Ms.Cendroski,

Thank you for the explanation. I will send the certified check to you today. I hope the audio is clear because we have to stand when we speak at the hearings, but you can't control that so I appreciate your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,
Janet Frisco,

Appellate Case #2022-00775

Ms. Frisco,

I was assigned to do the transcript because I am certified to do official transcripts through the DCRP program. Some court monitors are not certified to do the transcripts, but only run the machines. I am guessing that your court reporter is not certified to do transcripts because if she was she would have gotten the request. The DCRP assigns certified court reporters to do the official transcript off of the recordings. I can assure you it will be accurate as long as the audio is clear and everyone was speaking into the microphone. I have been doing my job for over 17 years now, so I have the experience to do it. That being said, I will copy this e-mail to court administration and if you still wish to be assigned another court reporter, you can ask court administration if they will give it to another court reporter.

Dear Ms. Cendroski,

I couldn't find your attached letter with the information I needed to send in the payment. All I saw attached was my original transcript request form and the email I sent with it. Would you please resend the letter with your reply to this e-mail.

Also, I would like to request that the same court reporter who was at the April 22, 2022 hearing who was list as Caressa Johnson on court records prepare the transcript because it's very important that it be accurate since this appeal will determine whether I have to pay thousands of dollars to Pet Helpers, Inc. I am not familiar with court proceedings, but it does not seem like it would be out of order for me to request the same court reporter who was present at the hearing to be the person who prepares the transcript.

Thank you

Janet L. Frisco,
