Respondent Danny Downes moves this Court for an Order compelling appellants to comply with the Commission's Order and provide medical treatment awarded therein pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 42-17-60 (2007). This motion is made on the following grounds:

1. On June 8, 2022, the Workers' Compensation Commission awarded respondent additional medical treatment, specifically "the back surgery recommended by Dr. Esce...."

2. Appellants appealed this decision to this Court on June 21, 2022 alleging various errors in the Commission's Decision and Order.

3. S.C. Code Ann. § 42-17-60 provides that an appeal to this Court "does not operate as a supersedeas and, after that time, the employer is required to make weekly payments of compensation and to provide medical treatment ordered by the commission involved in the appeal or certification until the questions at issue have been fully determined in accordance with the provisions of this title." S.C. Code Ann. § 42-17-60 (2007).

4. The fact that this ordered medical treatment is the basis of appellants' appeal is irrelevant, as the General Assembly specifically provided that "the employer is required to ... provide medical treatment ordered by the commission involved in the appeal..." S.C. Code Ann. § 42-17-60 (2007)(emphasis added).

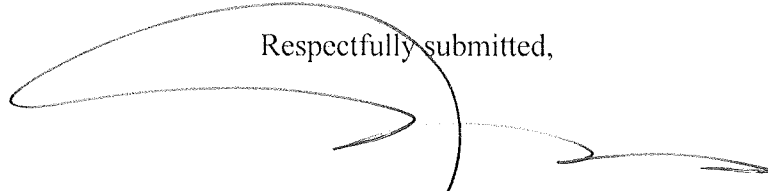

5. Respondent requested that appellants immediately schedule and provide the awarded medical treatment during the pendency of the appeal. (see attached e-mail correspondence)

6. To date, respondent has received no information concerning a medical appointment.

7. This appellate Court has jurisdiction to entertain this motion, See e.g. McLeod v. Piggly Wiggly Carolina Co., 280 S.C. 466, 313 S.E.2d 38 (Ct. App. 1984).

WHEREFORE, respondent prays for an Order requiring appellants to immediately comply with the Commission's Orders and the relevant statutory provision to provide the medical treatment awarded during the pendency of the appeal.

Respectfully submitted,
