SC Court of Appeals

V. Claire Allen

The court received my motion as prior administrative law apply. It is a federal violation for that clown Jenny Abbott Kitchings to open mail for my appeal case sent to you. She made a false report and is not to contact me. No remittitur should have been sent to any other party without my consent. SC rules for appeal apply and continuing the court's jurisdiction over my appeal. Therefore action will be taken.

Sincerely,

Marvin K. McBride, Jr

Re: The State v. Marvin K. McBride, Jr
Appellate Case No. 2021-000813

Variety of SC Rules for appeal apply to this case. Appellee attorney-client privilege was violated by the chief defender appointed to this case. The attorney unbecoming conduct warranted her disbarment from practice before the SC court of appeal. During phone calls, on a recorded line, the attorney gave false information to the appellee in reference of appeal case and violated professional conduct Rule 1, 2, 3 and 4, failing to perform the duty as an attorney and is subject to the Rules for lawyer disciplinary enforcement. Thus the GOB process motion shall be granted.
