Re: Appellate Case No. 2022-001332

Andrew Pampu, Appellant- Respondent

v.

Erin Wingo, David Wingo, and Colin J. Gahagan, Defendants, of whom Colin Gahagan is the Respondent-Appellant, and Erin Wingo and David Wingo are the Respondents.

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Pursuant to a letter issued by this Court on September 26, 2022, this matter (which was initiated as two separate appeals by Pampu and Gahagan respectively) was consolidated to a single cross-appeal in which Pampu is the Appellant-Respondent and Gahagan is the Respondent-Appellant. Further, since the Court's issuance of the September 26, 2022 letter, the Respondents Erin Wingo and David Wingo have served a separate notice of cross-appeal, which as of the time of this letter has yet to be entered into C-Track. Respondents Erin Wingo and David Wingo have also requested the transcripts relevant to their cross-appeal. This request has been entered into C-Track. Upon information and belief, once this Court docketes the Wingos' pending notice of cross-appeal, this Court will issue further notice and directive to the parties on how to caption and proceed with the instant matter. However, until such time, Pampu provides this letter out of caution and to comply with the timelines set out in Rule 207, SCACR.

As contemplated by Rule 207, SCACR, Pampu herein notifies the Court that he has received a copy of the transcript relevant to his appeal. However, as confirmed by telephone on October 3, 2022, pursuant to the Appellate Court Rules and the Court's practice for cross-appeals, the time for submitting briefs, shall not commence to run until the receipt of all transcripts requested by all parties. The parties will notify the Court once all transcripts have been received.

Please let me know if anything further is needed at this time.

Very truly yours,

THURMOND KIRCHNER & TIMBES, P.A.
