1 on there from the register.

2 The next of these occurred the next day, Your 3 Honor, on November the 25th of 2014. This was -- 4 actually, those were county robberies. This is actually 5 a city robbery at North Main Street at the Papa John's.
6 He went into the business, and there again, with the 7 white hockey mask and the gray jacket with the black 8 striped pullover.

9 At that point, investigators were able to contact 10 Harry Shealy, who worked all of the cameras around town, 11 Your Honor. They were able to get some security 12 cameras, and they were able to notice that this -- he 13 was driving -- the person was driving a black Ford 14 Explorer that was right in front of the business 15 beforehand, which becomes significant later.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MS. CAMPBELL: It later came out that the Explorer 18 that he was using at this point, this was right around 19 Thanksgiving, that a friend of his, a Mr. Booker Little, 20 had rented that Explorer for him. They were able to 21 document it coming on and off base because he was 22 actually living on base at the time. And they were able 23 to get from Mr. Little that he had rented it for him and 24 he was having use of it at the time.

25 THE COURT: So Mr. Gaines was actually in the Army

1 at this time?

2 MS. CAMPBELL: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Active duty?

4 MS. CAMPBELL: He was. Not anymore.

5 He was able to confirm that he used that rental to 6 go to Florida for Thanksgiving to a wedding.

7 The next of these occurred, Your Honor, on 8 December 2nd. And if you notice, there's about a week 9 difference, and we think that's because that's when he 10 left town and went to Florida.

11 This is a CPD robbery at 5424 Forest Drive at the 12 Domino's Pizza. He entered the business wearing the 13 same jacket, a white hockey mask. Demanded money. He 14 actually put the gun to the employee's face. He then 15 demanded she get money out of the safe and started 16 hitting her in the leg with the gun as she was 17 attempting to open the safe. She was having trouble.
18 He kept hitting her and he kept yelling: Give me the 19 F-ing money. And that was the next one.

20 Again, on December 3rd of 2014 at 7850 Garner's
21 Ferry Road, he entered the business wearing a gray 22 pullover with a black stripe and a white hockey mask.
23 He went to the employee who was standing in the middle 24 of the store working, he pointed a gun at her, demanded 25 her to go to the register and get money from it. He was

1 able to get around $200 from this robbery. There was 2 also video surveillance from this one.

3 On his way out of the business, he pointed and 4 presented his pistol to another victim who was walking 5 up, Ms. Jenna Foster. I believe she was actually 6 sitting in her vehicle, about to go into the store. And 7 that's the pointing and presenting charge.

8 The next of these occurred that same day, Your 9 Honor, minutes after the one on Garner's Ferry Road.
10 And this was in the City of Columbia, at 4805 Garner's 11 Ferry Road. He entered the business, and he was wearing 12 the hockey mask again. There was a video. And this one 13 also security cameras show the gold/tan Chevy vehicle.
14 A Tahoe was leaving the scene with the defendant in it.
15 And that becomes one of the family cars that belong to 16 him. We later identified it. He was charged in that 17 one as well.

18 Moving on, Your Honor, chronologically would be the 19 Sumter ones next, but I would move on to the one on 20 December the 9th at 7362 Two Notch Road, which is the 21 first Game Stop he robbed. Your Honor, he entered this 22 location wearing a gray pullover with a black stripe 23 across the middle, white hockey mask on his face, black 24 gloves, gray pants and black shoes. He presented a 25 black pistol, demanded money from the register. He was

1 able to get a little over $1,600 during the robbery, 2 which was also captured on video surveillance.

3 The next of these occurred, Your Honor, minutes 4 later after the Game Stop at 9003 Two Notch Road, which 5 is the Lee Nails. He then entered wearing the same 6 clothing, and at that point, another witness actually 7 sees him leaving in a gold Chevrolet Suburban or Tahoe.

8 Again, he came in demanding money at gunpoint 9 wearing a gray pullover with a black stripe and white 10 hockey mask and was able to get $570 for that robbery.

11 The next of these occurs the next day, Your Honor, 12 on December the 10th at 9221 Two Notch Road. He came 13 into the business wearing the gray sweatshirt with a 14 solid dark stripe, matching sweatpants. And this one 15 was described as the Jason-style mask. Different people 16 had kind of different ways to describe it, and we'll 17 show you the mask in a minute. He demanded the register 18 be opened at gunpoint and got money. He was able to get 19 about $150. This was also captured on video.

20 That same day, minutes after the one I just 21 mentioned on Two Notch Road, there was another one at 22 8710 Two Notch Road, which is the Best of China Hut. He 23 enters wearing the same clothing with the white mask.
24 The business was closing at the time. He demanded 25 money, but he was not able to get any.

1 You can see him during the robbery attempt to come 2 to the front door and it's locked. He then goes to the 3 back door of the business, but he was not able to get 4 any money from that one.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 MS. CAMPBELL: At this point, Your Honor, there was 7 a Lexington County one, which I'll not address.

8 Moving on to December the 18th, Your Honor, there 9 was a BOLO made. They were listing the 17 robberies 10 that were out there that matched the descriptions at 11 that point in the different counties, in all the 12 different counties. The main information they had at 13 that point were the two possible vehicles involved, the 14 black Tahoe I mentioned and then the gold Suburban or 15 Tahoe.

16 Then on December the 19th, Your Honor, Forest Acres
17 Police Department had an armed robbery at the World 18 Finance Corporation. The suspect dressed the same as in 19 the others, the gray jacket with the black stripe.

20 THE COURT: Let me stop you for a moment. You said
21 there's something -- I have December the 10th, December 22 the 19th, but you just mentioned a December 18th 23 incident. Did you mention December 18th?

24 MS. CAMPBELL: The only thing I said about 25 December 18th was they put out a BOLO giving a

1 description. There weren't any. Sorry if I mislead the 2 Court.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MS. CAMPBELL: It defines the same suspect with the 5 same thing. This time he's in the gold Suburban. There 6 is video surveillance of that one as well.

7 Moving onto December the 22nd, this was the final 8 robbery, Your Honor. It happened at the Game Stop right 9 there on Killian Road in front of the Walmart, Killian, 10 the new one.

11 He then went inside, and you can see on the video, 12 Your Honor, which we do have if you'd like to see it, he 13 enters that store. He -- there are several customers as 14 well as clerks and different store employees, some of 15 who are here today, Your Honor, were in there. He 16 brandishes his gun, comes up, the first thing he says is 17 "Merry Christmas." Then he walks over, demands the 18 money. He's able to get $2,016 from this robbery. He 19 gets it from the safe and from other areas. You can see 20 everything that goes on. It might be helpful just to 21 see the one, kind of see how he's presenting himself in 22 all of them.

23 In addition, Your Honor, he then walks back towards 24 the store, as I recall, and then he turns around and 25 then gets them all to get on the ground so they can't

1 see how he's leaving, forces them all down on the ground
2 in this one, which comes with the five kidnapping 3 charges. He then, as he's leaving the store, and 4 exiting, yells "Merry Christmas" again.

5 At that point, Your Honor, the Sheriff's Department 6 had pretty much been saturating the area at that time
7 with patrols. They had the descriptions of the two cars 8 they knew could be involved, and they were looking for 9 them. On the night in question, Lieutenant Danny Brown, 10 approximately four minutes after this happens, was 11 patrolling the I-77 right there at I-77 and Two Notch 12 when he observed the vehicle which the defendant was 13 driving that night exiting off of 77 onto Two Notch 14 right there where the Home Depot is.

15 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

16 MS. CAMPBELL: And he then noticed that there was 17 some -- I can't remember if it was a taillight or 18 something was going on. He made a traffic stop.

19 Upon approaching, the first thing the defendant did 20 was basically show him his military ID, basically 21 intimating that, you know, I'm military. I'm good to 22 go.

23 At that point, he then shined his light inside and 24 observed the actual mask on the backseat. They knew 25 what kind of clothing, the description they were looking 1 for.

2 He -- at that point, the traffic stop had been 3 initiated. He then gets the defendant out of the 4 vehicle and he asked permission to actually look in the 5 vehicle. The defendant actually gives permission for 6 him to look in the vehicle. And at that point, he finds 7 the jacket, the gun, the mask, two different bags from 8 the last robbery containing different money, which we'll 9 show you in a second.

10 Based on that, they then place him under arrest for 11 just that single armed robbery at that point, and he is 12 taken into custody that night. He is interviewed later 13 either that night or the next day, and he denies any 14 knowledge of anything.

15 Your Honor, as far as additional evidence in the 16 case, it would have been statements from some of the 17 inmates that were housed with him in which he implicated 18 himself to them as well as two friends from the base who 19 we worked with at the time to identify the mask is his.
20 Things of that nature. They actually reviewed some of 21 the videos in the case and said they recognized him just 22 from his walk. In the way he appeared in the videos, 23 they could tell it was him.

24 There was also an interview done with his wife who 25 confirmed a lot of the evidence that they had as well as

1 another young woman he was involved with who was going 2 to indicate that she knew certain things about him.

3 In addition to that, Your Honor, there is the DNA 4 match from the Hibachi Grill, that he did wear gloves in 5 most of them so we don't have DNA in most of them. And 6 we were able to confirm the cars that were used and 7 actually document some of the timing when he was coming 8 on and off the base at the time.

9 Your Honor, I think at this point, Ms. Walker would 10 like to just address the Court briefly.

11 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. Is it Meghan Walker?

12 MS. WALKER: Meghan Walker, Your Honor.

13 M-E-G-H-A-N.

14 Your Honor, the defendant, when he was pulled over, 15 there were a number of items that I have to show you 16 that Ms. Campbell referenced before when she was telling 17 you about the series of events. Also, we have the video 18 from the Game Stop robbery loaded on the computer if you 19 want to see it.

20 THE COURT: Sure. Like I said in chambers and I 21 repeated throughout, y'all do what y'all need to do to 22 make your case and go as far as long as you want. And 23 that applies to both sides. So take your time, 24 Ms. Walker.

25 MS. WALKER: Thank you, Judge.

1 Your Honor, we can't make it any bigger than this 2 because of the software, but this is what happens when 3 he enters the Game Stop. This is the final armed 4 robbery.

5 Your Honor, this is the mask that was recovered 6 from the defendant's car (indicating) just after.

7 THE COURT: Were any individuals that are robbed at 8 these sites? Just the business?

9 MS. WALKER: Your Honor, my understanding, it's 10 just the businesses.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MS. WALKER: Your Honor, in addition to the mask 13 that was found when this defendant was pulled over, this 14 handgun was also found. Your Honor, for the record, it 15 is cleared and locked. This handgun ---

16 THE COURT: Is that a 380?

17 MS. WALKER: It's a nine.

18 THE COURT: It's a nine millimeter.

19 MS. WALKER: Yes sir.

20 Your Honor, additionally, in the backseat, Game 21 Stop bags, which is this incident location, were 22 recovered. One bag, Your Honor, contained $1,508.70, 23 which was stolen from that location.

24 THE COURT: This was found in the vehicle at the 25 traffic stop?

1 MS. WALKER: Yes, Your Honor.

2 In the other bag, Your Honor, it also contained 3 money, $468.

4 THE COURT: A silly question, but the victims are 5 going to get their money back. Or I don't know. Maybe 6 I shouldn't have asked that question.

7 MS. CAMPBELL: I think that's the only case we 8 recovered ---

9 MS. WALKER: That's the only ---

10 THE COURT: Yeah, yeah. What I mean is the money 11 you have there belongs to the specific victims who ---

12 MS. WALKER: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: --- should have it returned to them.

14 MS. WALKER: Yes, Your Honor. The Game Stop on -- 15 what was the incident location? This is when he came 16 back in and told them all, Your Honor, to lay on the 17 ground as he made his final exit.

18 As he was leaving, Your Honor, he grabbed a video 19 game by the name of Grand Theft Auto on his way out, and 20 that video game was also recovered in the car.

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 MS. WALKER: That's the entirety of the video, 23 Judge. Thank you.

24 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

25 MS. WALKER: And this is the jacket that he's seen

1 wearing in the video was also recovered from the car.

2 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Moser?

3 MS. MOSER: Your Honor, I don't know that there is 4 anything else I can add. I do think that at least one
5 of our victims would like to speak, Mr. William Stern 6 who is the manager at the Game Stop.

7 THE COURT: All right. You've got to talk a little 8 bit louder, and identify yourself for the record. Tell 9 me who you are, who you work for.

10 MR. STERN: My name is William Stern. I am the 11 store manager of the Game Stop on Killian Road.

12 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

13 MR. STERN: We've never had a robbery at that store 14 or any kind of violent crime ever. The worst we have is 15 shoplifting, so this was very shocking to myself and my 16 team.

17 Since then we've been -- we've changed our security
18 policies. We have some different equipment in the store 19 to mitigate any kind of future incidents like this and 20 to prevent them from happening.

21 Personally, every night that I close I have to look 22 at the door. Anytime I hear the doorbell go off, I'm 23 eyeballing that door because I expect something to 24 happen. And my wife, she texts and calls me every night 25 that I close to make sure that I'm okay since then. I

1 was -- you know, there wasn't any -- there wasn't any 2 threats that directly hit me, but it could have 3 happened. It could have been much worse than a robbery, 4 and that thought terrifies her every time I spend the 5 night at the story.

6 So yeah. It's -- it's been a bit different since 7 that night in 2014. And that's all I have to say on 8 that.

9 THE COURT: I understand. You will dream about 10 this for the rest of your life. It will never leave 11 you, probably.

12 MR. STERN: Yeah. I honestly never had any 13 experience like that before.

14 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir.

15 MR. STERN: Thank you.

16 MS. WALKER: Your Honor, additionally, the other 17 victims were contacted by Ms. Nataki Brown from our 18 office, and I think she just wanted to give you a 19 synopsis of their overall feelings about what happened 20 to them.

21 THE COURT: All right. The gentleman spoke. Have 22 you seen these letters? Do you want to see them? Or 23 does it matter?

24 MS. WALKER: They're not -- they're not letters, 25 Your Honor. They're just -- she called me to let

1 them ---

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MS. WALKER: --- know that they were pleading.

4 THE COURT: Okay. You're fine. Okay.

5 Yes, ma'am. Go ahead.

6 MS. BROWN: Your Honor, I spoke with over 7 14 businesses and 30 individuals about the incident and 8 explained that we were going to court this week. And 9 all the individuals and all the businesses that I spoke 10 with, they all fully support the State going forward.
11 The individuals all expressed that they want the 12 defendant to spend a significant amount of time in the 13 Department of Corrections and know that they would have 14 been here but they were all afraid. If required to be 15 here, they would have definitely been here, but they 16 wanted the State -- excuse me -- just Your Honor to know 17 that they fully support the State.

19 MS. BROWN: That's it.

20 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

21 MS. WALKER: Your Honor, in conclusion, this 22 incident -- these incidents were investigated by CPD and 23 the Richland County Sheriff's Department as well as 24 Investigator Carlo.

25 This November/December of 2014 reached a crisis

1 level in Columbia, Richland County because of the number 2 of armed robberies and the frequency with which they 3 were happening.

4 Your Honor, the defendant is facing in excess of a 5 thousand years at Department of Corrections. Had we 6 gone to trial one after another, he would have been 7 eligible for life without parole. We ask, Your Honor, 8 to impose a sentence that's reflective of the harm that 9 he inflicted on the individuals that were robbed at 10 gunpoint and kidnapped and indicative of the harm he 11 imposed on the community as a whole.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 MS. WALKER: Thank you, Judge.

14 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Walker.

15 Yes, sir, Mr. Meadors.

16 MR. MEADORS: May it please Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

18 MR. MEADORS: Your Honor, I'm here on the two 19 Sumter County indictments. 2016-GS-43-604, that 20 happened on December the 4th of 2014. Your Honor I'm 21 sure knows where it is. 1040 Broad Street is the Dollar 22 General there.

23 At about 7:20 p.m. that evening, the Sumter Police 24 Department, and I'm here with Pete Varner -- please 25 stand up and let the judge see you -- was in charge of 1 Sumter County investigation. Thank you.

2 THE COURT: I think -- I thought it was SPD.

3 MR. VARNER: Yes, sir.

4 MR. MEADORS: Sumter Police Department.

5 THE COURT: I thought you said Sumter County.

6 That's okay. That would be the sheriff's department.

7 MR. MEADORS: Sumter Police Department. He works
8 well with Sumter County, too, Judge.

9 Judge, when Sumter officials arrived, the witnesses 10 said they described a man who came in with a mask on, 11 said he -- as he was coming in the store, there was 12 actually a fellow named Demetrius Goodman who was out 13 front. He had a handgun, and he told Mr. Goodman just 14 get out of the way.

15 He walks into the Dollar General, goes into the 16 back of the store. The manager is there, Ms. Kenyetta 17 McBride. He demands money from Ms. McBride. She said, 18 We're going to have to go back up to the front of the 19 store where the register is.

20 He marches Ms. McBride at gunpoint back toward the 21 front of the store. There's another lady there, 22 Ms. Krystal Anderson, the clerk. Ms. McBride tells 23 Ms. Anderson to open the drawer.

24 There's also, Judge, a mother there with her 25 5-year-old daughter. As the defendant is there with the

1 mask on, he turns to the young lady and just says, Look 2 the other way.

3 He gets a Little Debbie snack cake and actually 4 creates a sale to open the register, and then he reaches 5 in and grabs about $300, then exits the store.

6 Judge, the next indictment, 2016-GS-43-065 [sic]
7 occurred the next day at 1338 Broad Street. The judge 8 knows this as Hibbett Sports store, I'm sure.

9 Judge, at approximately 8:30 that night, the Sumter 10 Police Department were there. Detectives arrived at 11 Hibbett. The employees told her that the same MO, same 12 shirt, same mask, specifically hockey mask with the 13 hoodie with a black stripe across the chest. And the 14 pictures are the exact same that are used in all these 15 others, Judge.

16 He came in. The manager in that case said she saw 17 the gun. He demanded money, and he specifically started 18 cursing at her and said, Listen, listen, I'm not 19 playing. Give me the money or I'm going to kill you.
20 And that was what she told the police officers.

21 The clerk then came up, opened the drawer, hit the 22 panic button, and he got approximately $700 in that. He 23 then exited the scene.

24 Richland County and also the City of Columbia did 25 an excellent job. Pete Varner got involved with the 1 Sumter Police Department and worked with the City of 2 Columbia and Richland County. They coordinated and 3 resulted in approximately 16 charges. We've dismissed

4 all but two. They were all related to these armed 5 robberies. And we dismissed the others in exchange for 6 a plea to these armed robberies.

7 Again, as we negotiated as far as our charges, we 8 have agreed to recommend concurrent time, whatever Your 9 Honor sees fit, to run with the Richland County charges.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 MR. MEADORS: I've contacted all of the victims, 12 and I do believe we've complied with the Victims' Rights 13 Act. Several of them wanted to be here, but they're 14 working and just couldn't be here, said to tell Your 15 Honor hello. And they wanted to thank all the law 16 enforcement.

17 Thank you, Judge.

18 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Meadors.

19 Anything further?

20 MS. WALKER: Nothing from the State, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. Y'all want to take a few 22 minutes before you make your presentation? I've just 23 moved a lot quicker than I anticipated.

24 MS. DAVIS: We're ready, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

1 MS. DAVIS: Your Honor, I'm just going to approach
2 with the documents I'm going to review and go over.
3 Obviously, there are mitigations. Also photos. I've 4 shown the photos to Ms. Campbell this morning. I gave 5 her a copy.

6 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

7 MS. DAVIS: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please 8 the Court. And just as a housekeeping matter, I just 9 want to be clear that Your Honor makes a finding that 10 the kidnappings were not in a sexual nature so that the 11 sex offender registry is not tacked on at the end of the 12 Department of Corrections.

13 THE COURT: On the face, that seems fair.

14 MS. CAMPBELL: Fair.

15 THE COURT: Everybody agrees, so I'll make a note 16 of that. Thank you.

17 MS. DAVIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 I think this is a very unique case in terms of 19 Cedrick and where he's been in his life prior to the 20 four weeks that we've heard about all day today. That 21 was four weeks of the worst part of his life.

22 Leading up to that, Your Honor, he has been -- I 23 don't know how else to say it other than an exemplary 24 person. He -- between his family, the military, his 25 educational level, his successes, basically, in every

1 facet of his life, it's difficult, initially, to see how 2 we get to this point and how he's standing in front of 3 Your Honor in a courtroom in this situation.

4 Upon getting records and reviewing and trying to 5 learn and see as much as we could about this case, it 6 does start to -- start to see how it built up and got 7 here.

8 One of the things Your Honor heard briefly is that 9 he does have PTSD. He was in the military at the time 10 of his arrest. He was at Fort Jackson. He was actually 11 in a program called CSERP [phonetic] that was for 12 inpatient treatment for PTSD and depression, but it was 13 specifically for people that had been diagnosed with 14 PTSD. And he was in that program at the time. I 15 believe it was a six-week program that he was in.

16 Getting him to that program was difficult. I think 17 -- I assume Your Honor is aware of the general knowledge 18 in terms of soldiers is if they have PTSD, they have 19 these symptoms, but they're also a soldier, and they 20 don't want to show weakness, they don't want to admit 21 they're having problems, they don't want to admit that 22 they're having difficulties, and so a lot of times, that 23 gets brushed under the rug or they don't seek help as 24 soon as they need to because they don't want to say they 25 need help. They see that as a sign of weakness. And we

1 see that in his records in terms of what he's getting 2 counseling for, and he was very much struggling to admit 3 exactly what kind of effect this was all having on him 4 in his life.

5 In terms of PTSD also, Your Honor, that's something 6 that we know that affects emotional and physical 7 characteristics of a person and emotional trauma of 8 that. But we've also learned and it seems to be getting 9 more and more basis based on the experts is it actually 10 affects your brain function, it changes who you are, it 11 changes your personality. It also changes how you see 12 life in general and your decisions.

13 Now, granted, he was evaluated. I'm not saying 14 he's not competent, but it changes your personality to 15 some degree. And that's not something that he asked 16 for. That's not something he went out and created for 17 himself.

18 He was serving the country. He was in the military 19 for 16 years. He was inactive duty until 2007 and then 20 became active duty in 2007, Your Honor. He has done 21 three tours, three combat tours, two in Iraq and one in 22 Afghanistan. And it was a culmination of those combat 23 tours that obviously led to a diagnosis of PTSD, things 24 that he saw over there, things that he did, you know.
25 There are several occasions where he -- like one in

1 particular we noted through the records, Your Honor, he 2 watched a fellow soldier commit suicide right in front 3 of him. And those are things that he -- obviously 4 affects him ongoing in life.

5 Taking that, Your Honor, and knowing that 6 underlying all this is PTSD, he also had -- and I'm 7 going to go into an explanation of all these other 8 things that were going on with him. And, again, Your 9 Honor, at some point, he did start seeking treatment.
10 In the year of 2014, he was actually seeking three 11 different options and trying to get treatment and trying 12 to get help, but we still ended up here.

13 During his time at CSERP, the program at the 14 military, it's very well documented he had chronic PTSD, 15 he had chronic PTSD associated with nightmares, severe 16 anxiety, severe depression, problems with interpersonal 17 relationships, basically all the symptoms you would 18 expect to see from PTSD.

19 In December of 2014, which is in between the times 20 of these robberies also, he is noted to have severe 21 depressive symptoms, he's experienced significant PTSD 22 symptoms, high levels of distress. I understand the 23 connection in terms of these robberies occurring, but 24 that was something that was well documented leading up 25 to this, and that he was obviously in this state of 1 distress and stress.

2 He also was seeking treatment from Barnabas Medical 3 Center. And that was with his wife, actually. He was 4 going through therapy and counseling with her. Your 5 Honor, they were married and -- for going on ten years
6 when he got arrested. They had a volatile relationship, 7 and I say that in terms of the instability of their 8 relationship.

9 The year of 2014 in particular was full of struggle
10 and stress, I would say. They sought treatment 11 beginning in January of 2014 because of the marital 12 difficulties. His wife was also pregnant later that 13 year with their third child. That third child was 14 actually only two months old when he got arrested.

15 During the pregnancy, there was added stress, Your 16 Honor, because she had had a miscarriage the year prior 17 of his son, and that's something that's, again, noted in 18 the documents, that he was struggling to cope with and 19 understand the meaning of that loss. That led to 20 additional marital issues, and that his wife is Lashanta 21 [phonetic], she thought that he was blaming her for the 22 miscarriage. He thought that she wasn't -- that she was 23 mad at him and that kind of led to more of an 24 interruption and instability in the family.

25 But they were seeking treatment. They were trying

1 to put their family back together. He has two other 2 daughters. He has a total of three. At the time she 3 was pregnant, he had two other daughters who were 8, 9, 4 and 7 at the time -- she was 8 going on 9, the other was 5 7. And the oldest child actually has MS, so that was 6 also a struggle or an obstacle for them to give her all 7 the care and needs and attention that she needed on top 8 of that.

9 Your Honor, leading up to, again, November 2014, 10 which is how we get to where we are, he was also dealing 11 with the pending possible separation of the military.
12 So kind of everything was coming up in a flux. His wife 13 was going to leave and they were separated, and then a 14 week later, she decided she was going to stay, but he 15 moved out in May of 2014. A week and a half later, he 16 moved back into the home. Then his wife was talking 17 about I think the end of June of 2014 that she was 18 possibly going to move to Florida, which is where most 19 of their family and where they met and the family was 20 situated. So there was this constant kind of up in the 21 air of what was going to happen with him.

22 He had previously, up to this point, had a fairly 23 stable life in terms of high school, college graduate.
24 He got his master's degree, worked for some years as a 25 teacher and then went into the military. Fell in love

1 in between there and got married, had a family, and all 2 of a sudden, all this instability is coming up, Your 3 Honor, coupled with having done three tours in the 4 military -- or combat tours while in the Army.

5 As that's all going on, on top of it, Your Honor, 6 it's clear that Cedrick, in terms of our interviews with 7 friends, with coworkers, with, you know, his family, 8 that Cedrick was also a person who took that all on 9 himself. He saw himself as being -- he wanted to be the 10 sole provider for his family. He wanted to keep his 11 family together no matter what. Reaching out for help 12 was something that he knew he could do, but doing it was 13 something he struggled to actually follow through and 14 do. He felt that as the man growing up in a household, 15 that it was all on him.

16 And the way I see it, Your Honor, is that it 17 starts, you've got PTSD at the level already, then he's 18 adding on family life, he's adding on with a newborn 19 coming, he's adding on the concern that she's going to 20 miscarry again, he's adding on the struggling of the 21 instability of his marriage, then around the same time 22 is he's going to be separated from the military. That's 23 something he thought that he may want to get out of at 24 one point and then thought I'm going to do this for the 25 rest of my life. But he was about to be separated from

1 the military as well and possibly repeat that, lose 2 everything as he put it in one of his records, and that 3 his family was going to be gone, the military was going 4 to be gone.

5 On top of all this, Your Honor, also the financial 6 stress for the same reasons as I outlined: family of 7 three, his wife wasn't working at the time, he was the 8 sole financial provider. And this was all stuff he just 9 kept to himself and kept trying to put on his own 10 shoulders to take care of. That amount of stress, Your 11 Honor, that amount of somewhat self-destruction to me is 12 how we end up in this situation and end up with all 13 these things that happened in this four-week period.

14 In October, so the month prior to this, his doctor 15 that he was seeing for these troubles, one of them, had 16 even noted that at that point, she wrote a letter to the 17 military stating that at that point, she was very 18 concerned about his level of anxiety, that it had become 19 a concern for her and that he, at that point, was 20 unwilling to consider the medication to some degree 21 because of his status as a soldier and that, from her 22 report, that he noted that that was a sign of weakness.

23 I can't help but say that his experience in the 24 military and combat had some effect on him.

25 Prior to that, Your Honor, he got his bachelor's 1 degree in English in 2002. I handed up a copy of his 2 resume. I think it's four or five pages long. It's 3 listing out work that he has done, places he has taught.

4 Mentoring programs I think are listed, and I'll go 5 through those.

6 He has a BA in English in 2002 and public 7 administration from Florida A&M. He received his 8 master's in 2006 from Lynn University in education 9 administration and leadership.

10 In October of 2013, which would have been the year 11 -- just at a year prior to this, we have multiple 12 letters from people in the military that were not 13 written on our behalf -- I mean for this purpose, but 14 were submitted through the military chain of command in 15 terms of Mr. Gaines and Cedrick, how he was perceived by 16 his superiors and colleagues in the military.

17 One of them, Your Honor, is Alan Charles. He wrote 18 a letter October of 2013 in which he states that Cedrick 19 was, quote, extremely kind, dependable and well-regarded 20 among his peers. Every minute with him was a joy. He 21 stated that he could safely say he is very -- that he 22 has a very firm grasp on Gaines's personality, ethics 23 and work habits, that Mr. Gaines has shown himself to be 24 an honest, hard-working and personable individual, that 25 not only in terms of his military successes but that he

1 also worked with volunteer organizations outside of the 2 work setting, that he had proven himself to be a gentle 3 and selfless individual when it comes to matters of 4 social justice, and he's an expert at efficiency, and a 5 great work ethic, and that he, quote, is an exemplary 6 human being with the brainpower and personality and 7 heart necessary to succeed in any setting. This is just 8 12 months prior to this, Your Honor.

9 He, I believe, was able to cope for a, to me, 10 shockingly long time with all that he had going on, but 11 at some point in 2014 and in terms of the record we 12 reviewed, slowly was unraveling.

13 Another letter, Your Honor, states that the purpose 14 of the letter regarding, again, Cedrick is to provide 15 his strongest recommendation for retention of Cedrick, 16 that he's a standout performer among a group of great 17 NCOs and soldiers, that he is physically fit, motivated, 18 decisive, and articulate and mature, that he knew 19 Mr. Gaines to be overcoming adversity and challenges in 20 his life, recently having lost an unborn child, taking 21 care of his mother, his father, and daughter who was 22 diagnosed with multiple sclerosis, and where he felt 23 other soldiers may use that as an excuse, but at that 24 time, Cedrick was using that to fuel his drive for 25 motivation and desire to succeed. And it goes on to say

1 that he shoulders responsibility of various tasks,
2 helped to create ultimate work environment as mentioned 3 by soldiers that are under his supervision.

4 Another officer, Larry McNeil, states, again, very 5 positive information about Cedrick, that he's among the 6 very best of the soldiers he's ever worked with during 7 his 26 years in the military, that Cedrick has an 8 impressive performance record, that he is serving in a 9 higher paid -- higher paid pay grade position with 10 distinction, that he leads by the front by named 11 selection of the 35th signal brigade due to his unique 12 skills and detail -- attention to detail. He has 13 leadership capabilities, that he continually strives for 14 self-improvement, that he's an outstanding role model 15 and soldier and a proven leader, and that other soldiers 16 deserve his leadership in terms of why they would 17 recommend him.

18 Another, Your Honor, is from a Curtis Andrews, 19 which I believe is his captain, stated that Cedrick has 20 demonstrated work ethic and ability to multitask, he's 21 persistent in his evidence of outside duty hours as 22 well, that Cedrick would be successful in any endeavor, 23 and that he could attest his character, dedication, 24 loyalty not only to the United States, but to his family 25 and faith as well, that he had touched the lives of many

1 youth in his hometown and community and his -- based on 2 his former teaching to reach through the next level.
3 And I'll talk a little bit more about that, Your Honor.
4 It's the mentoring program that Cedrick was part of 5 creating.

6 And the last one, Your Honor, in terms of his 7 military references, there is another that states that 8 -- I'm sorry. This is from Jermaine Purdy, a captain 9 who states that Cedrick regularly performs and delivers 10 at a risk level above his rank and experience, he has 11 the ability to influence his peers who perform at the 12 same level as himself, which is a reflection of his 13 leadership potential. His selflessness and work ethic 14 has improved the efficiency of their second battalion, 15 and goes on to state in terms of his professionalism, 16 moral character and that he has the seven Army values, 17 and basically another letter in support of Cedrick in 18 terms of the military and pertaining to him.

19 Additionally, Your Honor, when he was at Florida
20 A&M, he was very involved in a fraternity, Phi Beta 21 Sigma, and they kept fairly close contact. I think 22 there was ten people in his class that year in terms of 23 getting into the fraternity, and for the most part, a 24 lot of them had stayed in touch and were close friends 25 still. We interviewed and talked to many of them.

1 Again, for the most part, everyone was very shocked to 2 hear that Cedrick was in this situation.

3 One of them, Clarence Hicks, stated that Cedrick 4 had always been incredibly emotional, always felt a lot, 5 you know, could not believe this situation.

6 Chris Rasberry said he was quiet and sensitive,
7 never violent, the complete opposite, at some point
8 thought that Cedrick may have developed PTSD.

9 Raul Lewis described him previous to his time 10 overseas as being social, athletic, happy-go-lucky, 11 emotional. At some point, I don't know if Cedrick knows 12 this or not, but his nickname was crybaby because of 13 what they described him as feeling a lot all the time 14 and being emotional.

15 He then goes on to say that Cedrick wasn't the same 16 after he went overseas. He became standoffish, 17 difficult to reach, that he had talked to Cedrick and 18 Cedrick had admitted to him to some degree that there 19 was some financial issues and stress at the home that he 20 wasn't letting his wife know about, which, again, to me 21 is consistent with he's not telling anybody at all 22 what's really going on with him. And according to 23 Mr. Lewis, he just believed that there was a lot of 24 experience from the military that had changed him and 25 that he noticed a change in him after the tours.

1 In terms of his wife, Your Honor, she couldn't be 2 here today. I've been in touch with her a great deal 3 over the course of this. She lives in Florida. She's 4 there with their three daughters. Like I said, they met 5 back in 2004. They were married going on a decade when 6 he got arrested. They met when they were both teachers.
7 She was a special education teacher at the time.

8 Around that time, Your Honor, he had -- or shortly 9 after had -- shortly before, sorry, had developed a 10 mentoring program that was called Next Level. I believe 11 that was in the stuff I submitted to Your Honor.

12 And that was a program where him and several other 13 men had got together and created this program to mentor 14 youth and try to keep them on the right path. And it 15 was kind of a Big Brother program, but it seemed to me 16 in reading the article about it that it was even a 17 little bit more intense and they really got involved in 18 these kids' lives and stayed in touch with them. But he 19 was -- he helped implement and create that program.
20 There's a news article, a story about that program in 21 Florida.

22 He also, in Florida, from Congress, actually, from 23 a member of Congress got a letter recognizing his 24 involvement and recognizing their appreciation of all 25 the work that the Next Level program had done for the

1 children in that community and his involvement and 2 participation in that program.

3 He taught girls basketball, Your Honor, in middle 4 school -- when he was a middle school teacher. He 5 taught the high school -- or high school football.

6 Lashanta states that he was always proud, he wanted 7 the sole responsibility over the family. You know, she 8 documented or corroborated that he, you know, frequently 9 had nightmares and night terrors during their marriage 10 after his combat.

11 All of that, Your Honor, is to say that that's -- 12 that's who he was and I believe is still and can become 13 again and can be this person that he had been up till 14 his arrest in November or leading up to that year in 15 terms of focusing on the community, helping out, 16 developing mentoring programs, working with his family 17 trying to take care of them.

18 And I think -- equally, I think it was Ms. Walker 19 said -- or not Ms. Walker, Mr. Stern, the victim, said 20 that, you know, he dreams of this armed robbery every 21 night. And I don't doubt that. I'm sure Cedrick does 22 not doubt that in terms of the trauma and how he relived 23 that. I want that to be balanced with the trauma that 24 Cedrick also is reliving. That's not meant as any 25 excuse. It's not an excuse. That's why he's pleading

1 guilty and accepting responsibility for 45 counts that's 2 before Your Honor today.

3 But that doesn't take away, I don't believe, to get 4 a context of who he was, who he is and that that needs 5 to be weighed against, obviously, what the State is 6 saying in terms of him being a menace to society for 7 those four weeks and creating -- I think Ms. Walker had 8 said that the sentence should be reflective of the harm 9 inflicted on individuals and the harm on a community.
10 And we're not sitting here saying that that's not -- 11 that didn't happen. We know the victims were 12 traumatized. I have no doubt about that. I know the 13 community, during that time, was -- you know, it was in 14 the news and they were trying to figure out what was 15 going on. And I'm not trying to take away from that at 16 all. But I do think that equally that needs to be ---

17 THE COURT: Balanced.

18 MS. DAVIS: --- there's the word. Needs to be 19 balanced against all of the things that he has given to 20 the community, has given to his family, has given to the 21 military, has given to this country by his service in 22 the military. And I think that that is a unique 23 situation in terms of standing before Your Honor. He 24 has no prior criminal history up until this arrest.

25 For all of those reasons, that's why we're asking

1 Your Honor for the lower end of the spectrum. I know
2 the State's at the high end of the spectrum. I think, 3 based on everything that we know about Cedrick leading 4 up to this, that that warrants serious consideration.

5 I know that Mr. Jewett is here, Your Honor. He 6 doesn't want to address the Court, but he works with the 7 VA in -- as an outreach, so he goes to the jail and 8 meets with people that are veterans. I just wanted to 9 let you know he's here in support of Cedrick.

10 Cedrick's father is also here, Ricky Bozeman.
11 We've been in touch.

12 He is also -- well, he was in the military. He's 13 actually retired now, but he was in the military and 14 served for 26 years. He now works for the Army, but he 15 actually flew out here from California -- from Alabama 16 to be here, and also is here, obviously, in support of 17 Cedrick.

18 And I know that Cedrick had written a letter.

19 DEFENDANT GAINES: Good afternoon, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

21 DEFENDANT GAINES: First and foremost, I'd like to 22 thank God for chastising me, (inaudible) conviction not 23 only for my participation in the before mentioned 24 crimes, but to be truly remorseful for the damage that I 25 caused, that I need to renew my spirit and purpose in 1 life in the most unlikely places.

2 As I awake every day in my cell, I pray for another 3 chance to be a better man, husband, father, son, 4 brother, friend, teacher and mentor to those I have let 5 down and those who both depend on me and looked up to 6 me.

7 To the victims, I'm sorry for my involvement on 8 every level for these foolish crimes and foolish 9 offenses against your respected business and customers.
10 These acts do not dictate the kind of person I was, I am 11 or have yet to become. It is with great shame I 12 contract broken and humble heart that I address you all 13 this morning -- well, this afternoon. I'm at the mercy 14 of the Court and ask for another opportunity to prove 15 myself I can be a positive driving force in society and 16 even more effective and productive person in life. I 17 ask all of you, Judge Manning, members of the Court, my 18 legal team, victims in these cases, my parents, my 19 family, the United States Army, and all the professional 20 charitable organizations I belong to, that we've donated 21 to, asking you to forgive me for doing the things in the 22 past I shouldn't have done and for not doing things I 23 should have done. I promise to continue to stay on 24 God's path of righteousness.

25 To my father, dad, thank you for your unconditional

1 support, both personally and professionally. Thank you 2 for teaching me how to be a man, stand up and take 3 responsibility for my actions or lack thereof, for all 4 my accomplishments in life. This period of time shows 5 that there will always be pitfalls in life, but I can 6 overcome them and to avoid them all together. I'm sorry 7 I let you down. No parent should be placed in the 8 position you are in right now, but I swear on my life I 9 will make you proud again.

10 To my sweetheart, my 10-year-old daughter Shania, 11 my best friend going through everything with my 12 9-year-old daughter, Ariana, and my (inaudible). Daddy 13 is sorry for not being there during this critical and 14 most impressionist stages of your lives. Y'all are my 15 world. I love and miss you all daily.

16 To my lovely wife, I know you wanted to extend our 17 family, and I'm sorry for not being there to assist you 18 with nurturing, caring and raising our family together.
19 God didn't intend it for it to be that way, and we'll 20 always be a team. You are my everything. I love and 21 miss you.

22 I apologize to all the people who invested so much 23 time and effort, hard work and belief into my 24 educational dreams and endeavors such to become a PhD 25 candidate and opening my own educational business.

1 Again, I've made wrong choices in my life, but those 2 past atrocious and formidable deeds will have no bearing 3 or define my legacy.

4 I look forward to restoration of my character, 5 virtues, my blessings. I pray to be able to obtain my 6 dreams, provide for my family, continue a long history 7 of public community service and outreach programs to 8 better the lives of misinformed, misguided,
9 misunderstood young men in the community. We've all 10 made mistakes. Let's all return to God sincerely, 11 remorseful and afresh to apprentice and turn completely 12 away from those mistakes that we have a clean slate and 13 are forgiven and to be able to start anew.

14 To everyone involved in this hearing this 15 afternoon, court proceedings, I extend my apologies with 16 gratitude. I ask you all for your forgiveness, 17 understanding and justifiable support.

18 Thank you for your time, and God bless.

19 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Gaines.

20 Anything further?

21 MS. WALKER: No, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: What I've concluded to do is this. I 23 thought it would take all afternoon, and I want to be 24 straight and reflective, as fair as I can to both sides.
25 "Balance" is the word you were looking for, and that's

1 what I'm going to try to do. We'll reconvene at 10:00
2 in the morning.

3 Is there any issue with that? Any problem?

4 MS. CAMPBELL: No, Your Honor. I just want to 5 address ---

6 THE COURT: Oh, yeah.

7 MS. CAMPBELL: Just a few, just briefly, Your 8 Honor. They're talking about the ---

9 THE COURT: I'm sorry. This is her opportunity to 10 reply, and then you're going to get a chance to respond.

11 MS. DAVIS: Yes, sir. And it was my fault. His 12 father wanted to speak, and I forgot to give him a 13 chance.

14 THE COURT: Okay. I'll be happy to hear from him 15 now. Mr. Gaines?

16 MS. DAVIS: Mr. Bozeman.

17 MR. BOZEMAN: Yes, sir. Good afternoon, everybody.
18 I just want to thank you very much for allowing me the 19 opportunity.

20 I just want everybody to know that Cedrick is my 21 son, and for what I'm hearing today, it doesn't sound 22 like the son of mine. I knew him a lot different than 23 that. I suffer from PTSD myself, PTSD, and I'm the one 24 that kind of encouraged him to go to treatment, which 25 started. But certainly, I do want to help him, but it's

1 just apparent to me that I think something failed along 2 the way from the treatment line. I'm not sure exactly 3 what it is, but he's a different person now.

4 I do want to apologize to the community and the 5 State of South Carolina for anything, and the families 6 that were involved in all of the incidents that 7 occurred. I want to extend my apologies on his behalf 8 as well.

9 So again, I don't believe that confining him to an 10 environment to where it will do more damage than it 11 would help him manage the problem that's going on with 12 him. But I do feel as though some type of assistance 13 that the State can provide to continue on with the 14 mental health situation would help him a long way, 15 because I don't think he fully grasped everything that 16 he really encountered. He's the kind of person that 17 would rather not talk about things because I feel like 18 it's offending him by some means to do it, but he needs 19 to be able to talk about things that really affected him 20 in order to get help. So if that's what the case is 21 that caused him to do what he did, I would appreciate it 22 very much if you could provide the opportunity to get 23 that help.

24 Again, I appreciate you giving me the opportunity 25 to speak. And God bless you, son.

1 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Bozeman.

2 Yes, ma'am.

3 MS. CAMPBELL: Just briefly, Your Honor. We 4 weren't going to go into this on the front end, but then 5 they brought it up. The incident which he -- the claims 6 to have PTSD from occurred back in 2009 where he saw 7 someone commit suicide while he was on deployment.
8 During the time period after that that you would note 9 from the letters that she handed up, he flourished and 10 did well up until at least 2014. He was not entered 11 into any crime until October of 2014.

12 I find it somewhat disingenuous that they blame 13 Mrs. Gaines for the tumultuous relationship when, in 14 fact, he was the one that was -- the reason he was in 15 Sumter was because he was having an affair with someone 16 else.

17 Also, after this happened, in talking with 18 Ms. Gaines, investigators found out she thought he was 19 paying the bills and everything with all this money that 20 was coming in, and then she later found out with him 21 after jail phone calls and stuff is that he wasn't even 22 paying the family bills. They were behind. Once he had 23 been arrested, she found out that, you know, the 24 payments weren't being made and things of that nature, 25 so for the reasons for some of this.

1 In addition, he was hanging out, he apparently had 2 some football player friend of his that he was trying to 3 hang out with who played for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 4 and basically, even though he was trying to get 5 treatment, this treatment that supposedly caused him to 6 do all of this had just initiated. He actually used the 7 treatment as kind of a cover because they didn't keep 8 accountings of where he was at night and he could give 9 an explanation to his wife why he wasn't home at certain 10 times in addition.

11 So that would be the only thing we'd want to bring 12 up to the Court.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 MS. DAVIS: And, Your Honor, extremely briefly.
15 One, I don't think that I said, and if I in any way 16 implied, we never meant to, that his wife was somehow to 17 blame for their tumultuous relationship. I would simply 18 say that their marriage was unstable, which had 19 previously been a pretty stable marriage, and then 20 starting in January, according to the records we have 21 where they were seeking treatment January of 2014, I was 22 simply saying it became unstable in that she was -- they 23 were going to separate, they were back together, then 24 she's going to move to Florida, then they were going to 25 stay back together. I didn't say anything in terms of

1 and didn't mean to apply, and Cedrick would certainly 2 be ---

3 THE COURT: Let me -- I'm going to give everybody a 4 chance to say. You -- she says that you said something.
5 It comes back and forth.

6 MS. DAVIS: I know. I don't want to say that on 7 the record, and I certainly don't want Cedrick to ---

8 THE COURT: That's fine.

9 MS. DAVIS: He would be none too pleased if he 10 thought that I was blaming ---

11 THE COURT: I'm 65 years old. I've been around a 12 long time.

13 MS. DAVIS: Yes, sir.

14 THE COURT: And that's why I'm going to think about 15 it. Nobody may not like my decision. I might not like 16 my decision. But I want everybody to know I'll reflect 17 upon it and do the very best I can, taking Mr. Gaines's 18 position into account as well as the victims and the 19 impact that all this had. So I will be as balanced as I 20 possibly can, as fair as I possibly can.

21 And because you're pronouncing sentencing doesn't 22 necessarily mean that you're exactly happy with 23 yourself, but sometimes things have to be done. And 24 that's why I'm going to sleep on it. And I'll see you 25 all at 10:00 in the morning.

1 MS. CAMPBELL: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 MS. WALKER: Thank you, Your Honor.

TRANSCRIPT OF RECORD

(Whereupon, Defendant's Exhibit No. 1 was premarked for identification.)

THE COURT: All right. We're back on the record in the case of the State v. Cedric Gaines. I think I'm going to review this for my own purposes and hopefully to clarify the record a little bit.

Eighteen counts of kidnapping; one count of a conspiracy to kidnap, so I -- fifteen counts of armed robbery; one count of attempted armed robbery; four counts of possession of a gun during the commission of a violent crime; one count of pointing and presenting a firearm; one count of assault and battery, first-degree; and four counts of unlawful carrying of a pistol; is that all accurate so far?

MS. CAMPBELL: I believe it's -- I think the conspiracy is actually a kidnapping as well.

THE COURT: The conspiracy is also a kidnapping?

MS. CAMPBELL: It's actually a kidnapping.

THE COURT: So that would be 19 ---

MS. CAMPBELL: --- 19 ---

THE COURT: --- counts ---

MS. CAMPBELL: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: --- of kidnapping?

1 MS. CAMPBELL: That's the only ---

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MS. CAMPBELL: --- clarification.

4 THE COURT: All right. I guess there's no easy way to 5 do this, so I'll do the best I can.

6 All right. There's four counts of unlawful carrying 7 of a pistol, all from Richland County. Indictments No.
8 2015-2936, 2015-1220, 2015-2932, and 2015-2940 is what I 9 have. And as to those four counts of unlawful carrying of 10 a pistol, I sentence you, Cedric Gaines, be committed to 11 the South Carolina Department of Corrections for a period 12 of one year and pay a fine of $1,000.

13 On Indictment No. 2015-2937, this is assault and 14 battery, first-degree. Sentence of the Court is that you, 15 Cedric Gaines, be committed to the South Carolina 16 Department of Corrections for a period of 10 years.

17 On Indictment No. 2015-0771, State v. Cedric Gaines, 18 pointing and presenting, sentence, 5 years.

19 On Indictments Number -- these are four counts of 20 possession of a gun during commission of a violent crime.
21 They're Indictments No. 2015-2941, 2015-2933, 2015-2928, 22 and 2015-2934. The sentence is 5 years.

23 Now, there's two counts of attempted armed robbery.
24 They're Indictments No. 2015-1148 and 2015-2939. And the 25 sentence as to those counts of attempted armed robbery, 20

1 years.

2 And each and every sentence I impose, he's credit -- 3 he's to be given credit served of 508 days, I do believe is 4 the number that everybody mentioned.

5 Now I guess we get to the serious part. That's the 6 armed robbery charge and -- 15 counts, I do believe. Am I 7 correct so far still?

8 (Whereupon, Ms. Campbell and Ms. Walker conferred.)

9 THE COURT: On Indictments 2015-0761, Richland County, 10 2015-0763, 2015-0765, 2015-0767, 2015-1143, 2015-0769, 11 2015-2929, 2015-1141, 2015-1136, 2015-1214, 2015-2920, 12 2015-2935 -- they're all out of Richland County -- two 13 armed robberies from Sumter County, 2016-0605 and 2016-14 0604, the sentence on all the armed robbery charges are to 15 be 30 years, credit for time served of 508 days.

16 Now, these indictments I just read out involving the 17 armed robbery, attempted armed robbery, possession of a gun 18 during commission of a violent crime, pointing and 19 presenting a firearm, assault and battery first-degree, 20 unlawful carrying of a pistol, these sentences are to run 21 concurrent, each with one another.

22 That remains -- or leaves me with the 19 counts of 23 kidnapping. All right. So everything except for the 24 kidnapping -- the armed robbery, the attempted armed 25 robbery, possession of a gun during the commission of a

1 violent crime, pointing and presenting a firearm, assault
2 and battery first-degree, and unlawful carrying of a 3 pistol, they are concurrent, each with one another. All 4 those sentences' indictments, he's to give -- be given 5 credit for 508 days time served.

6 Now, the kidnapping charges, the sentence will be 7 consecutive to the sentence I just imposed on the armed 8 robbery, attempted armed robbery, possession of a gun 9 during the commission of a violent crime, pointing and 10 presenting a firearm, assault and battery first-degree, 11 unlawful carrying of a pistol.

12 Now, as to the 19 counts of kidnapping, these will be 13 all Richland County indictments: 2015-0762, 2015-0764, 14 2015-0766, 2015-0768, 2015-1147, 2015-1150, 2015-1146, 15 2015-1145, 2015-1144, 2015-0770, 2015-2938, 2015-1138, 16 2015-1139, 2015-1142, 2015-1216, 2015-1219, 2015-1218, 17 2015-1215, 2015-1217, all kidnapping charges, the sentence
18 on all those charges, the indictments I just read, is 16 19 years. These 16 years are consecutive to all the other 20 charges that I imposed. But they are concurrent with one 21 another. All kidnapping charges are concurrent with one 22 another, but consecutive to the armed robbery and other 23 charges. And I think, under the statute -- I could be 24 wrong -- but my belief is that he's entitled to a credit 25 for time served on those charges too, even though the 1 sentences are to run consecutive.

2 Now, I've been as clear as I possibly can, as simple 3 as I possibly can be. And it's very complicated. There's 4 a lot of charges, and I had a brief meeting with the 5 lawyers in chambers. And I've asked that a short order be 6 prepared to accompany all the sentencing sheets to the 7 Department of Corrections so there will be as clear as 8 understanding as you can have in a situation like this.

9 So, Mr. Gaines, I don't have much to say. My sentence 10 speaks for itself. I feel sorry for you, your father, your 11 children -- I don't particularly feel sorry for you. But I 12 do feel sorry for your father, your children, your wife 13 that's probably going to be your ex-wife.

14 And I've always admired and respected soldiers. I 15 respect you for the service that you've given to your 16 country.

17 There's a reckoning. There's a price to pay. And 18 it's not an easy decision to make. If you think I get any 19 pleasure out of sentencing you to what -- you to what I 20 have just done, I do not. I wish I didn't have to do this.
21 It sort of breaks my heart in a way to see something like 22 this unfold before my very eyes.

23 My father and all my uncles served in World War II.
24 And I have no greater respect for any other human being in 25 this world and this life than for soldiers who serve their

1 country and risk their life.

2 But there's a price you have to pay. And you're going 3 to pay dearly. But each and every victim that you had -- 4 for example, I have had guns pointed at me in my life. And 5 you'll be driving along one day. It'll be 4:30 in the 6 afternoon; it'll be a bright, sunshiny, spring day. And 7 you'll have a flashback to about somebody pointing a gun at 8 you and you'll wonder: Is this the end of my life?

9 And some people, I think -- probably some of your 10 victims on their deathbed, will wake up and say: My life 11 could've been over 30 years from now.

12 Now, do I punish you specifically for that? No. I 13 tried to figure out a number that's fair to you, fair to 14 the victims. It's not an easy thing to do.

15 I wish you the very best. I wish everybody in this 16 matter the very best. And that's my sentence. As far as 17 I'm concerned, this matter is concluded.

18 MS. CAMPBELL: Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Thank you all so very much.

20 MR. MEADORS: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 MS. WALKER: Thank you, Your Honor.

Developmental History:

Mr. Gaines reported he was born in Ft. Lauderdale, in Sunrise. His parents were not married. He told Dr. Cooper he lived with his mother and younger brother. He denied that he repeated any grades in school. He reported he attended college and Florida A&M. He stated he played football and basketball. Medical records from Moncrief noted he had a Master's degree in education leadership (from Lynn University).

Vocational History:

He served in the United States Army for 17 years. He was Army reserve from 1996-2003 and served active duty from 2007 until 2015. His rank was E-5. His MOS was 42A (Human Resource Specialist) and 44C (Financial management Technician). He stated he served three tours in Iraq and one in Afghanistan. Three combat deployments were mentioned in his CSARP records. His CSARP admission from Marc Cooper, MD confirmed he had three combat deployments. His first deployment in 2002-03 was fifteen months. He routinely went on convoys and encountered small arms fire and mortars. He was stationed with the United States Marine Corps and ordered to shoot a child who had a bomb strapped to him. He did not shoot but watched a marine shoot the child. He reported he no longer viewed children as innocent and had difficulty trusting others. His second deployment was from March 2003-May 2004. While away from Kandahar, another US soldier bombed the living quarters, and 16 soldiers died. His third deployment was from July 2009 until November 2010. He worked in Camp Victory and encountered mortar attacks. He reported to Dr. Cooper "that a battle buddy shot himself in the head while in the phone tent with the patient." He reported he was in shock and couldn't speak for two to three weeks. "He felt like his commander blamed him."

He was court martialed on August 4, 2014 for allowing a trainee to use a telephone to contact her family. He was demoted from E-5 to E-4, loss of pay for two months and sentenced to 45 days hard labor. His commanding officer requested Fitness for Duty evaluation in September 2014 which upset him greatly. This occurred after he was found to have taken a night job at Walmart without requesting authorization. He was reported to be repeatedly late. His wife was pregnant with their third child and was considered a high-risk pregnancy according to his Moncrief records 9/29/14. He stated he worked a second job so she wouldn't have to work while pregnant.

Medical History

He reported he fractured his left foot while playing football. He stated he had pins placed. He reported he also had a broken hand. He was diagnosed with a stress fracture of his foot in September 2014. He reported he suffers from migraine headaches. He reports right sided pain in his frontal lobe area. He related his headaches to his TBI from the military although his military records did not confirm this report. Reference has been made to TBI (Traumatic Brain Injury) but his headaches were assessed as tension headaches. He reported he was prescribed Maxalt which was confirmed in his records. He reported his headaches begin with blurred vision "like a glass." He also reported poor memory and stated he relied upon lists in the community. He described hitting his head on a wall during his second tour in Iran and losing consciousness when he attempted to avoid a mortar attack. He stated he was flown to Bahrain for treatment. He has numerous medical conditions which he did not report.

He had a vasectomy on 9/18/14 as he told hospital the miscarriage his wife had in 2012 was very traumatic, "and they did not want to go through that again." He was diagnosed with a stress fracture of his left foot on 9/17/14. He was also noted to be suffering from uncontrolled Graves' disease. These conditions affected him when he was ordered for the fitness for duty evaluation. This is the same period of time he was working at Wal Mart and cited for being late for duty. At the time of his arrest in December 2014, his last TSH was abnormally high at 32 which can cause depression.

He was also noted to have a B12 deficiency which required monthly injections, a folate deficiency and a Vitamin D deficiency. He has not received his B12 injections while incarcerated. He had radioactive Iodine in June 2013. His TSH was 55.09 on 1/10/14. He reported he is presently prescribed Synthroid .175 mg daily but required .25 mg in the community. He reported recent weight gain and low energy which are symptoms of hypothyroidism. He was diagnosed with severe sleep apnea in April 2014. He continues to wear his CPAP while incarcerated.

Family History:

He reported he had one sibling who was released from prison. He reported his brother resides in Oakland Park. He reported his mother and stepfather have been married for 38 years. He stated his mother is 63 and has diabetes.

Psychiatric History:

According to evaluation from Ms. Blanch-Barr in 2014, his treatment began in October 2012 after their son miscarried.

In December 12, 2013, Family Advocacy Program (FAP) notified after he and his wife argued about his court martial proceedings. He was kept in barracks, GOMAR (General Officer Memorandum or Reprimand) and not founded 1/14. He was seen on 12/13/13 as an emergency walk in. He had a second reading of his Article 15 on the day. His wife wanted to attend and asked chain of command to wait until she could get off work. He stated "she got mad, said I was hiding something and threw my cell phone in the toilet. I grabbed her and told her to stop. I went back to shower, and she called 911. The MPs came."

He began individualized psychotherapy with Michele Blanch-Barr in March 2014. Allegations by civilian. Says son died August 2012 and wife lost another child August 2013. Family Advocacy reported incident did not meet criteria (1/15/14).

He reported he received services through the C-SARP (Combat Stress and Addictions Recovery Program) at Ft. Jackson from November 2014-12/22/14. CSARP is a five-week treatment program including a 2-week inpatient, two weeks on the unit for outpatient care and then follow up. He stated he was treated by Dr. Cooper. Dr. Cooper observed symptoms of Depression and PTSD. See the above descriptions of trauma in his vocational history confirming his three deployments.

During his CSARP admission with Dr. Cooper, he reported at age 12-13, watching his mother get beaten by her boyfriend. He reported that he attacked her boyfriend. He was reported to have attended Palmetto Intense Outpatient Program (IOP) from September- October 2013 related to stress from his legal charges. He reported beginning treatment in 2012 after his wife miscarried. At the time of his admission, he was prescribed Sertraline and Trazodone. His admission paperwork also noted he took Bupropion, Vitamin B Injections, Folic acid and Synthroid (TSH 8.52) for hypothyroidism. He was diagnosed with Depression, PTSD, Vitamin B deficiency, Vitamin D deficiency, Folate deficiency, foot pain, constipation, hypothyroidism and erectile dysfunction. He also reported his family left for six months due to the court martial stress and his anger and depression. The record also noted he had a TBI history. He was prescribed medications for migraines and also given Prazosin for nightmares. At the time of his arrest, his TSH was 32.34!!!!

The records from Moncrief Army Hospital indicate he participated in all assigned treatment from November 2014- December 2014. His diagnosis was chronic PTSD. He was an active participant and reported to have moderate impulse control. The note from 12/3/14 indicated he as "calm and anxious at the same time." He presented his trauma account. He was observed to be depressed and anxious. He was noted to attend all groups and be an active participant. He was noted to be isolated from peers. On 12/5/14, he reported feeling overwhelmed because he had personal and group related things to do. He went on an overnight pass On 12/6/14 with his medications. He was noted to be nauseated on 12/7/14. He reported pain and feeling "Lousy" on 12/8/14. He had multiple layers of clothing and a wool cap. He was noted to still be an active participant despite not feeling well. He had GI complaints. He was noted to go home and take Theraflu. He was excused from a group on 12/10/14 due to a physical therapy appointment. He was noted to be irritable and reported being frustrated on 12/11/14. He was prescribed a Lidoderm pain patch and reported it as helpful. He was granted another weekend pass on 12/12/14. The plans were to watch the football game with his brother. He reported his back hurt too much to attend the game. He reported five hours of restless sleep but reported he was getting used to feeling tired. He reported a good pass other than not going to the flea market as planned. He fell on 12/15/14 when his cane got caught in the desk. He was noted to have poor sleep on 12/16/14. The plan was reported to be to transition him back to work. He reported he felt his command was working against him. He was encouraged to write a note. On 12/17/14, his goals were reported as: "get rid of hate issues..., get rid of nightmares..., get my mind back....focus on managing and releasing anger." On 12/18/14, he was confronted in group in an inflammatory manner. He was escorted back to the unit after he expressed homicidal ideation towards the main confronter from the group. He was reported to be better on 12/19/14. He no longer had homicidal ideation. He was granted a weekend pass for the holidays on 12/19/14. He reported a good pass on 12/21/14. He was concerned about his upcoming discharge. He reported nightmares while on pass. On 12/22/14, he did not return to the unit. Contact with his wife indicated the police were at her house. Investigator bass revealed Mr. Gaines was in custody for Armed Robbery. A note from Africa Thomas indicated Lt. Stefan called and asked if Gaines slept at the program. When she confirmed, he stated Gaines' wife told him he didn't sleep there.

Substance Use History:

He denied any drug or alcohol use. There are no records or reports to indicate otherwise.

Legal History:

He had no prior legal history other than a court martial in August 2014 for allowing a trainee to use a phone to contact her family.

Correctional History:

He had one disciplinary for smuggling contraband (2019). He reported he was charged with having his watch. He has received numerous certificates including: Construction site safety, carpentry, and a character-based program. He also completed the education program. He has worked as a teacher assistant since 2016.

Social History:

He reported he has been married 17 years. He stated his wife and he taught at the same school. He reported he has three daughters. He described his relationship with his mother and daughters as positive. He stated his daughters are ages 15, 14 and 6.

Mental Status Examination:

He was hypervigilant due to the setting of the virtual evaluations, especially during his first interview. Various personnel would enter and leave the office where the evaluation was conducted. He was often tearful during the evaluations, especially when discussing his family or his sentence. He was not suicidal or homicidal.

He was able to register five items. He recalled two of the five after five minutes. He recalled a third item with a forced choice. His concentration was intact. He was able to abstract similarities between complex objects. He performed average on a test of verbal fluency and did not exhibit perseveration.

He did have lateral nystagmus. His Rhomberg sign was negative.

Diagnoses:

Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder, chronic

Depression by history

Hypothyroidism secondary to Graves disease

Severe sleep apnea

Vit B 12 deficiency by history

Folate deficiency by history

Vit D deficiency by history

s/p foot surgery with new stress fracture in 2014

Opinions:

Mr. Gaines had a plethora of physical illnesses, active mental health issues and severe stressors during the period of his offenses. He appeared to function well until being stationed in South Carolina. His deterioration in function began after his wife had a miscarriage in 2012. She was pregnant with their only son. She became pregnant again and due to the high risk, Mr. Gaines began working a second job. During this period, he was already undergoing an Article 15. The allegations of his infidelity were not shown but caused problems between he and his wife. He was found guilty of allowing a trainee to use a phone. Although his wife requested she attend the hearing, she was not and believed the former allegations of infidelity. His poorly controlled medical illnesses caused him intense sleepiness (hypothyroidism from Graves' disease, B12, Folate and Vitamin D deficiencies, and severe sleep apnea) at a point when he needed more energy to work two jobs. As he began to deteriorate and receive psychiatric treatment, he was diagnosed with PTSD from his service and depression. He was an active participant in treatment and residing in the program (unless on therapeutic pass) when he was arrested.

His wife remained supportive of him until recently. She reported filed for divorce in 2021.

CEDRICK GAINES

THE RESURRECTION OF CHRIST

Now brothers and sisters, I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you, which you received and on which you have taken your stand.

By this gospel you are saved, if you hold firmly to the word I preached to you. Otherwise, you have believed in vain.

For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures.

Statement of Captain Thomas Clark, Jr.

I am an employee of the South Carolina Department of Corrections. During my time at SCDC, I have become familiar with Inmate Cedrick Gaines, #368144. He lives in the "BLIC" unit at Lee Correctional Institution, which is a character dorm housing inmates who have exhibited good behavior. "BLIC" stands for "Better Living Incentive Community." The inmates in the BLIC unit have special privileges that other inmates do not have. Inmate Gaines has been working in education, and I have never had any problems with Mr. Gaines. I have found him to be well behaved and he always follows directives. He also has provided information, upon request, that has been helpful to maintaining the security and safety of the institution.

Captain Thomas Clark, Jr.

Statement of Lt. Teniesha Tucker

I am an employee of the South Carolina Department of Corrections, and I am currently assigned to work at Lee Correctional Institution. During my time at Lee Correctional, I have become familiar with Inmate Cedrick Gaines, #368144. He lives in the "BLIC" unit at Lee, which is a character dorm housing inmates who have exhibited good behavior. "BLIC" stands for "Better Living Incentive Community." The inmates in the BLIC unit have special privileges that other inmates do not receive. Inmate Gaines has been working in education, where he contributes to the success of other inmates. I have never had any problems with Mr. Gaines and have always found him to be well-behaved. He also has been very responsive to questions about how things in his unit are going, and he has provided information that has been helpful to maintaining the security and safety of the institution.

Lt. Teniesha Tucker

Dear Honorable Judge Manning;

I am writing this letter as my proof of the quality of my son Cedrick Kavon Bozeman Gaines. I have known Cedrick for 43 years in the capacity of my oldest son. I have raised my son to be a good soldier or Man. I never had any problems with my son Cedrick and he has never had any problems with the law. My son Cedrick Kavon Bozeman Gaines is innocent. I am quite sure a lot of Professional Individuals would contest to this statement. I have enclosed a couple of letters from other folks stating about Cedrick character for your review.

Cedrick years thru life he was involve in many activities. He was in Broward Sheriff Explorer Group until he graduated, he was also in the U.S. Army. Cedrick has been involved in the United States Army for almost 21 years fighting for his Country.

Cedrick has fought in (3) three wars.

Operation Induring Freedom 2009 & 2010

Operation New Dawn 2003 & 2004

Operation New Iraq & Freedom 2002 & 2003

Cedrick has a master's degree in education and leadership, (2) bachelor degrees one in English Education and one in Public Administration. Cedrick has been working on his PHD in Education Psychology.

Honorable Judge Manning, Cedrick family and my self-depend on him a lot. Since my son incarceration, I have had another heart attack, I have diabetic (insulin dependent) and other issues.

Honorable Judge Manning during the 43 years I have known my son I have found him to be unfailing in his loyalty, kindness, and conscientious good will.

I hope that you will take these remarks about his character into consideration when making your decision about Cedrick Kavon Bozeman Gaines fate.

Students strive for 'Next Level'

Program helps boys reach their potential

BY MARC FREEMAN
EDUCATION WRITER

RIVIERA BEACH: Rafael Lockhart learned early on in his 12-year-old life not to trust many people.

Changing that belief will demand more than a leap of faith. It will take small steps, starting on a second-floor walkway at John F. Kennedy Middle School.

Rafael puts on a blindfold and begins to tiptoe forward on a makeshift obstacle course called a trust walk. It's a pretend minefield, and the seventh-grader must depend on directions from a classmate to avoid objects on the ground and "survive."

It's 3:30 p.m. on a recent Tuesday, and teacher Brian Fitzpatrick has created this demonstration as part of a new after-school program aimed primarily at African-American boys who may be labeled at risk of falling or misbehaving.

The yearlong program, termed The Next Level, teaches about 25 students the principles of high academic and social standards. It's about finding the proper way to manhood, through the guidance of four young, black male teachers who serve as surrogate fathers.

For unsuspecting Rafael, that journey depends on understanding that he can rely on others for help on occasion.

"Everybody is not out to get you," program co-creator Fitzpatrick, 28, tells the students as they start the exercise. "You can trust some people in this world."

A science teacher, Fitzpatrick responds only to the title of "Wise Man" during program hours, which run from 3 to 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday. The students came up with their own nicknames, such as "Afro Thunder" and "Butterfly."

"These fellas, coming where they come from, learn to be distrustful," Fitzpatrick said.

He instructs 13-year-old Daniel Gaines of Riviera Beach that he must call out commands and help Rafael along the winding path.

If Rafael's sneakers touch the rubber chicken, balls or any of the objects, he's a goner.

"You're going to have to listen; you're going to have to trust," Fitzpatrick tells the boys. "You all are your brother's keeper."

About halfway along the walk, Rafael steps on a mine and the anxious crowd roars. Other members of the group then take turns. Some make it all the way; some don't.

But they see they can trust people.

"I want to become a man," said Daniel, who doesn't care that some of his buddies put him down for being a member of The Next Level.

Teacher/Wise Man Cedrick Gaines, 25, and no relation to Daniel, describes the program as a mix between a Big Brother club and an academic fraternity. A language arts and reading instructor, Gaines says the Wise Men are the positive, male role models missing from so many of the students' homes.

"They see a whole different side to us from the classroom," he said, wearing a black shirt with the club's yellow logo on the front and large block lettering on the back that reads "Wise Man Mr. Gaines."

Participation by the teachers and the students is voluntary, and the teachers and other donors pay for program activities such as football game field trips on weekends.

"We're just trying to invest in these kids' lives," said Fitzpatrick, who hopes the program will become a model for the school system.

While The Next Level is built around father figures, it also has 10 mothers, called matriarchs, who provide guidance and financial support.

Dear Mr. Gaines:

I am writing to thank you for the work you are doing mentoring boys at John F. Kennedy Middle School. As a co-creator and continuing partner of "The Next Level" program, you are providing a very valuable resource for these young men, many of whom would be lost to a life of crime or drugs without your guidance. I sincerely appreciate your efforts to inculcate in them the proper ideas about academics, social skills, goal setting and the other components of your program. Educating them in anger and stress management will benefit them immeasurably, especially later in life as they are raising families of their own.

I know how grateful the parents of these young men are for the work you and your colleagues are doing with their children, and I share their gratitude. Thanks to you, I'm sure there are many more well adjusted African-American boys and happier homes. You and the other "Wise Men" are excellent role models. You are the kind of people to whom we can all point with respect and admiration. Thank you again for all you have done and continue to do to save our children. I'm very proud of you!

With warmest regards, I remain

To Whom This May Concern:

As the Director for the Men's Reentry Initiative program at Alvin S Glenn Detention Center, I Mark Sellers, Director of the Men's Reentry Initiative program provide this letter of support for Mr. Cedrick Gaines.

During incarceration, Mr. Gaines has successfully participated in the "Men's Reentry Initiative" program - a twelve week pre-release life skills group which focuses on issues such as: Physical/Mental Health; Alcohol/Drug Abuse; Family Relations; Higher Education; Conflict Resolution; Grief and Loss; Job Training Placement; Mentorship and Literature.

Men's Reentry Initiative program also have community experts who co-facilitate groups weekly on topics related to job search, expungements, financial assistance for Midlands Tech, and other institutions of higher learning that helps to enhance specialized skills. This group was implemented to help equip offenders with the skills needed to help reduce recidivism, identify challenges, and work toward viable solutions with self and others.

Mr. Gaines has been very reflective and cooperative in participation with the Men's Reentry Initiative program, and displayed a willingness and readiness to make positive life style changes. During the Grief/ Loss and Conflict Resolution sessions, Mr. Gaines appeared to have taken responsibility for his actions that led to his incarceration, and showed considerable remorse which is the starting point for sustainable change.

I look forward to working with Mr. Gaines, if needed, in the future as a volunteer in the community or at other facilities co facilitating the Men's Reentry Initiative program and activities. I believe this will help his re-entry become successful.

Thank you in advance for your consideration on Mr. Gaines's behalf.

Respectfully,

To The Honorable Judge Casey Manning,

It is with a heavy heart that I write this character letter for Mr. Gaines. My name is Angella Johnson, I have known this man for over 18 years, and he has served as a father figure not just to myself but my siblings as well. Mr. Gaines came into our lives as my teacher when I was just 11 years old, however, he and his family became so much more, upon learning of my family's economic misfortunes he decided to take us under his wing. Mr. Gaines made sure we were able to take advantage of all academic resources provided at our school, motivated us to join various sports teams. On nights that my mother and father could not transport us from place to place, Mr. Gaines offered up his services and gave us rides when needed to ensure we stayed out of trouble.

Mr. Gaines not only opened his heart but his household as well. He introduced us to his wife and family who all treated us with love and respect as opposed to a charity case. Gaines asked his wife to style our hair as much as we needed at no cost even as we could not finance these styles ourselves. The impact that Mr. Gaines has made not only in our lives but in the community is unmeasurable.

Most Honorable Judge, myself and my family pray that you re-evaluate his case as we miss him so very much and would love to see and hold him again.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dear Honorable Judge Casey Manning,

I'm writing this letter in the hope that by the end of it you will be able to see Mr. Gaines in the same light as I do. Mr. Gaines has been and still will be an important person in my life, he's been like a father figure to me since I was young. Mr. Gaines stepped up and filled the role of a parent not only for me but for many other children who also took his class with me. There were times when Mr. Gaines provided food for me and my family when my parents were unable to. Mr. Gaines has always been a person who keeps people's well-being in his heart.

Mr. Gaines is a bright man who always greeted us with a smile and a joke that followed. It breaks my heart that he is unable to provide such hospitality and guidance to the new generation as he has done for my generation. It further pains me to know that he is missing out on seeing his daughters grow and mature into bright young women or to even see how much my own family has grown as he has had such a major contribution to our success. The community absolutely loves Mr. Gaines, he's helped a lot of us change in a way where we end up doing and being better. His helping hands do not only stop at helping the community as he has also helped his country by providing his services in the military on more than one occasion.

Please provide him with the opportunity to have his case reevaluated and show you all that he is very much so rehabilitated.

The Honorable Judge Manning:

I would like to start by saying that my brotherhood and friendship with Cedrick started in Army Bootcamp of 2007. During my 10 years of Honorable service in the U.S. Army I was deployed to Iraq (APR 08 – Jul 09). While deployed I was awarded multiple accolades due to my work ethic and achievements, at which I was approached with an opportunity to work for the White House. I was officially vetted, approved, and went to work for the White House in December of 2010.

Unfortunately, a series of medical events transpired in 2012 at which point I could no longer serve my country. I was honorably medically retired from the Army in 2014 and given the Meritorious Service Medal. Since being retired I have found great peace and joy serving those in need. Due to my faith in Jesus Christ, it has given me newfound hope and purpose to serve within my community as I have been touched by the Outreach work Cedrick himself has constantly put forth. I have even had the opportunity to travel and help multiple people I previously served with in restoring their marriages.

I actually became friends with Cedrick because of the kindness he showed me while we were in bootcamp. I was dealing with depression from being away from family and I was sitting by myself. He noticed me, came over and just showed me love and gave me encouragement. I was at such a low point then that I can sincerely say that if it was not for his act of kindness toward me, I would not have gone on to achieve and experience such wonderful things. Because of that day, him and I have been brothers and friends for over 14 years now.

Cedrick has always been a leader, caring and hard worker. During AIT (school) he always went out of his way to help others. He was like a big brother and the ultimate mentor to many of us. While most of us wanted to relax on our free time, I recall him volunteering in the community and always wanting to simply help others achieve and when not doing that, he was focused on his wife and beautiful children.

He is acutely aware of his past transgressions and the damage that he has caused. Today he has grown into a different man than he was at the time of his conviction. I know that he is not afraid of the truth, and understands his story to be a testimony to help others make different decisions in their lives. I know for a fact that he is not a threat to society but rather an asset to his family and to his community. He has worked hard at his own rehabilitation and has been a model prisoner and leader despite his circumstances as evidenced by the many certifications, degrees and trades that he obtained while incarcerated.

He has a very supportive and loving family, his family needs to be restored by allowing him to work and provide financial support to his family, although he has always been actively engaged in his daughters daily lives. Your Honor he needs to be physically present to support and interact with his family. Cedrick has several job opportunities lined up upon his release, and due to his very acclaimed and high educational level and professionalism he has demonstrated at every level he has either taught, coached or mentored at. He has a secure home and very supportive family. Your Honor, I have seen and experienced that for people that care and truly want better for themselves and their families, anytime spent away in prison can and will change and mature those that desire it and seeking redemption. Cedrick has utilized that time to improve himself. The qualities that I have witnessed are of thoughtfulness, a generosity to share his teachings and insights, an excitement for life, a sense of humor and true genuine love for his family. Your Honor, I am in support of him, and I sincerely ask you Judge Manning, that Cedrick be considered for release, sentence reduction or even time-served and ask for your mercy in rendering your decision.

Sincerely,

Attn: HONORABLE JUDGE L. CASEY MANNING

Dear Judge Casey Manning,

I am Telisa S. Miles, I am 47 years old, and I am a legal Resident of Anderson, SC. I am writing in support of Cedrick Kavon Gaines absolute pardon and release out of prison. I have known Cedrick since 1998. I am honored to say we first met and became friends at Florida Agriculture & Mechanical University (FAMU); where he completed his double major in English Education and Public Administration all while pursuing his career in Army Reserve and after his first tour Operation Enduring Freedom which included missions in Iraq, Pakistan, Uzbekistan and Kuwait. After teaching, mentoring and coaching both middle and high school basketball, Cedrick decided to enlist into full Active Duty between 2004/2005. He and I got reacquainted in 2004 at dinner he sponsored through his Mentoring Organization, The Next Level, for at risk youth in Fort Lauderdale, FL.

In, 2001 Cedrick started Gaines Enrichment Center to help disadvantaged youth in conjunction with his already established program, The Next Level. This program however focused on at risk youth, gang members and students who were suspended from schools throughout the county to allow them to return to school and pursue their education. Cedrick's vision, determination and motivation allowed his program to flourish and even the level the playing field in education. Earning him several accolades, including Two-Time Teacher of the Year Awards and recognized by Congressmen and women alike.

While I understand it is not my place to argue with the decision of the courts. I have always believed in Cedrick, largely because of his abhorrence of violence and his upmost respect for all life and his unconditional devotion to help others, especially the disadvantage youth. It is both rare and unbelievable to have such an individual in our community who commands as much respect as Cedrick does for his professional and personal achievements, family values as well as the morals he has been instilled within him. Cedrick's passion to help at risk youth poured over when he moved to Fort Jackson in Columbia, SC in 2012 where he and some others continued the program called Next Level where he ventured out into some of Columbia's most dangerous neighborhoods and various community Recreation Centers to mentor teens and assisted families.

with groceries and job placement. His program aided with poverty stricken and low-income families up until his incarceration in December of 2014. While hospitalized at Eisenhower Medical Hospital where he received treatments for his severe Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) and anxiety from his tours overseas during the war to Pakistan and Afghanistan, and Iraq, Cedrick continued to maintain his program. As previously discovered, Cedrick has never been in any trouble. Never had a criminal record or even speeding ticket so it is hard to believe this is a part of his character.

Over the years Cedrick has continued to be positive and doing extraordinary things. We would be pleading for opportunity for him to return home to his loving and supportive family. He was and still is a committed and devoted father of three beautiful little ladies, the primary caregiver and provider for his mother, who is a diabetic and gravely ill father. He was and still is an extremely influential educator, mentor and father figure to not only the young men whose lives he helped turn around (including a slew of professional athletes in both the NBA and NFL) who had not it been for him, it is no telling where they would have ended up in life, but to their parents and their own families as well. We need more individuals like Mr. Cedrick Gaines who take education and mentorship seriously and have a desire and passion for it.

Thank you.

Greetings Honorable Judge Manning:

I am writing today in regards to Brother Cedrick Kavon Gaines. My name is Albert Sands. I am a member of the Lloyd E. Mitchell Masonic Lodge #152. I want the court to know that the "defendant" Cedrick as I know him and not only as a defendant in a criminal matter. Since I've known Cedrick, he has proven time and time again to be a caring, considerate, dependable, outgoing man, brother, son and father.

I am not familiar with the side of the man that stood before you seven years ago. We as a family understand that justice had to be served and punishment dispensed, but I ask that the Court temper its decision and that it be predicated not only on what Cedrick has been accused of but also on what he has done in his past to better his family, his country, his Lodge, the communities he's been involved with, positive aspects of what he will do in the future and more importantly the impact he continues to have on the lives of his daughters and the lives of others he's touched. Your Honor, Brother Gaines, despite the circumstances he faces right now has a great future ahead of him. His oldest daughters, know hats its like to have their father's love, nurturing spirit and guidance. He continues to provide that, albeit from a distance. His youngest, was only two months old at the time of his arrest. Although, she knows her father, painfully she cries and yearns for that love that only her sisters and his wife know and that I and others have witnessed. I believe it would be in the best interest of (most importantly) his family, friends and definitely our community if Cedrick was to be granted a reduced sentenced, time served or even an extended probation. Your Honor, I've known the man that stands before you for decades. I don't have the words to fully describe just how involved of a parent he was, is and continues to be not only for his children but so many people he's influenced over time.

I was both shocked and disappointed in his behavior as he always has been a good, law-abiding citizen. The incident that had him incarcerated is very unlike Brother Gaines' character as I have known it for years.

As a family Your Honor we constantly continue to pray, celebrate and support Brother Gaines. It goes without saying how proud of everything he has overcome both physically and emotionally. I personally am in awe of Brother Gaines' dedication, motivation and hard work in being a provider for his family as well as everything he has achieved. Your Honor, despite Brother Gaines situation, he has demonstrated he is one of the most focused and determined individuals I've ever had the pleasure of knowing. I can't imagine how difficult the conditions of prison, being away from the very loved ones he has put his life on the line for. He just keeps focusing while continuing to mentor, nurture and guide his daughters, and several young men and women whose lives he's impacted.

Judge Manning, we know he is incarcerated but even so we know how excited he is about the next chapter of his life. Honestly I do not think there is anything he can't achieve. I believe I speak for everyone that supports Brother Gaines when I say words can't really express how grateful and appreciative we are having him in our lives and for all the things he has endured and done for everyone. I am graciously asking at the mercy of this Court that when Brother Gaines is sentenced, our Masonic family prays that you take into account all of the good that he has accomplished in his life as well as all that he can accomplish if given a second chance to assist in raising his three little beautiful girls and being the much needed, respected and trusted mentor we value in the community. Albiet, his circumstances, he's tries to leave a legacy that is a great example for future generations to follow. Thank you in advance for your time and consideration.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dear Honorable Judge Casey Manning,

I am writing this letter to express my support for the Sentence Reduction and/or Sentence Reconsideration of Mr. Cedrick Gaines, inmate #368144. My name is Mr. Antoine Patterson. I met Cedrick almost 20 years ago and our friendship began when we visited some youth and began mentoring and tutoring disadvantaged youth in our community whenever he would come up for his annual training with the Army Reserves. Meeting Cedrick and his staff of Gaines Enrichment Center, I realized then he had a genuine purpose and he was just what our youth and their families needed. I was present when they passed out furniture, clothes, school supplies. To witness Cedrick signal-handily conduct mock job interviews and assist our community's youth get jobs was a testament to how much he strives to excel in making sure people succeed in life amidst their chances of what society has said. I watched him grow and mature in the loving, dedicated and committed father with his own daughters as well.

Cedrick has a very solid and grounded support system. He has demonstrated time and time again because of how dedicated, motivated, determined and understanding of how he is to our misguided youth who otherwise would have not been as successful without that proper father-like guidance to steer them away from the streets, the gangs, life of crime, prison or even death. For that I as well as their families are forever grateful to and for him despite his incarceration. Although no one is perfect, Cedrick has acknowledged his mistakes in life and is extremely remorseful for all that have been impacted. It is from my understanding Cedrick has completed all levels of education (even though he didn't need to) that prison has had to offer, picking up several vocational trades and has demonstrated great behavior in prison.

Since his incarceration he has become an even greater and critical assets. He calls on the weekends and still mentors the youth of our community and does not allow them to fall into the pitfalls they would probably have normally succumb to. Through his continued studies and participation teaching English and Spanish at Lee High School and working as the Head Law Library Clerk at the prison's Law Library he has a job lined up upon his release if he so chooses to accept the offer. He has a secure home, supportive family, several degrees and has obtained his certified carpenters license and even became a certified paralegal. As you can see your Honor he has used his incarcerated time to improve himself even more.

As previously mentioned, Cedrick has a host of friends, fraternity brothers, business associates, mentees and a very supportive and strong and loving family. His family needs to be restored. By allowing him to work and provide not only financial support to his family (to include his mother who is suffering from diabetes and gravely ill stepfather) but to continue and resume being an actively involved, engaged and physically present to interact with his three little girls would be a blessing I know would be a true gift to his family Your Honor. He was the anchor of his family and sole provider before his incarceration and despite the time missed Cedrick has continued to be the strong reliable role model for his little girls. They are his world and he is theirs Your Honor.

Your Honor I am humbly asking that you restore Cedrick back to his family and community of the lives he's touched, guided and influenced to successful careers, who otherwise would not have had a chance. Through all the condition of prison, everything he's lost, Cedrick has maintained his stance and has been a model prisoner and possess qualities even the Correction Officers and wardens can attest to. He's provided teachings and insights and an excitement for life in people in a dark place and he's even made a difference in the lives of those inside of Lee Correctional.

Sincerely,

Antoine Patterson
