

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Sherwood A. Adams, Appellant,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2013-001186

Lower Court No. 2012-CP-32-02794

ORDER

Appellant has served and filed a notice of appeal from a form order dated April 25, 2013. This order indicates that a formal order is to be prepared and submitted by respondent's counsel.

Since the form order is not the final order or judgment in this matter, the notice of appeal is hereby dismissed without prejudice to appellant's ability to timely serve and file a new notice of appeal from the final order or judgment in this matter. The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR).¹

C.J.
FOR THE COURT

Columbia, South Carolina
June 4, 2013

cc: Mr. Sherwood A. Adams, 264887
Office of the Attorney General

¹ The public case index for Lexington County appears to indicate that a formal order may have been filed on May 20, 2013. Of course, appellant's time to serve and file the notice of appeal will not begin to run until he receives written notice of entry of that order. Rule 203(b)(1), SCACR.