Dear V. Claire Allen,

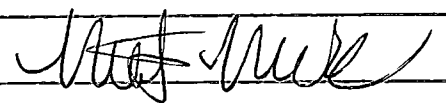

SC Court of Appeals

My name is Michael McCraw, Appellate Case No. 2022-000890. I submitted paperwork on two separate occasions. Even after receiving your letter saying that you never received mine. On two separate occasions, I have found my legal mail just lying around. We have been complaining about mail here for sometime just to be told that they are short of staff. Sometimes I have tracked mail that had been delivered to the Post Office for a week before being picked up. It has taken me almost 3 three years to get to this point only to have my case dismissed. And when you consider the fact that I am only trying to get ~~the~~ The Court of Appeals to enforce a judgement that was already made, it has been very frustrating and tedious. I certainly can't control the day to day operations of this jail. Please look into this. Given the fact that I don't have access to a law library, I am at a loss as to what to do next. Anything you can do ~~and~~ would be greatly appreciated. Please send any information that would help me go forward.

Thank you,

Respectfully,

Michael McCraw
