Good Morning,

I am forwarding two emails that I received regarding the transcript from Court Reporter Krystal J. Smith. She indicated that she may file an extension. I would kindly ask Ms. Smith to please reply all to this email with any future correspondence. We understand her need for additional time and thank her for her work on the transcript.

The Parties, the Court Reporter, the Office of Court Administration, and the Clerk of the Court of Appeals are all copied on this correspondence.

Thank you,

- Jason

Good afternoon,

I do have this request and have not yet gotten that far down my list in order. It is about to get to 60 days and will have an extension filed. If you have an upcoming court date or some other deadline for which you need it, please advise.

Thank you,
Krystal J. Smith

I just looked at the request and see that it is very short. I may be able to sneak it in by next week while I am off work.

I am following up on the transcript request form that Appellants emailed and filed in this matter on July 22nd, which was confirmed to be received on July 25th, and which was assigned to Court Reporter Krystal J. Smith, according to the attached email from her dated August 6th.

Please kindly be advised that we have not received the transcript, or the return of the bottom portion of the form we submitted requesting an estimated fee and mailing address for payment, or any invoice, or a notice of an extension. We look forward to receiving the same.
