This matter came before the Court on June 2, 2022. by way of Appellant's Appeal from Magistrate Court. Appellant alleges that Magistrate Judge Templeton did not perform due diligence on the S.C. Stay rental assistance program and therefore erred in finding Appellant considerably behind on rent and ordering Appellant to pay arrears. The Magistrate's return indicates that upon review of the receipts provided by Appellant, he was still behind on rent. The Magistrate also stated that he was provided at the November 3, 2021 hearing that Appellant had actually received money from the S.C. Stay rental assistance program.
