Petitioners

State Of South Carolina

v.

Respondent

Appellate Case No 2019-000863

Motion To Provide Evidence

Petitioners Respectfully Request That Chelsey Faith Marto Provide Evidence To Substantiate Her Claim Of A "Triangular Relationship" In Case 2019-000863.

Both Petitioners Maintain That The Claim Of A "Triangular Relationship" Is False Material Evidence And Unlawful Sexist Claim, Which Violates SCRP Rule 407, Rule 3.3 And Rule 4.4(a). Petitioners Both Suffer Substantial Injury From The Attorney's Knowing Use Of False Evidence.

Petitioner Keith S. LeVan Maintains That The "Tit For Tat" Use Of Social Media Script (SMS) Messages Used As Evidence At Trial Were Intended As "Insults" Consisting Of False Statements Of Accusations That Hold No Merit. The "Harsh Words" Were Used To Slander Petitioners.

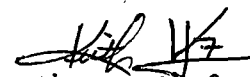

Also, Petitioners Respectfully Request That Chelsey Faith Marto Provide Evidence To Prove The Existence Of The Alleged "Girl At The Mall" (See: Trans Page 333 Lines 22-24). Petitioners Maintain That The State Knowingly And Willingly Provided The Court And Tribunal With Fraudulent Evidence. Petitioner Candidly Admitted That He Made False Statements In The SMS Messages (See: Trans P303 Line 17) "Yes, Just Made Up Mean Things And Say It."

Currently There Are No Evidences To Substantiate Chelsey Faith Marto's Claims. Please Provide It.
