

Case No. 2019-CP-42-04314

1/14/22

I filed my PCR motion for 2 reasons My main reason was because my lawyer called me pathetic in open court with out negotiation. He insulted me to the judge and this is totally disregarded in my order of dismissal. it was not included in the portion of reasons for my motion being denied, almost as if it's being over looked on purpose. My whole reason for filing the PCR was because he called me pathetic.
 He took the stand at my PCR hearing and he apologized to me for it! he also admitted that he used a poor choice of words and that he thought my sentence was a little extreme. I thought my PCR was a motion to see if my lawyer was ineffective or not. the fact he told me he was sorry should have been confirmed enough.

If the State don't want to give me an new trial then fine atleast give me a negotiated plea like every other defendunt in this state. these are non violent charges, respectfully. I plead guilty to Charges I did not agree with in the Hopes of mercy

There is a new Bill H. 3623 that offers early release of an Inmate and Sentence reduction. It drops PWID 1st from 15 years Max down to 5 years Max. I'm asking the State to consider my 2 years and 14 months credit for time served and allow me to finish the remainder 5 year probation.

I'm asking for time served

- New proposed law Bill 3623 (Sentence Reduction) PWID 1st
- ~~Case not set~~
- Negotiation recommendation

I intend a open plea the only defense I had is my appearance, my Character. Calling me pathetic damaged my Character. That was no different than calling me a Idiot to the Judge before being sentenced to his discretion. The word pathetic is insulting. The Judge could have sentenced me to no jail time and might have not had I not been so pathetic.
