Re: Therese Hood v. USAA
Appellate Case No. 2019-001943

Dear Counsel:

The Court has begun reviewing this case because it is on the preliminary list for the fall argument term, but the Court has not reviewed the record on appeal in significant depth to know if the following documents are material to the issues on appeal:

- Transcript of Hood v. Johnson of September 5-7, 2017
- Deposition Transcript of Kevin B. Smith of June 26, 2019

Condensed transcripts do not comply with the type size requirements in Rule 267(c), SCACR. If the parties believe these transcripts are material to this appeal, the court directs appellant to file a supplemental record within 30 days containing a full-page copy of these transcripts.

If a supplemental record is to be served and filed, 6 bound copies must be filed along with the unbound/electronic copy. The bound copies must comply with any binding or cover color requirements specified by Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR).

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen
