Request For Extension Of Time

Appellant was out of town when the courts correction letter arrived, so I just got this letter today on the September 23, 2022 when I came home. Unfortunately it's after business hours today. I tried to inquire about this matter with the courts through calls and messages but no one was sure of anything and I never got a call back. I know the court can't give me legal advice but I ask a lot of questions because of the wording of some of the paper's and what the court actually want. It's only so I will get things right. Appellant is asking the court for a final extension of time to complete all of my errors sent to me from the court. I do apologize for my mistakes and is very thankful for the time to correct them but unfortunately I just got home and I do need more time to gather everything and put it in order as requested. I need to dig through boxes and find my original papers from everything requested. Please allow me this last extension to complete this request of my deficiencies needed to complete my appeal errors.
