I said it wasn't executed as
3 formally as I would like for it to be, but it shows at the top
4 that it's on behalf of Rosemary Long Jenrette. It references
5 her address.
6 THE COURT: It doesn't say on behalf. It's just 7 got her name up there.
8 MR. MULLINS: It just has her name up there.
9 THE COURT: There's no on behalf of in here.
10 MR. MULLINS: That, that is clear, Your Honor.
11 THE COURT: Okay, to prove an equitable theory
12 don't you have to have pretty clean hands? In other words
13 what are you - what does this do? What if it had 204 Elm
14 Street on here?
15 MR. MULLINS: My point being, Judge, that at the 16 time he went to closing the closing documents referenced it,
17 the power of attorney referenced it, the loan commitment
18 referenced it and the fact that he just didn't formally sign
19 it that way I think is just a technicality, but it did show
20 that in all respects he was acting consistently with the power
21 of attorney and with the loan commitment.
22 THE COURT: What is the significance of the 23 address 3806 North Ocean Boulevard?
24 MR. MULLINS: That's Ms. Jenrette's address, Your
25 Honor.

1 THE COURT: That's where she lives?
2 MR. MULLINS: Yeah, that's correct, Your Honor.
3 THE COURT: And ---
4 MR. MULLINS: As I understand it from her
5 deposition.
6 THE COURT: One, two - there are five properties
7 listed on this hypothecation agreement and two on the other?
8 MR. MULLINS: Yes, sir.
9 THE COURT: And these are the five properties on 10 the first page that are, that are owned by Mrs. Jenrette?
11 MR. MULLINS: That's correct.
12 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. DesChamps?
13 MR. DESCHAMPS: No, sir.
14 THE COURT: All right, anything else, Mr.
15 Mullins, on this?
16 MR. MULLINS: No, sir.
17 THE COURT: I'm going to - I'll, I'll have to 18 read the document. I don't think it's going to come in 19 because if the bank wants to hold or it wants to obtain rights
20 to the money I believe that the bank is going to have to do a
21 little bit better in how these documents are executed. I see
22 what you're saying. I don't know whether the absence of this 23 document from the stream of evidence is going to make a
24 difference, but I don't know if I'm going to let it in. So
25 I'll have to make note that Number 18 is neither in nor out

1 right now.
2 MR. MULLINS: Thank you, Your Honor.
3 THE COURT: Who, who is the witness? May I ask
4 that? Who's the - who witnessed your signature?
5 A That's - I don't know.
6 THE COURT: Okay, all right.
7 MR. MULLINS: Your Honor, I wasn't there. It
8 appears to be Greg Evans, and I'm basing that assumption, if I
9 could hold the HUD for a moment.
10 THE COURT: All right, that's okay. I'll, I'll -
11 he's, he's already confirmed he signed this at the closing, so
12 whatever this document may add.
13 MR. MULLINS: And I assume that just by looking at 14 Mr. Evans' signature on the HUD.
15 THE COURT: All right, you can continue. The 16 document's not in right now.
17 MR. MULLINS: Thank you, Your Honor.
18 BY MR. MULLINS:
19 Q Did you go get an insurance policy on the house?
20 A No, sir.
21 Q Were you aware that your mother had an insurance policy
22 on the house?
23 A At a later date I found out, yes, sir.
24 Q Okay, did you sign a document with Horry County State
25 Bank where you agreed to provide insurance coverage on the

1 house?
2 A I remember with Ann Marion there was a stack of documents
3 and the easiest and the path of least resistance was to sign
4 everything and she would figure out exactly what she needed to 5 do.
6 THE COURT: Who?
7 A Ann Marion who was the loan officer who had originally 8 declined the loan, but when a superior approved it she was 9 instructed just to do the paperwork and she didn't know
10 exactly how the loan was going to be placed in the bank. So 11 we signed, you know, a lot of things and I don't know what was 12 used and what wasn't.
13 Q I'm looking for Number 17, Your Honor. Let me show you a 14 document that's been marked and admitted into evidence as 15 Defendant Horry County Bank, Horry County State Bank's Number
16 17. Do you recognize the signature on that document?
17 A Appears so, yes.
18 THE COURT: I haven't, haven't let that in yet,
19 but you can - you said it's been admitted but it has not.
20 MR. MULLINS: I'm sorry, Your Honor.
21 THE COURT: That's okay.
22 MR. MULLINS: I stand corrected.
23 BY MR. MULLINS:
24 Q Which has been marked for identification as Defendant's
25 Exhibit Number 17, do you recognize that document?

1 A Yes.
2 Q Okay.
3 A Yeah.
4 Q And is that your signature, sir, on that document?
5 A I recognize my signature, yes.
6 Q All right, and did you sign it on May 1st, 2009, like the 7 other documents you signed in this case?
8 A It appears so, yes.
9 Q Okay, and did you agree that there would be insurance
10 provided to Horry County State Bank on the property?
11 A Again, there were documents that were signed and the date
12 stamped. So I don't know when that was stamped. I don't ---
13 Q Well ---
14 A --- so it could have been that I signed those with Ann
15 for the previous residential loan that was declined. So I
16 don't know.
17 Q Well, let's look at the dates, Mr. Quickel, if you would,
18 no question that you ---
19 A This was the closing.
20 Q Right, no question that this is dated May 1st, 2009; isn't
21 it?
22 A Yes.
23 Q Okay, no question that there was a real estate closing at 24 Mr. Evans' office on May 1st, 2009; wasn't there?
25 A Correct.

1 Q Okay.
2 A The ---
3 Q No question that the prior loan was denied prior to the 4 commitment letter being received?
5 A There's no date with Ann's signature and there's - so I
6 don't know when it was signed. It could have just been 7 stamped.
8 Q Are you saying that you didn't agree to provide insurance
9 to Horry County State Bank?
10 A There was never a discussion is what I'm --- 11 Q So all of these documents and from what you're telling me
12 you think are ---
13 A And I will tell you ---
14 Q Hang on.
15 A --- Mr. Mullins, and not being difficult, in my hundreds
16 of real estate closings that I've been through and HUD
17 statements I've looked at, maybe it's my fault and I will - I
18 have never been present in a closing where someone has read
19 every single document that they were signing.
20 Q All right, well, give me just a second to finish my 21 question, okay, all right. I understand from your prior 22 deposition you're quick to answer, all right. You've been in 23 many real estate closings; haven't you?
24 A Correct.
25 Q All right, and normally when you're - the bank is taking

1 a loan on something with a building you have to provide
2 insurance; don't you?
3 A Under this circumstances with the conversation that I had 4 with Ron Page that was not my ---
5 Q All right, I ---
6 A --- understanding. In fact, you know, not to - I mean,
7 Ron's comment was, "I don't give a about the house. We're 8 looking at just the land."
9 MR. MULLINS: Your Honor, objection and move to 10 strike as non-responsive.
11 THE COURT: All right, overruled. Go ahead.
12 You have an objection?
13 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, well, Your Honor, he's 14 leading.
15 THE COURT: I think, I think he needs to answer
16 the question first. The question was what has been the course
17 during your hundreds of real estate closings. What is the 18 answer to that? If there's a building that's going to be - 19 is on property that is going to be secured by a mortgage is 20 there to be insurance, that was his first question.
21 A In most instances, yes, sir.
22 Q Okay.
23 THE COURT: And he indicated that in this
24 particular instance that was not part of the deal.
25 A Depending on loan to value, land value, I mean, sometimes

1 a building on a property could be a hindrance.
2 Q No question, and now, did you pledge these lots as
3 security for the loan?
4 A Yes, sir.
5 Q All right, and the foreclosure unfortunately began as a
6 result of your inability to pay?
7 A Correct.
8 Q All right, during the time that foreclosure was pending
9 was there a fire loss?
10 A During the second foreclosure proceeding.
11 Q All right, let's clarify that for a moment. Foreclosure
12 was initially filed against you and you brought the loan and 13 did you bring the loan current?
14 A Paid them $20,000.
15 Q Okay, all right, was there a second foreclosure filed?
16 A Correct.
17 Q And did you pay that loan current?
18 A When I was able to shortly after they wouldn't accept 19 payment.
20 Q All right, did it proceed to foreclosure and sale?
21 A Correct.
22 Q During the time that foreclosure was pending was there a
23 fire loss?
24 A Correct.
25 Q All right, was that while you were occupying the

1 property?
2 A Correct.
3 Q Was the, was the house at 104 Country Club demolished?
4 A Yes.
5 Q A total loss?
6 A Correct.
7 Q All right, no question that you had a valid power of 8 attorney for your mother to do this closing?
9 A Correct.
10 Q Now, in that document is there a provision for assignment
11 of insurance policies?
12 A I don't recall.
13 Q In the document, the mortgage, was there a provision for 14 assignment of insurance policies?
15 A I don't recall.
16 Q I've blown up part of this, and as I recall I asked you
17 about this during your deposition.
18 THE COURT: Wait just a second. Do you have an
19 objection?
20 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, I think his question is 21 call - is calling for a legal conclusion. He asked if there
22 was an assignment in the mortgage.
23 THE COURT: Well, it's a - it's in the mortgage.
24 Does it matter what he thinks of it, Mr. Mullins?
25 MR. MULLINS: Not particularly, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay, well, I'll, I'll let him
2 answer. I'll let him answer the question. The provision says
3 what it says.
4 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
5 THE COURT: But you can ask him. I'll overrule
6 your objection.
7 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, Your Honor.
8 BY MR. MULLINS:
9 Q Let me show you what's been marked and admitted as 10 Defendant's Number Six and Number Seven, sir. Is there a 11 provision in the mortgage itself, and I had the language blown 12 up because it's hard to read, but is there a provision for an 13 assignment of any real, of any insurance?
14 A If you say - if it's in there, yes.
15 Q All right, well, this isn't the first time I've asked you
16 this question.
17 A Yeah, and I understand.
18 Q Didn't I ask you that question back at your deposition?
19 A I don't recall.
20 Q You don't recall, all right. Is there a provision there 21 where your mother is referred to as the borrower in the 22 mortgage?
23 A If it's in black and white, yes, sir.
24 Q Okay, well, let's look at that, part of Defendant's
25 Number Six. Is your mother there listed as Rosemary Long

1 Jenrette?
2 A Yes.
3 Q And is she there as borrower, hereinafter borrower?
4 A That's what it says.
5 Q Okay, and isn't there a provision and I'm going to show
6 you the blown-up language, Defendant's Number Seven, that the 7 borrower assigns the right to an insurance policy?
8 A It states that, yes.
9 Q All right, and Mr. Quickel, were there any other
10 improvements on any of the other lots other than 104 Country
11 Club Drive?
12 A No, sir.
13 Q All right, now, there is a deficiency judgment against 14 you for about $117,000 as a result of this foreclosure?
15 A I have no idea.
16 Q You have no idea, okay.
17 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, that - I object to that 18 question in the first place because it's, it's not relevant,
19 the deficiency, the deficiency judgment is not relevant.
20 THE COURT: Overruled, well, if - do you
21 agree that if the bank receives this money the deficiency
22 judgment will go down accordingly?
23 MR. MULLINS: Yes, sir, it has to be applied.
24 THE COURT: Okay, I'll, I'll allow the question.
25 It may, may not have anything to do with whether or not I

1 declare that an equitable lien.
2 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
3 THE COURT: I agree that it's not relevant to the 4 issue of whether that is the question, but a while ago, I
5 mean, whether that is the answer to the question but a while 6 ago you were claiming that there would be some type of double
7 recovery if they were - the bank were allowed to obtain this 8 money.
9 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, yes, sir, because they have a -
10 according to the public records - I was objecting to the 11 deficiency judgment. According to the public records they,
12 they bid the property in at an amount and a deductible and 13 left it open for 30 days because they've pursued a deficiency
14 judgment. Of course no one redeemed it.
15 THE COURT: Right.
16 MR. DESCHAMPS: So they, they had - the bank got a
17 deficiency judgment between the amount that they bid in, okay,
18 and the amount of the entire indebtedness, principal,
19 interest, attorney's fees, everything, and that deficiency
20 judgment as I understand the public records is against Mr.
21 Quickel and Cajun Carolina. Of course it's not a debt of my 22 client's. They have a - they have received all of the 23 property. They bid it in at what they established the value
24 to be and they have a deficiency judgment against Mr. Quickel
25 and Cajun Carolina for the difference. There's no provision

1 in any documents, despite the fact that there was an order of 2 foreclosure and sale and everything after applied, there's no
3 provision, there's no addressing the insurance proceeds
4 anywhere. So conceptually if they were to be successful in 5 getting the insurance proceeds they get the insurance proceeds
6 there. They've got the property and they've got the judgment
7 against Cajun Carolina and Mr. Quickel. So they can double
8 collect. It's not like in a - and that's the whole problem
9 with their theory. If, in fact ---
10 THE COURT: But - okay, but that, again, we're 11 getting to your ---
12 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, I'm sorry.
13 THE COURT: --- your ultimate argument ---
14 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, I'm sorry.
15 THE COURT: --- which, at least from the order I 16 read did not prevail on summary judgment. That, that was your 17 argument to the tee; right?
18 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
19 THE COURT: And it may be end up being right as a 20 matter of fact, but as a matter of law we're not there yet.
21 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
22 THE COURT: But your objection is, is overruled.
23 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, we were both unsuccessful
24 in summary judgment.
25 THE COURT: All right.

1 MR. DESCHAMPS: Both of us, so, so.
2 THE COURT: Okay, all right, go ahead, Mr.
3 Mullins.
4 BY MR. MULLINS:
5 Q Mr. Quickel, does Cajun Carolina have any for you, have 6 any ability to satisfy that outstanding deficiency judgment?
7 A Presently right now, no.
8 Q All right, and you had some other difficulties as I
9 recall in Florida ---
10 A Correct.
11 Q --- when you lived there. All right, was there any 12 judgments against you in Florida?
13 A Not that I'm aware of.
14 Q All right, you don't - do you recall testifying
15 previously in your deposition regarding a Florida judgment?
16 A I, I understand that I had a home that was foreclosed in 17 Florida. I understand that a judgment was filed against me.
18 I have not read it to see it in black and white in front of my 19 face, nor have I had the money to pay it. So I haven't gone
20 and looked for it.
21 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, again, I object to the 22 - this testimony.
23 THE COURT: Is that relevant, what's going on in 24 Florida.
25 MR. MULLINS: It's relevant, Your Honor, just to

1 show that, first of all, I'm trying to counter the argument
2 that says, "Well, you've got a deficiency judgment. You're
3 not entitled to anything else." I'm trying to show that Cajun
4 Carolina owns nothing. Mr. Quickel doesn't have any assets
5 and that there's a $2 million judgment in Florida that's ahead
6 of this anyway.
7 THE COURT: Well, has the judgment been
8 domesticated here?
9 MR. MULLINS: It has not.
10 THE COURT: Well, then what difference does that 11 make?
12 MR. MULLINS: Well, from the standpoint of I don't 13 know what Mr. Quickel - we haven't been through supplemental 14 proceedings yet, but I don't know what he owns anywhere else,
15 but I'm just trying to ---
16 THE COURT: He, he's not a party to this?
17 MR. MULLINS: Not to this.
18 THE COURT: This is an equitable lien that has 19 nothing to do with anything but this insurance money.
20 MR. MULLINS: Yes, sir.
21 THE COURT: All right, you don't need to go into 22 all that.
23 MR. MULLINS: Thank you, Your Honor. If I may have 24 just a moment, Your Honor.
25 THE COURT: You can proffer it, but ---

1 MR. MULLINS: And Your Honor, I would only proffer
2 for the record the reason I'm pursuing that is from page 25 of 3 Mr. Quickel's deposition I asked - well, starting on page 24,
4 line 21, I asked, "Is there a deficiency judgment against you
5 in the State of Florida?" "Yes, sir," was his response. My 6 question, "How much?" Answer, "It was an additional home that 7 we were building in the same neighborhood. I believe the 8 judgment is in excess of $2 million." Question, "Do you have 9 a copy of those judgments?" Answer, "No, sir."
10 THE COURT: Okay, well, your proffer is that 11 there is a $2 million judgment against him in the State of 12 Florida. You don't contest that at least as a matter of 13 record, do you, Mr. DesChamps, that the judgment exists? In 14 other words, he's making a proffer. It can be done formally 15 with the, the document being, excuse me, the deposition being 16 marked as a Court's Exhibit or you can accept the proffer as 17 he stated it.
18 MR. DESCHAMPS: I still have the objection on 19 relevancy, Your Honor.
20 THE COURT: Well, I understand you had the 21 objection on relevancy, but he still has the right to proffer
22 the evidence. All right, so the evidence has been properly
23 proffered ---
24 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
25 THE COURT: --- then the record reflects as the

1 proffer a $2 million judgment against him in the State of 2 Florida. Okay, go ahead, Mr. Mullins.
3 MR. MULLINS: Thank you, Your Honor, could I have 4 just a moment, please?
5 THE COURT: Yes, sir.
6 MR. MULLINS: Thank you, sir. Please answer any 7 questions that opposing counsel or the Court has for you.
8 CROSS EXAMINATION
9 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
10 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Quickel.
11 A Good afternoon.
12 MR. DESCHAMPS: May I, may I approach, Your Honor, 13 to get an exhibit?
14 THE COURT: Yes, sir, which one you need?
15 MR. DESCHAMPS: Four, 17 ---
16 THE COURT: All right.
17 MR. DESCHAMPS: May I approach the witness, Your
18 Honor?
19 THE COURT: Yes, sir.
20 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
21 Q Mr. Quickel, the specific power of attorney that was put 22 in as Defendant's Exhibit Four do you recognize that document,
23 sir?
24 A Yes, sir.
25 Q All right, is there anywhere on there talk about 104

1 Country Club Drive? Is that address noted on that document?
2 A I think - it says 1600 Country Club Drive on the cover of
3 it.
4 Q All right, sir, okay, that particular document is there
5 anything in that document that - the power of attorney, that 6 specifically directs you to procure hazard insurance?
7 A Can I take a moment to read it?
8 Q Yes, sir, please look at that.
9 A No, sir.
10 Q No, sir, and what's the date of that power of attorney,
11 please?
12 A The 27th day of April.
13 Q Thank you.
14 THE COURT: 2010? Well, it says what it says.
15 Q Go ahead and the date of it?
16 A Oh, I'm sorry, in witness thereof the 27th.
17 Q Day of April, the year?
18 A Oh, 2009, I'm sorry.
19 THE COURT: 2009, I'm sorry.
20 Q Thank you.
21 THE COURT: Which one you looking for?
22 MR. DESCHAMPS: Number Three, Your Honor.
23 THE COURT: What is Number Three?
24 REPORTER: The commitment letter.
25 MR. MULLINS: Loan commitment, Your Honor.

1 MR. DESCHAMPS: Loan commitment letter.
2 THE COURT: I know the witness had it a minute
3 ago. I assume he doesn't have it anymore because I don't see
4 it. It's probably up here.
5 MR. DESCHAMPS: That's fine.
6 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
7 Q All right, I just - I'll just - I'll refer to this one.
8 Previously the commitment letter had been marked as Exhibit
9 Number Three, okay.
10 THE COURT: Here we go.
11 MR. DESCHAMPS: Oh, I'm sorry, Your Honor.
12 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
13 Q And what was the date of that commitment letter and your 14 signature?
15 A It appears the letter was drafted on April 24th, 2009.
16 Q Okay, and look at your signature.
17 A It appears that I signed it on the 24th of April, 2009.
18 Q Okay, all right, and the power of attorney was April 27,
19 2009; is that correct?
20 A Correct.
21 Q Okay, so you signed the commitment letter before you had 22 authority from Rosemary Long to do anything with regard to the 23 property at 104 Country Club Drive; is that correct?
24 A It appears so, yes.
25 Q So on April 24, 2009, you didn't have any authority from

1 your mother to sign any type of commitment letter purporting
2 to encumber her property; did you?
3 MR. MULLINS: Objection, Your Honor, that would
4 call for a legal conclusion.
5 THE COURT: Overruled. I can, I can make that 6 determination.
7 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
8 THE COURT: But I don't have a problem with you.
9 A It appears ---
10 THE COURT: You've already asked him that once,
11 so ---
12 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
13 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
14 Q I show you Defendant's Exhibit 17.
15 THE COURT: Just to be clear that's Horry County
16 State Bank's Number 17?
17 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yeah, excuse me, yes, sir.
18 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
19 Q Horry County State Bank's Number 17 which it appears that 20 you signed as a member of Cajun Carolina, LLC, is that 21 correct?
22 A Appears so, yes, sir.
23 Q And, all right, and you signed that, you signed that on 24 behalf of Cajun Carolina; did you not?
25 A It appears so, yes.

1 Q You didn't sign that document on behalf of your mother,
2 Rosemary Long Jenrette; did you?
3 A No, sir.
4 Q Did you or - do you recall if any of that information on
5 that form was, was, was filled out at the time you signed it
6 or could it have been filled out later?
7 MR. MULLINS: Objection. That calls for 8 speculation, Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: He can ask him if he knows, not what 10 it appears. He can ask if he knows.
11 Q Yeah, do you have ---
12 A As I stated to Mr. Mullins, when I originally sat down
13 with Ann Marion and the loan was directed by Ron Page for her 14 to do it she didn't know everything that she needed and it was 15 where her office was and where I lived. I lived in Conway.
16 Her office was in Socastee. It was, "Sign everything so I'll 17 have it and I'll use what I need to."
18 Q So you don't, you don't know one way or the other?
19 A I don't.
20 Q All right.
21 A I - looking at every other form they were all had 22 handwritten dates in it. This one has a stamp date. So I
23 don't know. I can't say.
24 Q With regard to the specific power of attorney that you
25 signed on April 27 is - to your knowledge is there any - are

1 there any conditions in the power of attorney which would
2 allow you to sign any documents on behalf of Rosemary Long
3 other than the mortgage?
4 A Is that the one that I just read just a second ago?
5 Q The specific power of attorney.
6 A Yeah, could you repeat the question again?
7 Q Does the specific power of attorney authorize you to sign
8 a mortgage document on behalf of your mother?
9 A Yes.
10 Q Does it authorize you to sign any other documents on 11 behalf of your mother?
12 A Yes.
13 Q And what documents are those?
14 A Company forms required necessary to effect the foregoing,
15 endorse checks, drafts, money orders, you know, whatever the 16 bank put in front of me, I guess.
17 Q And does it authorize you to take out an insurance policy
18 ---
19 A No, sir.
20 Q --- on behalf of your mother?
21 A No, sir.
22 Q Did you ever take out an insurance policy on behalf of 23 your mother?
24 A No, sir.
25 Q Did you ever take out an insurance policy whatsoever?

1 A No, sir. For the - this specific piece of property, no,
2 or contents involved with this piece of property, no.
3 Q Were you aware of any requirement for your mother to take 4 out an insurance policy on your behalf of or behalf of the 5 bank?
6 A As I had stated to Mr. Mullins, there was conversation
7 when Ann was trying to do a residential loan which was denied,
8 but in the commercial side and the way that they did this loan
9 in Cajun Carolina, no, it was not a discussion or a
10 requirement.
11 Q At the time of the closing did you sign the mortgage 12 instrument under your power of attorney to the best of your 13 knowledge?
14 A To the best of my knowledge, yes.
15 Q Okay, to your knowledge did you sign any other documents
16 at the closing under your power of attorney signed as attorney
17 in fact?
18 A As well as I can remember I think I was in Evans and 19 Evans office about 20 minutes. So I don't recall specifically
20 what was there, what wasn't there and what was signed.
21 MR. DESCHAMPS: No further questions of Mr. Quickel.
22 THE COURT: Redirect?
23 MR. MULLINS: Briefly, Your Honor.
24 REDIRECT EXAMINATION
25 BY MR. MULLINS:

1 Q Going back to the power of attorney, Mr. Quickel, and I'm
2 confused. Let me see if I can clear this up. This third
3 paragraph here gives you authority to sign. Does it give you
4 authority to sign at the loan closing?
5 A Yes, sir.
6 Q Does it give you authority to sign any documents that the 7 bank required?
8 A Correct.
9 Q And at the bottom of it does it on behalf of your mother
10 ratify everything that you did?
11 A Yes.
12 Q Okay.
13 MR. MULLINS: No further questions, Your Honor.
14 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. DesChamps?
15 MR. DESCHAMPS: None, Your Honor.
16 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Quickel, you can step
17 down. Any additional witnesses from the bank?
18 MR. MULLINS: I would have my Rule 32 designations
19 to read into the record, Your Honor.
20 THE COURT: All right, and those would be Ms.
21 Jenrette's?
22 MR. MULLINS: That's correct.
23 THE COURT: And I know that you stated earlier in 24 the office that you had some objections to those. Do you have 25 all of that ready for me to look at and if I allow those will

1 you have any counter-designations or will you just simply call
2 your client?
3 MR. DESCHAMPS: I'll just call my client.
4 THE COURT: All right, and your - are your 5 objections to those designations in writing or you want to 6 make those when we get back from lunch?
7 MR. DESCHAMPS: I'll make them on the record, yes,
8 sir.
9 THE COURT: Can we do that when we get back from 10 lunch?
11 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
12 THE COURT: Because I'd like to read them
13 beforehand so I'll know what your - everybody's talking about.
14 That okay?
15 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, I mean, I haven't done them
16 in writing.
17 THE COURT: No, you don't have to.
18 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
19 THE COURT: I was just saying if you did I could 20 look at all of that, too, but if you're going to make them
21 verbally that's certainly fine.
22 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, yes, sir.
23 THE COURT: I'll have to read through it so I'll 24 be able to logically follow what your objections are.
25 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay, you can hand those up and let's
2 break until - just give me some time to look at this. We'll
3 break until 2:30.
4 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
5 THE COURT: Will you have any other witnesses,
6 Mr. Mullins?
7 MR. MULLINS: That will be the end of our case,
8 Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: All right, and you'll have how many 10 witnesses?
11 MR. DESCHAMPS: One witness, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: Okay, 2:30.
13 MR. DESCHAMPS: Thank you.
14 OFF THE RECORD
15 (On the record.)
16 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Mullins, you have the 17 deposition excerpts you want to proffer?
18 MR. MULLINS: Yes, Your Honor, under Rule 32 we're 19 ready to read those excerpts into the record. We can do -
20 either do that ---
21 THE COURT: We're not, we're not going to read
22 them. I mean, they'll just be put - if I let them in they'll 23 just be put in. I've already read them. So I - you don't 24 want to read them all, do you?
25 MR. MULLINS: No, sir.

1 THE COURT: Okay, all right.
2 MR. MULLINS: Not, not - there's no jury here, Your
3 Honor. I assume you can read.
4 THE COURT: Do you have an, you have an
5 objection?
6 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, I do not have any objection
7 to the first excerpt that he identifies on page six, line 25,
8 nor do I have objection to the excerpt on page seven, lines
9 one through 25.
10 THE COURT: And that pretty much just says what 11 her name is.
12 MR. DESCHAMPS: And I don't - all right, I don't have 13 objections to - let me, let me, let me get them. I'm sorry.
14 I was wrong. I've got some others. I do not have objections
15 to page 41, lines 17 through 25, page 42, lines one through 16 six. I do not have objections to page 46, lines four through 17 11, nor do I have objection to page 50, lines five through 25
18 or page 51, line one, nor do I have objection to page 54,
19 lines 18 through 25, nor do I have objection to page 55, lines
20 11 through 25.
21 THE COURT: All right, and the rest of them you
22 do object to?
23 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, yes, sir.
24 THE COURT: And are there different reasons or do
25 you have the same reason?

1 MR. DESCHAMPS: Most of my, most of my grounds are
2 the grounds of relevancy. I can go through each one quickly.
3 THE COURT: Well, isn't this testimony just
4 having her go through the loan documents pretty much?
5 MR. DESCHAMPS: If, if - if I - I'm going to let Trey
6 because he actually went through those if you don't mind, Your 7 Honor. Let him object to it.
8 THE COURT: All right, if, if there, if there is a common
9 thread throughout all of your objections that's what I want to 10 know because what I'm not going to do is go over all 60 some 11 odd designations with the - in other words, well, I say 60.
12 There may not be that many but your - you've got the floor,
13 Mr. DesChamps, you can let me know what your objections are.
14 MR. DESCHAMPS, III: I'm sorry. Page 58, lines two 15 through page 65, line 25.
16 THE COURT: Okay, page 58, line ---
17 MR. DESCHAMPS, III: I believe it goes through questions
18 regarding the responses to the Requests for Admissions that 19 were subject of the prior foreclosure action and I would 20 object to those on the grounds of Rule 36(B).
21 THE COURT: What's 36(B)?
22 MR. DESCHAMPS, III: South Carolina Rules of Civil 23 Procedure that in responses to Requests for Admissions in a 24 proceeding by a party are only for that specific proceeding
25 and cannot be admitted as an admission in a subsequent

1 proceeding.
2 THE COURT: What is, what is - what are they
3 talking about in that exchange on page 58?
4 MR. DESCHAMPS, III: They introduce the, the Requests for 5 Admissions into record as Exhibit Seven.
6 THE COURT: I know, but what request, what 7 Request for Admissions? She admitted she signed the power of 8 attorney, right? You all don't dispute that.
9 MR. DESCHAMPS, III: No, sir, Your Honor.
10 THE COURT: Doesn't this talk about her having 11 signed the power of attorney because that - when you're 12 talking about in the deposition Exhibit Number Seven, Exhibit
13 Number so forth I don't know what in the world you're talking
14 about because I don't have those exhibits.
15 MR. DESCHAMPS, III: Yes, sir, I was objecting as it
16 references that document in there as Exhibit Seven, the 17 Request for Admissions in the prior foreclosure action.
18 THE COURT: Okay, did he ask her any questions
19 about it?
20 MR. DESCHAMPS, III: Going forward they put the responses.
21 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Mullins, what, what 22 are - what's supremely important about the Request for 23 Admissions in the prior foreclosure proceedings?
24 MR. MULLINS: Well, it may be anticipating, Your 25 Honor. I think I can better handle that by cross examination

1 of Ms. Jenrette. So, I'll withdraw that from my designation,
2 that portion.
3 THE COURT: All right, so, Mr. DesChamps, are you
4 going to go through each one individually here because frankly
5 ---
6 MR. DESCHAMPS, III: If, if he's ---
7 THE COURT: --- the easiest thing to do would be
8 for me to listen to her testimony.
9 MR. DESCHAMPS, III: If he's withdrawing the Requests for 10 Admission that's, that's fine.
11 THE COURT: Well, I'm talking about just as a 12 whole, okay, she hasn't testified yet. I would assume that 13 none of what she says in her deposition is absolutely crucial
14 to your case; is it?
15 MR. MULLINS: Yes.
16 THE COURT: What?
17 MR. MULLINS: The part that's crucial to our case, 18 Your Honor, is the portion where I ask her what was the 19 purpose of taking out the loan documents, and of course, you
20 know ---
21 THE COURT: Is for him to get money.
22 MR. MULLINS: Well, the - one of the things she 23 testified to in there that's absolutely crucial is that she 24 said it was also for the protection of the bank.
25 THE COURT: What, the mortgage?

1 MR. MULLINS: Yes, sir.
2 THE COURT: Well, I can take judicial notice that
3 a mortgage is there to protect the bank as far as collateral
4 is concerned.
5 MR. MULLINS: But that was such a remarkable
6 admission in her deposition, Your Honor, that it was crucial
7 and I think I cited that in our summary judgment motion and I
8 know I designated it in this.
9 THE COURT: Okay, so ---
10 MR. MULLINS: And the other part, well, I'm sorry.
11 THE COURT: No, go ahead.
12 MR. MULLINS: And the other parts of it there seems 13 to be - her testimony is different than the affidavit she 14 submitted at summary judgment and I was trying to show and 15 impeach her credibility based upon that affidavit.
16 THE COURT: But you don't impeach somebody's
17 credibility just by offering excerpts because let's assume she 18 didn't testify.
19 MR. MULLINS: That's true.
20 THE COURT: So what in here substantively what
21 adds to your case?
22 MR. MULLINS: The major point, Your Honor,
23 substantively is that she was not present during the loan
24 negotiations, she gave a power of attorney to her son, that 25 it's a valid power of attorney.

1 THE COURT: I agree with that what I've heard so
2 far. I don't think they're, I don't think they're disputing
3 the validity and legal efficacy of the power of attorney.
4 MR. MULLINS: The language that's different than 5 her affidavit when she says she didn't have a loan for the 6 bank, that was never an issue, it was her policy, but yet when
7 she testifies and I can get the exact page and line she says,
8 "It was to protect me, it was to protect everybody including
9 the bank."
10 THE COURT: What was?
11 MR. MULLINS: The insurance policy.
12 THE COURT: Okay, what page was that?
13 MR. MULLINS: And Your Honor, that is --- 14 THE COURT: Well, I did have some questions just 15 from what I've heard earlier as to why she took until 2009 to 16 get an insurance policy on the house, but I guess here's my 17 big question, why not just call her to the stand and if she 18 testifies inconsistently impeach her? This is real 19 cumbersome, you have the burden of proof and you have perhaps,
20 more importantly, the burden of persuasion. There's not much 21 persuading going on with me reading all of this stuff when 22 people are talking about exhibit number this or exhibit number
23 that and I don't have those exhibits.
24 MR. MULLINS: Understand, Your Honor.
25 THE COURT: So, so you still want these excerpts

1 to be in the record?

2 MR. MULLINS: But particularly, Your Honor, page 70

3 is crucial.

4 THE COURT: All right, what's page 70? I - well,

5 page 70 is not designated.

6 MR. MULLINS: I'll call Ms. Jenrette to the stand,

7 Your Honor. It seems to be the easiest way to handle this.

8 THE COURT: Okay, all right.

9 MR. MULLINS: But I, but I would move to lead her

10 as hostile.

11 THE COURT: Oh, certainly, she's certainly an

12 opposing party. So you can call her, okay. They can't keep 13 you from doing that.

14 MR. DESCHAMPS: No, sir, we can't.

15 THE COURT: Okay, come on up, please, Ms.

16 Jenrette.

17 MR. MULLINS: Just seems the easiest way to handle

18 it.

19 THE COURT: Yeah, I think - I agree.

20 Whereupon, Rosemary Long Jenrette was called to the 21 stand, duly sworn by the clerk and testified as follows:

22 THE CLERK: State your name for the Court,

23 please, ma'am.

24 MS. JENRETTE: Rosemary Long Jenrette.

25 MR. MULLINS: May it please the Court, Your Honor?

1 THE COURT: Yes, sir.
2 DIRECT EXAMINATION
3 BY MR. MULLINS:
4 Q Ms. Jenrette, you are the - one of the Defendants in this
5 case?
6 A Yes.
7 Q All right, and tell the Court where you live, Ms.
8 Jenrette.
9 A Where I live?
10 Q Yes, ma'am.
11 A I live in Myrtle Beach.
12 Q What's your address in Myrtle Beach?
13 A 3806 North Ocean Boulevard.
14 Q Okay, and, ma'am, I know you should never inquire about a
15 lady's age, but I understand you're of retirement age?
16 A Uh-huh.
17 Q And did you retire from somewhere here in Horry County?
18 A Yes, I retired from Horry County schools.
19 Q All right, and what position did you hold there?
20 A I was a school principal and construction manager.
21 Q Okay, so holding those positions you probably have in 22 excess of a master's degree plus in education?
23 A That's correct.
24 Q All right, you know the witness that just testified, Mr.
25 Quickel?

1 A Yes.
2 Q That's your son ---
3 A That is correct.
4 Q --- that was previously here? Okay, now, tell me, ma'am,
5 have you ever done any business with Horry County State Bank?
6 A Some.
7 Q All right, in fact, were you a shareholder at Horry
8 County State Bank at one point?
9 A Yes.
10 Q And did you pledge those shares for a prior loan for Mr.
11 Quickel?
12 A That is correct.
13 Q All right, were you aware that your son was going to 14 apply for a loan from Horry County State Bank?
15 A Sometime during the process I did hear about that, yes.
16 Q All right, and were you going to pledge part of your
17 property as collateral for that loan?
18 A Before he got the loan that discussion was held.
19 Q Okay.
20 A Yes, I did pledge the property.
21 Q All right, and you, you were aware of that, weren't you?
22 A Yes.
23 Q All right, and did your son have full authority to go to 24 the bank and negotiate the terms of that loan using your
25 property?

1 A I did pledge the property.
2 Q Well, that's not my question, ma'am.
3 A Okay.
4 Q Did your son have authority to go to the bank and make
5 that arrangement, didn't he?
6 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, I object. Again, that's
7 irrelevant.
8 THE COURT: Overruled.
9 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
10 A Yes, he did.
11 Q Okay, and you were fully aware of that?
12 A I was aware he was at the bank trying to negotiate a
13 loan.
14 Q All right, now, your son was trying to take out a 15 business loan with Horry County State Bank; wasn't he?
16 A That is correct.
17 Q All right, and part of that business loan was to pay off
18 a prior loan; correct?
19 A I don't think - I didn't know that at the time.
20 Q But through discovery ---
21 A But, but yes.
22 Q --- you're aware of it now.
23 A Yes, I am.
24 Q Now, the loan that was eventually taken out were you here
25 when that was closed?

1 A No, I was not.
2 Q You didn't attend the closing at Evans and Evans Law
3 Firm; did you?
4 A I did not.
5 Q And as I recall you had never done any business with 6 Evans and Evans Law Firm in the past?
7 A I never have.
8 Q They're not like the family attorneys; are they?
9 A I don't have any idea who they are.
10 Q Okay, your son requested that you sign a power of 11 attorney authorizing him to close the loan?
12 A The purpose for me to sign the power of attorney was to 13 pledge the property that was part of the loan.
14 Q Okay, well, let me ask you, ma'am, if I could approach,
15 Your Honor.
16 A Yes, sir.
17 Q Document that's been marked and admitted as Defendant's
18 Exhibit Number Four ---
19 A Uh-huh.
20 Q --- does your signature appear on that document?
21 A It is on this document.
22 Q Okay, and that was the power of attorney you granted to 23 your son; wasn't it?
24 A That's correct.
25 Q Okay, and in this power of attorney do you put any

1 limitations on what your son can do for this loan?
2 A I did not.
3 Q Okay, now, were you aware of the terms of the loan?
4 A Not at that time I was not.
5 Q All right, did you become aware of it after closing?
6 A No.
7 Q Now, when did you ---
8 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, I would object to the 9 terms of the loan. Again, this is my standard objection.
10 This is not relevant. The fact is she executed a power of 11 attorney for a mortgage and a mortgage was executed. The 12 other documents are not relevant to the decision that the 13 Court is going to be making with regard to who's entitled to 14 the insurance proceeds.
15 THE COURT: Mr. Mullins.
16 MR. MULLINS: Your Honor, I think it is relevant in 17 that the bank was under an expectation there was going to be 18 insurance proceeds here.
19 THE COURT: Well, but her son and maybe this is 20 not his objection, but her son got a power of attorney from 21 her. What difference does it make what this witness thought?
22 She gave all of her - in other words, the power of attorney
23 gives the attorney in fact this, this, this, this and this.
24 So what difference does it make what the grantor thinks? She 25 gave the power of attorney. So whatever she thinks to me

1 doesn't make any difference.
2 MR. MULLINS: I'll move on, Your Honor.
3 THE COURT: Okay, the objection is sustained.
4 BY MR. MULLINS:
5 Q And ma'am, did you ever review the loan documents that
6 were signed at Evans and Evans Law Firm?
7 A I did not.
8 Q You did not, okay. Did you receive a default letter that 9 was sent to you on behalf of Horry County State Bank regarding 10 a default in this loan?
11 A Yes, I did.
12 Q All right, and at that point were you aware that your son
13 wasn't paying the loan?
14 A I was not.
15 Q All right, did you - were you joined as a party in the 16 prior foreclosure proceeding?
17 A My name was on there because I had pledged the property.
18 Q Okay.
19 A That guaranteed the loan.
20 Q So, were you aware of the foreclosure that was occurring
21 on the property?
22 A No, not until I got the papers.
23 Q Okay, well, once you received the papers and we call
24 those pleadings in the court system ---
25 A Uh-huh.

1 Q --- were you aware that it was in foreclosure at that
2 time?
3 A Yes, I was.
4 Q All right, and what - did DesChamps Law Firm represent
5 you and your son and the corporate entity during that
6 foreclosure?
7 A They did take care of my paperwork, my part of it, yes,
8 they did represent me.
9 Q Okay, and was during the time that foreclosure was 10 pending did the property burn?
11 A The property did burn.
12 Q Okay, who - what - for whatever reason the property
13 burned it burned?
14 A Yes, it did.
15 Q All right, now, at the time the property burned did you
16 have an insurance - insurance coverage on the property?
17 A Yes, I did.
18 Q Was that through Ms. Bradham's agency who previously
19 testified?
20 A That's correct.
21 Q All right, why did you have insurance coverage on the
22 property?
23 A I had insurance for my interest in the property and for 24 my protection.
25 Q Okay, did you put any insurance on there to protect the

1 bank?
2 A I did not.
3 Q All right, do you recall me giving - you giving your
4 deposition on March 1st, I'm sorry, March 19th, 2013?
5 A I do.
6 Q All right, do you recall testifying at one point ---
7 THE COURT: You show her the ---
8 Q Let me, let me show her.
9 THE COURT: I've got an - I got the extra copy.
10 If you want to - if you want to use the ---
11 A I, I know what you're talking about and I can tell you
12 what I meant by that.
13 THE COURT: Well, he has to do this for the --- 14 A Oh, okay.
15 THE COURT: --- he has to do this for the record.
16 A All right, okay.
17 THE COURT: Okay.
18 Q Let me show you the cover page, ma'am.
19 A Yes.
20 Q Is that any question that's your deposition?
21 A That is my deposition.
22 Q All right, let me draw your attention, please, to page 70
23 of your deposition.
24 A Yes.
25 Q All right, did you state there, after you have a moment,

1 would you read one through nine of that particular paragraph.
2 A Okay, and you want me to start with six?
3 Q No, I just want you to review it.
4 A Okay, I have, uh-huh.
5 Q All right, and having now reviewed it did you not testify
6 that it was to protect the bank?
7 A In that sentence I said it was to protect the bank.
8 Q Okay, all right, were you aware that the bank was 9 supposed to have what's called a - well, last me ask you, let 10 me back - withdraw that and ask it this way. Do you know what 11 a loss payee clause is?
12 A It - yes.
13 Q You do?
14 A Yeah, I think I do.
15 Q Have you ever taken out a loan where a bank required that 16 they be an endorser on the loss payee clause before?
17 A I don't think so.
18 Q You don't think so.
19 A I've never noticed that, no, sir.
20 Q Okay, all right, but no question that you previously 21 testified under oath back in March that it was to protect the 22 bank; correct?
23 A That's what that sentence says, yes.
24 Q All right, well, do you think your deposition's been 25 altered in some way?

1 A No, it hasn't been altered, but it's been misinterpreted.
2 Q Misinterpreted, okay. Now, did you previously sign an
3 affidavit with this Court that Horry County State Bank never 4 had any interest in these insurance proceeds?
5 A I did I think.
6 Q All right, and did you later in your deposition state
7 that you misspoke during that affidavit?
8 A Might need to see that. That's a little confusing.
9 Q Okay.
10 THE COURT: Yes, sir, Mr. DesChamps. If you want
11 to question her about the affidavit you can give her a copy.
12 I think she is entitled to have a copy of that if you want to 13 ask her about it. Did you have an objection, Mr. DesChamps?
14 MR. DESCHAMPS: I was going to.
15 THE COURT: Okay.
16 MR. DESCHAMPS: The Court addressed it.
17 Q Let me show you a document.
18 MR. MULLINS: I haven't pre-marked this one, Your
19 Honor.
20 A Uh-huh, okay.
21 Q Show you a document and ask if you recognize that.
22 A Yes, I have seen this, uh-huh.
23 Q Okay, is that your statement under oath that you signed?
24 A Okay, yes.
25 Q On September 12th, 2012?

1 A Yes.
2 Q Okay, and did you - was that your statement under oath on
3 that occasion?
4 A Yes.
5 Q All right, and in your deposition did you later admit
6 that that was inaccurate?
7 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, I object. I think that's 8 a mischaracterization.
9 THE COURT: Okay, wait just a second. Has that,
10 has that been marked for ID yet?
11 MR. MULLINS: I'm getting ready to.
12 THE COURT: Okay, let's mark it for ID and then 13 you keep on saying ---
14 A I don't ---
15 THE COURT: --- wait just a second, ma'am. You
16 can mark it for ID as Number 20, is that right, and then you
17 can have her refer to it and let her answer questions about it
18 and I don't remember what the rule number is. If she 19 equivocates you can use that to try to impeach her, but when 20 you say did you not say that that was inaccurate I don't know
21 what that is. There's two or three thats.
22 MR. MULLINS: I'll clear it up.
23 THE COURT: We've got the deposition. We've got 24 that affidavit and we've got maybe something else. So that's 25 Number 20.

1 A Number 20, okay.
2 REPORTER: Have you already marked that? Is
3 that the same thing?
4 MR. MULLINS: I have marked it. I'm sorry, Your
5 Honor.
6 THE COURT: Okay.
7 MR. MULLINS: That is, that is pre-marked as 8 Defendant's Number 11.
9 THE COURT: Okay, do you have a copy, Mr.
10 DesChamps?
11 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, yes, sir, he just gave me one,
12 sir.
13 THE COURT: All right.
14 A So which item am I looking at here?
15 Q I'll be right back with you.
16 A Okay.
17 THE COURT: So this is number, actually Number
18 11.
19 MR. MULLINS: Number 11, Your Honor.
20 THE COURT: Okay, 11 for ID because it's not been 21 offered yet, right? All right, go ahead.
22 BY MR. MULLINS:
23 Q All right, now, ma'am, in that affidavit ---
24 A Uh-huh.
25 Q --- do you state that you never entered into an agreement

1 with Horry County State Bank relating to the indebtedness or
2 repayment that was the subject of the prior case?
3 THE COURT: You have paragraph number?
4 A Yes, I did state that I never entered.
5 Q Okay, all right, now, no question that Mr. Quickel had 6 the ability to sign your name to these loan documents;
7 correct?
8 A That's correct.
9 Q Okay, let me show you what's been marked as Defendant's
10 Exhibit Number Six ---
11 A Uh-huh.
12 Q --- Horry County Defendant's Number Six.
13 A Yes.
14 Q All right, which is the mortgage.
15 A Yes.
16 Q Is your name on that mortgage?
17 A Yes, it is.
18 Q All right, and are you listed as borrower on that 19 mortgage?
20 A Yes.
21 Q All right, so then, ma'am, in fact you did enter into a
22 document to repay Horry County State Bank; didn't you?
23 A I did not because I didn't see this paper.
24 Q Okay.
25 A And I was also told by the bank that the property is

1 what, was what I was pledging and I would not have to make any
2 payments or pay any money. I asked that specifically and gave
3 enough property to cover the loan.
4 THE COURT: What is Exhibit Number Six?
5 MR. MULLINS: That is the mortgage, Your Honor.
6 THE COURT: Okay, not the note? The note is the 7 indebtedness. The mortgage is the security, right?
8 MR. MULLINS: Yes, Your Honor.
9 THE COURT: Okay.
10 BY MR. MULLINS:
11 Q All right, does the mortgage provide that insurance
12 proceeds are assigned?
13 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, that's - he's asking for 14 a conclusion from a party who was not a party to the 15 instrument. She gave - no one ---
16 THE COURT: She is a party to the mortgage
17 because it was signed by her attorney in fact. Whether or not 18 what she thinks about paragraph three makes any difference I
19 don't know. It says what it says and I know that ---
20 MR. DESCHAMPS: It says what it says and her opinion
21 of it or something - I mean, she testified she never saw it.
22 Her opinion of the document, she gave, she gave Mr. Quickel
23 power of attorney to execute a mortgage. The mortgage was 24 executed and, and ---
25 THE COURT: And she's bound by the terms of the

1 mortgage, whatever they may be ---
2 MR. DESCHAMPS: Whatever they may be ---
3 THE COURT: --- and however they ---
4 MR. DESCHAMPS: --- and if they've been extinguished
5 they've been extinguished and that's all the Court and those 6 things are all the Court has to have necessary to make its 7 decision at the end and the other stuff is just not relevant.
8 THE COURT: Unless by some stretch he can procure
9 an admission from her that amounts to an admission. Okay, so
10 objection is overruled.
11 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
12 THE COURT: But the mortgage paragraph three I 13 know exactly what it says and you can, you can go ahead and 14 ask your questions.
15 BY MR. MULLINS:
16 Q You through your son, that document was signed by you;
17 was it not?
18 A Yes.
19 Q Okay, and you were bound by those terms?
20 A Yes.
21 Q All right, and there was an assignment of the insurance
22 on the property by you; wasn't there?
23 A That's what Number Three says, yes.
24 Q Okay, thank you. So when you - and by the time you had 25 signed this affidavit in this case the foreclosure had already

1 occurred; hadn't it?
2 A Yes.
3 Q Okay, so at that point when you signed the affidavit you
4 knew what the terms of the mortgage were; didn't you?
5 A If I had read it I would have.
6 Q All right, so when you signed this affidavit you hadn't
7 read the mortgage? I'm trying to get to the bottom of this.
8 A Not - well, not as well as I should have, I guess.
9 Q Okay, very good. To the best of your knowledge, ma'am,
10 has your son satisfied the outstanding deficiency judgment
11 from the foreclosure?
12 A I heard this morning he has not.
13 Q Okay, all right, and no question that this policy was the 14 only policy on the only building that was pledged as security
15 for this loan?
16 A That's the only insurance I had.
17 MR. MULLINS: If I may have just a moment, Judge.
18 THE COURT: All right.
19 BY MR. MULLINS:
20 Q Thank you, Ms. Quickel. Answer any questions the Court
21 or opposing counsel has for you.
22 THE COURT: Any questions at this time?
23 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, just some on cross
24 examination ---
25 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

1 MR. DESCHAMPS: --- on what he was, what he was
2 talking about.
3 CROSS EXAMINATION
4 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
5 Q Mr. Mullins was speaking with you with regard to the 6 mortgage document itself and provisions in the mortgage
7 document that may have applied to assignment of insurance
8 premiums. Did you go out and get a hazard policy yourself?
9 A Yes, I did.
10 Q And you did that in 2009, is that correct?
11 A That's correct.
12 Q And you didn't - you did that prior to the time of this 13 loan; is that correct?
14 A That is correct.
15 Q Did you do that for your benefit?
16 A I did that for my benefit, yes.
17 Q I show you what I have previously marked for 18 identification as - it really doesn't matter. I'd previously
19 just marked it as an exhibit, but I'm going to put it in. Do
20 you know what that document is?
21 A This was the information about the insurance that ---
22 Q Is that the insurance policy?
23 A Yes, it is, uh-huh.
24 Q Okay, all right.
25 MR. DESCHAMPS: I'd like to, if I could, put this in

1 as Defendant Jenrette's Number One, is that okay?
2 MR. MULLINS: Your Honor, to save time, I'll
3 stipulate to counsel's - okay.
4 REPORTER: Judge, I've already marked his
5 exhibits.
6 THE COURT: Wait just a second.
7 REPORTER: I apologize, but you had already
8 marked all your exhibits.
9 MR. DESCHAMPS: All right, I'd already marked it,
10 okay, I'm sorry.
11 REPORTER: I'm sorry.
12 THE COURT: Isn't there a policy already in 13 evidence?
14 MR. MULLINS: It is.
15 THE COURT: Is that the same thing?
16 MR. DESCHAMPS: I don't believe the policy itself is 17 in evidence.
18 THE COURT: All right.
19 MR. DESCHAMPS: I think the dec page is in evidence.
20 THE COURT: Okay.
21 MR. DESCHAMPS: And I'm going to go ahead and get the 22 policy in.
23 THE COURT: Any objection?
24 MR. DESCHAMPS: Without objection?
25 MR. MULLINS: Your Honor, I'll stipulate to

1 counsel's one through eight that he's given me pre-marked.
2 THE COURT: Okay, number, that's number one?
3 MR. DESCHAMPS: Well, this one is Number Five.
4 THE COURT: Number Five is in.
5 MR. DESCHAMPS: Okay.
6 THE COURT: Okay, all right, okay. Ms.
7 Jenrette's Number Five is in without objection.
8 (Whereupon, Defendant Jenrette's Exhibit Numbers One
9 through Eight [See Index for Description] admitted into 10 evidence and appropriately marked.)
11 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
12 Q Okay, and there, there it is.
13 A Okay.
14 Q And if I - if I could ask you to please turn to page nine
15 of the policy.
16 A I'm on page nine, yes.
17 Q Paragraph three says assignment.
18 A This one's talking about hazardous materials. It's a 19 different page, nine, hazardous materials. I can look for it.
20 Q If I might show you, this is page nine, looking over into 21 the second page.
22 A Okay, I'm sorry.
23 THE COURT: Page nine you said paragraph three.
24 MR. DESCHAMPS: Paragraph three.
25 A Pages nine, paragraph three.

1 Q Okay, and could you read that and publish, what we call
2 publish that to the Court?
3 A "Assignment, this policy may not be assigned without our 4 written consent."
5 Q Okay, so, so any assignment of the insurance policy to 6 Horry County State Bank would have had to get the consent of 7 the insurance company?
8 A That's what it says there.
9 Q All right, did you or anyone else to your knowledge get 10 the consent of the insurance company to assign the policy to 11 Horry County State Bank?
12 A I didn't do that and I never received any communication
13 to do that.
14 Q And Horry County State Bank never contacted you about 15 getting casualty insurance on the property?
16 A No.
17 Q Okay, you originally got the casualty insurance on the 18 property in March of '09; is that correct?
19 A That's correct.
20 Q Okay, and did you get a second - did you renew the policy
21 in March of 2010?
22 A Yes, I did.
23 Q Okay, did you ever hear from Horry County State Bank
24 about making sure that the - that Horry County State Bank was 25 listed as a mortgagee prior to the time of the casualty?

1 A No, I did not hear from the bank.
2 Q Okay, did you ever hear from the bank regarding?
3 A No.
4 Q When did you obtain title to the piece of property that 5 we're talking about?
6 A September 11th, 2007.
7 Q Okay, and who did, who did you, who did you get title
8 from?
9 A My mother conveyed the deed to me.
10 Q Okay, and I show you what is Jenrette's Defendant's 11 Exhibit Number One. Is this the deed of conveyance into, into 12 you?
13 A Yes, it is.
14 Q Okay, at the time the property was conveyed to you did
15 you get insurance on the property at that time?
16 A When it was conveyed to me no one was living there. I
17 did not get insurance then.
18 Q Did subsequent to that time did you find it necessary to 19 get insurance?
20 A Yes.
21 Q Okay, and for what reason did you obtain the insurance?
22 A I had trees that had fallen on a fence. I had the 23 Department of Transportation telling me that trees had to be 24 cut because if people had a wreck I could be sued. The trees
25 were in the way. I had - my son moved into the house in

1 December of 2008 so that was the first time it was occupied
2 since my mother moved out and they had animals. They had
3 horses. They had dogs, cats, lots of vehicles, four-wheelers
4 and all I saw were children playing and other adults in the 5 yard, and so, yes, I thought I need insurance for my 6 protection if someone has an accident on that property.
7 Q And you went out and you obtained insurance before,
8 before there was ever any commitment letter or any kind of 9 letter from Cajun Carolina or any kind of loan from Cajun
10 Carolina with Horry County State Bank, is that correct?
11 A That is correct.
12 Q Okay, and you obtained that insurance for your benefit;
13 is that correct?
14 A I did, and I went back to Bradham because that's where we 15 had had it before on the house when my mother was there and I
16 actually paid those policies for her. I'd look it up and take 17 care of that. So that's why I continued with them.
18 Q Okay, and I show you what has been put into evidence and 19 agreed upon as Jenrette Defendant Number Two which appears to 20 be a declaration page for, for the policy of insurance from 21 March 9, 2009, to March 9, 2010. Is that correct?
22 A That is correct.
23 Q Okay, and, and on the, on the first page of, of that, of 24 that declaration page do you see under the mortgagee
25 information is there, is the name of any mortgagee there?

1 A It is blank.
2 Q It is blank, okay, all right. When you, when you turn to
3 the second page on that declaration I believe there are, there
4 are two questions there. Could you read or publish to the 5 Court question number two?
6 A "Does applicant have full unconditional ownership of the 7 building and upon which it is located?"
8 Q And, and did you, did you mark the box that said yes?
9 A Yes, I did.
10 Q Okay, and did you sign that on the bottom of the policy?
11 A Yes, I did.
12 Q Okay, and, and, and on the front page on the amount of 13 coverage, the amount of coverage could you tell the Court what 14 it was? It's broken down into dwelling insurance and 15 liability insurance.
16 A The dwelling was 100,000 and the personal liability was 17 100,000.
18 Q Okay, and you paid the premium for both of those; is that
19 correct?
20 A That is correct.
21 Q And the premium in March of 2009 was $397; is that
22 correct?
23 A That's correct.
24 Q Okay, did you pay that?
25 A Yes, I did.

1 Q Okay, and I show you what has already been put into
2 evidence as Defense Jenrette Exhibit Number Three. Is that a
3 receipt for the payment of the insurance, $397?
4 A Yes, it is.
5 THE COURT: That's Number Three, Mr. DesChamps?
6 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, yes, sir.
7 A Yes.
8 Q Did Horry County State Bank ask you to pay that 9 insurance?
10 A They did not.
11 Q Okay, all right, and you then renewed that policy in 12 2010; is that correct?
13 A Yes, I did.
14 Q Okay, and did you pay the premium at that time?
15 A Yes.
16 Q Okay, and I'll show you what, what's already been put 17 into evidence as Jenrette's Number Six.
18 THE COURT: Six?
19 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
20 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
21 Q And the amount of that insurance is how much?
22 A It's 100,000 on the dwelling and 100,000 for personal
23 liability.
24 Q Okay, same coverage that you had before.
25 A Same coverage.

1 Q Is that correct?
2 A And the premium was 571.
3 Q The premium went up?
4 A Yes, sir.
5 Q Did you pay that premium?
6 A Yes, I did.
7 Q Okay, you were the only one that paid that premium? No
8 one else did?
9 A That's correct.
10 Q You didn't consult with that, with - either with regard
11 to your son or to Horry County State Bank?
12 A I did not.
13 Q Okay, and at that time even when you renewed the policy
14 at that time you were getting the insurance solely for your 15 benefit and not the benefit of any other person; is that 16 correct?
17 A That's right.
18 Q Okay, and at no time initially and at no other time has 19 Horry County State Bank ever been listed as an insured on the 20 policy?
21 A No.
22 Q Okay, and at all times during the term of the policy if 23 any loss had occurred who did you expect to receive the 24 insurance money?
25 A Me, the same person that would have paid for the damages.

1 Q Okay, all right, and you were a party to the prior action
2 in case number 2010-CP-26-04456, the foreclosure action that
3 Horry County State Bank brought; is that correct?
4 A Yes, I was listed on there.
5 Q Yeah, and I'll show you what has been put into evidence
6 as Jenrette Number Seven. Do you recall seeing the order of 7 foreclosure and sale, being served with that document?
8 A Yes, I was served with this.
9 Q Okay, and ---
10 THE COURT: What number is that, please?
11 MR. DESCHAMPS: Number seven, Your Honor.
12 THE COURT: Okay.
13 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
14 Q And you were listed, you were, you were joined in that 15 action as, as an owner of the real estate; is that correct?
16 A That's correct.
17 Q And that was the sole reason that you were joined in that 18 action; is that correct?
19 A Yes.
20 Q Okay, and pursuant to that action, pursuant to that final 21 order of judgment and foreclosure and sale the property was,
22 in fact, sold, is that correct, at the courthouse steps?
23 A Yes, it was.
24 Q Okay, and that included the house that, the house and 25 residence that you pledged; is that correct?

1 A That included that parcel of land, yes.
2 Q Okay, okay, and no, no judgment was sought after, Horry
3 County State Bank did not sue you for any monies, did they?
4 A No.
5 Q Okay, and at no time to the best of your knowledge did
6 Horry - did, did Horry County State Bank assert any cause of 7 action against you or anything that is evidenced in that 8 document with regard to the insurance proceeds, did they?
9 A No.
10 Q Okay, and pursuant to that order of foreclosure and sale
11 did you, did you receive a copy of what has been put into 12 evidence as Jenrette Number Eight of a release of lien and 13 mortgage satisfaction signed by the Honorable Cynthia Graham
14 Howe as Master-In-Equity dated September 2, 2011?
15 A Yes, I did receive that.
16 Q And did, did that ---
17 THE COURT: What, what is that document again?
18 MR. DESCHAMPS: I'm sorry. It's entitled, Your 19 Honor, it's entitled the release of lien mortgage 20 satisfaction. It's the document that actually satisfied the 21 mortgage of record ---
22 THE COURT: Okay.
23 MR. DESCHAMPS: --- pursuant to the order of 24 foreclosure and sale in which it was directed.
25 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:

1 Q And at that time was the mortgage, was the mortgage
2 instrument satisfied of record?
3 A Yes, it says it was satisfied.
4 Q All right, did you have - to your knowledge did you have 5 any obligation to Horry County State Bank other than the 6 pledging of the real estate?
7 A That was all I was ever told.
8 Q Okay, and you gave the power of attorney to your son,
9 Brooks Quickel, to pledge the real estate; is that correct?
10 A Yes, I did.
11 Q All right, and when that mortgage was satisfied there was 12 no further obligations or any obligations on your behalf; is 13 that correct?
14 MR. MULLINS: Objection.
15 THE COURT: Wait just a second.
16 MR. MULLINS: Objection, Your Honor, that calls for 17 a legal conclusion for the Court to enter.
18 THE COURT: Well, that's the same - you've been 19 asking the same questions just in a different way. So I'll 20 resolve all the legal conclusions, but I'll overrule your
21 objection ---
22 MR. MULLINS: Thank you.
23 THE COURT: --- just like I overruled his. Go
24 ahead, Mr. DesChamps.
25 MR. DESCHAMPS: Thank you, Your Honor.

1 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
2 Q Did you - subsequent to that time do you - when that
3 mortgage was satisfied did you have, to your knowledge, do you
4 have any obligation whatsoever to Horry County State Bank?
5 A No.
6 Q Okay, did you ever execute a note to Horry County State
7 Bank ---
8 A No.
9 Q --- in connection with - did you ever sign a guaranty
10 agreement?
11 A No.
12 Q Okay, all right, and Mr. Mullins referred to your receipt
13 of some type of demand letter for, for the debt. Was there
14 anything in the demand letter from Horry County State Bank
15 that demanded that you procure any kind of insurance for the 16 benefit of Horry County State Bank?
17 A It did not mention insurance.
18 MR. DESCHAMPS: Bear, bear with me just a moment.
19 THE COURT: Yes, sir.
20 MR. DESCHAMPS: I don't have any further questions
21 for this witness at this time in cross examination, Your
22 Honor.
23 THE COURT: All right, anything else, Mr.
24 Mullins?
25 MR. MULLINS: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: All right.
2 REDIRECT EXAMINATION
3 BY MR. MULLINS:
4 Q Ms. Jenrette, just to follow up to your attorney's
5 questioning, at the time the fire loss occurred that was in 6 the middle of the foreclosure; wasn't it?
7 A It was.
8 Q At the time the fire loss occurred there had been a
9 mortgage signed by your son, but your mortgage assigned the 10 proceeds, correct, proceeds of the insurance?
11 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, I'm going to object on 12 legal conclusion.
13 THE COURT: Overruled.
14 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, understand.
15 A You're referring to the loan document?
16 Q Yes, ma'am.
17 A That's what it says, yes.
18 Q All right, and no question when the loan was taken out
19 and the money given by Horry County State Bank to your son for 20 whatever purposes he wanted there was an existing residence at 21 104 Country Club Drive.
22 A Yes, there was.
23 Q Okay, and no question that that burnt during the term of 24 the loan?
25 A It was burned, yes.

1 Q Okay, and no question that your son was living there with
2 your consent?
3 A Yes, he was.
4 Q And your son was the one who also got the money from
5 Horry County State Bank?
6 A He did, yes.
7 Q Okay, and no question that two months prior to taking out
8 the loan you put insurance back on the property.
9 A Because he moved in the house. That's why I put 10 insurance back on the property.
11 Q All right, well, I'm confused about the time, ma'am, so 12 if we could refresh my recollection a little on that.
13 A Okay.
14 Q I thought your son moved in there in December.
15 A He moved like December 31st and I started talking to the 16 insurance company probably in February.
17 Q Okay.
18 A And I was in Florida. So it went back and forth by mail
19 and telephone. That's why there's a gap between when I
20 received the declaration and when I got the final figure, but 21 yes, I did start that in February.
22 Q But no question that there's a - also there's $100,000
23 worth of coverage for the house.
24 A That's correct.
25 Q Okay, and no question the insurance company paid the

1 100,000.
2 A They did.
3 Q And 5,000 for the cleanup.
4 A Yes.
5 Q And no question Horry County State Bank did the cleanup?
6 A Not totally they did not.
7 Q You didn't finish it, did you?
8 A I couldn't finish it.
9 Q Now, also, ma'am, no question that ---
10 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, I'm going to object.
11 There's been no testimony as to the cleanup and that Horry
12 County State Bank. I don't believe that's in the record.
13 THE COURT: I think, I think, I think the bank
14 witness testified to that.
15 MR. DESCHAMPS: All right, I'll withdraw the
16 objection.
17 THE COURT: Okay.
18 Q Now, the check - no question that during the prior 19 foreclosure proceeding the check was issued both to you and 20 Horry County State Bank?
21 A That's right.
22 Q And no question you refused to sign it.
23 A That's right.
24 MR. MULLINS: May I have just a moment, Judge?
25 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

1 MR. MULLINS: Thank you. No further questions at 2 this time.
3 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. DesChamps?
4 MR. DESCHAMPS: No, sir, Your Honor.
5 THE COURT: All right, you can step down, ma'am.
6 Thank you. Any other witnesses from the bank?
7 MR. MULLINS: The bank rests, Your Honor.
8 THE COURT: All right, any motions, Mr.
9 DesChamps? I guess it would be an involuntary non-suit under 10 the ---
11 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, under, under rule - I think 12 it's Rule 41(B). The - Your Honor, I'm going to, I'm going to 13 kind of rehash it a little bit when I make my motion if 14 that's, if that's okay with Your Honor.
15 THE COURT: Yes, sir.
16 MR. DESCHAMPS: Okay, I believe it is Rule 41(B).
17 The Plaintiff hasn't proved his case. I think the Plaintiff
18 has the burden of proof to establish an equitable lien and 19 under the facts and the law the Plaintiff hasn't shown that 20 right. An insurance policy is a personal contract between the 21 insurer and the insured and that's normally the way it is. A
22 mortgagee has no interest if the mortgagor obtains the policy
23 in his own name and for his own benefit. Now, that is what 24 happened here, okay?
25 There are several ways that Mr. Mullins can go at trying

1 to get that insurance policy, but that is a personal contract
2 between us and, and that's what happened. If Mrs. Jenrette
3 had been the maker or obligor on the note and had gotten a
4 policy for insurance under and pursuant to the terms of the 5 mortgage and there had been a deficiency judgment afterwards
6 then the lender could follow that, but in this case, in this 7 case Ms. Jenrette is not the debtor. All of the cases that 8 are, that are out there with the lenders following proceeds of 9 insurance are when the mortgagor or the person who pledges
10 something is also the debtor. In this case Mrs. Jenrette is 11 not the debtor. There - her obligations and any obligations
12 at all solely are under the mortgage instrument itself.
13 THE COURT: Do those cases say, are those 14 coincidental or do those cases say that if the mortgagor is 15 not also the note obligor the bank can't follow the or obtain
16 the insurance money?
17 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yeah, there is - there's actually a
18 case, the Fort Hill case that there must be a secured debt
19 owed to the mortgagee by the mortgagor. There must be that 20 secured debt. All right.
21 THE COURT: There must be a secured debt ---
22 MR. DESCHAMPS: A ---
23 THE COURT: --- owed by the mortgagor?
24 MR. DESCHAMPS: To the mortgagee, okay. The only -
25 there was a security instrument. That security instrument

1 died at the time that the mortgage was satisfied. So if there
2 were any covenants, anything whatsoever arising out of the 3 mortgage instrument, those covenants died at the time of the 4 satisfaction of the mortgage. They chose their remedy. To,
5 to be able to claim equity you don't have a - you supposedly 6 don't have an adequate remedy at law. What they did is they 7 sought their remedy at law by suit on the promissory note and 8 the guaranty. They were successful. They got a judgment on 9 the promissory note and guaranty in their order of foreclosure
10 and sale. Not only that they continued with their equitable 11 remedy which was foreclosure of the mortgage. They got their 12 mortgage foreclosed. They have the property and they have a 13 deficiency judgment, the deficiency judgment as a result of 14 that legal remedy following the promissory note, suing on that 15 promissory note, which they did, and they, and they won and 16 they obtained it. Then to go to the insurance policy they 17 have no right to that insurance policy. The bank's rights
18 were terminated when the mortgage indebtedness was satisfied
19 at the foreclosure sale. There is a particular case almost 20 close, very closely on point and this, I apologize, was one of 21 the cases that I did not cite in my pretrial brief.
22 THE COURT: Okay.
23 MR. DESCHAMPS: But if you go to Singletary and 24 Turner versus the Aetna Casualty Company that is a Supreme 25 Court case in 1994.

1 THE COURT: What's the cite?
2 MR. DESCHAMPS: It is 361 S.C. 199, 447 S.E.2d 869.
3 THE COURT: You got to go a little bit slower.
4 MR. DESCHAMPS: I'm sorry, sir.
5 THE COURT: 361 S.C. 199?
6 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, 447 S.E.2d 869, 1994.
7 THE COURT: Okay, what's it say?
8 MR. DESCHAMPS: If subsequent to the fire the 9 mortgage, the mortgagee had a secured debt satisfied by the 10 purchase at the foreclosure sale even if its own bidding, okay
11 - let me, let me just run through the facts. Then everything
12 is terminated at that time. In that particular case there
13 was, there was - I believe it was SCN had a mortgage and the 14 property had burned. I think there was arson or something
15 that the mortgagor had done. The property had burned. SCN
16 goes ahead and foreclose and assigns and then assigns the 17 policy and stuff to the person that did, that purchased the 18 property from them, okay? Well, that policy couldn't be 19 assigned because any rights to assign that policy terminated
20 when the mortgage itself terminated, when that mortgage was 21 satisfied by virtue of the foreclosure and that case says it
22 doesn't matter who, who got the bid or, you know, who was the 23 successful bidder, whether it was the bank and the case says
24 that it can be the mortgagee or another third party. In this 25 case the mortgagee was the successful bidder. Okay, so that,

1 that mortgagee, they elected their remedy. They became the
2 successful bidder at the foreclosure sale. They got title.
3 The secured debt under the mortgage was extinguished at that
4 time. That mortgage was extinguished. The liability of Mr.
5 Quickel at the judgment, at the order of judgment in 6 foreclosure and sale had become a judgment, the promissory
7 note. So, so, they got both of their remedies there. The 8 Regents Bank case and the Chase Home Finance versus Risher
9 case are also fairly important because to establish an 10 equitable lien as to specific property the bank must show
11 first a debt, second, specific property to which the debt
12 attaches, and third, an express or implied intent that the 13 property serve as security for the payment of the debt, and 14 according to the Chase Home Finance versus Risher case if a 15 party seeking an equitable lien cannot satisfy any one of 16 those requirements the right of an equity lien is not 17 available and in the Chase case the lady and her husband went 18 in and got a loan, but she only, she only signed documents.
19 No one knew why but she never signed a mortgage. She didn't 20 sign the note. She didn't know - sign the mortgage but she 21 knew all about the loan and she was there.
22 THE COURT: She didn't sign what?
23 MR. DESCHAMPS: She didn't, she didn't sign the 24 mortgage instrument so she still had a half interest in the
25 property.

1 THE COURT: Just signed the note.
2 MR. DESCHAMPS: And so - and they couldn't, the -
3 they - no one could get to the, to her half interest. You
4 couldn't go to her half interest in the property, the 5 mortgagee couldn't because she didn't pledge it.
6 THE COURT: Did that, did that house burn, too?
7 MR. DESCHAMPS: No, sir, that didn't happen to that,
8 but, but, but they were trying to establish an equitable lien.
9 The bank was trying to establish an equitable lien in her half
10 of the real estate. There's nothing to which it can attach.
11 There is no debt. The security instrument died. The secured
12 indebtedness, the mortgage is not a debt instrument. It's,
13 it's, it's the security instrument. The note and the guaranty
14 are the debt instruments. The mortgage is not a debt
15 instrument. It is the security instrument.
16 THE COURT: Well, I closed a loan probably back
17 in 1990 where the bank said it didn't care to have the wife -
18 she had a survivorship interest in the house, in other words
19 she had - they had a survivorship deed and they said they 20 didn't want the wife to sign the mortgage and I begged them in 21 writing three times to get her to sign the mortgage or the 22 mortgage wouldn't be worth much and they - and it ended up the 23 thing went into foreclosure and I think they learned that the 24 hard way but what does that have to do with an assignment
25 within a mortgage? Are you just talking about the overall

1 theory that you can't get to - how, how does Ms. Jenrette
2 equate to the lady who didn't sign the mortgage?
3 MR. DESCHAMPS: They're trying to establish an 4 equitable lien and rights to something ---
5 THE COURT: She did sign the mortgage here.
6 MR. DESCHAMPS: She signed the mortgage here, but she 7 didn't sign anything on the insurance policy. She didn't do
8 an assignment of the insurance policy. The only possible
9 assignment that Mr. Mullins is talking about are the insurance
10 policies in the boilerplate of the mortgage instrument and 11 that mortgage instrument terminated when they satisfied.
12 There was no document, there was nothing that was done with 13 regard to the insurance coverage to assign that, to add them
14 as a loss payee as it's normally done. There was not an 15 assignment of the mortgage, nothing was like that, there was 16 never requested.
17 THE COURT: What if everything had been done
18 correctly like it is 99 times out of a hundred or more and the 19 bank had been listed as a loss payee and they still went 20 forward to the foreclosure sale and got, bid it, bid the 21 property in and also got the deficiency judgment? Would they 22 have the right to go back and also get the mortgage proceeds,
23 I mean, excuse me, the insurance proceeds?
24 MR. DESCHAMPS: No, sir, it would be listed as their
25 interests might appear. If Ms. Jenrette already had $100,000

1 worth of insurance and they wanted to add $100,000 worth of 2 insurance they, they probably could have. The bank could have 3 gone out and gotten an insurance policy. Banks do that every 4 day.
5 THE COURT: No, what I'm saying is let's say at 6 the closing everything had been done the way it typically is 7 done and let's just move Ms. - let's just say this was her
8 loan, her note, she signed the note, she signed the mortgage
9 and the insurance and the insurance, the bank was listed as a
10 loss payee, take the son out of the equation, if everything
11 was done like it always is done and that it would have gone in 12 foreclosure, burned and then the property was sold would the 13 bank have the right to claim the insurance money because I 14 thought that was the tone of your argument earlier is because 15 they picked what they wanted to do and since they picked what 16 they picked they can't come back and pick another.
17 MR. DESCHAMPS: That's absolutely correct. They - if 18 they had gone in and done that but if it had been done like it
19 was supposed to have been done, okay ---
20 THE COURT: Uh-huh.
21 MR. DESCHAMPS: --- Ms. Jenrette as the owner of the 22 policy, of the owner of the property would have consent - had 23 to consent with the insurance company to have a mortgagee
24 listed. An insurance company is not going to just, just ---
25 THE COURT: I'm just saying what ---

1 MR. DESCHAMPS: --- without an additional premium.
2 THE COURT: --- what would have happened if the
3 bank had been listed properly? Would your argument be the 4 same?
5 MR. DESCHAMPS: They would have had a different debt,
6 if they had gone in, they established an order of judgment and 7 foreclosure and sale ---
8 THE COURT: Uh-huh.
9 MR. DESCHAMPS: --- it's kind of hard to answer your 10 question because that's not how it was done. There became a 11 judgment amount on the date of the order of judgment and 12 foreclosure of sale, okay. If they had gone in and applied
13 for the proceeds of the loan, if they ---
14 THE COURT: Insurance.
15 MR. DESCHAMPS: --- insurance and they had been 16 entitled and a court had determined that they were entitled 17 they would not have gotten a judgment for that amount. They 18 would have had to foreclose, they bid in a certain amount for 19 their property ---
20 THE COURT: All right.
21 MR. DESCHAMPS: --- for that real estate. They,
22 they, they, they bid in a dollar amount. If they had been
23 entitled to that and assuming they were and I can't really say
24 that because they would have then had - there's no testimony
25 in here that Ms. Jenrette ever consented, ever consented to

1 her premiums being paid and the contract that she had being
2 for the benefit of the bank. If they had - if it had done
3 like it was supposed to be done at closing then they would
4 have had to get, get her consent with the insurance company
5 to, to, to have the mortgagee added as a loss payee. Now, the 6 mortgagee could have paid it or Brooks Quickel could have paid
7 it, they could add an additional premium and had additional 8 money in there. They may have had an insurance of 200,000 but 9 they elected not to do that. Ms. Quickel [sic] insured it for 10 her own benefit and her benefit only.
11 THE COURT: Well, the way I read her testimony,
12 quite frankly, is she was looking for insurance to cover
13 liability.
14 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
15 THE COURT: That's what she and when I read that 16 that's what - it was apparent to me that she meant by her 17 benefit was in case something happened on the property and 18 somebody got hurt, but maybe my question is not pertinent. So
19 I won't ask it again.
20 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, I'm sorry.
21 THE COURT: Okay, any other points you'd like to 22 make, Mr. DesChamps?
23 MR. DESCHAMPS: I mean, there would have had to have 24 been, yeah, there has to be a specific obligation, the Chase
25 case says that.

1 THE COURT: Okay, I haven't read the Chase case.
2 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, and I would ask you, and I
3 would ask you to, I mean.
4 THE COURT: Okay.
5 MR. DESCHAMPS: And it's just not there. With -
6 there's just - in all of the cases when we've been going up on 7 motions before, all the cases that Mr. Mullins cite have to do
8 with debtor mortgagors or debtors. Any cases that and the 9 cases I've cited specifically when they're not and they say
10 that anything that arises from the mortgage is extinguished at 11 the time, and if you read and if you read that case, and 12 particularly if you read the last one that I, that I read to 13 you on the Singletary case, I mean, you can't even raise a 14 defense as to what happened if the - what, what were the 15 positions of the time of the sale. It's, it's at the time, at 16 the time of the casualty. It's at the time - when they 17 extinguish their debt they extinguished, they - when they 18 extinguish the mortgage they extinguish the mortgage and any,
19 anything - to have the right to an equity, and maybe I'm not
20 saying this right, but to have the right to an equitable lien
21 it's got to be pursuant to the terms of the mortgage because 22 they're not the debtor. I mean, Ms. Jenrette is not the 23 debtor and that's the only reason - way an equitable lien can 24 arise under the terms of the mortgage instrument, that 25 mortgage instrument was extinguished at the time of 1 satisfaction.

2 THE COURT: So, an - you're saying an equitable
3 lien is different from this particular mortgage lien before
4 the mortgage was satisfied.
5 MR. DESCHAMPS: Sir, I'm sorry?
6 THE COURT: You're saying that an equitable lien
7 is different from this mortgage that was a lien before it was
8 satisfied?
9 MR. DESCHAMPS: That's the only way they can get an 10 equitable lien is resulting from their position as, as, as 11 mortgagee.
12 THE COURT: Okay.
13 MR. DESCHAMPS: And, and I - and, and, and the only 14 way they can get that would be is if the mortgage had not been 15 satisfied because there's no debt, there's no debt at all.
16 The debt's gone.
17 THE COURT: All right.
18 MR. DESCHAMPS: Thank you.
19 THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Mullins.
20 MR. MULLINS: May it please the Court, Your Honor?
21 THE COURT: Yes, sir.
22 MR. MULLINS: Of course the Court's well aware of 23 Rule 41, construes the evidence in the light most favorable to 24 the non-moving party. In this case, and admittedly, Your 25 Honor, I was listening carefully to the questions you were

1 asking opposing counsel, in this case one piece of paper, a
2 binder with a loss payee clause and we're not here today.
3 THE COURT: Well, that's what was I asking Mr.
4 DesChamps and if it had been done like it is always done and I
5 guess everybody in here has closed a gazillion loans, I'm glad
6 I don't do that anymore, but if there had been a loss payee
7 clause like you always find, even with a stranger mortgagor,
8 that being Ms. Jenrette, would the answer just be a slam dunk?
9 MR. MULLINS: Yes, sir.
10 THE COURT: And he's saying, I took it from Mr.
11 DesChamps that it wouldn't even be a slam dunk then because 12 she was not the maker of the note.
13 MR. MULLINS: I respectfully disagree.
14 THE COURT: And so what does the case law that he
15 cites say then?
16 MR. MULLINS: Well, Your Honor, I didn't look the 17 one case that was new. We've hashed these cases over as you
18 can see in two motions for summary judgment and we - the ones
19 that we cited and relied upon were all people that were 20 debtors and there's no question that this was a debt
21 instrument.
22 THE COURT: She's not a debtor.
23 MR. MULLINS: Well, but she did sign a secured
24 instrument assigning proceeds, and admittedly, Judge, these 25 set of facts is outside the set of facts that we've had in

1 many other courts in this state. I understand that. You
2 know, our position is quite simple. Our equitable lien arises
3 as a result of the fact that it was asked for in the loan
4 commitment.
5 THE COURT: Well, you got a long row to hoe there
6 because he signed the loan commitment before there was a power
7 of attorney.
8 MR. MULLINS: I understand that, Judge. It was in 9 the agreement to provide insurance.
10 THE COURT: Where, where in, where - what
11 document was that again?
12 MR. MULLINS: That's the agreement signed by Mr.
13 Quickel and the bank saying that he had to put insurance on 14 the property he was giving.
15 THE COURT: Which was when in conjunction with 16 the power of attorney?
17 MR. MULLINS: Three days afterwards at the closing.
18 THE COURT: Okay.
19 MR. MULLINS: There was a debt, a mortgage that --- 20 THE COURT: Not signed by him as attorney in 21 fact. It's signed by him as a member.
22 MR. MULLINS: Admittedly, Judge.
23 THE COURT: Well, you - so all those things I
24 have to sift through?
25 MR. MULLINS: Yes, sir. There was the debt

1 instrument that assigns the proceeds.
2 THE COURT: The mortgage.
3 MR. MULLINS: The debt instrument at the time was 4 still in full force and effect when the loss occurred.
5 THE COURT: Why didn't, why didn't you hold off
6 on the foreclosure till you got your insurance money?
7 MR. MULLINS: Well, Your Honor, it was a matter at 8 that point of property, with banks, local banks especially 9 have to be moved and sold under these FDIC orders and we just 10 we couldn't wait, didn't think we had to. Of course, you look 11 through the books you try to find this transaction and it's 12 not there.
13 THE COURT: All right.
14 MR. MULLINS: In addition, Judge, counsel keeps 15 saying, "Well, the mortgage is satisfied." Well, that 16 requires the 29-3-780 statute. This is a routine satisfaction
17 that Masters-In-Equity issue all over the state once a 18 foreclosure occurs. It's mandatory. The word is shall. The 19 last sentence of that though says, however, nothing in this 20 section may be construed to satisfy any unpaid portion of the 21 debt secured by the mortgage.
22 THE COURT: Which is the deficiency?
23 MR. MULLINS: Yes, and we would submit that just 24 the routine ministerial satisfaction of the mortgage in and of 25 itself doesn't extinguish our right to these proceeds.

1 THE COURT: But there's no case law that you all
2 can find anywhere that addresses this type of issue, anywhere
3 in the country?
4 MR. MULLINS: Well, I think Blackwell, Freshwater,
5 Lewis and Jones which are all in Judge Hyman's order, I can
6 reargue all those, Your Honor, but I'm sure that you've read
7 the order.
8 THE COURT: Well, you'll be doing that when you
9 move for a voluntary non-suit or directed verdict whatever
10 it's going to end up being called.
11 MR. MULLINS: Obviously.
12 THE COURT: Okay.
13 MR. MULLINS: Okay, but they are on point. They 14 are debtors. They're dealing with losses. We're dealing with 15 the fact that an equitable lien was imposed, and like Your 16 Honor asked, but for one piece of paper we wouldn't be here.
17 There's no question that ---
18 THE COURT: Why didn't the bank get - make sure
19 it got it? I know that it was the closing attorney's 20 responsibility, but where is the loan officer, what was his 21 name?
22 MR. MULLINS: She's no longer with the bank.
23 THE COURT: No, the other one, the one that Mr.
24 Quickel said that - he said he didn't give a blank about 25 insurance or the house, he just ---

1 MR. MULLINS: He's a regional executive, Your
2 Honor. That's what my client just whispered to me.
3 THE COURT: Okay.
4 MR. MULLINS: But, you know, when I asked Mr.
5 Quickel about that both here in this courtroom they can't
6 produce one piece of paper that says that. It's just Mr.
7 Quickel's testimony of, "Well, I know what I signed."
8 THE COURT: I understand. I don't put much
9 weight on what he said about what the original loan officer
10 said, but I thought they would have been here. Okay.
11 MR. MULLINS: So I think there's more than enough
12 evidence in the record to justify at this point at least a 13 rebuttal of presumption that an equitable lien is entitled to 14 to Horry County State Bank.
15 THE COURT: All right.
16 MR. MULLINS: We ask the Court to deny the motion.
17 THE COURT: All right, anything else, Mr.
18 DesChamps?
19 MR. DESCHAMPS: No, sir, Your Honor.
20 THE COURT: Okay, for the purposes of the record
21 I'm going to deny your motion. I think that if you are 22 correct my final order will include your reasoning or at least
23 the case law reasoning that would end up giving you the result
24 that you want, but for now I'm going to deny your motion and 25 ask if you're going to present any witnesses. Does anybody

1 need to take a break?
2 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir. Could we? I will just
3 have one witness anyway.
4 THE COURT: Five minutes, okay.
5 MR. DESCHAMPS: It won't take as long. Thank you,
6 Your Honor.
7 OFF THE RECORD
8 (On the record.)
9 THE COURT: All right, Mr. DesChamps.
10 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, I believe I've probably,
11 as I'm also a Plaintiff with regard to the monies I'm going to 12 call Ms. Jenrette to the stand ---
13 THE COURT: Okay.
14 MR. DESCHAMPS: --- to testify.
15 THE COURT: She's still under oath. She can just 16 have a seat. You just can't lead this time.
17 MR. DESCHAMPS: Which, which is difficult for me.
18 DIRECT EXAMINATION
19 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
20 Q Ms. Jenrette, could you please state your name for the 21 record?
22 A Rosemary Long Jenrette.
23 Q Okay, and where do you reside, Ms. Jenrette?
24 A Myrtle Beach.
25 Q Okay, and you're a resident of Horry County?

1 A Yes, I am.
2 Q How long have you been a resident of Horry County?
3 A I have been a resident of Horry County 61 years.
4 Q Okay, and in this particular did you, did you own a home,
5 excuse me, at 104 Country Club Drive in Conway?
6 A Yes.
7 Q And when did you purchase or when did you acquire that
8 home?
9 A September 11th, 2007.
10 Q And subsequent to that time did you obtain casualty
11 insurance on the property?
12 A I had casualty insurance a couple of years before that 13 and then right after that, but there was a little lapse.
14 Q Okay, all right, all right, did you, did you obtain a
15 policy of casualty and liability insurance in March of 2009?
16 A Yes, I did.
17 Q Did you pay the premiums for that?
18 A Yes, I did.
19 Q For whose benefit did you obtain that policy?
20 A It was for my benefit.
21 Q Did you renew that policy?
22 A Yes, I did.
23 Q And when did you renew that policy?
24 A I renewed it in March of 2010.
25 Q And for whose benefit was that policy?

1 A That was for my benefit.
2 Q Did, did you at any time - were you at any time requested
3 by Horry County State Bank to obtain casualty insurance or 4 liability insurance for their benefit on 104 Country Club
5 Drive?
6 A No.
7 Q Okay, at any time were you directed by Horry County State
8 Bank to pay any premiums for casualty insurance or liability
9 insurance on 104 Country Club Drive in Conway, South Carolina?
10 A No, I was not.
11 Q All right, at any time between the time that you obtained
12 casualty insurance and liability insurance and the time of the 13 casualty did Horry County State Bank contact you in any way
14 with regard to casualty insurance?
15 A No, they did not.
16 Q Okay, when the casualty occurred and after, after the 17 loss was investigated did you expect to receive the check for 18 the insurance proceeds?
19 A I did.
20 Q Okay.
21 MR. DESCHAMPS: I have no further questions of this
22 witness.
23 THE COURT: Mr. Mullins, any questions?
24 MR. MULLINS: Briefly, Your Honor. I'm not sure
25 there's anything new ---

1 THE COURT: Okay.
2 MR. MULLINS: --- on this recall.
3 CROSS EXAMINATION
4 BY MR. MULLINS:
5 Q But just to make sure, ma'am, the policy you're referring 6 to, ma'am, did you ever send a copy of that to Horry County
7 State Bank?
8 A I did not.
9 Q When you renewed the policy did you ever tell your 10 insurance company that a mortgage had been placed on the 11 property?
12 A I did not.
13 Q And no question at one point you testified under oath
14 that this policy was not only for your benefit but to protect 15 the bank as well?
16 A I did say that.
17 MR. MULLINS: No further questions, Your Honor.
18 THE COURT: Anything else?
19 MR. DESCHAMPS: Just on redirect, just ---
20 THE COURT: Yes, sir.
21 MR. DESCHAMPS: --- just with regard to what he just 22 said.
23 REDIRECT EXAMINATION
24 BY MR. DESCHAMPS:
25 Q You expected to receive any proceeds from any insurance

1 on the, on the - as a result of the casualty; is that correct?
2 A I did, yes.
3 MR. MULLINS: Objection, leading, move to strike.
4 THE COURT: It's - that's, that's already her
5 testimony. Your objection is overruled. Anything else, Mr.
6 Mullins?
7 MR. MULLINS: No, Your Honor. I'm not going to get 8 the last the word with Mr. DesChamps. I'm not going to try to 9 start.
10 THE COURT: You can step down. Thank you.
11 A Thank you.
12 THE COURT: All right, additional, any additional 13 witnesses from the - from Mrs. Jenrette?
14 MR. DESCHAMPS: No, sir, Your Honor.
15 THE COURT: All right, any reply?
16 MR. MULLINS: No, Your Honor, you've heard it all.
17 THE COURT: Any motions under 41, Mr. Mullins?
18 MR. MULLINS: We'd move under 41(B), Your Honor, 19 for a non-suit of the Defendant Jenrette's cross-claims and 20 claims on the grounds construing the evidence in the light
21 most favorable now to Horry County, most favorable to Ms.
22 Jenrette that there was, in fact, a policy here, that she was 23 a mortgagor. There are several cases, Judge, that are and I
24 looked back over them again while I was - we were on, on 25 recess and we cited all these to the Court. I know the Court

1 read that prior order because you've referenced it several
2 times today.
3 THE COURT: Right.
4 MR. MULLINS: No question that there are several 5 cases that say that a mortgagee is entitled to the proceeds of 6 a mortgagor when the loss occurs. That's what the purpose of 7 an equitable lien when all ---
8 THE COURT: Entitled to the proceeds of insurance
9 coverage.
10 MR. MULLINS: The insurance proceeds. Going all
11 the way back, Your Honor, to a case, I believe it was decided 12 right around the time I was born, it was dealing,
13 unfortunately it wasn't dealing with real estate. It was 14 dealing with an automobile case and that was the Lewis case
15 from 1961. Even back then there was no loss payee clause in 16 the Lewis case, but they said, "Well, we're going to oppose 17 this equitable lien because that's what should have been 18 done." That's the equitable maxim here, Your Honor, is 19 imposing the purpose of equity, this Court imposing, what 20 we're asking it to do is what should have happened in this 21 scenario and I don't think there's any, after reviewing all
22 the evidence in this matter and, you know, good or bad we've 23 put it up for the Court, whatever was signed in the 24 transaction. So, yes, it isn't perfect, but good or bad
25 that's what we ask this Court using its equitable powers to do

1 and we think we've shown at least a prima fascia case of that
2 everyone was well aware there was insurance needed here, there
3 was insurance on the property and that to come forward now and 4 say, "Well, we didn't know anything about any of that," we
5 think is - lacks credibility. So we ask the Court to impose
6 the equitable lien and dismiss under Rule 41(B).
7 THE COURT: All right, Mr. DesChamps.
8 MR. DESCHAMPS: Your Honor, I'm not going to keep 9 belaboring the point. I've kind of said what, what we 10 believe. We would - my client has a right to those proceeds.
11 My client contracted with the insurance company and we've got 12 to get it, you know, we have a contractual right to receive 13 those and that's what the insurance company thought, that's 14 what we thought. I mean, there's even a prohibition against 15 assignment. So for a creditor to go get that money they have 16 to go under certain vehicles and I, really I guess I haven't
17 explained it properly, but if, if my client were the obligor
18 and they got a judgment and then they could go against 19 proceeds that would otherwise inuring, be inuring to the 20 benefit of my client, there's no doubt that these proceeds
21 inured, should go to, to my client if not for other things and 22 the other things had not been reached by then because if my 23 client was the debtor on the, on the instrument and was also 24 the maker of the instrument and therefore they got a judgment
25 against my client, a deficiency judgment or a monetary

1 judgment award, they have that judgment award and could go
2 against these proceeds to satisfy that judgment award and it
3 would go toward that judgment award, be no double collection,
4 it would go toward that judgment award. They don't have those 5 facts. Those are the cases they set, they set forth in, in 6 their prior arguments in the cases where there was the debtor
7 obligor who may have been the mortgagor if it was a mortgage
8 instrument or a pledge, pledgor under a pledge instrument
9 because I think the cases they cited were really had to do
10 with automobiles and stuff instead of real estate but it was 11 a, it was a debtor. For them to go under the, under the 12 mortgage instrument it has to be the mortgage instrument
13 itself, those covenants and obligations in the mortgage
14 instrument. If they had been breached and Ms. Jenrette gave 15 power of attorney to her son to sign a mortgage and he signs
16 this mortgage, if those, those covenants are breached the 17 remedy, if you'll read the document itself and the remedy
18 under the foreclosure law and mortgage law is we accelerate 19 the debt. You don't, you don't maintain insurance on the 20 property. You don't do this, you don't do that. That's the 21 covenants of the mortgagor, okay. If they hadn't done that,
22 if, if the mortgagor did not maintain insurance on the 23 property for the benefit of the bank, the bank could have done
24 several things in the mortgage. They themselves could have 25 gone out and gotten a policy of insurance which banks tend to

1 do a lot and could have added it back into the debt amount,
2 what they paid for the policy of insurance or they could have
3 under the terms of the mortgage accelerated the debt and 4 foreclosed. They did. They accelerated the debt and 5 foreclosed not for that reason but that would have been a
6 covenant of default. It's not a contract. It was the - it
7 was a security instrument and if it was breached they had
8 their remedy and they did it. They foreclosed.
9 THE COURT: All right.
10 MR. DESCHAMPS: And they took that remedy and they 11 did their foreclosure and they got a judgment of foreclosure
12 and sale and they took the property and whatever other debt
13 they had they went against their maker and their guarantor and 14 got that judgment and all of that stuff is conceded to and 15 that's what they did, that's what their election to do and,
16 and they could have done otherwise but they did not do
17 otherwise and if the mortgage had not been satisfied I don't 18 know what would have happened, but it would have been a 19 different situation because they wouldn't have already 20 established an amount of a debt. That was part of the order
21 in foreclosure of sale.
22 THE COURT: Nothing's in evidence about this, but 23 when the foreclosure proceedings started I would assume when 24 they either re-underwrote the loan or started looking into the 25 nooks and crannies and there was no decision made about or

1 there's no testimony about any decision having been made about
2 getting force placed coverage.
3 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir, there's no coverage.
4 THE COURT: So, that's, that's certainly not - at 5 least that part's not in evidence. To me one of the questions
6 is whether or not the assignment in the mortgage survives the 7 satisfaction of the mortgage itself and that's what I asked
8 earlier if there's any case law on that point and apparently 9 there's not.
10 MR. DESCHAMPS: Don't believe there is, and I would 11 again call to the Court's attention the Fort Hill Federal 12 Savings and Loan case and I've cited it in, in my materials.
13 That was a 1984 Court of Appeals case that says, "A 14 mortgagee's rights under a fire insurance policy are dependent 15 upon the existence of a secured debt owed the mortgagee by the 16 mortgagor insured," and that's ---
17 THE COURT: Well, I'll have to look at the ---
18 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
19 THE COURT: --- specific facts of that ---
20 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
21 THE COURT: --- to see if they say ---
22 MR. DESCHAMPS: I understand.
23 THE COURT: --- to the exclusion of a situation
24 such as this.
25 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.

1 THE COURT: Okay, all right, I think I've got a
2 good handle on what everybody's ---
3 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, sir.
4 THE COURT: --- legal arguments are. The facts
5 aren't in dispute to me. There was a power of attorney.
6 There was a note. There was a mortgage. There was a default
7 and there was a foreclosure and before the foreclosure was 8 finalized there was a fire and then there was a satisfaction
9 of the mortgage.
10 MR. MULLINS: That's correct, Your Honor.
11 THE COURT: That's ---
12 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, Your Honor.
13 THE COURT: --- nobody can dispute those, those 14 are what the facts are.
15 MR. DESCHAMPS: Yes, Your Honor.
16 MR. MULLINS: And Your Honor, you had asked
17 previously on that, you know, as to law on point, there was a
18 case that was very close but that opinion's been withdrawn,
19 not overruled but withdrawn.
20 THE COURT: Because the parties settled the case?
21 MR. MULLINS: Because the parties settled the case,
22 and that's Blanding versus Long Beach Mortgage. I'm going to 23 live to cite, to cite it because Mr. DesChamps is going to 24 tell me I'm citing overruled cases.
25 MR. DESCHAMPS: But it's also a debtor. That's one

1 of his other problems with the case. I'm sorry, but it's,
2 it's not ---
3 MR. MULLINS: But that is close.
4 THE COURT: Is it a published opinion that was
5 withdrawn?
6 MR. MULLINS: Yes, sir.
7 THE COURT: I don't know why they do that.
8 MR. MULLINS: I wish they hadn't, Judge, but once
9 again, we come to these courts with the facts as we have them,
10 not as we would like to have them.
11 MR. DESCHAMPS: But then as I said, Your Honor, that, 12 that opinion also can be distinguished even if it hadn't been 13 withdrawn. It again is the debtor which is not our situation.
14 Our situation is distinct. It would be, that case would be 15 more akin to Cajun Carolina, I believe that was the debtor in 16 this case, I believe or Mr. Quickel.
17 THE COURT: If, Mr. Mullins, talking about 18 equity, if Mrs. Jenrette obtained insurance and you get the 19 insurance money how's that equity to her? She paid for 20 insurance, her house burned and all she has is ashes.
21 MR. MULLINS: Well, Your Honor, but also we would 22 have to reduce her son's debt by a likewise amount.
23 THE COURT: Her and her son are legal strangers
24 ---
25 MR. MULLINS: That I understand.

1 THE COURT: --- except for the power of attorney.
2 MR. MULLINS: But if Ms. Jenrette had been sitting
3 there and I hate to answer a question with a question, Judge.
4 I know that irritates you from the bench.
5 THE COURT: No.
6 MR. MULLINS: But if Ms. Jenrette had been sitting
7 there and signed all these loan terms in the same scenario and 8 the house burned it's unfortunate, but a bank went $350,000
9 out in what a transaction they thought they were secured. You
10 know, it's almost a windfall from our standpoint to Ms.
11 Jenrette because now we have an uncollectible judgment and our 12 other remedy, had we done all the things Mr. DesChamps has 13 urged this Court that we should have done, we also would have 14 been another two years down the road trying to move these six
15 properties, seven properties if this had all been done in one 16 action. We'd be trying a foreclosure in this court or we 17 could try this whole thing in front of the Master-In-Equity.
18 So the delay was highly prejudicial to my client to do it that 19 way.
20 THE COURT: Okay.
21 MR. DESCHAMPS: Obviously Ms. Jenrette hasn't
22 benefited from anything. She didn't benefit from the loan. I
23 mean, there's no testimony to that. She agreed to pledge
24 property, which she did. That's all.
25 THE COURT: Okay, I'll - anything else, Mr.

1 Mullins?

2 MR. MULLINS: I could - we could argue these back

3 and forth. Your Honor, we've argued these cases for two

4 years. They're the cases, same cases we've relied upon

5 throughout the course of this litigation, so.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MR. MULLINS: Except for the Long Beach case. Like

8 I said, it was unfortunately withdrawn.

9 THE COURT: All right, thank you, gentlemen.

10 MR. DESCHAMPS: Thank you, thank you, Your Honor.

11 MR. MULLINS: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 MR. DESCHAMPS: Thank you, Your Honor.

Dear Sir or Madam:

We are pleased to tell you that your application for insurance has been received and that we have issued your policy. Your policy has been mailed to your local independent agent. He or she will sign it and deliver it to you. Once you receive your policy, please read it. Please let your agent know if you have any questions. If you do not receive your policy within the next few days, please call your agent. If your agent is unable to assist you for any reason, please call us at 1-800-239-2358.

A copy of your "declarations" page is enclosed. This tells you how much insurance coverage you have, when you are covered, and the cost for your policy. Please take a minute to review this page. If the amount of insurance coverage we issued is different from the amount you requested or agreed to, please call your agent. Also, if the premium amount shown is less than the amount you paid, please call your agent, as you might be entitled to a refund from your agent. If the premium amount shown is more than the amount you paid, please call your agent, as you might owe some additional premium.

National Security will send you a bill for future premiums based on the payment option you have selected. You will be billed (called a premium notice) 45 days before your premium payment is due. If you want to continue your coverage with National Security, you should mail a check or money order for the premium directly to National Security, not to your agent.

Pursuant to Rule 53 SCRCP, the above-entitled matter was referred to the undersigned to make appropriate findings of fact and conclusions of law with authority to enter a final judgment in the cause. Any appeal from this Order is to the South Carolina Court of Appeals.

Pursuant to the Order of Reference, a hearing was held by the Master in Equity on April 18, 2011. Attorney Jarrod E. 6. An answer was filed by the Defendant Conway Hospital, Inc. d/b/a Conway Medical Center on July 16, 2010; however, a copy was not forwarded to the Plaintiff.

7. Plaintiff's counsel notified the Defendants and/or his attorney of record, of the time, date and place of the hearing in this matter as evidenced by Attorney Ownbey's statements to the Court.

8. According to the testimony, the Defendants, Michael Brooks Quickel and Rosemary Long Jenrette, are not, upon information and belief, in the Military Service of the United States of America, as contemplated under the Solders' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and any amendments thereto.

9. For value received the Defendant, Cajun Carolina, LLC, by and through its member, Michael Brooks Quickel, made, executed and delivered a Promissory Note dated May 1, 2009, promising thereby to pay to the order of the Plaintiff, Horry County State Bank, the sum of Three Hundred Fifty Thousand and 00/100ths Dollars ($350,000.00), with initial interest at Seven and 00/100ths (7.00) Percent per annum. Other terms and conditions are stated in the Promissory Note, a copy of which was admitted into evidence in this matter.

10. In order to better secure the payment of the Promissory Note described above, the Defendant, Michael Brooks Quickel made, executed and delivered to the Plaintiff a Mortgage dated May 1, 2009. The said mortgage of real estate was filed in the Office of the Register of Deeds in and for Horry County, South Carolina in Real Estate Mortgage Book 5166 at Page 2461, records of Horry County on May 4, 2009. The Mortgage of Real Estate encumbers the real property situate in Horry County, South Carolina that is more particularly described in the Lis Pendens and Complaint in this action and herein and which is commonly known as Lots 7 and 14 of W.M. Long Subdivision, as shown on a plat recorded in Plat Book 47 at Page 69, records of Horry County.

11. In order to better secure the payment of the Promissory Note described above, the Defendant, Rosemary Long Jenrette by and through her Attorney in Fact, Michael Brooks Quickel made, executed and delivered to the Plaintiff a Mortgage dated May 1, 2009. The said mortgage of real estate was filed in the Office of the Register of Deeds in and for Horry County,

South Carolina in Real Estate Mortgage Book 5166 at Page 2466, records of Horry County on May 4, 2009 and re-recorded on May 5, 2009 in Mortgage Book 5166 at Page 3100 to correct the name of the "note-signer". The Mortgage of Real Estate encumbers the real property situate in Horry County, South Carolina that is more particularly described in the Lis Pendens and Complaint in this action and herein and which is commonly known as Lots 40, 48, 67 and 68 of W.M. Long Subdivision as shown on a plat recorded in Plat Book 47 at Page 69, records of Horry County and One Acre of land on Airport Road in Conway Township, Horry County.

12. That the Defendant Michael Brooks Quickel did execute and deliver a Hypothecation Agreement whereby the Defendant Michael Brooks Quickel pledged Lots 40, 68, 48 and 67, identified above, as security for the loan extended to the Defendant Cajun Carolina, LLC.

13. That the Defendant Michael Brooks Quickel did execute and deliver a Hypothecation Agreement whereby the Defendant Michael Brooks Quickel pledged Lots 7 and 14, identified above, as security for the loan extended to the Defendant Cajun Carolina, LLC.

14. That the Defendant Michael Brooks Quickel did execute and deliver a Personal Guaranty Agreement to the Plaintiff dated May 1, 2009, whereby the Defendant Michael Brooks Quickel did agree to be personally responsible for the entire amount of the indebtedness on behalf of the Defendant Cajun Carolina, LLC.

15. As of April 12, 2011 the Defendant, Cajun Carolina, LLC's account with the Plaintiff is due and owing in the amount of Three Hundred Eighty Three Thousand Two Hundred Fifty Two and 04/100ths Dollars ($383,252.04). In addition, the account incurs a daily rate of interest of Sixty Five and 98/100 Dollars ($65.98).

16. The Plaintiff, Horry County State Bank's mortgage liens are first place priority mortgage liens in and to the real property described in the Lis Pendens and Complaint.

17. That the title holder of record in and to the subject real property is the Defendant, Michael Brooks Quickel and Rosemary Long Jenrette.

18. The Defendant, Cajun Carolina, LLC, has failed to make payments as required by the Promissory Notes. The Plaintiff after first making demands for payment placed the Promissory Notes, dated May 1, 2009 and the Mortgages dated May 1, 2009, with its attorneys, Mullins Law Firm, P.A. for collection.

19. The Plaintiff's note and mortgage are not subject to modification as loans guaranteed by Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac, or a servicer who has signed an agreement to participate in the Home Affordable Modification Program. Accordingly, this case is not subject to the temporary restraining Order issued by the Honorable Jean H. Toal on May 04, 2009.

20. Plaintiff's counsel filed an Affidavit of Attorney Fees and Costs. As evidenced by Mr. Ownbey's Affidavit, attorney fees and costs amount to Seven Thousand Six Hundred Ninety Nine and 93/100ths Dollars ($7,699.93), inclusive of the estimated amount of time which he and his office staff will expend through the conclusion of this case. The costs and attorney fees were not contested, and, therefore, I find them as a fact. Having considered the nature, extent and difficulty of the services rendered, the time involved in reviewing the various documents, performing the title search, preparing the pleadings, attendance at hearings, the professional standing of counsel, the fee customarily charged for similar services and the beneficial results obtained for the Plaintiff, I find that sum to be fair and reasonable. Accordingly, the Plaintiff's costs and attorney fees of Seven Thousand Six Hundred Ninety Nine and 93/100ths Dollars ($7,699.93), as evidenced by Attorney Ownbey's affidavit shall be awarded.

21. Accordingly, the amount due and owing on the Promissory Note, with interest at the rate provided in the Promissory Note, and other costs and expenses of collection, including an award of attorney's fee, secured by the Promissory Note, and Mortgage are as follows:

Principal, accured interest and fees As of April 12, 2011	$383,252.04
Attorney's Fee / Cost of collection	$ 7,699.93
Total Debt secured by note and mortgage (including interest to date shown)	$ 390,951.97

22. Interest for the period from April 12, 2011 at the daily rate of Sixty Five and 98/100 ($65.98) Dollars shall be added to the principal balance shown above through the date this judgment is filed. After the date of judgment, interest shall accrue at the legal rate.

23. The Plaintiff has demanded deficiency judgment against the Defendants, Cajun Carolina, LLC and Michael Brooks Quickel, in the event the sale of the real estate herein does not yield a sum sufficient to satisfy all indebtedness due the Plaintiff, including costs and attorney's fees.

I, therefore, conclude as a matter of law, the following:

and restrictions of record.

8. Should the Plaintiff, Plaintiff's attorney or agent fail to appear on sales day, the property shall not be sold, and in that event any such sale shall be null and void and of no force and effect; the property shall be re-advertised and sold at some convenient sales day thereafter when the Plaintiff, Plaintiff's attorney or agent is present.

9. That the Master in Equity will apply the proceeds of the sale as follows: FIRST: To payment of the amount of the costs and expenses of this action, including any Guardian ad Litem fee or fees of attorneys appointed under Order of Court. NEXT: To the payment of the

13. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Deed of conveyances made pursuant to said sale shall contain the names of only the first named Plaintiff and the first named Defendant and the Defendant who was the titleholder of the mortgaged property at the time of filing of the Notice of Pendency of the within action; and the name of the Grantee, and the Register of Deeds is authorized to omit from the indices pertaining to such conveyance the names of all parties not contained in said Deed.

INCIDENTAL COVERAGES

This policy provides the following Incidental Coverages. They are subject to all of the terms of the applicable Coverages A, B, or C. They are not extended to farm property. These coverages provide additional insurance unless otherwise stated.

1. Emergency Removal – We pay for loss to covered property that is moved to prevent loss by a peril insured against. The property is covered for direct physical loss, not excluded, for up to 30 days. This coverage does not extend past the date on which this policy terminates.

   We pay up to a $250 towing charge to move a covered mobile home that is in danger from a peril insured against.

   This coverage does not increase the limits shown for the property being removed.

2. Debris Removal – We pay for the cost to remove the debris of covered property after an insured loss. This includes the cost to remove volcanic ash, dust, or particulate matter that causes direct physical loss to covered property.

   You may apply up to 25% of the limit that applies to the damaged property to cover debris removal. We will not pay more for direct loss to property and debris removal combined than the limit that applies to the damaged property. However, when the covered loss plus the cost of debris removal is more than the applicable limit, we will pay up to an extra 5% of the applicable limit to cover the cost of debris removal.

   This coverage does not include costs to extract pollutants from land or water; or remove, restore, or replace polluted land or water.

   We also pay the cost to remove fallen trees which cause damage to property covered under Coverages A, B, or C if:

   a. the falling of the tree is caused by any of the perils insured against; and

   b. coverage is not provided elsewhere by this policy.

   Regardless of the number of fallen trees, the most we will pay is $500 per occurrence.

3. Trees, Plants, Shrubs, or Lawns – We pay for loss to trees, plants, shrubs, or lawns on the insured premises caused by:

   a. fire or lightning, explosion, riot or civil commotion, aircraft;

   c. if covered by this policy, vandalism or theft.

   We do not cover trees, plants, shrubs, or lawns grown for business.

   You may apply up to 5 percent of the Coverage A limit on the insured premises to cover trees, plants, shrubs, or lawns. We do not pay more than $500 for each tree, plant, or shrub. This includes the cost to remove the debris of the covered item.

4. Fire Department Service Charge – We pay up to $500 for charges assumed by you under a contract or agreement when a fire department is called to protect covered property from a peril insured against.

5. Tenant's Improvements – If you are a tenant, we pay for loss by perils insured against to improvements on the insured premises made or acquired at your expense. These are permanent fixtures, alterations, decorations, and additions.

   You may apply up to 10 percent of the Coverage C limit to cover tenant's improvements.

PERILS INSURED AGAINST -- COVERAGES A, B, C, AND D

7. Sudden and Accidental Damage from Smoke -- However, we do not pay for loss caused by smoke from agricultural smudging or industrial operations.

8. Sinkhole Collapse -- This means loss caused by sudden settlement or collapse of earth supporting covered property. The earth settlement or collapse must result from subterranean voids created by the action of water on a limestone or similar rock formation.

   However, we do not cover the value of land or the cost of filling sinkholes.

9. Volcanic Action -- This means:

   a. airborne volcanic blast or airborne shock waves;

   b. ash, dust, or particulate matter; or

   c. lava flow.

   However, we do not cover removal of ash, dust, or particulate matter that does not cause direct physical loss to covered property.

Optional Peril -- Vandalism -- This peril (Number 10) is subject to an additional premium charge and applies only if coverage for Vandalism is shown on the Declarations.

10. Vandalism -- However, we do not pay for loss on the insured premises if the residence is vacant for more than 30 days in a row just before the loss. A residence being built is not vacant.

GENERAL EXCLUSIONS

   d. earth sinking, rising, shifting, expanding, or contracting. This does not include Sinkhole Collapse as described under Perils Insured Against; or

   We do pay for direct loss caused by fire, explosion (other than a volcanic explosion) and, if covered by this policy, theft resulting from earth movement.

4. Intentional Acts – We do not pay for loss which results from an act committed with intent to cause a loss:

   a. by you or at your direction; or

   b. by or at the direction of any other insured.

5. Neglect – We do not pay for loss which results from your neglect to use all reasonable means to save and preserve covered property at and after the time of a loss.

6. Nuclear Hazard – We do not pay for loss which results from nuclear reaction, nuclear radiation, or radioactive contamination (whether controlled or uncontrolled; whether caused by, contributed to or aggravated by a peril insured against and whether caused by natural, accidental, or artificial means). Loss caused by nuclear hazard is not considered loss caused by fire, explosion, or smoke. Direct loss by fire resulting from the nuclear hazard is covered.

7. Ordinance or Law – We do not pay for loss or increased cost which results from the enforcement of a code, ordinance, or law which regulates the use, construction, repair, demolition of property, or removal of its debris.

9. War – We do not pay for loss which results from declared or undeclared war, civil war, insurrection, rebellion, revolution, warlike act by a military force or military personnel, or destruction, seizure, or use of property for a military purpose.     b. water which backs up through or overflows from sewers, drains, or sumps; or

    c. water below the surface of the ground. This includes water which exerts pressure on, or seeps or leaks through or into a building, sidewalk, driveway, foundation, swimming pool, or other structure.

    We pay for direct loss caused by fire; explosion (other than a volcanic explosion); and, if covered by this policy, theft resulting from water damage.

11. Wear and Tear -- We do not pay for loss which results from wear and tear, marring, deterioration, inherent vice, latent defect, mechanical breakdown, rust, wet or dry rot, corrosion, mold, contamination, or smog. We do pay for an ensuing loss unless the ensuing loss itself is excluded.

12. Weather Conditions -- We do not pay for loss which results from weather conditions that initiate, set in motion, or in any way contribute to losses excluded under the preceding General Exclusions (Numbers 1 through 11).

       whether on or off the insured premises;

    b. a defect, a weakness, the inadequacy, a fault, or unsoundness in materials used in construction or repair whether on or off the insured premises.

    We do pay for an ensuing loss unless the ensuing loss itself is excluded.

WHAT YOU MUST DO IN CASE OF LOSS

1. Notice -- In case of a loss, you must:

   a. give us or our agent prompt notice (We may request written notice); and

   b. give notice to the police when the act that causes the loss is a crime.

   The notice to us must state:

   a. your name, the policy number and the time, place, and the details of the loss; and

   b. the names and addresses of all known potential claimants and witnesses.

2. Cooperation -- You must cooperate with us in investigating and settling the claim.

3. Volunteer Payments -- You must not make payments, pay or offer rewards or assume obligations or other costs, except at your own cost. This does not apply to costs that are allowed by this policy.

4. Other Duties -- You must take all reasonable steps to protect covered property at and after an insured loss to avoid further loss. We will pay the reasonable costs incurred by you for necessary repairs or emergency measures performed solely to protect covered property from further damage by a peril insured against if a peril insured against has already caused a loss to covered property. You must keep an accurate record of such costs. However, we will not pay for such repairs or emergency measures performed on property which has not been damaged by a peril insured against. This does not increase our limit.

   At our request you must:

   a. give us a signed, sworn proof of loss, within 60 days after our request, that shows:

      1) the time, place, and the details of the loss;
      2) your interest and the interest of all others in the property. This includes all mortgages and liens;
      3) other policies that may cover the loss;
      4) changes in title or use;
      5) available plans and specifications of buildings;
      6) detailed estimates for repair; and
      7) in detail, the quantity, description, cost, amount of loss, and actual cash value of the personal property involved in the loss. You must give us copies of all bills, receipts, and related documents to confirm these;

b. submit to examination under oath in matters that relate to the loss or claim as often as we reasonably request. If more than one person is examined, we have the right to examine and receive statements separately from each person and not in the presence of the others;

c. show the damaged property and allow us to take samples of damaged property for inspection, testing, and analysis as often as we reasonably request;

d. show records, including tax returns and bank records of all canceled checks that relate to the value, loss, and costs, and permit copies to be made of them as often as we reasonably request;

e. assist us to enforce any right of recovery which you may have against a party causing the loss; and

f. show records that prove loss of rents and show receipts for additional living costs, and permit copies to be made of them as often as we reasonably request.

HOW MUCH WE PAY FOR LOSS OR CLAIM

Loss Settlement Terms -- Subject to the deductible or other limitation that applies, we pay the lesser of:

a) the limit that applies;
b) your interest in the property; or
c) the amount determined under the Actual Cash Value Terms.

1. Actual Cash Value Terms -- Actual cash value includes a deduction for depreciation, however caused. The smallest of the following amounts is used in applying the Loss Settlement Terms:

   a. the cost to repair or replace the property with materials of like kind and quality to the extent practical;

   b. the actual cash value of the property at the time of loss; or

   c. (applies only to mobile homes) the difference in the actual cash value just before the loss and the actual cash value just after the loss.

2. Deductible -- This applies to Coverages A, B, and C; Debris Removal; Trees, Plants, Shrubs and Lawns; and Tenant's Improvements. It applies to all perils insured against unless otherwise shown. We pay that part of the loss over the deductible. Not more than one deductible applies per occurrence. If this policy covers more than one residence, the deductible applies separately to each residence.

3. Loss to a Pair or Set -- If there is loss to an item which is part of a pair or set, we pay only to replace or repair the item, or we pay the difference in the actual cash value of the pair or set just before the loss and the actual cash value just after the loss.

4. Insurance Under More Than One Coverage -- If more than one coverage of this policy applies to a loss, we pay no more than the actual loss.

5. Insurance Under More Than One Policy -- If there is other insurance that applies to the loss, we pay our share of the loss. Our share is that part of the loss that the limit of this policy bears to the total amount of insurance that applies to the loss. When a loss is also covered by the master policy of an association or corporation of property owners, this insurance is excess.

6. Restoration of Limits -- Each loss we pay under this policy does not reduce the limits available over the policy term.

PAYMENT OF LOSS

1. Your Property -- We adjust each loss with you. We pay an insured loss within 30 days after an acceptable proof of loss is received and the amount of the loss is agreed to in writing. If you and we do not agree, we pay within 30 days after the filing of an appraisal award with us. Payment is made to you unless a loss payee is named.

2. Additional Living Costs – If the insured premises is unfit for use for more than one month, covered costs are paid on a monthly basis. You must give us proof of such costs.

3. Damage to Personal Property of Others – At our option, an insured loss may be adjusted with and paid:

   a. to you on behalf of the owner; or

   b. to the owner. If we pay the owner, we do not have to pay you.

4. Our Options – We may:

   a. pay the loss in money; or

   b. rebuild, repair or replace the property. We must give you notice of our intent to do so within 30 days after we receive an accept-able proof of loss.

We may take all or part of the damaged property at the agreed or appraised value. Property paid for or replaced by us becomes ours.

POLICY CONDITIONS

1. Abandonment of Property – You may not abandon the property to us unless we agree.

2. Appraisal – If you and we do not agree on the amount of the loss, the actual cash value of the property or the cost to repair or replace the property, either party may demand that these amounts be determined by appraisal.

   If either party makes a written demand for appraisal, each will select a competent independent appraiser and notify the other of the appraiser's identity within 20 days after the receipt of the written demand. The two appraisers will select a competent, impartial umpire. If the two appraisers are unable to agree upon an umpire within 15 days, you or we can ask a judge of a court of record in the state where the property is located to select an umpire.

   For each building item and each item of personal property, the appraisers will determine:

   a. the amount of the loss;

   b. the actual cash value of the property; and

   c. the cost to repair or replace the property.

   Each amount will be stated separately.

   If the appraisers submit a written report of an agreement to us, the agreement will establish these amounts. If the appraisers fail to agree within a reasonable time, they will submit only their differences to the umpire. A written agreement by two of these three will establish the amounts stated above.

   Each appraiser will be paid by the party selecting that appraiser. The compensation of the umpire and other costs of the appraisal will be shared equally by you and us.

   If we make the written demand for an appraisal, we will pay:

   a. the reasonable and necessary cost for your appraiser; and

   b. your share of the cost for the umpire.

3. Assignment – This policy may not be assigned without our written consent.

4. Cancellation and Nonrenewal – You may cancel this policy by returning the policy to us or by giving us written notice and stating at what future date coverage is to stop.

   We may cancel or not renew this policy by written notice to you at the address shown on the Declarations. Proof of delivery or mailing is sufficient proof of notice.

   During the first 60 days this policy is in effect, we may cancel for any reason.

   After this policy has been in effect 60 days or more, or if it is a renewal of a policy issued by us, we may cancel or not renew only at the anniversary date unless:

   a. the premium has not been paid when due;

   b. the policy was obtained through fraud, material misrepresentation or omission of fact, which if known by us, would have caused us not to issue the policy; or

   c. there has been a material change or increase in hazard of the risk.

   If we cancel this policy for nonpayment of premium, we will give you notice at least 10 days before cancellation is effective. Otherwise, we will give you notice at least 30 days in advance of cancellation or nonrenewal.

   Your return premium, if any, will be refunded at the time of cancellation or as soon as practical. Payment or tender of the unearned premium is not a condition of cancellation.

5. Change, Modification, or Waiver of Policy Terms – A waiver or change of the terms of this policy must be issued by us in writing to be valid. If, in the policy period, we adopt a revision which broadens coverage without an additional premium, the broadened coverage will apply.

   Our request for an appraisal or examination under oath does not waive policy terms.

   If this policy has no expiration date, we may substitute or we may add, at each anniversary date, forms that are then authorized for use.

6. Conformity With Statute – Terms in conflict with the laws of the state where the insured premises is located are changed to conform to such laws.

7. Death – On your death, protection on your covered property passes to:

   a. your legal representative; or

   b. any other persons having proper, temporary custody of covered property.

8. Inspection – We may, but are not required to, inspect your property and operations. Our inspection or resulting advice or report does not warrant that your property or operations are safe or healthful or comply with laws, rules, or regulations.

9. Misrepresentation, Concealment, or Fraud – We do not provide coverage if, before or after a loss:

   a. you or any other insured have willfully concealed or misrepresented:

      1) a material fact or circumstance with respect to this insurance; or
      2) their interests herein; or

   b. there has been fraud or false swearing by you or any other insured with respect to this insurance or the subject thereof.

10. Mortgage Clause – This applies only to coverage on buildings. The word "mortgagee" includes trustee.

    a. If a mortgagee is named on the Declarations, a loss payable under Coverages A or B will be paid to the mortgagee and you, as interests appear. If more than one mortgagee is named, the order of payment will be the same as the order of precedence of the mortgages.

       If we deny your claim, that denial does not apply to a valid claim of the mortgagee, if the mortgagee has:

       1) notified us of change in ownership, occupancy, or substantial change in risk of which the mortgagee became aware;
       2) paid the premium due under this policy on demand if you neglected to pay the premium; and
       3) submitted a signed, sworn proof of loss within 60 days after receiving notice from us if you failed to do so.

       All terms of this policy apply to the mortgagee unless changed by this clause.

b. If we cancel or do not renew this policy, we will notify the mortgagee at least 10 days before the date cancellation or nonrenewal takes effect.

c. If we pay the mortgagee for a loss and deny payment to you:

1) we are subrogated, up to the amount we paid for the loss, to all the rights of the mortgagee granted under the mortgage on the property; or
2) at our option, we may pay to the mortgagee the whole principal on the mortgage plus the accrued interest. In this event, we shall receive a full assignment and transfer of the mortgage and all securities held as collateral to the mortgage debt.

Subrogation shall not impair the right of the mortgagee to recover the full amount of the mortgagee's claim.

11. No Benefit To Bailee – Coverage under this policy will not directly or indirectly benefit those who are paid to assume custody of the covered property.

12. Policy Period – This policy only covers losses that occur during the policy period.

13. Recoveries – This applies if we pay for a loss and lost or damaged property is recovered, or payment is made by those responsible for the loss.

a. You must inform us or we must inform you if either recovers property or receives pay-ment.

b. Proper costs incurred by either party are paid first.

c. You may keep the property. The amount of the claim paid or a lesser amount to which we agree, must be returned to us.

d. If the claim paid is less than the agreed loss due to a deductible, or other limiting terms, the recovery is prorated between you and us based on the interest of each in the loss.

14. Safety Glass – When breakage of glass is covered, we pay to replace the damaged glass with safety glazing materials if required by code, ordinance or law.

15. Secured Party Coverage – This applies only to coverage on mobile homes and personal property. This entire clause is void unless the name of a secured party is shown on the Declarations. This clause applies only to the interest of a secured party and does not affect your rights or duties under the policy.

a. If a secured party is named on the Declarations, a loss payable on property subject to the security interest will be paid to the secured party and you as interests may appear. If there is more than one security interest in the same property, the order of payment will be the same as their order of priority.

If we deny your claim, that denial does not apply to a valid claim of a secured party if the secured party has:

1) notified us of a change in ownership, occupancy, or substantial change in risk of which the secured party became aware;
2) paid the premium due under this policy on demand if you neglected to pay the premium; and
3) submitted a signed, sworn proof of loss within 60 days after receiving notice from us if you failed to do so.

All terms of this policy apply to the secured party unless changed by this clause.

b. If we cancel or do not renew this policy, we will notify the secured party at least 10 days before the date cancellation or nonrenewal takes effect.

c. If we pay the secured party for a loss and deny payment to you:

1) we are subrogated, up to the amount we paid for the loss, to all the rights of the secured party granted under the security agreement; or

8 Copyright 1988 AAIS

b. persons or organizations who sustain injury or damage; or
c. claims made or suits brought.

The payment of a claim under Coverage M does not mean that we admit we are liable under other coverages.

2. The General Aggregate Limit is the most we will pay during a policy period for the sum of:

a. all damages under Coverage L; and
b. all medical expenses under Coverage M.

3. The Each Occurrence Limit, subject to the General Aggregate Limit, is the most we will pay for the total of:

a. damages under Coverages L; and
b. medical expenses under Coverage M, due to all bodily injury and property damage arising out of a single occurrence.

4. Subject to the General Aggregate Limit and Each Occurrence Limit, the Medical Payments Limit is the most that we will pay under Coverage M for all medical expenses because of bodily injury sustained by any one person.

5. Subject to the Each Occurrence Limit and the General Aggregate Limit, our limit for property damage covered under Coverage O – Fire Legal Liability is $50,000 for each occurrence unless otherwise shown on the Declarations.

The General Aggregate Limit applies separately to each consecutive 12-month period beginning with the inception date of the Commercial Liability Coverage shown on the Declarations. It also applies separately to any remaining policy period of less than 12 months, unless the Commercial Liability Coverage has been extended after it was written. In that case, the additional period will be considered part of the last preceding period for the purpose of determining limits.

CONDITIONS

No person has a right under the Commercial Liability Coverage to join us or implead us in actions that are brought to determine an insured's liability.

3. Subrogation – If we pay under the Commercial Liability Coverage, we may require from an insured an assignment of any right of recovery. We are not liable under the Commercial Liability Coverage if any insured has impaired our right to recover. An insured may waive the right to recover, in writing, before an occurrence takes place without voiding coverage.

4. Commercial Liability Coverage Premium – If the premium is shown on the Declarations as a deposit premium, we will compute the final earned premium at the end of each audit period shown on the Declarations. If it is more than the deposit premium paid by you, we will bill you for the difference. If the final earned premium is less than the deposit premium paid by you, we will return the difference to you. You must maintain records of the information that is necessary for computing the premium. Copies of the records must be sent to us at the end of the audit period or when requested by us.

5. Insurance Under More Than One Policy – (This does not apply to Coverage M – Medical Payments.)

a. Insurance under this Commercial Liability Coverage is primary except as provided under paragraph 5.c. below, or unless otherwise stated. The amount of our liability is not reduced because of other insurance which applies to the loss on other than a primary basis.

b. If the other insurance is also primary, we will share in the loss as follows:

1) If the other insurance provides for contribution by equal shares, we will pay equal amounts with other insurers until:

a) the lowest applicable limit under any one policy is reached. If part of the loss remains unpaid, we will pay an equal share with the other insurers until the full amount of the loss is paid, or until we have paid our limit in full; or

b) the full amount of the loss is paid.

2) If the other insurance does not provide for contribution by equal shares, we will pay up to our limit no more than that proportion of the loss to which the applicable limit under this policy for such loss bears to the total applicable limit for all insurance against the loss.

c. Insurance under this Commercial Liability Coverage is excess over any other insurance:

1) if the other insurance, whether primary, excess, contingent or on any other basis, provides fire insurance for premises rented to you; or

2) if the other insurance applies to any loss arising out of the maintenance or use of aircraft, motorized vehicles or watercraft which may be covered by this Commercial Liability Coverage.

d. When this insurance is excess over any other insurance:

1) we will have no duty under Coverage L to defend any claim or suit that any other insurer has a duty to defend. If no other insurer defends, we will do so. However, we will be entitled to the insured's rights against all those other insurers.

2) we will pay our share of the amount of loss, if any, that exceeds the sum of:

a) the total amount that all such insurance would pay for the loss in the absence of this insurance; and

b) the total of all deductibles and self-insured amounts required by such other insurance.

We will share the remaining loss with any other insurance that is not described in this excess insurance provision and was not bought specifically to apply in excess of the limits of insurance shown on the Declarations page of this Commercial Liability Coverage.

6. Misrepresentation, Concealment or Fraud – This coverage is void if before or after a loss:

1) a material fact or circumstance that relates to this insurance or the subject thereof; or

Such information will be obtained through personal interviews with neighbors, friends, or others with whom the consumer is acquainted. Upon written request to the Insurance Company, made within a reasonable period of time after receipt of this notice, the Company will provide in writing a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of the investigation requested, if one was made, or advise that none was requested.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the Property unto the Lender and the successors and assigns of Lender forever.

BORROWER covenants that Borrower is lawfully seized of the Property in fee simple absolute, that Borrower has good right and is lawfully authorized to sell, convey or encumber the same, and that the Property is free and clear of all encumbrances except as expressly provided in paragraph 15 and otherwise herein. Borrower covenants to warrant and forever defend title and dispose the Property unto Lender and the successors or assigns of Lender from and against Borrower and all persons whomsoever lawfully claiming the same or any part thereof.

PROVIDED ALWAYS, nevertheless, and it is the true intent and meaning of Borrower and Lender, that if Borrower pays or causes to be paid to Lender the debt secured hereby, the sums hereby secured shall cease, determine and be utterly null and void, otherwise said estate shall remain in full force and effect.

IT IS AGREED that Borrower shall be entitled to hold and enjoy the Property until a default as herein defined has occurred.

BORROWER further covenants and agrees with Lender as follows:

1. Assignment of Rents and Profits. As further security for all liens secured by this Mortgage, Borrower assigns to Lender all rents and profits arising from the Property; provided, however, that so long as no default as hereinafter defined has occurred, Borrower shall be entitled to collect and retain all such rents and profits as the sole property of Borrower and shall account for the same to Lender thereafter.

2. Care of Property. Borrower will deal with the Property in good condition and repair and will make prompt and other needed repairs. Borrower will promptly repair or restore any portion of the Property which is damaged or destroyed by any cause whatsoever and will promptly pay when due all costs and expenses of such repair or restoration. Borrower will not remove or demolish any improvement or fixture which is part or parcel of the Property and will not do or permit on the Property anything the nature of which shall be contrary to Lender's interest. Lender shall be entitled to enforce performance of the provisions of this paragraph.

3. Insurance. (A) Borrower shall at its own expense obtain for, deliver to and maintain for the benefit of Lender, during the life of the Mortgage, insurance policies subject to such terms as Lender may require in an amount less than the full insurable value, including the Property and the fixtures, extended coverage and such other hazards, casualties and contingencies as Lender may require including flood damage, and shall pay promptly, when due, any premiums on such insurance policies and on any renewals thereof. In the event of such policies, the companies issuing them, and the amounts provided shall be acceptable to Lender and shall contain a non-contributory mortgage endorsement in favor of Lender. Borrower shall deliver to Lender, at least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration date of all such policies, renewals thereof satisfactory to Lender shall be delivered to Lender. Borrower shall deliver to Lender receipts evidencing the payment of all premiums on such insurance policies and renewals. In the event of loss, Borrower will give written notice to Lender, and Lender may make proof of loss if not made promptly by Borrower. In the event of the foreclosure of this Mortgage or any other transfer of title to the Property in extinguishment of the indebtedness and other sums secured hereby, all right, title and interest of Borrower in and to all insurance policies and unexpired premiums thereon in force shall pass to the purchaser. Upon the failure of Borrower to obtain and maintain insurance satisfactory to Lender, Lender may at its own discretion procure and maintain for any and all of the insurance so held as aforesaid, such other policy of policies of insurance, in such amount as Lender, acting in its own discretion, may determine, or exercise any other rights to its rights in the insurance hereunder should Borrower fail or refuse to keep the policies in force.

(B) Borrower hereby assigns to Lender its interest in any insurance policies, and Lender is hereby authorized and empowered to its reasonable discretion, to adjust or compromise any loss under any insurance policies on the Property, and to execute and receive the proceeds from any such policy or policies. Each insurance company is hereby authorized and directed to make payment for all such losses directly to Lender alone, and not to Borrower and Lender jointly. After deducting such insurance proceeds any expenses incurred by Lender in the collection of hereunder of such loss, Lender, acting in its sole discretion, may apply the net proceeds (i) to the payment of any sum secured by this Mortgage in such order as Lender may determine or (ii) to the replacement, repair or restoration of the portion of the Property damaged or destroyed to a manner determined by Lender, or may release and not proceed to the Borrower such conditions as Lender shall determine, or may apply and not proceed to any combination of the foregoing. Nothing herein shall be deemed to affect the lien of this Mortgage to the full amount secured hereby before such payment took place. If Lender elects to release the improvements, any balance of such insurance proceeds shall either be applied toward the reduction of indebtedness and any other sums secured hereby or shall be paid to Borrower. Lender shall not be responsible for any failure to collect any insurance proceeds due under the terms of any policy regardless of the cause of such failure.

(C) Borrower must at its own expense obtain for, deliver to and maintain for the benefit of Lender, during the life of this Mortgage, liability insurance policies covering the Property in such amounts, with such companies and in such form as may be reasonably required by Lender. Lender may require such policies to contain an endorsement, in form satisfactory to Lender, naming Lender as an additional insured thereof. Borrower shall pay promptly, when due, any premiums on such insurance policies and renewals thereof.

4. Taxes and Assessments. Borrower will pay all taxes, assessments and other charges which constitute or are secured by a lien upon the Property which is superior to the lien of this Mortgage and will deliver to Lender proof of payment of the same not less than ten (10) days prior to the date the same becomes delinquent; provided, however, that Borrower shall be entitled to appropriate proceedings to contest the amount or validity of such tax, assessment or charge so long as the collection of the same by foreclosure of the lien upon the Property is stayed during the pendency of such proceedings and Borrower deposits with the authority to which such tax, assessment or charge is payable or with Lender adequate security for payment of the same together with any applicable interest and penalties, should the same be determined due and owing.

5. Reimbursement by Lender. If Borrower fails to make payment for restoration or repair of the Property, for insurance premiums or for taxes, assessments or other charges as provided in this Mortgage, Lender may, but shall not be obligated to, pay the full amount of any such payment by Lender will be secured by this Mortgage and have the same rank and priority as the principal debt secured hereby and bear interest from the date of payment at the rate payable from time to time on outstanding principal under the Note. Payments made by Lender shall be a lien upon the Property to the extent of the sums so paid with interest from the date of payment, regardless of the rank and priority of this Mortgage. Borrower will pay to the Lender in cash on demand an amount equal to any payment made by Lender pursuant to this paragraph plus interest thereon as herein provided.

6. Condemnation. Lender shall be entitled to be a party to and participate in any proceedings, whether formal or informal, for condemnation or acquisition pursuant to power of eminent domain of any portion of the Property. Borrower hereby assigns to Lender the right to collect and receive any payments or award to which Borrower would otherwise be entitled by reason of condemnation or acquisition pursuant to the power of eminent domain of any portion of the Property. Any such payment or award received by Lender, may, at the option of Lender, (i) be applied by Lender to payment of any sums secured by this Mortgage in such order as Lender may determine (ii) be applied in a manner determined by Lender to the replacement of the portion of the Property taken and to the repair or restoration of the remaining portion of the Property (iii) be released to Borrower upon such conditions as Lender may determine or (iv) be used for any combination of the foregoing purposes. No portion of an indemnity payment which is applied to replacement, repair or restoration of any portion of the Property to which is released to Borrower shall be deemed a payment upon any sums secured by this Mortgage.

7. Transfer of the Property or a Beneficial Interest in Borrower. If all or any part of the Property or any interest in it is sold or transferred (or if a beneficial interest in Borrower is sold or transferred and Borrower is not a natural person) without Lender's prior written consent, Lender may, at its option, require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument. However, this option shall not be exercised by Lender if exercise is prohibited by federal law as of the date of this Security Instrument.

If Lender exercises this option, Lender shall give Borrower notice of acceleration. The notice shall provide a period of not less than 30 days from the date the notice is delivered or mailed within which Borrower must pay all sums secured by this Security Instrument. If Borrower fails to pay these sums prior to the expiration of this period, Lender may invoke any remedies permitted by this Security Instrument without further notice or demand on Borrower.

8. Default. The occurrence of any of the following events shall be deemed a Default under this Mortgage:

(A) any default by Borrower as described in the Note;

(B) failure of Borrower to pay any sum due and owing by any Mortgage when due;

(C) failure of Borrower to observe or perform any covenants or agreements contained in this Mortgage or in any other agreement entered into between the Borrower and Lender with respect to the indebtedness hereby secured within ten (10) days following the giving of notice by Lender to Borrower to observe or perform the same.

9. Acceleration; Remedies. Lender shall give notice to Borrower prior to acceleration following Borrower's breach of any covenant or agreement in this Security Instrument (but not prior to acceleration under paragraph 7 unless applicable law provides otherwise). The notice shall specify: (A) the default; (B) the action required to cure the default; (C) a date not less than 30 days from the date the notice is given to Borrower, by which the default must be cured; and (D) that failure to cure the default on or before the date specified in the notice may result in acceleration of the sums secured by this Security Instrument, foreclosure by judicial proceeding and sale of the Property. The notice shall further inform Borrower of the right to reinstate after acceleration and the right to assert in the foreclosure proceeding the nonexistence of a default or any other defense of Borrower to acceleration and foreclosure. If the default is not cured on or before the date specified in the notice, Lender, at its option, may require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument without further demand and may foreclose

[illegible] Lender shall be entitled to collect all expenses incurred in pursuing the remedies provided in this paragraph 11, including but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of title evidence, all of which shall be additional sums secured by this Security Instrument.

12. Appointment of Receiver. Upon the occurrence of a Default or Borrower's death, Lender shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to enter upon and take and maintain full control of the Property in order to perform all acts necessary and appropriate for the operation and management of the Property including, but not limited to, the collection, consideration or conversion of income, the keeping of records in the Property and the execution or termination of contracts providing for the management or maintenance of the Property, all on such terms as deemed best to protect the security of this Mortgage. The receiver shall be entitled to receive a reasonable fee for so managing the Property. All costs incurred pursuant to this paragraph shall be repaid first to the payment of taxes, premiums on insurance policies, assessments and other charges on the Property, and the costs of discharging any obligation or liability of Borrower as lessor or landlord of the Property and that to the claims secured by this Mortgage. Lender or the receiver shall have access to the books and records used in the operation and maintenance of the Property and shall be liable to account only for those rents actually received. Lender shall not be liable to Borrower, anyone claiming under or through Borrower, or anyone having an interest in the Property by reason of anything done or left undone by Borrower under this paragraph. If the rents of the Property are not sufficient to meet the cost of taking control and managing the Property and collecting the rents, Lender or the receiver may obtain a judgment against Borrower to secure the costs. Any funds expended by Lender for such purposes shall become indebtedness of Borrower to Lender secured by this Mortgage. Unless Lender and Borrower agree in writing to other terms of payment, such amounts shall be payable upon notice from Lender to Borrower requesting payment thereof and shall bear interest from the date of disbursement at the rate stated in the Note. The collecting of rents and taking and maintaining of control of the Property by Lender or the receiver and the application of rents as provided herein shall not cure or waive any default hereunder or invalidate any other right or remedy of Lender hereunder.

13. Waiver by Lender. Lender may, in its sole discretion, from time to time waive or forbear from exercising any provision of this Mortgage, or any other right or remedy of Lender hereunder, or any Note or other document executed in connection herewith, or may extend the time for payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or modify the terms of payment of any indebtedness secured hereby, without affecting the liability of persons or entities liable for payment of the indebtedness or any part thereof who do not consent to such waiver, forbearance, extension or modification, and may release any security for the payment of the indebtedness without affecting the liability of any person or entity who does not consent to such release. Any such waiver, forbearance, extension, modification or release shall be binding on Lender only if in writing signed by Lender and shall not be deemed a waiver of the right at any later time to enforce any provision of this Mortgage, and such waiver, forbearance, extension, modification or release shall be limited to the specific circumstance to which it pertains.

14. Waiver by Borrower. Borrower, to the extent permitted by law, waives all rights of appraisement, homestead, marshaling and all other rights and remedies which Borrower may have under any law now or hereafter in effect. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of this paragraph and the other terms of this Mortgage, the terms of this paragraph shall be deemed to control.

15. Future Advances. Lender, pursuant to Sections 29-2-40 and 50, South Carolina Code of Laws (1976) and at its option, may make future advances to Borrower. Such future advances, with interest thereon, shall be secured by this Mortgage. At no time shall the principal amount of the indebtedness secured by this Mortgage, including such future advances, exceed twice the original amount of the Note, plus interest thereon and any disbursements made for the payment of taxes, special assessments, or insurance on the Property and interest on such disbursements, pursuant to Section 29-2-50, South Carolina Code of Laws (1976). It is understood and agreed that a subsequent judgment, if obtained by Lender shall be determined by the highest price bid at the judicial sale of the Property. Borrower does expressly waive, release and disclaim any and all homestead exemptions and rights of redemption as allowed by South Carolina law.

16. Future Advances. Lender, pursuant to Sections 29-2-40 and 50, South Carolina Code of Laws (1976) and at its option, may make future advances to Borrower. Hey Barbie,

We are waiting on the final report from our fire investigator in order to wrap up this claim. He advised that we should have it by the first of the month. After I receive his report I will be contacting the insured to obtain her recorded statement and that will conclude the investigation. Hopefully this will be completed within the next 10 – 15 days.

Please call me if you should have any additional questions (cell-334-494-0559). I will be on the road all day today so please call my cell if you need me.

Thanks!
Jennifer

SOUTH CAROLINA - UNIVERSAL NOTE

Bankers Systems™ ©1983, 1991 Bankers Systems, Inc., St. Cloud, MN Form UN-SC 3/7/2002

DEFINITIONS: As used on page 1, "I," means the terms that apply to this loan. "I," "me" or "my" means each Borrower who signs this note and each other person or legal entity (including guarantors, endorsers, and sureties) who agrees to pay this note (together referred to as "us"). "You" or "your" means the Lender and its successors and assigns.

APPLICABLE LAW: The law of the state of South Carolina will govern this note. Any term of this note which is contrary to applicable law will not be effective unless the law permits you and me to agree to such a variation. If any provision of this agreement cannot be enforced according to its terms, this fact will not affect the enforceability of the remainder of this agreement. No modification of this agreement may be made without your express written consent. Time is of the essence in this agreement.

COMMISSIONS OR OTHER REMUNERATION: I understand and agree that any insurance premiums paid to insurance companies as part of this note will involve money retained by you or paid back to you as commissions or other remuneration.

In addition, I understand and agree that some other payments to third parties as part of this note may also involve money retained by you or paid back to you as commissions or other remuneration.

PAYMENTS: Each payment I make on this note will first reduce the amount I owe you for charges which are neither interest nor principal. The remainder of each payment will then reduce accrued unpaid interest, and then unpaid principal. If you and I agree to a different application of payments, we will describe our agreement on this note. I may prepay a part of, or the entire balance of, this loan without penalty, unless we specify to the contrary on this note. Any partial prepayment will not excuse or reduce any later scheduled payment until this note is paid in full (unless, when I make the prepayment, you and I agree in writing to the contrary).

INTEREST: Interest accrues on the principal remaining unpaid from time to time, until paid in full. If I receive the principal in more than one advance, each advance will start to earn interest only when I receive the advance. The interest rate in effect on this note at any given time will apply to the entire principal advanced at that time. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, I do not agree to pay and you do not intend to charge any rate of interest that is higher than the maximum rate of interest you could charge under applicable law for the extension of credit that is agreed to here (either before or after maturity). If any notice of interest accrual is sent and is in error, we mutually agree to correct it, and if you actually collect more interest than allowed by law and this agreement, you agree to refund it to me.

INDEX RATE: The index will serve only as a device for setting the rate on this note. You do not guarantee by selecting this index, or the margin, that the rate on this note will be the same rate you charge on any other loans or class of loans to me or other borrowers.

ACCRUAL METHOD: The amount of interest that I will pay on this loan will be calculated using the interest rate and accrual method stated on page 1 of this note. For the purpose of interest calculation, the accrual method will determine the number of days in a "year." If no accrual method is stated, then you may use any reasonable accrual method for calculating interest.

POST MATURITY RATE: For purposes of deciding when the "Post Maturity Rate" (shown on page 1) applies, the term "maturity" means the date of the last scheduled payment indicated on page 1 of this note or the date you accelerate payment on the note, whichever is earlier.

SINGLE ADVANCE LOANS: If this is a single advance loan, you and I expect that you will make only one advance of principal. However, you may add other amounts to the principal if you make any payments described in the "PAYMENTS BY LENDER" paragraph below.

MULTIPLE ADVANCE LOANS: If this is a multiple advance loan, you and I expect that you will make more than one advance of principal. If this is closed end credit, repaying a part of the principal will not entitle me to additional credit.

PAYMENTS BY LENDER: If you are authorized to pay, on my behalf, charges I am obligated to pay (such as property insurance premiums), then you may treat those payments made by you as advances and add them to the unpaid principal under this note, or you may demand immediate payment of the charges.

SET-OFF: I agree that you may set off any amount due and payable under this note against any right I have to receive money from you.

"Right to receive money from you" means:

(1) any deposit account balance I have with you;

(2) any money owed to me on an item presented to you or in your possession for collection or exchange; and

(3) any repurchase agreement or other nondeposit obligation.

"Any amount due and payable under this note" means the total amount of which you are entitled to demand payment under the terms of this note at the time you set off. This total includes any balance the due date for which you properly accelerate under this note.

If my right to receive money from you is also owned by someone who has not agreed to pay this note, your right of set-off will apply to my interest in the obligation and to any other amounts I could withdraw on my sole request or endorsement. Your right of set-off does not apply to an account or other obligation where my rights are only as a representative. It also does not apply to any Individual Retirement Account or other tax-deferred retirement account.

You will not be liable for the dishonor of any check when the dishonor occurs because you set off this debt against any of my accounts. I agree to hold you harmless from any such claims arising as a result of your exercise of your right of set-off.

REAL ESTATE OR RESIDENCE SECURITY: If this note is secured by real estate or a residence that is personal property, the existence of a default and your remedies for such a default will be determined by applicable law, by the terms of any separate instrument creating the security interest and, to the extent not prohibited by law and not contrary to the terms of the separate security instrument, by the "Default" and "Remedies" paragraphs herein.

DEFAULT: I will be in default if any one or more of the following occur: (1) I fail to make a payment on time or in the amount due; (2) I fail to keep the property insured, if required; (3) I fail to pay, or keep any promise, on any debt or agreement I have with you; (4) any other creditor of mine attempts to collect any debt I owe him through court proceedings; (5) I die, am declared incompetent, make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or become insolvent (either because my liabilities exceed my assets or I am unable to pay my debts as they become due); (6) I make any written statement or provide any financial information that is untrue or inaccurate at the time it was provided; (7) I do or fail to do something which causes you to believe that you will have difficulty collecting the amount I owe you; (8) any collateral securing this note is used in a manner or for a purpose which threatens confiscation by a legal authority; (9) I change my name or assume an additional name without first notifying you before making such a change; (10) I fail to plant, cultivate and harvest crops in due season if I am a producer of crops; (11) any loan proceeds are used for a purpose that will contribute to excessive erosion of highly erodible land or to the conversion of wetlands to produce an agricultural commodity, as further explained in 7 C.F.R. Part 1940, Subpart G, Exhibit M.

REMEDIES: If I am in default on this note you have, but are not limited to, the following remedies:

(1) You may demand immediate payment of all I owe you under this note (principal, accrued unpaid interest and other accrued charges).

(2) You may set off this debt against any right I have to the payment of money from you, subject to the terms of the "SET-OFF" paragraph herein.

(3) You may demand security, additional security, or additional parties to be obligated to pay this note as a condition for not using any other remedy.

(4) You may refuse to make advances to me or allow purchases on credit by me.

(5) You may use any remedy you have under state or federal law.

By selecting any one or more of these remedies you do not give up your right to later use any other remedy. By waiving your right to declare an event to be a default, you do not waive your right to later consider the event as a default if it continues or happens again.

COLLECTION COSTS AND ATTORNEY'S FEES: I agree to pay all costs of collection, replevin or any other or similar type of cost if I am in default. In addition, if you hire an attorney to collect this note, I also agree to pay any fee you incur with such attorney plus court costs (except where prohibited by law). To the extent permitted by the United States Bankruptcy Code, I also agree to pay the reasonable attorney's fees and costs you incur to collect this debt as awarded by any court exercising jurisdiction under the Bankruptcy Code.

WAIVER: I give up my rights to require you to do certain things. I will not require you to:

(1) demand payment of amounts due (presentment);

(2) obtain official certification of nonpayment (protest); or

(3) give notice that amounts due have not been paid (notice of dishonor).

I waive any defenses I have based on suretyship or impairment of collateral.

OBLIGATIONS INDEPENDENT: I understand that I must pay this note even if someone else has also agreed to pay it (by, for example, signing this form as a separate guarantee or endorsement). You may sue me alone, or anyone else who is obligated on this note, or any number of us together, to collect this note. You may without notice release any party to this agreement without releasing any other party. If you give up any of your rights, with or without notice, it will not affect my duty to pay this note. Any extension of new credit to any of us, or renewal of this note by all or less than all of us will not release me from my duty to pay it. (Of course, you are entitled to only one payment in full.) I agree that you may at your option extend this note or the debt represented by this note, or any portion of the note or debt, from time to time without limit or notice and for any term without affecting my liability for payment of the note. I will not assign my obligation under this agreement without your prior written approval. You may, without notice, fail to perfect your security interest in, impair, or release any security and I will still be obligated to pay this loan.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION: I agree to provide you, upon request, any financial statement or information you may deem necessary. I warrant that the financial statements and information I provide to you are or will be accurate, correct and complete.

NOTICES: Unless otherwise required by law, any notice to me shall be given by delivering it or by mailing it by first class mail addressed to me at my last known address. My current address is on page 1. I agree to inform you in writing of any change in my address. I will give any notice to you by mailing it first class to your address stated on page 1 of this agreement, or to any other address that you have designated.

WAIVER OF HEARING PRIOR TO IMMEDIATE POSSESSION: If this loan is for a business purpose I agree to waive the right to five days' notice and a prejudgment hearing prior to seizure of any personal property which may secure this loan.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the Property unto the Lender and the successors and assigns of Lender forever.

BORROWER covenants that Borrower is lawfully seized of the Property in fee simple absolute, that Borrower has good right and is lawfully authorized to sell, convey or encumber the same, and that the Property is free and clear of all encumbrances except as expressly provided in paragraph 15 and otherwise herein. Borrower covenants to warrant and forever defend all and singular the Property unto Lender and the successors or assigns of Lender from and against Borrower and all persons whomsoever lawfully claiming the same or any part thereof.

PROVIDED ALWAYS, nevertheless, and it is the true intent and meaning of Borrower and Lender, that if Borrower pays or causes to be paid to Lender the debt secured hereby, the estate hereby granted shall cease, determine and be utterly null and void; otherwise said estate shall remain in full force and effect.

IT IS AGREED that Borrower shall be entitled to hold and enjoy the Property until a default as herein defined has occurred.

BORROWER further covenants and agrees with Lender as follows:

1. Assignment of Rents and Profits. As further security for all sums secured by this Mortgage, Borrower assigns to Lender all rents and profits arising from the Property; provided, however, that so long as no Default as hereinafter defined has occurred, Borrower shall be entitled to collect and retain all such rents and profits as the sole property of Borrower without accounting to Lender thereof.

2. Care of Property. Borrower will maintain the Property in good condition and repair and will neither permit nor allow waste thereof. Borrower will promptly repair or restore any portion of the Property which is damaged or destroyed by any cause whatsoever and will promptly pay when due all costs and expenses of such repair or restoration. Borrower will not remove or demolish any improvement or fixture which is now or hereafter part of the Property and will cut no timber on the Property without the express written consent of Lender. Lender shall be entitled to specific performance of the provisions of this paragraph.

3. Insurance. (A) Borrower shall at its sole expense obtain for, deliver to, and maintain for the benefit of Lender, during the life of the Mortgage, insurance policies in such amounts as Lender may require, in no event less than the full insurable value, insuring the Property against fire, extended coverage and such other insurable hazards, casualties and contingencies as Lender may require including flood damage, and shall pay promptly, when due, any premiums on such insurance policies and on any renewals thereof. The form of such policies, the companies issuing them, and the coverages provided shall be acceptable to Lender and shall contain a non-contributory mortgage endorsement making losses payable to Lender. At least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration date of all such policies, renewals thereof satisfactory to Lender shall be delivered to Lender. Borrower shall deliver to Lender receipts evidencing the payment of all premiums on such insurance policies and renewals. In the event of loss, Borrower will give written notice to Lender, and Lender may make proof of loss if not made promptly by Borrower. In the event of the foreclosure of this Mortgage or any other transfer of title to the Property in extinguishment of the indebtedness and other sums secured hereby, all right, title, and interest of Borrower in and to all insurance policies and renewals thereof then in force shall pass to the grantee. Upon the failure of Borrower to obtain and maintain insurance satisfactory to Lender, Lender may at its own discretion procure and substitute for any and all of the insurance so held as aforesaid, such other policy or policies of insurance, in such amount as Lender, acting in its sole discretion, may determine; all without prejudice to its right to foreclosure hereunder should Borrower fail or refuse to keep said premises so insured.

(B) Borrower hereby assigns to Lender all proceeds from any insurance policies, and Lender is hereby authorized and empowered in its reasonable discretion, to adjust or compromise any loss under any insurance policies on the Property, and to collect and receive the proceeds from any such policy or policies. Each insurance company is hereby authorized and directed to make payment for all such losses directly to Lender alone, and not to Borrower and Lender jointly. After deducting such insurance proceeds any expenses incurred by Lender in the collection or handling of such funds, Lender, acting in its sole discretion, may; apply the net proceeds (I) to the payment of any sum secured by this Mortgage in such order as Lender may determine or (II) to the replacement, repair or restoration of the portion of the Property damaged or destroyed in a manner determined by Lender; or may release said net proceeds to the Borrower upon such conditions as Lender shall determine; or may apply said net proceeds for any combination of the foregoing; all without affecting the lien of this Mortgage for the full amount secured hereby before such payment took place. If Lender elects to restore the improvements, any balance of such monies after restoration shall either be applied toward the reduction of indebtedness and any other sums secured hereby or shall be paid to Borrower. Lender shall not be responsible for any failure to collect any insurance proceeds due under the terms or any policy regardless of the cause of such failure.

(C) Borrower shall at its sole expense obtain for, deliver to and maintain for the benefit of Lender, during the life of this Mortgage, liability insurance policies relating to the Property, in such amounts, with such companies and in such form as may be reasonably required by Lender. Lender may require such policies to contain an endorsement, in form satisfactory to Lender, naming Lender as an additional insured thereof. Borrower shall pay promptly, when due, any premiums on such insurance policies and renewals thereof.

4. Taxes and Assessments. Borrower will pay all taxes, assessments and other charges which constitute or are secured by a lien upon the Property which is superior to the lien of this Mortgage and will deliver to Lender proof of payment of the same not less than ten (10) days prior to the date the same becomes delinquent; provided, however, that Borrower shall be entitled by appropriate proceedings to contest the amount or validity of such tax, assessment or charge so long as the collection of the same by foreclosure of the lien upon the Property is stayed during the pendency of such proceedings and Borrower deposits with the authority to which such tax, assessment or charge is payable or with Lender appropriate security for payment of the same together with any applicable interest and penalties, should the same be determined due and owing.

5. Expenditures by Lender. If Borrower fails to make payment for restoration or repair of the Property, for insurance premiums or for taxes, assessments or other charges as required in this Mortgage, Lender may, but shall not be obligated to, pay for the same, and any such payment by lender will be secured by this Mortgage and have the same rank and priority as the principal debt secured hereby and bear interest from the date of payment at the rate payable from time to time on outstanding principal under the Note. Payments made for taxes by Lender shall be a first lien on the Property to the extent of the taxes to paid with interest from the date of payment, regardless of the rank and priority of this Mortgage. Borrower will pay to the Lender in cash on demand an amount equal to any payment made by Lender pursuant to this paragraph plus interest thereon as herein provided.

6. Condemnation. Lender shall be entitled to be made a party to and to participate in any proceedings, whether formal or informal, for condemnation or acquisition pursuant to power of eminent domain of any portion of the Property. Borrower hereby assigns to Lender the right to collect and receive any payment or award to which Borrower would otherwise be entitled by reason of condemnation or acquisition pursuant tot he power of eminent domain of any portion of the Property. Any such payment or award received by Lender may, at the option of Lender, (I) be applied by Lender to payment of any sums secured by this Mortgage in such order as Lender may determine (II) be applied in a manner determined by Lender to the replacement of the portion of the Property taken and to the repair or restoration of the remaining portion of the Property (III) be released to Borrower upon such conditions as Lender may determine or (IV) be used for any combination of the foregoing purposes. No portion of an indemnity payment which is applied to replacement, repair or restoration of any portion of the Property or which is released to Borrower shall be deemed a payment against any sums secured by this Mortgage.

7. Transfer of the Property or a Beneficial Interest in Borrower. If all or any part of the Property or any interest in it is sold or transferred (or if a beneficial interest in Borrower is sold or transferred and Borrower is not a natural person) without Lender's prior written consent, Lender may, at its option, require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument. However, this option shall not be exercised by Lender if exercise is prohibited by federal law as of the date of this Security Instrument.

If Lender exercises this option, Lender shall give Borrower notice of acceleration. The notice shall provide a period of not less than 30 days from the date the notice is delivered or mailed within which Borrower must pay all sums secured by this Security Instrument. If Borrower fails to pay these sums prior to the expiration of this period, Lender may invoke any remedies permitted by this Security Instrument without further notice or demand on Borrower.

8. Default. The occurrences of any of the following events shall be deemed a Default under this Mortgage:

(A) any default by Borrower as described in the Note;

(B) failure of Borrower to pay any other sum secured by this Mortgage when due;

(C) failure of Borrower to observe or perform any covenant or agreement set forth in this Mortgage or in any loan agreement entered into between the Borrower and Lender with respect to the indebtedness hereby secured within ten (10) days following the giving of notice by Lender to Borrower to observe or perform the same.

9. Acceleration; Remedies. Lender shall give notice to Borrower prior to acceleration following Borrower's breach of any covenant or agreement in this Security Instrument (but not prior to acceleration under paragraph 7 unless applicable law provides otherwise). The notice shall specify: (a) the default; (b) the action required to cure the default; (c) a date not less than 20 days from the date the notice is given to Borrower, by which the default must be cured; and (d) that failure to cure the default on or before the date specified in the notice may result in acceleration of the sums secured by this Security Instrument, foreclosure by judicial proceeding and sale of the Property. The notice shall further inform Borrower of the right to reinstate after acceleration and the right to assert in the foreclosure proceeding the non-existence of a default or any other defense of Borrower to acceleration and foreclosure. If the default is not cured on or before the date specified in the notice, Lender, at its option, may require immediate payment in full of all sums secured by this Security Instrument without further demand and may foreclose this Security Instrument by judicial proceeding. Lender shall be entitled to collect all expenses incurred in pursuing the remedies provided in this paragraph 9, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of title evidence; all of which shall be additional sums secured by this Security Instrument.

10. Appointment of Receiver. Upon the occurrence of a Default as hereinabove defined, Lender shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to enter upon and take and maintain full control of the Property in order to perform all acts necessary and appropriate for the operation and maintenance thereof including, but not limited to, the execution, cancellation or modification of leases, the making of repairs to the Property and the execution or termination of contracts providing for the management or maintenance of the Property, all on such terms as deemed best to protect the security of this Mortgage. The receiver shall be entitled to receive a reasonable fee for so managing the Property. All rents collected pursuant to this paragraph shall be applied first to the costs of taking control of and managing the Property and collecting the rents, including, but not limited to, attorney's fees, receiver's fee, premiums on receiver bonds, costs of repairs to the Property, premiums on insurance policies, taxes, assessments and other charges on the Property, and the costs of discharging any obligation or liability of Borrower as lessor or landlord of the Property and then to the sums secured by this Mortgage. Lender or the receiver shall have access to the books and records used in the operation and maintenance of the Property and shall be liable to account only for those rents actually received. Lender shall not be liable to Borrower, anyone claiming under or through Borrower, or anyone having an interest in the Property by reason of anything done or left undone by Borrower under this paragraph. If the rents of the Property are not sufficient to meet the costs of taking control and managing the Property and collecting the rents, Lender, at its sole option, may advance funds to meet the costs. Any funds expended by Lender for such purposes shall become indebtedness of Borrower to Lender secured by this Mortgage. Unless Lender and Borrower agree in writing to other terms of payment, such amounts shall be payable upon notice from Lender to Borrower requesting payment thereof and shall bear interest from the date of disbursement at the rate stated in the Note. The entering upon and taking and maintaining of control of the Property by Lender or the receiver and the application of rents as provided herein shall not cure or waive any default hereunder or invalidate any other right or remedy of Lender hereunder.

11. Waiver by Lender. Lender may, in its sole discretion, from time to time waive or forbear from enforcing any provision of this Mortgage, and no such waiver or forbearance shall be deemed a waiver by Lender of any right or remedy provided herein or by law or be deemed a waiver of the right at any later time to enforce strictly all provisions of this Mortgage and to exercise any and all remedies provided herein and by law.

12. Waiver by Borrower. Borrower understands that upon default hereunder, among other remedies set out herein and in the above referenced Note, the Lender may foreclose upon the mortgaged premises and ask for a deficiency judgement pursuant to Section 29-3-660, South Carolina Code of Laws (1976). Borrower hereby expressly waives and relinquishes any appraisal rights which Borrower may have under Section 29-3-680 through Section 29-3-780, South Carolina Code of Laws (1976) as amended and understands and agrees that a deficiency judgement, if pursued by Lender shall be determined by the highest price bid at the judicial sale of the Property. Borrower does expressly waive, release and discharge any and all homestead exemptions and rights of redemption as allowed by South Carolina law.

13. Future Advances. Lender, pursuant to Sections 29-3-40 and 50, South Carolina Code of Laws (1976) and at its option, may make Future Advances to Borrower. Such Future Advances, with interest at the rate payable from time to time on the outstanding principal under the Note, shall be secured by this Mortgage when evidenced by the Note or by any other note stating that it is secured by this Mortgage or when advanced under the terms of this Mortgage. Lender may make but is not obligated to make such Future Advances (A) at the request of the Borrower, whether or not there is an obligation to make Future Advances; (B) pursuant to an advance of funds under paragraph 10 above; or (C) to pay, with or without the consent or request of Borrower, any amounts which may be due under any other mortgage or lien affecting the Property.

14. Notices. Any notice given by either party hereto to the other party shall be in writing and shall be signed by the party giving notice. Any notice or other document to be delivered to either party hereto by the other party shall be deemed delivered if mailed postage prepaid to the party to whom directed at the latest address of such party is known to the party sending the same. This paragraph shall not be deemed to prohibit any other manner of delivering a notice or other document.

15. Covenants. Mortgagor covenants that he will not perform any act which might impair or tend to impair the continuation on the real property herein described of all crop allotments and acreage allotments now established or hereafter established on any of the property herein described, and Mortgagor hereby grants to the Mortgagee a lien on and a security interest in all such crop allotments and acreage allotments.

16. Hazardous Substances. Mortgagor for itself, its successors, and assigns represents, warrants and agrees that (a) neither Mortgagor nor any other person has used or installed any Hazardous Material (as hereinafter defined) on the Property or received any notice from any government agency, entity or other person with regard to Hazardous Materials on, from or affecting the Property; (b) neither Mortgagor or any other person has violated any applicable Environmental Laws (as hereinafter defined) relating to or affecting the Property; (c) the Property is presently in compliance with all Environmental Laws; there are no circumstances presently existing upon, or under the Property, or relating to the Property which may violate any applicable Environmental Laws, and there is not now pending, or threatened, any action, suit, investigation or proceeding against Mortgagor relating to the Property (or against any other party relating to the Property) seeking to enforce any right or remedy under any of the Environmental Laws; (d) the Property shall be kept free of Hazardous Materials, and shall not be used to generate, manufacture, transport, treat, store, handle, dispose, or process Hazardous Materials; (e) Mortgagor shall not cause nor permit the installation of Hazardous Materials in the Property nor a release of Hazardous Material onto or from the Property or suffer the presence of Hazardous Materials on the Property; (f) Mortgagor shall at all times comply with and ensure compliance by all other parties with all applicable Environmental Laws relating to or affecting the Property and shall keep the Property free and clear of any liens imposed pursuant to any applicable Environmental Laws; (g) the Mortgagor has obtained and will at all times continue to obtain and/or maintain all licenses, permits and/or other governmental or regulatory actions necessary to comply with Environmental Laws (the "Permits") and the Mortgagor is in full compliance with the terms and provisions of the Permits and will continue to comply with the terms and provisions of the Permits; (h) Mortgagor shall immediately give the Beneficiary oral and written notice in the event that Mortgagor receives any notice from governmental agency, entity, or any other party with regard to Hazardous Materials on, from or affecting the Property and shall conduct and complete all investigations, sampling, and testing, and all remedial, removal, and other actions necessary to clean up and remove all Hazardous Materials on, from or affecting the Property in accordance with all applicable Environmental Laws. The Mortgagor hereby agrees to indemnify the Mortgagee and hold the Mortgagee harmless from and against any and all losses, liabilities, damages, injuries (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees) and claims of any and every kind whatsoever paid, incurred or suffered by, or asserted against Mortgagee for, with respect to, or as a direct or indirect result of (a) the presence on, or under, or the escape, spillage, emission or release from the Property of any Hazardous Material regardless of whether or not caused by or within the control of Mortgagor; (b) the violation of any environmental Laws relating to or affecting the Property, whether or not caused by or within the control of Mortgagor; (c) the failure by Mortgagor to comply fully with the terms and provisions of this paragraph; or (d) any warranty or representation made by Mortgagor in this paragraph being false or untrue in any material respect. For purposes of this Mortgage, "Hazardous Material" means and includes petroleum products, any flammable explosives, radioactive materials, asbestos or any material containing asbestos, and/or any hazardous, toxic or dangerous waste, substance or material defined as such in (or for the purposes of) the Environmental Laws. For the purpose of this Mortgage, "Environmental Laws" means the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act, the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, and "Super Fund" or "Super Lien" law, or any other federal, state, or local law, regulation, or decree regulating, relating to, or imposing liability or standards of conduct concerning petroleum products, any flammable explosives, radioactive materials, asbestos or any material containing asbestos, and/or any hazardous, toxic or dangerous waste, substance or material, as may now or at any time hereafter be in effect. The obligations and liabilities of Mortgagor under this paragraph shall survive the foreclosure of the Mortgage, the delivery of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, the cancellation or release of record of this Mortgage or the payment and cancellation of the Note; or if otherwise expressly permitted in writing by the Mortgagee, the sale or alienation of any part of the Property.

17. Miscellaneous.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD all and singular the Property unto the Lender and the successors and assigns of Lender forever.

BORROWER covenants that Borrower is lawfully seized of the Property in fee simple absolute, that Borrower has good right and is lawfully authorized to sell, convey or encumber the same, and that the Property is free and clear of all encumbrances except as expressly provided in paragraph 15 and otherwise herein. Borrower covenants to warrant and forever defend all and singular the Property unto Lender and the successors or assigns of Lender from and against Borrower and all persons whomsoever lawfully claiming the same or any part thereof.

PROVIDED ALWAYS, nevertheless, and it is the true intent and meaning of Borrower and Lender, that if Borrower pays or causes to be paid to Lender the debt secured hereby, the estate hereby granted shall cease, determine and be utterly null and void; otherwise said estate shall remain in full force and effect.

IT IS AGREED that Borrower shall be entitled to hold and enjoy the Property until a default as herein defined has occurred.

BORROWER further covenants and agrees with Lender as follows:

1. Assignment of Rents and Profits. As further security for all sums secured by this Mortgage, Borrower assigns to Lender all rents and profits arising from the Property; provided, however, that so long as no Default as hereinafter defined has occurred, Borrower shall be entitled to collect and retain all such rents and profits as the sole property of Borrower without accounting to Lender thereof.

2. Care of Property. Borrower will maintain the Property in good condition and repair and will neither permit nor allow waste thereof. Borrower will promptly repair or restore any portion of the Property which is damaged or destroyed by any cause whatsoever and will promptly pay when due all costs and expenses of such repair or restoration. Borrower will not remove or demolish any improvement or fixture which is now or hereafter part of the Property and will cut no timber on the Property without the express written consent of Lender. Lender shall be entitled to specific performance of the provisions of this paragraph.

3. Insurance. (A) Borrower shall at its sole expense obtain for, deliver to, and maintain for the benefit of Lender, during the life of this Mortgage, insurance policies in such amounts as Lender may require, in no event less than the full insurable value, insuring the Property against fire, extended coverage and such other insurable hazards, casualties and contingencies as Lender may require including flood damage, and shall pay promptly, when due, any premiums on such insurance policies and on any renewals thereof. The form of such policies, the companies issuing them, and the coverages provided shall be acceptable to Lender and shall contain a non-contributory mortgage endorsement making losses payable to Lender. At least thirty (30) days prior to the expiration date of all such policies, renewals thereof satisfactory to Lender shall be delivered to Lender. Borrower shall deliver to Lender receipts evidencing the payment of all premiums on such insurance policies and renewals. In the event of loss, Borrower will give written notice to Lender, and Lender may make proof of loss if not made promptly by Borrower. In the event of the foreclosure of this Mortgage or any other transfer of title to the Property in extinguishment of the indebtedness and other sums secured hereby, all right, title, and interest of Borrower in and to all insurance policies and renewals thereof then in force shall pass to the grantee. Upon the failure of Borrower to obtain and maintain insurance satisfactory to Lender, Lender may at its own discretion procure and substitute for any and all of the insurance so held as aforesaid, such other policy or policies of insurance, in such amount as Lender, acting in its sole discretion, may determine; all without prejudice to its right to foreclosure hereunder should Borrower fail or refuse to keep said premises so insured.

(B) Borrower hereby assigns to Lender all proceeds from any insurance policies, and Lender is hereby authorized and empowered in its reasonable discretion, to adjust or compromise any loss under any insurance policies on the Property, and to collect and receive the proceeds from any such policy or policies. Each insurance company is hereby authorized and directed to make payment for all such losses directly to Lender alone, and not to Borrower and Lender jointly. After deducting such insurance proceeds any expenses incurred by Lender in the collection or handling of such funds, Lender, acting in its sole discretion, may; apply the net proceeds (I) to the payment of any sum secured by this Mortgage in such order as Lender may determine or (II) to the replacement, repair or restoration of the portion of the Property damaged or destroyed in a manner determined by Lender; or may release said net proceeds to the Borrower upon such conditions as Lender shall determine; or may apply said net proceeds for any combination of the foregoing; all without affecting the lien of this Mortgage for the full amount secured hereby before such payment took place. If Lender elects to restore the improvements, any balance of such monies after restoration shall either be applied toward the reduction of indebtedness and any other sums secured hereby or shall be paid to Borrower. Lender shall not be responsible for any failure to collect any insurance proceeds due under the terms of any policy regardless of the cause of such failure.

(C) Borrower shall at its sole expense obtain for, deliver to and maintain for the benefit of Lender, during the life of this Mortgage, liability insurance policies relating to the Property, in such amounts, with such companies and in such form as may be reasonably required by Lender. Lender may require such policies to contain an endorsement, in form satisfactory to Lender, naming Lender as an additional insured thereof. Borrower shall pay promptly, when due, any premiums on such insurance policies and renewals thereof.

4. Taxes and Assessments. Borrower will pay all taxes, assessments and other charges which constitute or are secured by a lien upon the Property which is superior to the lien of this Mortgage and will deliver to Lender proof of payment of the same not less than ten (10) days prior to the date the same becomes delinquent; provided, however, that Borrower shall be entitled by appropriate proceedings to contest the amount or validity of such tax, assessment or charge so long as the collection of the same by foreclosure of the lien upon the Property is stayed during the pendency of such proceedings and Borrower deposits with the authority to which such tax, assessment or charge is payable or with Lender appropriate security for payment of the same together with any applicable interest and penalties, should the same be determined due and owing.

5. Expenditures by Lender. If Borrower fails to make payment for restoration or repair of the Property, for insurance premiums or for taxes, assessments or other charges as required in this Mortgage, Lender may, but shall not be obligated to, pay for the same, and any such payment by Lender will be secured by this Mortgage and have the same rank and priority as the principal debt secured hereby and bear interest from the date of payment at the rate payable from time to time on indebtedness evidenced under the Note. Uniform Residential Appraisal Report

This report form is designed to report an appraisal of a one-unit property or a one-unit property with an accessory unit; including a unit in a planned unit development (PUD). This report form is not designed to report an appraisal of a manufactured home or a unit in a condominium or cooperative project.

This appraisal report is subject to the following scope of work, intended use, intended user, definition of market value, statement of assumptions and limiting conditions, and certifications. Modifications, additions, or deletions to the intended use, intended user, definition of market value, or assumptions and limiting conditions are not permitted. The appraiser may expand the scope of work to include any additional research or analysis necessary based on the complexity of this appraisal assignment. Modifications or deletions to the certifications are also not permitted. However, additional certifications that do not constitute material alterations to this appraisal report, such as those required by law or those related to the appraiser's continuing education or membership in an appraisal organization, are permitted.

SCOPE OF WORK: The scope of work for this appraisal is defined by the complexity of this appraisal assignment and the reporting requirements of this appraisal report form, including the following definition of market value, statement of assumptions and limiting conditions, and certifications. The appraiser must, at a minimum: (1) perform a complete visual inspection of the interior and exterior areas of the subject property, (2) inspect the neighborhood, (3) inspect each of the comparable sales from at least the street, (4) research, verify, and analyze data from reliable public and/or private sources, and (5) report his or her analysis, opinions, and conclusions in this appraisal report.

INTENDED USE: The intended use of this appraisal report is for the lender/client to evaluate the property that is the subject of this appraisal for a mortgage finance transaction.

INTENDED USER: The intended user of this appraisal report is the lender/client.

DEFINITION OF MARKET VALUE: The most probable price which a property should bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions requisite to a fair sale, the buyer and seller, each acting prudently, knowledgeably and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus. Implicit in this definition is the consummation of a sale as of a specified date and the passing of title from seller to buyer under conditions whereby: (1) buyer and seller are typically motivated; (2) both parties are well informed or well advised, and each acting in what he or she considers his or her own best interest; (3) a reasonable time is allowed for exposure in the open market; (4) payment is made in terms of cash in U. S. dollars or in terms of financial arrangements comparable thereto; and (5) the price represents the normal consideration for the property sold unaffected by special or creative financing or sales concessions* granted by anyone associated with the sale.

*Adjustments to the comparables must be made for special or creative financing or sales concessions. No adjustments are necessary for those costs which are normally paid by sellers as a result of tradition or law in a market area; these costs are readily identifiable since the seller pays these costs in virtually all sales transactions. Special or creative financing adjustments can be made to the comparable property by comparisons to financing terms offered by a third party institutional lender that is not already involved in the property or transaction. Any adjustment should not be calculated on a mechanical dollar for dollar cost of the financing or concession but the dollar amount of any adjustment should approximate the market's reaction to the financing or concessions based on the appraiser's judgment.

STATEMENT OF ASSUMPTIONS AND LIMITING CONDITIONS: The appraiser's certification in this report is subject to the following assumptions and limiting conditions:

1. The appraiser will not be responsible for matters of a legal nature that affect either the property being appraised or the title to it, except for information that he or she became aware of during the research involved in performing this appraisal. The appraiser assumes that the title is good and marketable and will not render any opinions about the title.

2. The appraiser has provided a sketch in this appraisal report to show the approximate dimensions of the improvements. The sketch is included only to assist the reader in visualizing the property and understanding the appraiser's determination of its size.

3. The appraiser has examined the available flood maps that are provided by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (or other data sources) and has noted in this appraisal report whether any portion of the subject site is located in an identified Special Flood Hazard Area. Because the appraiser is not a surveyor, he or she makes no guarantees, express or implied, regarding this determination.

4. The appraiser will not give testimony or appear in court because he or she made an appraisal of the property in question, unless specific arrangements to do so have been made beforehand, or as otherwise required by law.

5. The appraiser has noted in this appraisal report any adverse conditions (such as needed repairs, deterioration, the presence of hazardous wastes, toxic substances, etc.) observed during the inspection of the subject property or that he or she became aware of during the research involved in performing the appraisal. Unless otherwise stated in this appraisal report, the appraiser has no knowledge of any hidden or unapparent physical deficiencies or adverse conditions of the property (such as, but not limited to, needed repairs, deterioration, the presence of hazardous wastes, toxic substances, adverse environmental conditions, etc.) that would make the property less valuable, and has assumed that there are no such conditions and makes no guarantees or warranties, express or implied. The appraiser will not be responsible for any such conditions that do exist or for any engineering or testing that might be required to discover whether such conditions exist. Because the appraiser is not an expert in the field of environmental hazards, this appraisal report must not be considered as an environmental assessment of the property.

6. The appraiser has based his or her appraisal report and valuation conclusion for an appraisal that is subject to satisfactory completion, repairs, or alterations on the assumption that the completion, repairs, or alterations of the subject property will be performed in a professional manner.

5. I researched, verified, analyzed, and reported on any current agreement for sale for the subject property, any offering for sale of the subject property in the twelve months prior to the effective date of this appraisal, and the prior sales of the subject property for a minimum of three years prior to the effective date of this appraisal, unless otherwise indicated in this report.

6. I researched, verified, analyzed, and reported on the prior sales of the comparable sales for a minimum of one year prior to the date of sale of the comparable sale, unless otherwise indicated in this report.

I have considered these adverse conditions in my analysis of the property value, and have reported on the effect of the conditions on the value and marketability of the subject property.

15. I have not knowingly withheld any significant information from this appraisal report and, to the best of my knowledge, all statements and information in this appraisal report are true and correct.

16. I stated in this appraisal report my own personal, unbiased, and professional analysis, opinions, and conclusions, which are subject only to the assumptions and limiting conditions in this appraisal report.

17. I have no present or prospective interest in the property that is the subject of this report, and I have no present or prospective personal interest or bias with respect to the participants in the transaction. I did not base, either partially or completely, my analysis and/or opinion of market value in this appraisal report on the race, color, religion, sex, age, marital status, handicap, familial status, or national origin of either the prospective owners or occupants of the subject property or of the present owners or occupants of the properties in the vicinity of the subject property or on any other basis prohibited by law.

18. My employment and/or compensation for performing this appraisal or any future or anticipated appraisals was not conditioned on any agreement or understanding, written or otherwise, that I would report (or present analysis supporting) a predetermined specific value, a predetermined minimum value, a range or direction in value, a value that favors the cause of any party, or the attainment of a specific result or occurrence of a specific subsequent event (such as approval of a pending mortgage loan application).

19. I personally prepared all conclusions and opinions about the real estate that were set forth in this appraisal report. If I relied on significant real property appraisal assistance from any individual or individuals in the performance of this appraisal or the preparation of this appraisal report, I have named such individual(s) and disclosed the specific tasks performed in this appraisal report. I certify that any individual so named is qualified to perform the tasks. I have not authorized anyone to make a change to any item in this appraisal report; therefore, any change made to this appraisal is unauthorized and I will take no responsibility for it.

20. I identified the lender/client in this appraisal report who is the individual, organization, or agent for the organization that ordered and will receive this appraisal report.

NOTE TO ALL INTENDED USERS: Please read the following statement of limiting conditions and appraiser's certification and the additional comments (see below) carefully.

The purpose of the appraisal is to estimate the market value of the subject property, as defined in this report, as of the effective date of this report.

The intended use of this appraisal is to assist the clients and any other intended users in the underwriting, approval, and funding of the mortgage loan. The intended users of this report are the stated clients and any other institutions involved in the underwriting, approval, and funding of the mortgage loan. No one else, including the buyer and seller, should rely on this report. The appraiser has met all of the supplemental standards of the intended users of the report, that are listed above, unless these standards conflict with or contradict the requirements of the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice.

The current Uniform Standards of Professional Practice defines the market value conclusion as an opinion of market value and not an estimate of market value, as defined in this report, as of the effective date of this report.

A Full Inspection includes an inspection of the entire site, the inspection of all sides of the exterior of the dwelling, all areas of the interior, the basement or crawl space (if any), the attic (if any), and any detached structures. The appraiser has extensively researched the physical and economic factors that could affect the property. The search for data concerning the valuation of the subject property was extensive and is detailed in the following paragraph. All information has been analyzed fully and all appropriate approaches to value have been utilized. The scope of work is consistent with the requirements of a COMPLETE APPRAISAL.

The term "Inspection", as used in this report, is not the same level of inspection that is required for a "Professional Home Inspection". The appraiser does not fully inspect the electrical system, plumbing system, mechanical systems, foundation system, floor structure, roofing system or subfloor. The appraiser is not an expert in construction materials and the purpose of the appraisal is to make an economic evaluation of the subject property. If the client needs a more detailed inspection of the property, a home inspection, by a Professional Home Inspector, is suggested.

The estimated exposure time is based on the marketing times of actual sales in the market area. Sales were analyzed and the average of their marketing times was used as the exposure time for the subject property. Exposure times change based on the type of property, economic cycles, location and season of the year.

The signature(s) affixed to this report, and certification, were applied by the original appraiser(s) or supervisory appraiser and represent their acknowledgements of the facts, opinions and conclusions found in the report. Each appraiser(s) applied his or her signature electronically using a password encrypted method. Hence these signatures have more safeguards and carry the same validity as the individual's hand applied signature. If the report has a hand-applied signature, this comment does not apply.

The known payment of closing costs, points, buydowns or other sales concessions by the seller or purchaser have been taken into consideration by the appraiser when reconciling applicable data. It is the appraisers's opinion that if no adjustments are made on this form, there was no significant affect on the value of the subject property.

Survey and title search by professionals are recommended to ascertain whether there are or are not any easements, encroachments and to verify site size and flood zone information. This information should be reviewed by an attorney at the time of closing.

Appraisers are not qualified to detect problems with heating and air conditioning systems, termite or termite damage, mold infestation, water damage, mechanical, structural or engineering inadequacies that may or may not relate to the subject property at the time of this appraisal inspection. It is recommended that all buyers be aware and request a home inspection be made to determine if there are any problems relating to the structure or if any deferred maintenance exists. Typical contracts for sale in this area are contingent upon acceptable wood infestation reports and HVAC inspections, and any problems with these items will in all probability be corrected prior to the closing of the subject property or any of the comparable sales in this report. It is also assumed that these conditions, if any, have or will be corrected. The appraised value therefore is contingent upon completion of an acceptable and competent inspection.

NOTE TO UNDERWRITER:

All comparables used in this appraisal are the best available with similar construction, livability and utility at the time of the inspection.

Due to the lack of current closed sales within the immediate subject neighborhood, the appraiser selected comparable sales from nearby neighborhoods offering similar amenity, value range and market appeal when compared to the subject. Any appropriate locational adjustment or site/view adjustment is a market extraction based on available market data. The similarities of the neighborhoods used justify such data selection. Some or all of the comparables used in this report may be 5-20 or more miles from the subject property. This is also due to the lack of current close sales in the subject's neighborhood.

This appraisal is based on the information gathered by the appraiser from public records, other identified sources, inspection of the subject property and neighborhood; and selection of comparable sales, listings, and/or rentals within the subject market area. The original source of the comparable described in the Data Source section of the market grid along the source of confirmation, if available, are shown in the report. The original source is presented first. The sources and data are considered reliable but the appraiser cannot guarantee the validity of the information. When conflicting information was provided, the source deemed most reliable has been used. Data believed to be unreliable was not included in the report or used as a basis for the value conclusion.

Reconciliation of market data is given to real estate only and no items of personal property are included or considered in the final value estimate.

This appraisal report is also subject to the attached "Certification and Statement of Limiting Conditions". PLEASE READ CAREFULLY.

Gentlemen:

In consideration of your making, renewing or extending a loan or loans to hereinafter referred to as the borrower, for which the following property belonging to me has been tendered to you as collateral security:

LOTS 40 CLAYTON ST , LOT 68 COUNTRY CLUB DR, LOT 48 LONG AVE EXT, LOT 67 COUNTRY CLUB DR 104 COUNTRY CLUB DR CONWAY SC for the purpose of enabling said borrower to obtain credit therefore, I hereby certify that the said property has been duly assigned, released, transferred and delivered to me to said borrower, and by these presents I do hereby assign, release, and transfer unto said borrower all of my rights, title, and interest in and to said property, and hereby expressly authorize said borrower to pledge or hypothecate all or any part of said property for the indebtedness aforesaid, and all renewal and any extensions thereof, and also for any and all other indebtedness of the same borrower to you, created at any time before this authorization shall have been revoked in writing and all renewals and extensions thereof, and I waive notice of all or any such indebtedness or extension or renewal thereof.

Furthermore, I request that you give or continue to give said borrower credit in the form of loans or renewals or extensions as aforesaid, and in consideration of all or any such credit so granted by you, I agree that all or any property pledged or hypothecated, as aforesaid, shall be subject in our hands or those of your assignees or pledgee or pledgees, to all powers which would apply thereto by contract or otherwise if said property in fact so pledged or hypothecated stood in the name of said borrower himself and not in my name.
