Re: William L. Dudley v. William L. Hemingway, et al.
Appeal from the Master-in-Equity of Charleston County
Case No: 2020-CP-10-02921

Dear Mrs. Kitchings:

This letter is a follow up to a telephone conversation that I had today with one of the clerks at the SC Court of Appeals. The clerk requested that I explained the caption of the referenced appeal.

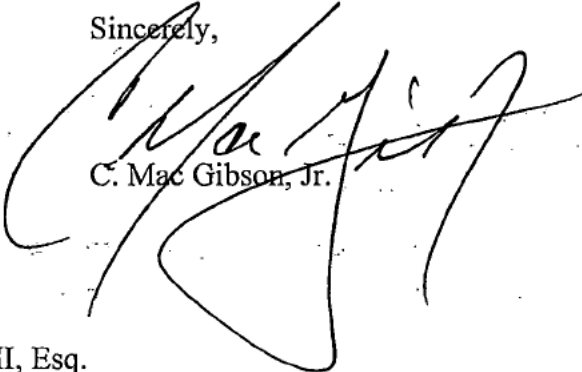

At the time the lawsuit was filed in July, 2020, the subject real property was still in the name of William L. Hemingway. Mr. Hemingway passed in 1955. Patricia Hemingway Campbell, the daughter of the late William L. Hemingway, filed an Answer as a "Jane Doe". No other family members of the late William L. Hemingway filed an Answer or participated in the trial.

Patricia Hemingway Campbell is the interested real party as a Respondent in the referenced appeal.

If you wish for the caption to be modified for the Notice of Appeal, then please let me know.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely,

C. Mac Gibson, Jr.
