Hello,

For some reason my email with the second volume of our filing is getting kicked back, and the error message is saying it may be an issue on your end and it may be due to the size of the document. I've broken down our second volume of the ROA into two more parts to try to push them through to you. I'm sorry if this causes any confusion. You can give me a call at 803-609-5283 if you have any questions about it! Here is the first half of volume two…
