Re: Samantha M. DenBleyker v. SCDEW
Appellate Case No. 2022-000700

Dear Ms. DenBleyker:

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your appeal will be dismissed:

- You must file a notice of appeal in substantially the format found in Form 1 in Part II, Appendix C of the SCACR.
- A proof of service showing that a copy has been served on the Administrative Law Court has not been provided as required by Rule 203(d), SCACR.
- A statement saying when you received a copy of the order under appeal is needed.

Very truly yours,

Benjamin Thomas Cook, Esquire

Docket No. 22-ALJ-22-0087-AP

ORDER GRANTING RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

RECEIVED

JUL 13 2022

SC Court of Appeals

This matter is before the South Carolina Administrative Law Court (ALC or court) on the appeal of Samantha M. DenBleyker (Appellant) filed on March 3, 2022. The Appellant is appealing the Department of Employment and Workforce (Department or Respondent) Appellate Panel's decision affirming the Appeal Tribunal's decision finding the Appellant indefinitely disqualified from receiving benefits, effective April 4, 2021, upon finding the Appellant voluntarily left employment without good cause.

On April 6, 2022, the Department filed a Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Jurisdiction for the Appellant's failure to timely file and serve her appeal. The Department cited South Carolina Code Annotated § 41-35-750 and ALC Rule 33, both of which require that an appeal requesting judicial review of a final decision of the Department must be filed in this court and served upon the Department within thirty (30) days of the date of mailing of the Department's decision. The Department contends that because the Appellant filed an untimely notice of appeal with the court, this court is without jurisdiction to hear this appeal. On April 14, 2022, the Appellant filed a response to the Department's Motion to Dismiss and included mailing receipts for February 1, 2022, February 8, 2022, and March 1, 2022.

In this case, it appears the Department mailed its final decision to the Appellant on January 4, 2022, therefore, in accordance with S.C. Code Ann. § 41-35-750 and ALC Rule 33, the Appellant was required to file an appeal with this court and to also serve the appeal upon all parties no later than February 3, 2022. The Appellant filed an incomplete Notice of Appeal with this court

Gentlemen:

Pls find atts per Dr. Lee Granting respondent's motion to Dismiss & my letter to the Clerk of Court advising them that I am appealing their decision & was advised

that I had to advise you
of this situation
S. DeBleeker

May 15 2022

reasons I am appealing as first of all mobility has addressed the letter from Jack Hughey dated 1/20/22 which fully explained in detail
why I had to leave my position and also notes that salary is abused by management decisions
on my job.

Can the courts really look these documents pull together as (was previously sent) wherein the medical condition of my family was included &
also why I got punished for not being supervisor of Thomas resource correctly
when Pat Hanon resource dept was not in for months

Please refer to all packets that were originally sent on time to every party
I am begging for Paul's to record these decisions

Pages 13

That most time I would just be waiting overnight period
as you can see from all of our correspondence

Not necessary my company
now that I need to get a claim in 11 years of working has put a terrible burden on me.

Thank you

149 Broadleigh Court
Boiling Springs, SC 29316-9700
Claimant SSN: XXX-XX-2527
Claimant ID: 11540152
Appeal Number 21/HA-003779

The Claimant, Samantha M. Denbleyker, as well as her mother have been patients of mine since 2005. Samantha lives with her mother, both residing in Little River, SC. Her mother became gravely ill early 2021, hospitalized with severe hypoxia, COPD and Emphysema. She is currently on oxygen, as well as other inhalation treatments to help with her breathing. She also had left hip replacement, now needs the right hip replaced. She ambulates with a walker in the home. She is chronically ill, weak and her medical needs are many. Samantha, her mother and father have given me, their provider, permission to reveal some of her medical conditions to satisfy this Appellate Panel Decision, without violating their HIPPA Patient rights.

Ms Samanta Denbleyker's father resides in Boiling Springs, SC. Approximately the same time Mrs. Denbleyker was released from the hospital for hip surgery, it was discovered that Mr. Denbleyker had a neurological problem in his spine requiring surgical intervention. He as well ambulates with a walker. He was also found to have a serious chronic cardiac issue requiring complicated cardiovascular surgery, limiting his ability to help with anything in and around the house.

Ms Denbleyker's decision to relocate to Boiling Spring with her mother, to continue the care for both chronically ill parents was a distressing decision she had to make. Samantha Denbleyker enjoyed working at Little River Medical Center as is obvious by her 10+ year tenure. I know her to be an honest, truthful person, who always abided by management decisions. If she was told to report her departure from Little River Medical Center, she would have done just as required.

I ask the Appellate Panel to re-examine Ms. Denbleyker's case and find in her favor. This is a daughter who cares enough of her chronically ill parents to take on the role as their caregiver. Unfortunately, there are not many like Ms. Denbleyker willing to do this today.

If I can be of further service to the Panel to help explain further, please feel free to contact me.
Sincerely,

Judith Hughes, MSN, BSN, FNP-BC
