

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Jabbar Straws, Petitioner,

v.

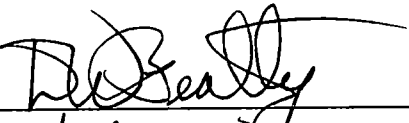

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

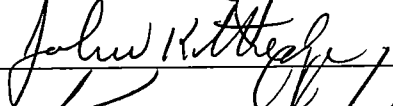

Appellate Case No. 2022-000974

ORDER

Petitioner filed a notice of appeal from the denial of his fourth application for post-conviction relief (PCR). As requested, Petitioner has provided a Rule 243(c), SCACR, explanation and a motion not to prohibit future filings in the circuit court. Petitioner has failed to provide a sufficient explanation as required by Rule 243(c), SCACR, showing there is an arguable basis for asserting the determination by the lower court was improper. Accordingly, we dismiss the notice of appeal in this matter. The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221(b), SCACR.

Further, we deny Petitioner's motion not to prohibit future filings in the circuit court. Instead, due to the repetitive and successive nature of Petitioner's filings, we hereby prohibit Petitioner from filing any further collateral actions in the circuit court, including PCR actions and habeas corpus actions, as well as any motions relating to previously filed collateral actions, challenging Petitioner's 2006 convictions and sentences, or any motions in the underlying criminal case, including a motion pursuant to Rule 29, SCRCrimP, without first obtaining permission to do so from this Court.
