S.C. SUPREME COURT

Dear Mr Shearouse

The SCCID Division of Appellate Defense represented me in reference to Appellate Case number 2011-195272 through appointed Appellate Defense Counsel Elizabeth Franklin Best, then David Alexander. In reference to the State of South Carolina Attorney General's Office filing of a petition for writ of certiorari with SC Court of Appeal and SC Supreme Court, Mr David Alexander on May 8th 2013 filed the Respondent Brief on my behalf. Due to my indigency, the State of South Carolina administrative and Judicial Branch of Government used Case laws of the state of South Carolina, to deny me pro-se or pro-pa access to the court, during the State of South Carolina appeal process; once the SCCID Division of Appellate Defense entered it representation on my behalf. I am now inquiring it into when does the state of South Carolina administrative and Judicial Branch consider the representation of SCCID Division of Appellate Defense has ended in reference to Appellate Case # ~~2011~~ 2011-195272 pertaining to me? The Respondent Brief has been filed. There is nothing else procedurally, the SCCID Division of Appellate Defense Counsel David

Alexander can do. Would the filing of the Respondent's Brief end the SCCIO Division of appellate defense representation in any way covered - as of May 8, 2013? or when and how well I know that SCCIO Division of Appellate defense no longer represent me, and my access to the courts under pro se status has been made available to me again, without being denied access to the court, in the infringement of my 14th USCA right under the Due Process clause and Equal Protection Clause to access to the court? Can I now file my ~~pro se~~ pro-se motions with SC. Supreme Court that pertain to Appellate Case # 2011-195272 in which deals with the SCCIO Division of Appellate defense refusal to take an position in the reasons the Remittitur was recalled. As stated in the Brief of Respondent it filed with your ~~Att~~ agency or Office on May 8, 2011

Please. send a copy of my letter ~~with~~ showing you received it, with your endorsement on it, with your response letter.

With Kindest regards

Respectfully Submitted by
