RE: State V. Bolick
Appellate Case No 2020-001497

Dear Honorable Clerk,

I received your letter dated August 3, 2022 today on 8/11/22. For some unexplained reason I do not receive the mail your office sends me for eight to fourteen days later. Please take note of this fact and place it in the record.

I received your deficiency letter of July 22, 2022 on or about August 1, 2022. I immediately prepared a

Proof of service and mailed it to your office on the very day I received your letter.

As for my letter dated July 26, 2022, in that letter I specifically stated that pursuant to Rule 208(b)(7) SCACR I was supplementing my citations.

Rule 208(b)(7), SCACR states:

"Supplemental Citations. When pertinent and significant authorities come to the attention of a party after his initial brief(s) has been served and filed, the party shall promptly advise the clerk of the appellate court, by letter, with a copy to all counsel, setting forth the citations. There shall be a reference either to the page of the brief or to an issue to which the citations pertain, but the letter shall, without argument, state the reasons for the supplemental citations. Any response shall be made promptly and shall be similarly limited."

In reviewing my July 26, 2022 letter to your office I am pretty sure that I complied with Rule 208 (b) (7). However, I may be wrong. Please review the letter dated July 26, 2022, and Rule 208 (b) (7) S.C.A.C.R., and instruct me as to why my July 26, 2022 letter does not comport with Rule 208 (b) (7).

I was not trying to amend my initial brief on appeal, I was simply trying to supplement my citations to support arguments already raised in my Initial Brief on Appeal.

Your assistance in these matters will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely Yours
Theodore Bolick
