Earlier today the State filed its Final Brief of Respondent, but unintentionally served the wrong attorney. This afternoon the attorney notified us of our mistake and we served corrected the mistake by serving the Final Brief on Mr. Wise. The brief that is attached to this email for filing is in every way the same as the one we filed this morning with the exception of the email attached at the end which is correctly addressed to Mr. Wise. The actual Certificate of Service correctly has Mr. Wise's name on it for both the morning and afternoon filing. The only difference is the email that's attached. Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Anne Mueller, Legal Assistant to Senior Assistant Attorney General David Spencer
