Re: The Kitchen Planners LLC vs. Samuel and Jane Friedman.
Case No.: Appellate Case No. 2017-001522

To Whom It May Concern:

Enclosed with this letter is Respondent's Motion for Extension of Time and Continuance of Oral Argument due to Respondent's counsel's unavailability due to an ongoing medical emergency, along with our check in the amount of $50 for the filing fee.

Respondent's counsel, Charles Krawczyk, Esq., has been on medical leave since August 29, 2022 due to contracting the West Nile Virus. He was hospitalized for a period of two weeks in response to severe symptoms, including meningitis and encephalitis, among others. There is no known cure for West Nile Virus; care for the illness largely consists of treating symptoms as they appear and extensive bed rest. Mr. Krawczyk was discharged from the hospital on September 11, 2022, however, his doctors have recommended a period of at-home recovery for at least three months before returning to work, or December, 2022. Attached with this Motion is a doctor's note from Frederic Smith, M.D. confirming this recommended recovery time for Mr. Krawczyk. (Exhibit A). Orders of Protection have been granted or will be granted for Mr. Krawczyk in Richland, Lexington, Aiken, Berkeley, Charleston, York and Greenville Counties through Mid-October and will likely be extended due to Mr. Krawczyk's condition. (Exhibit B). The deadlines and date for oral argument set forth in the Court's Order occur within Mr. Krawczyk's ordered recovery time. Based on his diagnosis and condition, he is medically and physically unable to participate in oral arguments or drafting briefs as scheduled.

Accordingly, Respondents' respectfully ask this Court extend the deadlines within
