SC Court of Appeals

RE: Stefani Eddins v. Tall Sam I Am, LLC d/b/a Tabbuli
Appellate Case No. 2022-000754

Dear Office of Court Administration:

On June 1, 2022, the transcript of the proceedings in the above-referenced case was ordered.

On August 9, 2022, Appellant filed and served a notice, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A, that the transcript had not been timely received, that Appellant had not received a Notice of Request for Extension from the reporter, and the Office of Court Administration had also not yet granted any extension.

On August 9, 2022, in response to Appellant's notice attached hereto as Exhibit A, via a series of emails collectively attached hereto as Exhibit B, the reporter indicated that the reporter has the hearing in line to be transcribed, has started transcribing the hearing, and will email the transcript to Appellant as soon as the reporter has completed same.

On August 10, 2022, in further response to the reporter's emails and updates, Appellant sent an email, included with the email exchange attached hereto as Exhibit B, inquiring whether the reporter had submitted or was planning to submit a Notice of Request for Extension of time to complete the transcript to, and/or had already received an extension from, the Office of Court Administration.

As of this day, August 11, 2022, Appellant has not received the transcript or a Notice of Request for Extension from the reporter, and the Office of Court Administration has not granted any extension.

In turn, out of an abundance of caution, Appellant respectfully submits this Notice of Request for Extension and requests a thirty (30) day extension from today's date for the reporter to complete the transcript.

Good Afternoon Ms. Singletary,

Thank you for your email communications and update below concerning the transcript in the above-referenced matter. Appellant is wondering if the Office of Court Administration is wanting a Notice of Request for Extension of time to complete the transcript to be submitted for consideration and/or if you were planning to submit same pursuant to Rule 207(a)(3)? It may be that the Office of Court Administration has already spoken with you concerning this and/or formally granted an extension? If not, and if there is anything else Appellant needs to do to assist, we are happy to help. Please let us know at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Michael E. Liska

Ms. Singletary,

Hello. Emailing the transcript would be great. We are happy to pay the fee associated with that. Can you send me an invoice for the same?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,
