

September 30, 2022

VIA Email Only

V. Claire Allen
Chief Deputy Clerk of Court
ctappfilings@sccourts.org

Re: Jacquelyn Gladden and Patricia Reed vs Cyndy Reed Stewart
Case No.: 2018-CP-38-00874

Honorable Clerk Allen:

I would like to apologize for any upset my letter may have caused. I was not attempting to accuse or circumvent Mr. Phillips in anyway. Rather, I was out for a week due to an unexpected death of a close family member, to come back faced with a deadline of today.

Due to the Volume of the ROA, I merely cross-referenced my previous citations with the Table of Contents to make the change in citations easier. On the Table of Contents, Plaintiff's Exhibits go from 4 to 6. In hindsight, my desire to accomplish the task quickly to meet my deadline made me a little short cited.

As for the Motion, I think there is some confusion. The Motion I am referencing is the Motion to Reconsider from 2017. As my previous letter indicates, it appears to have been inadvertently omitted from the Designation I submitted, and therefore, was omitted from the ROA. I was not blaming Mr. Phillips for that in any way either.

I will change my citations to Plaintiff's Exhibit 5, to the Order as indicated by Mr. Phillips. I will leave my citation to the Motion as is.

Again, I did not mean to cause upset or circumvent Mr. Phillips.

Sincerely,
Palmetto State Law Group, LLC

//s// Elizabeth D. Moore

Elizabeth D. Moore
Associate Attorney

/edm
Enclosure as stated.

Cc: Robert Phillips (via email)
Jacquelyn Gladden and Patricia Reed (via email)

RECEIVED
Oct 03 2022
SC Court of Appeals