Good Morning Claire,

Attached is the correspondence from the Court of Appeals from back in June. It appears your email address is not listed as an alternate point of contact in AIS. You will need to be added in the AIS system. You can also find this letter on our department's website under the c-track public access link at www.sccourts.org.

Do not respond to this email. Send all correspondence to ctappfilings@sccourts.org

Respectfully,

LaToyla Burns

Would you please let me know how the Court would like the Final Briefs filed? Do we need to send over 14 bound copies and one unbound copy? For some reason I thought the rules changed during Covid and I'm not sure the proper procedure. Thank you
