Re: The State v Darrell D. Wilson, Jr. 2022-000783

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am compelled to request another extension as I have still not received the inmate's notarized affidavit of indigency. I have enclosed the form I did receive and also a copy of a second letter being mailed to Mr. Wilson today.

Please allow this letter to serve as Appellant's request for a 20-day extension to order the transcript. The Appellant is incarcerated in SCDC for 18 years and has submitted his application for indigency to my office, however it was not notarized. We have mailed it back to him for proper signature and notarization.

Thank you kindly for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

s/ Melinda Butler

Re: State v Darrell Wilson: 2022-000783

Dear Darrell D Wilson Jr.:

It is critical that you send us the notarized affidavit of indigency in the enclosed stamped envelope. Your appeal may be dismissed if the transcript cannot be ordered. This is the third request and by the letter enclosed we are requesting a second extension to the Court of Appeals.

Sincerely yours,
