APPELLANT'S NOTICE AND MOTION FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

Pursuant to South Carolina Appellant Court Rule 215, Ms. V. Claire Allen, Chief Deputy Clerk notified me of possible oral arguments of November 7 -10, 15, 16, or 17 and I wanted badly to meet the required deadline on July 21, 2022, in notifying this Honorable Court, that I am available any day that is good for the Court. And since I could not send a PDF as I usually do, due to computer issues that evening I sent a screen shot from my phone. However, I have been advised that my Notice of availability was received but not legible, so I apologize to the court for mishap and now make a formal request via this motion. I am confident that I can address the 3 issues that I have been attempting to cover in my brief; within whatever short time frame this Honorable Court would allow. The 3 issues are: 1) Right to a jury trial, 2) lack of standing and 3) fraud upon the court. I beg for this opportunity, as I am aware that my brief falls short of what would be required for this Honorable Court to simply make a decision. While I am aware that it is up to this Honorable as to whether or not I would be allowed to provide an oral argument; I would like to point out that my request meets the requirements under South Carolina Appellant Court Rule 216, which requires 3 items: 1) a constitutional issue (right to a jury trial and right to own property), 2) claim exceeding $1,000.00(I have a claim for punitive damages) and this summary judgment, is not a final decision.

Wherefore, having fully set forth this motion and attaching a proof of service; I am forwarding the filing fee within the allotted time, I pray that this Honorable Court will grant my request for a short oral argument.

Respectfully submitted,

Michelle Hodges, Pro Se Appellant 8/5/2022
