On 8/11 my paralegal dropped off the appeals filing fee, a copy of the final Order from which appeal is sought, and a certificate of service. The Notice of Appeal was filed in the circuit court through E-Filing, but somehow omitted from the hand delivered package to the Court of Appeals. (it WAS included in the copy served on counsel of record in the lower court, however)

I have requested "one drive" access, but do not yet have it. May I file this notice via email? I do not yet have a court of appeals case number.

Apologies for the mixed method of filing (paper and electronic). I was not sure how to get the filing fee to you other than via hand delivery.

Good Morning Lindsey:

At this time, we are asking each party file an original record on appeal and/or final brief, in either electronic or unbound paper form, as well as one bound paper copy, at the time the record on appeal and final briefs are due to be served and filed in accordance with the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

So you may file the original electronically, and then mail ONE bound copy to the Court of Appeals at 1220 Senate Street, Columbia, SC 29201.

Please let me know if that answers your question, and please do not hesitate to reach out should you need further assistance.

Thank you!

Good Afternoon,

We were wondering when filing a brief if the court still needs all the bound copies or if a copy is accepted electronically?

Thank you!

Good Morning,

I am inquiring if the court has a scanned in copy of the Record on Appeal and Final Brief submitted by Mr. Herbert Buhl in the above referenced case. I've been trying to get the scanned in copy from him but he has not been able to send it.

Thank you!
