(Jury Trial Demanded)

PARTIES AND JURISDICTION

1. That, Joseph N. Grate, the plaintiff in this civil action, states as follows:
2. Plaintiff is a citizen and resident of Georgetown County, South Carolina.
3. Defendant Christopher Douglas Brown was and believably is a citizen and resident of Georgetown County, South Carolina.
4. Defendant Hertz Vehicles LLC was the owner of the Vehicle at issue herein.
5. State Farm Insurance was the Insurer of the Vehicles at issue herein.

FACTS

1. On February 28, 2018, Plaintiff was driving his Pick-up Truck Northbound on U.S. Highway 17.
2. At the same time, Defendant Brown was directly behind Plaintiff, also traveling Northbound, driving the Hertz Vehicle and collided with the rear of Plaintiff's Truck.

3. As the results of the collision, Plaintiff has incurred medical expenses, has suffered severe pain and loss of income.
4. At the time of the collision, Defendant Hertz Vehicle LLC was the owner of the vehicle driven by Defendant Brown.
5. At the time of the collision, State Farm Insurance was the insurer of the subject vehicles and or Defendant Brown.
6. In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff submits the following, good faith tabulation of costs:

7. TABULATION OF COST

The cost of repair of Plaintiff's Truck, (estimate).....	$3,903.04
Missed work, ...	$2,250.00
Taillight replacement cost, ...	$72.12
Doctor's Treatment cost, ...	$730.00
Rehab Equipment cost	$544.84
TOTAL.....	$7,500.00

FOR FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

AS TO DEFENDANT BROWN

1. Plaintiff, with reference the paragraphs above and the incorporation of same, herein states as follows:
2. Defendant Brown was legally obligated to be in control of the vehicle and to operate it safely.
3. Defendant Brown was careless and negligent, with regards his legal duties associated with operating the vehicle.
4. As the result of the collision, Plaintiff was subsequently encountered and cited by South Carolina Highway Patrol for damaged Taillight.

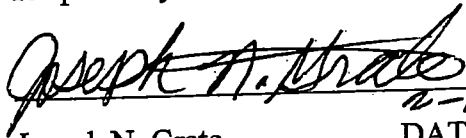

FOR SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

AS TO DEFENDANTS

1. Plaintiff, with reference the paragraphs above and the incorporation of same, herein states as follows:
2. Defendants are liable for the collision and should have accepted responsibility for and provided appropriate remedies and consideration for same, in accordance with all laws pertaining thereto.

Wherefore, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants for ACTUAL, CONSEQUENTIAL AND PUNATIVE DAMAGES as may be determined by the trier of facts, for all costs associated with the bringing of this action, and for such and other relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

The grounds for the motion is Plaintiff's claim against the Defendants is barred because the motor vehicle collision giving rise to Plaintiff's claim occurred on February 28, 2018; however, Plaintiff's action against the Defendants was not filed until March 9, 2021. This information can be gathered from the Plaintiff's Complaint and from this case's Georgetown County Fifteenth Judicial Circuit Public Index summary (attached hereto as Exhibit A). Therefore, Plaintiff missed the statute of limitations to commence this action.

A three-year statute of limitations applies to Plaintiff's negligence, personal injury, and property damage claims. S.C. Code Ann. § 15-3-530 (5). An action must be commenced within three years after Plaintiff knew or by the exercise of reasonable diligence should have known that he had a cause of action. S.C. Code Ann. § 15-3-535. The statute of limitations on a claim for damages for personal injuries sustained in an automobile accident begins to run on the date of the accident. Wiggins v. Edwards, 314 S.C. 126, 442 S.E. 2d 169 (S.C. 1994). In this case, Plaintiff's Complaint plainly shows that the action was not filed and thus commenced within the three-year statute of limitations. Therefore, the action should be dismissed based upon the statute of limitations and/or Rule 12 (c) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.

James K. McKenzie, Magistrate

Civil Case No. 2021-CV-22-1070017

Respondents

v.

Joseph N. Grate,

Appellant

NOTICE OF APPEAL

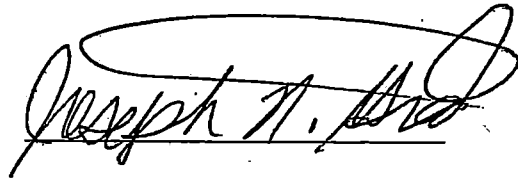

Joseph N. Grate appeals the judgment of The Honorable James K. McKenzie, dated June 21, 2021. Appellant received written notice of entry of this judgment on July 28, 2021.

Pursuant to Rule 18 of South Carolina Rules of Magistrates Court,

Appellant herein appeal the disposition of the case, on the following grounds:

1. That the verdict, insofar as it related to damages, was against the weight of the evidence.
2. That the award of damages was grossly inadequate .
3. That a jury verdict is against the weight of the evidence, especially given the fact that the jury found in favor of plaintiff and against the defendant Brown, on liability. Therefore, the issue of whether the jury verdict as to damages was fair and reasonable, in light of the evidence that was presented and uncontradicted, points to a glaring miscarriage of justice due to an improper verdict, with respect to the absence of award for Appellant's Medical and Lost Work Claims.

TO: JOSEPH N. GRATE, APPELLANT :

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on the tenth (10) day after service hereof, or at such time and date as may be assigned by the Court, Respondent, by and through the undersigned attorneys, will move before the Presiding Judge of the Court of Common Pleas - Georgetown County for an order dismissing this appeal based upon S.C. Code Ann. § 18-7-20, S.C. Code Ann. § 22-3-1000, and Rule 18 of the South Carolina Rules of Magistrates Court.

The ground for the motion is Appellant's Notice of Appeal was not timely served and filed in accordance with the statutory requirement set out in S.C. Code Ann. § 18-7-20 and in S.C. Code Ann. § 22-3-1000 and the requirement of Rule 18 of the South Carolina Rules of Magistrates Court. The relevant portion of S.C. Code Ann. § 18-7-20 provides (with emphasis added): "The appellant, within thirty days after written notice of judgment has been given him or his attorney by the magistrate, recorder, or judge of the municipal court, except when the judgment is announced at the trial in the presence of the appellant or his attorney then no written notice is necessary, shall serve a notice of appeal, stating the grounds upon which the appeal is founded.” The relevant portion of S.C. Code Ann. § 22-3-1000 states: “The right of appeal from the judgment exists for thirty days after the rendering of the judgment.” Rule 18 of the South Carolina Rules of Magistrates Court states in part ... “If the judgment is announced at the trial in the presence of the parties or their attorneys, the notice of appeal shall be served and filed within thirty (30) days of the date the judgment is announced.” ... Appellant’s underlying case was tried pro se by the Appellant before Magistrate James K. McKenzie and a jury on June 16, 2021. At the conclusion of the trial on June 16, 2021, Magistrate McKenzie announced the jury’s verdict in open court in the presence of the Appellant and counsel for Respondent. Thirty (30) days from June 16, 2021 is July 16, 2021. Therefore, to comply with the above stated statutes and rule Appellant should have served and filed Appellant’s Notice of Appeal by July 16, 2021. Appellant did not serve and file the Notice of Appeal until July 21, 2021. The Notice of Appeal is not timely. Therefore, the appeal should be dismissed because the service and filing of the Notice of Appeal fails to meet the requirement of S.C. Code Ann. § 18-7-20, S.C. Code Ann. § 22-3-1000, and Rule 18 of the South Carolina Rules of Magistrates Court.

THE COURT: This is 2021-CP-22-00605, Joseph N. Grate versus Christopher Douglas Brown and others. According to my roster the matter is before the Court on a Motion to Dismiss Appeal and also a motion, no doc?

THE CLERK: That's the motion for appeal.

THE COURT: Okay. There's also a Motion for Recusal.

THE CLERK: Which is not on -- he submitted that.

THE COURT: That was November 1st.

THE CLERK: Right.

THE COURT: So it's a Motion to Dismiss the Appeal and then the appeal.

THE CLERK: Right.

THE COURT: Okay. Well, I guess we're going to have to address this Motion for Recusal that Mr. Grate filed. Mr. Grate?

MR. GRATE: Yes, sir?

THE COURT: Let me ask you, you've filed a motion for me to recuse myself from presiding over this appeal. What is the basis for that motion?

MR. GRATE: Your Honor, do you really want me to say it, to read it out?

THE COURT: If you want me to recuse myself we've got to put it on the record.

MR. GRATE: Yes, sir, in interest on justice, sir.

1 THE COURT: I'm going to deny that motion. Mr.
2 Thomas, let me hear from you on your Motion to Dismiss the 3 Appeal.

4 MR. THOMAS: Thank you, Your Honor. Your Honor, our
5 Motion to Dismiss the Appeal is based on the South Carolina
6 Code 18720, code 22-3-1000 and Rule 18, Rules of Magistrate
7 Court. Your Honor, the pertinent portion of the statute say
8 the appellant has 30 days after written notice of a judgment
9 has been given to Notice of Appeal, except when the judgment is 10 announced at the trial in the presence of the appellant or his 11 attorney, then no written notice is necessary. This is 12 reiterated in Rule 18 in the Rules of Magistrate Court which 13 says that if the judgment is announced at the trial in the 14 presence of the parties and their attorneys Notice of Appeals
15 shall be filed within 30 days that the judgment is announced.
16 Your Honor, this case was tried before Magistrate McKenzie on 17 June 16th. The verdict was announced in open court. Mr.
18 Grate was present. He represented himself pro se. He was 19 present when the judgment was announced and then 30 days from 20 June 16th would have made his appeal due July 16, 2021. He 21 didn't notice this appeal until after that time frame, he 22 noticed it July 21st, it's not timely, and we move to dismiss
23 the appeal.

24 THE COURT: So you said -- when was the --

25 MR. THOMAS: The trial was June 16th, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Was there an order issued?

2 MR. THOMAS: Subsequently, there was.

3 THE COURT: And when was that order issued?

4 MR. THOMAS: That order -- well, the Magistrate Court
5 judgment was entered, that was dated June 21st.

6 THE COURT: Okay. And he filed this July 21st?

7 MR. THOMAS: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: I'm going to deny the motion. I'm going
9 to let him go ahead and go forward with it.

10 MR. THOMAS: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Grate, you're appealing the decision
12 of the Magistrate?

13 MR. GRATE: Your Honor, yes, however, please, with 14 respect to my Motion for Recusal, I understand you're not going 15 to recuse yourself. There's another part to that, also.

16 THE COURT: That's why I asked you, I've already
17 ruled on that motion, and I've heard his Motion to Dismiss. So 18 that matter has already been disposed of.

19 MR. GRATE: I understand, Your Honor. There's a 20 section pertaining to the court reporter, also.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Well, we've got a different court
22 reporter.

23 MR. GRATE: Okay.

24 THE COURT: Alright, go ahead.

25

1 MR. GRATE: Your Honor, --

2 THE COURT: Well, wait a minute, let me check and
3 see, I don't know that I've -- there's no return. Mr. Grate,
4 let me hear from you. Did you send your Notice of Appeal to 5 the Magistrate?

6 MR. GRATE: Your Honor, I don't remember right now,
7 sir.

8 THE COURT: I mean, because there's no record of an
9 appeal filed by the Magistrate. When you file your appeal
10 you're supposed to serve the Magistrate then the Magistrate
11 sends us the record of appeal as to what he or she did.
12 I don't know what -- well, wait a minute, let me see: Central 13 Jury Court, have not received any notice of appeal, and the 14 case was disposed until this present date. But there's no
15 date. Alright, Mr. Grate, let me hear from you. Go ahead.

16 MR. GRATE: Your Honor, I'm appealing the decision or 17 the verdict of the jury. With respect to the awards, the jury
18 did not award any damages, and I submitted clear evidence,
19 supporting evidence for all of my claims. They were not
20 refuted in any way, they were not challenged, therefore, I
21 think that I'm entitled to be awarded the damage that I claim
22 based on the substantial evidence rule, and I would like to 23 submit the documentation of my evidence that I submitted.

24 THE COURT: That's what I'm saying is, you're 25 supposed to send your Notice of Appeal to the Magistrate and

1 then the Magistrate sends me everything that was presented
2 during the trial of the case.

3 MR. GRATE: I really don't remember right now if I
4 did send that, sir.

5 THE COURT: I've got a letter in here from the 6 Magistrate saying they never received a notice of it, or from 7 the Magistrate's clerk.

8 MR. GRATE: Well, if that's the case I would request
9 a continuance so as to rectify that situation.

10 THE COURT: Let me hear from Mr. Thomas.

11 MR. THOMAS: Your Honor, I would certainly oppose any 12 continuance. Your Honor, this case was tried before a jury.
13 The jury heard all the evidence. We certainly did contest his 14 damages. The jury rendered a verdict, I didn't have to believe 15 everything that he presented or everything he said and they 16 rendered a verdict accordingly.

17 THE COURT: What is the case about?

18 MR. THOMAS: It's an automobile accident, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Well, what I'm going to do, I need to go
20 back. Mr. Grate, there's the Motion to Dismiss that I
21 previously denied because he said you didn't file it timely.
22 I'm going to go back and I'm going to grant the Motion to 23 Dismiss because you didn't file it properly. There's grounds
24 for if you didn't file it timely. Well, you filed it from 25 whenever the Magistrate issued the decision even though it was

1 rendered in open court, but you didn't send the Magistrate the 2 Notice of Appeal that they require so that he can provide the 3 record on appeal.

4 MR. GRATE: Your Honor, I'm requesting that you
5 consider my request for continuance.

6 THE COURT: Well, the problem is is that would be
7 giving you a special allowance because you didn't do it
8 properly --

9 MR. GRATE: Okay.

10 THE COURT: -- and I don't know that I'm authorized
11 to do that or that I can do that.

12 MR. GRATE: Okay. Well, if I may say, it sounds like 13 the defendant would be given a special allowance in that he
14 filed a Motion to Dismiss and his motion does not stand
15 according to the rules, but if Your Honor is going to allow 16 him -- going to approve the motion, he didn't put a motion in 17 concerning whether it was filed correctly with the Magistrate
18 Court or not. Like I say, I don't know for sure, I have to 19 check, and I don't see harm on the grounds of continuing to 20 check, and if it hasn't been filed why not allow me the 21 opportunity to rectify it?

22 THE COURT: Mr. Grate, I'm going to dismiss the 23 appeal because the appeal is not filed properly.

24 MR. GRATE: Thank you, sir.

25 THE COURT: Thank you.

CIVIL COURT RULES

RULE 74

PROCEDURE ON APPEAL TO THE CIRCUIT COURT

Except for the time for filing the notice of appeal, the procedure on appeal to the circuit court from the judgment of an inferior court or decision of an administrative agency or tribunal shall be in accordance with the statutes providing such appeals.

Notice of appeal to the circuit court must be served on all parties within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice of the judgment, order or decision appealed from.

In all such appeals the notice of intention to appeal shall be filed with the clerk of the court to which the appeal is taken and with the inferior court or administrative agency or tribunal within the time provided by the statute, or by this rule when no time is fixed by statute, for service of the notice of intention to appeal. The proceedings in the circuit court shall be in accordance with these rules, and priority shall be given to the hearing and disposition of such appeals in accordance with law.

Note to 1986 Amendment:

This amendment makes the time for filing a notice of appeal to the circuit court thirty days in all cases and conforms to the Administrative Procedures Act.

Administrative Procedure Act – South Carolina

The South Carolina Administrative Procedure Act ("Act") is found in Title 1, Chapter 23 of the South Carolina Code of Laws Annotated. The Act provides that all regulations promulgated or proposed to be promulgated by state agencies having general public applicability and legal effect, including all those including penalty provisions must be filed with the Legislative Council and published in the State Register. The Legislative Council will establish procedures for carrying out the provisions of the Act relating to the State Register and the form and filing of regulations.

S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-110 provides for the procedures for promulgation amendment or repeal of a regulation. Before promulgation, amendment or repeal of a regulation, an agency must give notice of the drafting period by giving a notice in the state register. The notice must include:

- Address to which interested persons can submit comments;
- A synopsis of what the agency plan to draft; and
- The agency's statutory authority to promulgate, amend or repeal the regulation.

The agency must also submit to the division a preliminary assessment report on regulations having substantial economic impact. The agency must give notice of public hearing where the agency will receive data, views, or arguments, orally and in writing, from interested persons by publication of a notice in the State Register. Notice of public hearing is given if requested by twenty-five persons, by a governmental subdivision or agency, or by an association having not less than twenty-five members.

According to S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-125, the legislative committee to which a regulation is submitted is not authorized to amend a particular regulation and then introduce a joint resolution approving the regulation as amended. If majority of legislative committee determines that it cannot approve a regulation in the form submitted, it will notify the promulgating agency in writing along with its recommendations regarding the changes that would be necessary to obtain committee's approval.

S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-126 provides that any interested person can petition an agency requesting the promulgation, amendment or repeal of a regulation. Within 30 days after receipt of the petition, the agency can initiate the requested action or can deny the petition in writing after stating its reasons for the denial.

S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-130 provides that an agency can make an emergency regulation if it finds that there is imminent threat to public health, safety and welfare and immediate promulgation of emergency regulation is necessary to avoid such imminent threat.

In a contested case, all parties must be given reasonable opportunity for hearing after giving at least 30 days' notice. The notice must include:

1. Details of the time, place, and nature of the hearing;
2. Reference to the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held;
3. Details of the particular sections of the statutes and rules involved; and
4. Short and plain statement of the asserted matters.

The final decision or order in a contested case, which is adverse to a party must be in writing or stated in the record. It must include findings of fact and conclusions of law, separately stated. Findings of fact must be accompanied by a concise and explicit statement of the underlying facts supporting the findings. Any decision or order must be notified to the parties either personally or by mail. A copy of the decision or order will be delivered or mailed to each party and to his attorney of record on his/her request.

According to S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-370, when a licensee has made timely and sufficient application for the renewal of a license, the existing license does not expire until the application has been finally determined by the agency. The agency cannot revoke, suspend, annul or withdraw any license unless, prior to the institution of agency proceedings, the agency gave sufficient notice to the licensee of facts or conduct concerning the intended action. The licensee must also be given an opportunity to show compliance with all lawful requirements for the retention of the license. If the agency finds that public health, safety or welfare imperatively requires emergency action, summary suspension of a license can be ordered.

S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-380 provides that any party aggrieved by the final decision in a contested case and is exhausted with all administrative remedies is entitled to judicial review. The court cannot not substitute its judgment for the judgment of the agency as to the weight of the evidence on questions of fact. The court can affirm the decision of the agency or remand the case for further proceedings. The court can reverse or modify the decision if substantial rights of the appellant are prejudiced or the administrative findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions:

- violates constitutional or statutory provisions;
- exceeds statutory authority of the agency;
- is made upon unlawful procedure;
- is affected by other error of law;
- is clearly erroneous in view of the reliable, probative, and substantial evidence on the whole record; or
- is arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion or clearly unwarranted exercise of discretion.

A party aggrieved of the final decision of the circuit court or the court of appeals can obtain a review of the final judgment from the Supreme court.

The Jury returned a verdict for the Plaintiff, but it did not address any of his claims.

(Loss time from work, Medical, The Jury was presented with evidence that was unchallenged. Therefore, based upon the presented evidence a fair-minded Jury should have returned a verdict that addressed the evidence presented and awarded plaintiff accordingly.

The United States Supreme Court, in Consolo v. Federal Maritime Commission, 383 U.S. 607, 620, 16 L.Ed. (2d) 131, 140, 86 S. Ct. 1018, 1026, quoting in part from prior decisions, discussed the "substantial evidence" rule as follows:

We have defined "substantial evidence" as "such relevant evidence as a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion."
