Dear Mr. Holmes,

I am writing to you in response to your letter dated June 1, 2022. Regarding your request for your sentencing sheets, I have attached a copy to this letter. In regard to your request for the transcripts of your trial, the Office of Appellate Defense has ordered those in preparation and review for your appeal from trial. Your attorneys with SC Appellate Defense should be able to provide you a copy of the trial transcript.

My Preliminary hearing

Must be recording Facts UGH

George Holmes

As it pertains to your request for the preliminary hearing recording, we looked into that before and during your trial. The Beaufort Magistrate Court does not maintain recordings from hearings that took place that long ago. I was not assigned to your case at that time.

2nd Edition, 2012

§ 2-50 Perjury and Subornation of Perjury (§ 16-9-10)

Section 16-9-10(A) of the South Carolina Code of Laws provides:

(1) It is unlawful for a person to willfully give false, misleading, or incomplete testimony under oath in any court of record, judicial, administrative, or regulatory proceeding in this State.

(2) It is unlawful for a person to willfully give false, misleading, or incomplete information on a document, record, report, or form required by the laws of this State.

Subsection (C) provides:

A person may be convicted under this section if he induces, procures, or persuades another person to commit perjury or if he commits perjury by his own act, consent, or agreement.

The crime of subornation of perjury consists of two essential elements:

- (1) procuring or inducing one to commit perjury; and
- (2) commission of perjury.

However, one may be convicted of an attempt to commit this, even if the witness allegedly suborned did not actually swear falsely.

ORDER

2022 MAY 18 PM 1:15
JERRI ANN ROSENEAU
BEAUFORT COUNTY, SC
CLERK OF COURT

The above trial began this morning, May 18, 2022. The Defendant, George Holmes, was released on bond prior to the start of this trial. The Defendant became increasingly agitated as the trial progressed. For his safety, the safety of those in the courtroom, and to ensure that he is here after the lunch break, I have revoked his bond and he is to remain in custody for the remainder of his trial.

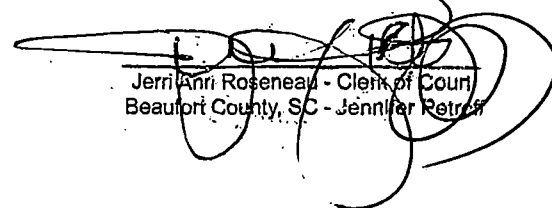

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

1. In General

§ 21. Nature of preliminary hearing

Topic Summary References Correlation Table

West's Key Number Digest

- West's Key Number Digest, Criminal Law § 207(4), 222.1

A preliminary hearing is not a trial, rather, it is a hearing to determine whether or not an accused probably committed a crime, and thus should be held over for trial or set free, as the facts warrant.

A "preliminary examination" is a public hearing conducted before a magistrate at which the prosecution and the defendant may present evidence.¹ Unlike a trial, a preliminary hearing is not a trial of the guilt or innocence of the accused,² rather, it is a hearing to determine whether an accused probably committed a crime.³ The determination thereof is not a final judgment.⁴

Subject to the rights secured to a person accused of a crime by the provisions of the constitution, the legislature may in general provide for preliminary hearings or investigations,⁵ but the rules that govern criminal pleading and the scope and import of trial issues and the relevancy of evidence are not applicable thereto.⁶

Purposes

In general, a preliminary hearing serves a limited purpose: to determine if there is probable cause to believe that the defendant committed the crime charged,⁷ so as to warrant further proceedings,⁸ or to hold the accused for prosecution if warranted.⁹

Moreover, the preliminary hearing or examination is used to protect the accused who is unjustly or improperly charged from being compelled to stand trial,¹⁰ to ferret out groundless and improvident prosecutions,¹¹ to prevent the accused's detention without probable cause,¹² to preserve the evidence and keep the witnesses within the control of the state, and to determine the amount of bail¹³ if the offense is bailable.¹⁴

On the other hand, it is not the purpose of a preliminary hearing to establish guilt or innocence,¹⁵ since it is not a mini-trial,¹⁶ and as such the defendant cannot assert a mistake of law defense to overcome the charged offense at a preliminary hearing.¹⁷ A preliminary examination is not available to the accused for the purpose of ascertaining in advance the evidence relied on by the prosecution,¹⁸ nor is a preliminary hearing the proper forum to choose between conflicting facts or inferences, or to weigh the state's evidence against evidence favorable to the defendant.¹⁹ Although some discovery results as a by-product of the preliminary hearing,²⁰ discovery is not the purpose of the hearing.²¹

I Mr. George Holmes did not commit the offense of Safecracking

Notes Of Decisions (10) Dismiss in general indictment: 2018A0710200400 16-11-0390

GH It is not essential to constitute a safecracker that he shall be successful in his attempt to break open the safe. Miller v. State of S. C. (D.C.S.C. 1970) 309 F.Supp. 1287.

GH "Safetampering" falls within the crime defined as "safecracking" in this section [Code 1962 § 16-337]. Miller v. State of S. C. (D.C.S.C. 1970) 309 F.Supp. 1287. Burglary 2

GH Defendant's possession, following larceny of safe, of property of the nature stolen, with his admission to others that he had obtained them from the safe in subject, were sufficient to sustain his conviction of the offense of safecracking. State v. Blue (S.C. 1975) 264 S.C. 468, 215 S.E.2d 905. Burglary 45

GH Use of a hammer to remove a safe in one county, although it was not opened until carried into a second county, constituted a violation of this section [Code 1962 § 16-337], such as to give a court of the first county jurisdiction over the case. Shelnut v. State (S.C. 1965) 247 S.C. 41, 145 S.E.2d 420.

GH The subject of the act from which this section [Code 1962 § 16-337] is taken was expressed in the title thereof. State v. O'Day (S.C. 1906) 74 S.C. 448, 54 S.E. 607.

Constitutional Issues

GH Ten year minimum sentence for safecracking with tools does not constitute cruel and unusual punishment. Stockton v. Leeke (S.C. 1977) 269 S.C. 459, 237 S.E.2d 896.

GH This section [Code 1962 § 16-337] is not unconstitutional by reason of the fact that life imprisonment is directed upon conviction if the jury does not recommend mercy, and not less than ten years' imprisonment is directed when the jury does recommend mercy. State v. Haulcomb (S.C. 1973) 260 S.C. 260, 195 S.E.2d 601, appeal dismissed 94 S.Ct. 229, 414 U.S. 886, 38 L.Ed.2d 134.

GH The contention that this section [Code 1962 § 16-337] is not sufficiently definite to place a person of common intelligence on notice as to what is prohibited is clearly without merit. The offense is designated in bold-faced letters - "SAFECRACKING." State v. Haulcomb (S.C. 1973) 260 S.C. 260, 195 S.E.2d 601, appeal dismissed 94 S.Ct. 229, 414 U.S. 886, 38 L.Ed.2d 134. Larceny 2

GH Indictment 2018A0710200400
Where an indictment on its face specifically sets forth the charge of safecracking as the fourth count, its plain language is not to be ignored merely because on the outside of the indictment the several counts are tabulated in a different order. Crady v. State (S.C. 1966) 248 S.C. 522, 151 S.E.2d 670.

Questions for jury

GH In a prosecution for armed robbery and safecracking, the court improperly denied defendant's motion for directed verdict
