APPEAL FROM BEAUFORT COUNTY
Court of Common Pleas

Carmen T. Mullen, Circuit Court Judge

Case No. 2011-CP-07-0931
Appellate Case No. 2012-212732

Thaddeus F. Segars,Appellant,

v.

Fidelity National Title Insurance Company,Respondent.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE AND SERVE
THE FINAL BRIEF OF RESPONDENT

Now comes the Respondent, pursuant to Rule 263(b), and respectfully requests a 15 day extension of time to file and serve its Final Brief. On May 23, 2013, after the Final Brief of Respondent was in the process of binding, counsel for Respondent received a call from counsel for Appellant informing her that he inadvertently included approximately 18 pages in the Record on Appeal that were not designated by either party, referenced by either party in its Initial Brief, or proper to include in the Record. Counsel for Respondent is also informed that Appellant intends to repaginate the Record which will affect the citation references to the Record contained in the Final Brief of Respondent.

Appellant has requested an additional 15 days within which to repaginate, provide Respondent a revised Record, and revise the brief citations. Respondent hereby requests the same extension of 15 days to revise, file, and serve the Final Brief of Respondent after receiving the repaginated Record on Appeal.
