RE: Appellate Case No. 2021-001504

I received the Order from you on Monday, June 13th, that was filed on the 9th. This is good news. I am recovering from hip replacement surgery after I fell in March, and Tuesday of this week my computer system went out. Two things in response to the Order. I already submitted my Initial Brief with Proof of Service to Claire Allen with an attached letter via USPS, on January 12, 2022, asking that it be reviewed for any errors or suggestions. If there were any, I said I would be glad to make the changes. I also mailed copies of the Brief to Respondent's attorney, and to my brother, William Stovall, Defendant. The documents should be in your offices. I never received any acknowledgement from Ms. Allen, other than the notice that my Appeal had been denied, filed on March 28, 2022. For that reason, I did not follow up. I have three file boxes full of paperwork related to this case, including all documents, so obtaining copies is not a problem.

If it is necessary for me to re-file the Brief and attached documents, I will be able to send copies of them. Since I received your letter on June 13th and I have 30 days to file – or re-file, that would be due on July 13th. It is also my understanding that the Appeal documents will actually be read by the Judges and opinions written by them – not by the respective attorneys – in this case the Truluck attorney. Obviously, as could be observed by watching the Zoom tapings, the Judges in previous hearings did not read the Designations of Matter or even look at them.

Anything you can do to facilitate the proper processing of this Appeal will be greatly appreciated. I can be reached on my cell phone, which is 972-983-4712
