Re: Quincy McCants v. State of South Carolina
Appellate Case No.: 2015-002142
Circuit Court Case No.: 2009-CP-32-04236

Dear Ms. Comer:

By order dated December 1, 2016, the Supreme Court remanded the above-referenced post-conviction relief matter to the Honorable Edgar W. Dickson in order to reconstruct the record. A hearing into the matter was subsequently convened; and on December 14, 2018, Judge Dickson issued an order finding the record was unable to be reconstructed. Mr. McCants then moved to vacate Judge Dickson's previous order of dismissal and remand for a new post-conviction relief hearing on December 20, 2018. The Supreme Court granted Mr. McCants's motion by written order dated February 1, 2019, and remanded this matter to the circuit court for a new post-conviction relief hearing within sixty days. A copy of this order is enclosed.

Therefore, please re-open Mr. McCants's post-conviction relief case (2009-CP-32-04236) in accordance with the Supreme Court's opinion. Additionally, please immediately appoint counsel to represent Mr. McCants on this action and provide me with the name of this attorney once counsel has been appointed so that I may coordinate the scheduling of a hearing during the next post-conviction relief term of court for the Eleventh Judicial Circuit, scheduled to be held the week of April 1, 2019, to ensure the timeline established by the Supreme Court is met.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Kelly Oppenheimer
Assistant Attorney General

Order of ~~MOTION FOR~~ CONTINUANCE

This matter comes before this Court by way of an Application for Post-Conviction Relief (PCR) scheduled for April 3, 2019 at the Lexington County Courthouse. The State now moves for a continuance because one of the Applicant's trial attorneys, Stanley Myers, Esquire, has a week-long trial scheduled in General Sessions in Chester County the week of April 1. The State advises that Mr. Myers is an important witness to the proceedings. Opposing counsel, Don A. Thompson, Esquire, does not object to the continuance.

For good cause shown, this Court finds that this matter should be continued until the next term of court for post-conviction relief matters in the Eleventh Judicial Circuit.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That this post-conviction relief matter shall be continued and rescheduled,
2. Applicant shall be remanded to the custody of the State.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED this 29th day of March 2019.
