I am writing in response to today's order in the above-referenced case, attached for reference. On June 30, 2022, Appellant's certificate of counsel was sent to this address for filing. We received file-stamped certificates of service from the Court this same day. I have attached both emails, which include the filings as attachments.

I am hopeful that today's order dismissing the matter may be rescinded in light of the attached filing. Am I required to file anything additional?

Please advise.

Thank you,
Caroline
