RE: Appellate Case No. 2022-000464

From: Fry Carl J. Chisolm Agency No. 185789
Kershaw C.I. CYP 44-A

Date: 6/9/22

Ms. Hitchings,

I received the "Order" handed down by the Court of Appeals Justice filed 5/9/22 that remanded the above stated case back to the Administrative Law Court for correction. Thank you.

Nonetheless, I've enclosed my "Final Argument" concerning this matter and I did send a copy to Ms. Christina C. Bigelow. As for my status, I'm still currently housed at the Kershaw C.I. Cypress 44-A bldg. Should my status change, I'll have my sister contact the Court to ensure my location is known.

With kind regards,

All Matters In Relation To:

Appellate Case No. 2022-000464

To Whom This may Concern:

Every item of reference to the above reference case has been withheld or diverted, in part and often times in it's entirety. There has been numerous filings that hasn't reached the intended party (in particular opposing counsel) due to tampering with postal service. Concerning Carl S. Chisolm no. 185789 here at Kershaw Corn. Inst. mailroom services, I've enclosed envelope date stamped and signed by serving APC, so that the Court will have clear proof, of these misleading events, as well as, lack of professional decorum. I did provide this honorable Court with full proof and the individual responsible for these discrepancies. As of this time, I am requesting that the Court return the evidence I provided, so that, I can properly file a motion with the Tort Court, to ensure this individual stop her vindictive tactics. I do believe tampering with Postal Service, as well as, legal mail is considered a Federal Offense?

Thank you for your time and attention in this matter.

Sincerely,

cc: Christina C. Bigelow, Esq.

SC Court of Appeals

The above named appellant (Carl S. Chisolm #185789) while being housed at the Perry Corr. Inst, filed a Step 1 grievance against the officials, after numerous attempts to resolve a health issue that resulted in Appellant contracting the deadly Covid-19 virus. In which stemmed from his cellmate bringing contaminated items into their living space, despite the protocol, memo's, lectures, handed down by top SCDC officials. After Appellate received no resolution from his Step 1 grievance, he filed a timely Step 2 grievance ^{with the} ~~was~~ same result. As a result thereof, Appellate filed an appeal with Admin. Law Court identified as [docket no. 22-ALS-04-0010-AP]. On Mar. 31, 2022 an "Order of Dismissal" was handed down and on April 13, 2022 Appellate filed a notice of appeal with the S.C. Court of Appeals; but, Appellate failed in sending same notice to opposing Counsel. The Appellant corrected this flaw and refiled said notice of Appeal on all parties April 15, 2022 (Initial Appeal).

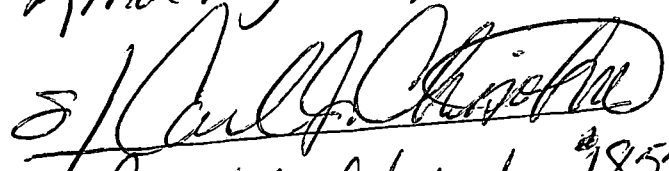

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Moreover, on May 9, 2022 the honorable Justice of the S.C. Court of Appeals had this proceeding remanded to the Admin. Law Court for typographical correction and as a result thereof; Appellant has made requested corrections and provided this Court and opposing Counsel with his "Final Argument".

Appellant would like to remind the Court that he's just a layman of the law and not even close to being a licensed attorney; so, please do not hold him to those same standards. Appellant also would like to bring to the Court's attention that he didn't receive the Court's previous requests dated June 2, 2022 until June 9, 2022 and the corrected "Order of Dismissal" dated May 26, 2022 until June 9, 2022. I've enclosed both envelopes for the Court's verification. It should be duly noted that an issue of distribution of legal mail to this Appellant does exist at the Kershaw Corr. Inst. Please note that I had both envelopes signed and duly noted upon receipt.

With kind regards,

Re: Carl Chisolm, #185789 v. SCDC (2)
Appellate Case No. 2022-000464

Dear Mr. Chisolm:

The Court is in receipt of the requested Amended Order of Dismissal from the Administrative Law Court. The timelines in this case will no longer be held in abeyance. In order for this case to proceed, the following notice of appeal deficiency will need to be corrected in its entirety: a corrected proof of service showing timely service of the notice of appeal on opposing counsel must be served and filed. The initial date of when the notice of appeal was served on South Carolina Department of Corrections must be on the document. Failure to comply with the Court's request within 10 days will result in the dismissal of this appeal.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen
