RE: Daufuskie Island Utility Co., Inc. v. South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff, et al.
Appellate Case No. 2022-000463
Supplemental Correspondence – Motion for Second Extension

Dear Ms. Howard:

Earlier today our office filed Appellant's Motion for Second Extension of Deadline for Filing Initial Brief. As of that filing I had not yet been able to confirm the position of Respondents with regard to the relief sought.

Since the filing of that Motion counsel for the Respondents have indicated by email that they do not oppose the extension. Copies of those emails are attached hereto.

Please let me know if you require any further action from us with regard to this Motion.

Yours very truly,

Gentlemen:

I may have to ask for a 30-day extension to file the Appellant's Initial Brief in DIUC v. SC ORS, et al., Appellate Case No. 2022-000463. The new date would be August 5, 2022.

I have had two staff members out with Covid for a week and then on Friday we received an extensive order from the Administrative Law Court. We must file a responsive motion for that Order no later than July 5. Appellant's Initial Brief in this case is currently due July 6.

Will you consent to the extension? If so, please reply at your earliest convenience.

Thanks so much,

Tom
