

IN THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In The Supreme Court

Appeal from Richland County
Court of Common Pleas
Csey L. Manning, Judge

RECEIVED

AUG 29 2022

S.C. SUPREME COURT

Appellate Case No. 2022-000970
Lower Trial Court Case No. 2013-CP-40-
01336

George Adams, #181283, ..... Appellant,

V.

State of South Carolina, ..... Respondent.

MOTION TO REASSIGN CASE TO SUPREME COURT

Appellant George Adams, #181283, prisoner housed in South Carolina Department of Corrections. Moves this Honorable Supreme Court for an order reassigning the above captioned appeal in this court. Transferring jurisdiction from the South Carolina Court of Appeals, for all purposes. The grounds for this motion are that the above appeal involves issues significant to public interest. On May 21, 2015 the lower court of common pleas judge issued a amended final order to dismiss. June 23, 2015, Appellant attorney filed a Notice of Appeal, along with a motion pursuant to South Carolina Appellate Court Rules 60(b). Appellant will show unto this court appellate case No. 2015- 001394 was prematurely filed. September 3, 2015, this court issued an order dismissing the appeal. Appellant would request respectfully that that appeal dismissed without prejudiced, as premature. Other legal principles of major importance on the pending motion was not exhausted until on appeal to this court. Appellate request that this court issued an order dismissing that appeal without prejudiced, as premature. Three, legal principles of major importance in Appellant SCRCPC 60(b) motion filed on June 23, 2015 was not exhausted until by the lower court of common pleas until June 28, 2022, against the 1994 trial counsel concerning parole eligibility. The order preserved the case for appellate review. The appeal transferred to this court by way of South Carolina Court of Appeals on June 15, 2022 is timely served.

MAIL

Appellant states even though there was successive motion filed in the lower court of common pleas to Alter or Amend the judgment substantial alteration was not made to the final order until June 28, 2022 identifying 1994 trial counsel performance. South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 203(b)(1).

CONCLUSION

Based on the Appellant pcr counsel Tommy A. Thomas, Esq., and Respondent attorney for the State representing to the lower court on July 1, 2021 to restore this case to the active roster by way of Consent Order. This court is to accept jurisdiction for purposes of considering this appeal. And both parties do not object this appeal request.

Dated: August 24, 2022

GEORGE ADAMS, #181283

RECEIVED

AUG 29 2022

S.C. SUPREME COURT

LEGAL MAIL