SC Court of Appeals

Charles Simmons, Special Circuit Court Judge

Appellate Case No. 2021-000854

Kenneth E. Brown and Renee B. Brown, Respondents.

v.

Teresa Lynne Waldrop, Appellant,

COUNSEL'S MOTION TO BE RELIEVED

NOW COMES the undersigned counsel for the Appellant and petitions the Court to be relieved as counsel.

In support of this motion, the undersigned counsel would show the Court that on July 1, 2022, the undersigned counsel filed Notice of Entry of Appearance, and petitioned the Court for an extension of time to file the Appellant's Initial Brief, which the Court granted.

Also on July 1, 2022, the Appellant agreed with the undersigned counsel on financial terms of representation, that included several payments over several dates. That same day, Appellant made the initial payment, but she has made none of the required payments since then, thereby failing to fulfill her financial commitment to the undersigned counsel.

WHEREFORE, the undersigned counsel respectfully requests to be relieved as counsel.

Respectfully submitted,
THE CARPENTER LAW FIRM, P.C.
