Re: Theola Patterson v. Theresa Wright-Reid
Appellate Case No. 2022-000667

Dear Counsel:

The Court received your email in which you state that you do not represent Respondents in this appeal. According to Rule 264 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, the trial attorney is deemed to be the attorney of record until he/she has been relieved by an order of the Court.

If you choose not to represent Respondents in this appeal, this Court requires a copy of an order issued in the lower court showing that you have been relieved as counsel or an original petition to be relieved as counsel, proof of service on opposing counsel and Respondents and a fifty dollar ($50) filing fee must be filed with this Court, pursuant to Rule 240, SCACR.

Additionally, in your email, you assert Robert Wright is counsel for the respondents. Our review of AIS does not reveal an attorney with this name and address licensed to practice law in South Carolina. If Mr. Wright desires to represent the parties in this appeal he must register a notice of appearance with his South Carolina bar number, or show compliance with Rule 404, SCACR, enabling him to appear on behalf of the respondents.

You must advise the Court of the status of your representation of the respondents within ten (10) days of the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,
