

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

George M. Adams, Petitioner,

v.

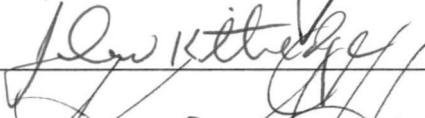

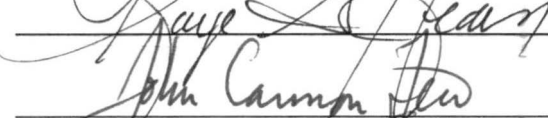

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2022-000970

ORDER

Petitioner has filed a "motion to reassign case to supreme court" requesting the Court "transfer[] jurisdiction" of this matter from the court of appeals to this Court. Because the court of appeals previously transferred the matter to this Court pursuant to Rule 204(a), SCACR, Petitioner's motion is denied.

Petitioner also requests the Court dismiss his 2015 notice of appeal without prejudice. Petitioner's request is denied. The Court dismissed Petitioner's 2015 notice of appeal, and the remittitur was properly sent on September 21, 2015. Accordingly, this Court no longer has jurisdiction over the matter. See Wise v. S.C. Dep't of Corr., 372 S.C. 173, 174, 642 S.E.2d 551, 551 (2007) ("When the remittitur has been properly sent, the appellate court no longer has jurisdiction over the matter and no motion can be heard thereafter.").
