

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Darrell L. Goss, Petitioner,

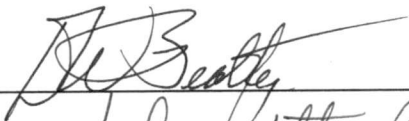

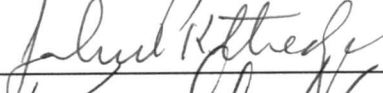

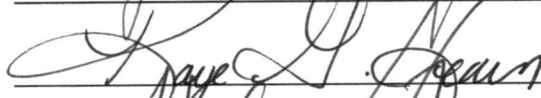

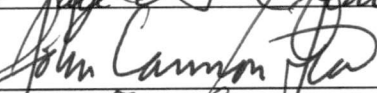

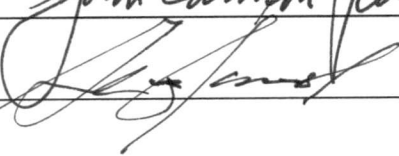

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2022-000924

ORDER

This matter is before the Court by way of a notice of appeal from an order of the circuit court denying Petitioner's application for post-conviction relief (PCR). Petitioner now asks this Court for permission to proceed pro se and to expedite appellate review in this matter, claiming a violation of the right to a speedy appeal based on an alleged eleven-year delay in a final adjudication of his case. We deny both motions. See State v. Roberts, 364 S.C. 583, 588, 614 S.E.2d 626, 629 (2005) (holding there is no absolute right to proceed pro se on appeal; however, this Court may, in its discretion, allow an appellant to proceed pro se in an appeal from a criminal conviction); Maner v. Maner, 278 S.C. 377, 380, 296 S.E.2d, 533, 536 (1982) (holding while due process guarantees a petitioner the right to a speedy appeal, delay caused by circumstances outside an appellate court's control does not violate the right to the speedy appeal).
