Ms. Allen:

There seems to be some confusion regarding Mr. Land receiving the documents stated in the Proofs of Service filed with this court. In addition to filing the appropriate Proof of Service, your office was provided with the return receipts indicating the date his office signed for the documents. Your office also made copies of those receipts.

In his letter to you, Mr. Land alleged I never sent the documents to him. I'm sure Mr. Land did not intend to imply I was misleading the Court, however I'm also sure that as an attorney, Mr. Land is aware of how serious an accusation of perjury is.

I am sending him the same copies we provided your office on May 18, 2022 that clearly dispute his claim but I also welcome any guidance from the Court on how to prevent these issues moving forward.

With appreciation, I am

Tamara Gaylord

Mr. Land:

Pursuant to your letter sent to Deputy Clerk Claire Allen on May 25, 2022, I'm attaching the return receipts indicating your office was served with the documents mentioned. Both appear to be signed by a receptionist at your office.

If the address on the return receipts does not reflect the current address of your office, please provide me the correct one so I can update my records.

As you seem to be having issues with USPS, please send all future correspondence with a return receipt included. It will allow us to quickly resolve any future problems supported by the appropriate documentation.

With appreciation, I am

Tamara Gaylord

Re: Tamara Gaylord v. Ronnie Gainey
Appellate Case No. 2022-000626

Dear Ms. Gaylord:

Our records reflect that the time for serving the record on appeal has expired. Within ten days of the date of this letter, you must file proof of service of the record on appeal, along with a motion requesting permission to serve the record on appeal outside of the deadlines set by Rule 210 of the SCACR. If you have timely served the record a motion will not be necessary. Failure to timely serve the record on appeal will result in the dismissal of the appeal.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen

COPY

Dear Ms. Allen:

Pursuant to your May 13, 2022 letter and May 20, 2022 letter indicating that a Proof of Service has not been provided regarding the filing of the Appellant's Brief and Amended Brief. I would ask that I be notified by the Court if a Proof of Service is filed with the Court indicating that I have been served with these documents given the fact that twice now you have requested that proof of service be provided and on both occasions the documents that were filed with the Court have not been served with me.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely,

William Ceth Land
