SC Court of Appeals

Appeal from Lee County

Honorable Ralph Ferrell Cothran, Jr., Judge

Appellate Case No. 2019-000969

The State,

Respondent,

v.

Kevin E. Herriott,

Appellant.

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO EXTEND TIME

The Appellant move before this Honorable Court asking for an order granting to extend the time for the Appellant to reply to the Respondent's final brief.

The Appellant ask the Court to consider the motion to extend time because inside of the Respondent's final brief is an unaccurate account of the facts that is before the court. The Respondent attempts to allow fraudulent matters to go uncorrected and as a matter of law the Appellant ask the Court to consider the Appellant's standing.

The Appellant directs the Court attention to the fact that on June 4, 2019, the Appellant receive the alleged true bill indictment. The Appellant has challenged the indictment prior to receiving the alleged true bill document. After trial the Appellant received the true bill document. The Appellant show the Court that it was impossible to challenge the indictments concerning the two differential dates because it was after disclose discovery when the indictments argument that took form despite not having the true bill document.

The Appellant did challenge the indictment on its face because the indictment were faulty and bad on its face. The Appellant challenged the source from which it proceeds. see Trial Transcript p.16Ln 18-25

WHEREFORE UPON, the Appellant ask the Court to grant Motion To Extend Time.

Done This 1 Day of October, 2022.
Respectfully Submitted,

/s/ K. E. Herriott
