RESPONDENT'S RETURN TO PETITION FOR REHEARING

The Court of Appeals was absolutely correct to dismiss this appeal as an impermissible interlocutory appeal.

The Plaintiff claims that the denial of this appeal will affect their substantial right to the mode of trial. This is completely incorrect. The Plaintiff is not being deprived of any right to a standard jury trial in circuit court, which is at the heart of the American judicial system. The Plaintiff will be able to try their case as normal under the South Carolina Code of Laws, the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, the South Carolina Rules of Evidence, and South Carolina common law. The Plaintiff is not being deprived of any substantial right or any right at all. The dismissal of this appeal does not infringe on any right that the Plaintiff has to a fair jury trial under our system of law.

The Plaintiff's appeal actually has the purpose of attempting to prevent a fair trial for the defense. This should never be allowed. The defense is also entitled to a fair trial by an impartial judge and jury.

The Respondent realleges and incorporates by reference all arguments submitted in the Motion to Dismiss and previous briefs.

The Defense hereby objects to the Petition for Rehearing and respectfully requests that the Court of Appeals confirm its decision to dismiss this interlocutory appeal and remand to the circuit court.
