RE: Charles R. Norris, Respondent v. Joe Clemons, Appellant
Appellate Case No. 2021-001183

Dear Ms. S. P. McDonald

I am writing this letter to remind the appellate court that I am obeying the request that the respondent is asking for, so I am reminding the court of the fact that the things that is requested is all about the very things that I have been protesting and complaining about. The respondent has never had facts or proof to defend his statements or position, because he is depending on those fabricated and false transcripts and orders that he have concocted, which I have been complaining about throughout this case. I am asking and requesting that this court file a subpoena for the ASCII DISC unedited (rough copy) Disc, or the unedited audio recording of all those hearings and trial, because the time is running out on how long those discs will be kept

RECEIVED

Oct 10 2022

SC Court of Appeals

and the respondent knows they will be deleted, so can you please preserve those discs and audio recording until this case is finalized. Please note that the motion on February 16, 2021 was mistakenly submitted, so on February 18, 2021, I submitted an amended motion which accurately states my position.

Additionally, as you will see on page 336 of the Trial Transcript, the transcript has not been signed by the court reporter, and is therefore not certified and cannot be accepted.

Thank you,

Joe Clemons, Pro Se Litigant/Apologist for Appellant
