Mr. Houston—Good morning. I am in receipt of a copy of your email transmittal of early this morning to the Court of Appeals with an “Ex Parte Motion for Order For Immediate Stay.” I will respond further to the substantive claims of that Motion after I have had the opportunity to discuss it with Chet, but right now I need to know the answer to this question: Is that Motion your response to the proposed Order I sent you yesterday morning for your review and comment, and should we go ahead and submit same to Judge Dukes today so that the Court of Appeals will have the benefit of reviewing Judge Dukes’ Order, or do you intend to provide Chet and I with input and suggestions as to the form of the Order by noon tomorrow as we had asked.

Thank you. I’m standing by to hear from you.

Tom
