Re: 25th Avenue, LLC v. Carol Ann Honeycutt
Appellate Case No. 2022-001130

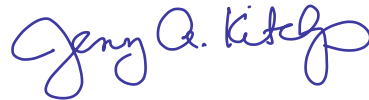

Dear Ms. Honeycutt:

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and each deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or your appeal will be dismissed:

- Your notice of appeal is not correctly formatted. You must submit a notice of appeal which contains the name of the court, judge and county from which the appeal is taken, the docket number of the case in the lower court, the date of the order or judgment, the name of the party taking the appeal, and the names, mailing addresses, and telephone numbers of all attorneys of record as stated by Rule 203 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). Your amended notice of appeal shall not contain any arguments.
- The notice of appeal fails to include a statement of when you received written notice of entry of the order or judgment from which this appeal is taken.
- The required filing fee has not been submitted. The correct filing fee is $250.00.

- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.
- You must provide a valid mailing address for all correspondence.

Very truly yours,
