Re: Joe Adams Jr. v. Betty Ogbuneke
Appellate Case No. 2022-000357

To the Court of Appeals,

Please accept my response to your letter dated 8/31/22 received on 9/5/22 which addressed the Transcripts I that I requested. I received the audio recording from the Probate Court. I found a certified company to transcribe the recording and have paid the necessary fees. The audio file was accepted and approved for transcription but it takes time to for the transcriptionist to work through the large audio file.

I am currently waiting on the transcript and ask the court to allow time for the transcript to be completed. I called the court as soon as possible to explain the transcripts were in process and also wanted to be sure to provide information to all parties of the transcription process status.. If allowed I will be sure to notify the Court of Appeals and all parties as soon as I receive them. I am asking that the court please allow time for the transcripts to be completed.

Sincerely,

Joe L. Adams Jr. 9/08/2022

Re: Joe Adams Jr. v. Betty Ogbuneke
Appellate Case No. 2022-000357

Dear Mr. Adams:

Our records reflect the transcript of the hearing before the circuit court has been delivered. If you are requesting a transcript from the probate court proceedings, please be aware that the record on appeal may not contain any matter that was not presented to the circuit court. See Rule 210(c), SCACR. Accordingly, you must serve and file your appellant's initial brief and designation of matter within thirty (30) days of the date of this letter, or your appeal will be dismissed.

Very truly yours,
