Thanks, Shannon.

I was just confused on who had what after Mr. Timbes said he had the first half already. I understand you are looking for the second half of the hearing, but, unfortunately, Court Administration could only locate the first half of the hearing from the files of the former court reporter, Krista Carney. So I should just cancel this order, right, because you already have the first half?

Thank you, Bobbi.

I actually have the first part of the 12/16 proceeding already and was hoping we would be able to get the second half. If that is not available, I do not need a reproduction of the first half. Do you have any suggestions on how we might be able to find the second half? You are correct—we broke at the half-way point and came back in afternoon for further proceedings.

Please provide delivery for the 4/18 transcript by PDF/email.

Many thanks!

Dear Mr. Timbes:

I received your transcript request on Thursday, 5/5, requesting two transcripts in this case of Holliday Wallin v Holliday.

The first case, heard on 12/16/2020, was taken down by a former court reporter, Krista Carney. We were only able to find the first portion of this hearing in her files. It seems that this hearing had started and then resumed at some point maybe later that day. We only have the first portion, which is 30 pages. This is a copy so it would be $30.

The second case, heard on 4/18/22, was by DCRP. I will be producing this one as well.

Please let me know how you would like delivery:

- PDF/email -- add $40 fee
- Hard copy/Priority Mail -- add $9 fee
- Both -- add $49 fee

Thanks!
